Science Fair Offers More Prize Awards

ANN ARBOR — The outlook for the Southeastern Michigan Science Fair this year is for more entries and more prizes than ever before in its eight-year history.

High school and junior high students from Monroe, Hillsdale, Lenawee, Livingston and Washtenaw counties are eligible to compete for the prizes, the Science Fair executive committee points out. Student entries from each of these has grown each year.

The Science Fair this year will be held March 25-27 in the Intramural Sports Building at The University of Michigan. Last year's total of 328 entries is expected to be exceeded.

The committee said that "much of the credit for the fair's success must go to the school systems of the area and their science education personnel."

The list of prizes has expanded as well. Students compete for scholarships, books, medals and cash prizes. As in the past, the top boy and girl senior division winners will be awarded expense-paid trips to compete in the International Science Fair, to be held in Dallas, Tex., May 11-14.

Science Church Studies Equality

The absolute equality of all men in the sight of God is the theme of this week's Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Man" to be read in all Christian Science churches, Sunday.

Tecumseh General Decorated

Special to The Herald

ORLEANS, France — "In the name of the President of the Republic of France," the Cross of the Legion of Honor, Grade of Officer, was presented to Major General Webster Anderson in a ceremony here Feb. 21.

In making the presentation to the former commanding general of the U.S. Army Communications Zone, Europe, Monsieur Pierre Dupuch, Prefect of the Department of the Loiret and the Central Region, said,

"Our government not only honors an Allied general officer, but also pays tribute to the spirit in which he exercised his command and expresses its gratitude to a great friend of France and an active worker for cooperation between our two countries."

He went on to describe at great length the contributions which Gen. Anderson had made to Franco-American relations during his 29 months as commander of the Communications Zone which provides logistical, communications and administrative support to all U.S. military forces in Europe.

GEN. ANDERSON, who made the trip to France from his retirement home in Asheville, North Carolina, expressed his thanks in French for "this glorious decoration, the Legion of Honor, by which the government of France honors greatly my country and myself."

Wearing the Army blue dress uniform, the 59 year old retired general who served on the planning staff for the World War II Service of Supply, a fore-runner of the present Communications Zone, entered the prefecture between lines of snappily uniformed Gendarmes forming a guard of honor.

Inside the prefecture, a large assembly of French and American civil and military dignitaries awaited his arrival.

These included Michel Dambeza, Chief of the French government's Central Mission for Liaison with the Allies; Major General Robert C. Kyser, General Anderson's successor at the head of the U.S. Army Communications Zone, Europe; commanders of U.S. and French military units in the area; representatives of the U.S. Embassy in Paris; prefectural and municipal officials, and delegations from the Chamber of Commerce, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club and other Orleans civic groups.

A reception and wine of honor followed the presentation, after which General and Mrs. Anderson were guests of honor at a formal luncheon at the Prefecture.

GEN. ANDERSON is a Tecumseh native, having graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1926 and West Point in 1930. He is the son of Mrs. R. K. Anderson, who until two years ago resided at 317 N. Union St., and the late Mr. Anderson.

Mrs. Anderson now resides in Dennison, Texas, where another son, John, lives. She recently visited the Webster Andersons in Asheville.

Detains Ants

"We've found that these containers successfully keep the ants out of such things as cookies, rolls or doughnuts," she said, "something that even tin won't do in Africa."

Mrs. Neff, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Comfort, spoke to members of the Tecumseh Friends Missionary Society, Tuesday, Feb. 15. She chose as her topic, "My Life in the Fulani Camp."

Mrs. Neff reported that she and her minister-husband are the only missionaries working with the Fulani people, a tribe of some 3,000,000 people in Nigeria.

The Neffs requested permission from their sponsoring board, the Oriental Missionary Society, to live and preach among this tribe.

FINALLY, AFTER a lot of hints — and just plain hard work — the Rev. Neff persuaded some Fulani to help him build a grass hut in their village. "We did make one change from the native huts," Mrs. Neff said, "We put in a cement floor." They felt this was necessary to adequately care for their son, Philip, who was then just a toddler.

When completed, the hut had a grass roof and sides, and was only large enough for three cots and a table. "And, it leaked," Mrs. Neff said. "We had to ask the natives to rebuild much of it before it could withstand the driving rains which come to that part of Africa."

Later a tent was pitched for sleeping, so that the hut could be used as a place to talk to the natives.

Proving that a sense of humor is one of the necessary ingredients for a missionary, Mrs. Neff told of the shrew which got into their hut.

"This animal is in the rodent family," she explained, "and has a strong odor. I thought I just couldn't stand it until I learned that the shrew helped keep the snakes out.

Better the odor than the snakes," I decided, "and eventually I got used to it."

MRS. NEFF related one of her encounters with a snake. "It got caught under my front door," she said, "and my husband was gone. I went out the back door, around to the front and killed the snake's head.

Then I went back inside and clubbed the tail. It was a slow death for the snake, but I'd never have had enough nerve to do it any other way."

It was impossible for the Neffs to eat with the native people because of the extreme lack of cleanliness. This accounts, in part, for the high incidence of disease and death.

"During part of the year the water is filthy," she said. "We boil all that we use." She told of her test for the freshness of eggs.

"I submerge them in water," said Mrs. Neff, "and if they lie flat in the pan I know they're fresh. If one end tips up at all, I question how fresh they are."

She added that in the Fulani camp she couldn't even see the eggs in the pan because the water was so muddy

In the Fulani village were 11 huts. Among them were a leper with his fingers and toes gone and a Mohammadan priest. The Neffs' informant, Sabi, also lived there and helped them learn the language.

AFTER WORKING with the Fulani people for two-and-a-half years, the Neffs can report only one convert to the Christian faith. They have hopes that when they return—after a furlough of one year—there will be other tangible results of the time spent among these people.

While in Tecumseh, the Neffs are living in the Melvin Muhn residence at 205 S. VanBuren St. And, since arriving, December 16, the family has increased by one. Besides three-year-old Philip, a daughter, Marcia Joy, born Christmas Day, has been adopted by this missionary family.

Mrs. Corl Gives Church History

MACON — Mrs. Ronald Corl opened the Woman's Society of Christian Service, last Tuesday evening, by giving some of the history of the Evangelical United Bretheran Church, and compared some of the similarities with the Methodist history.

Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore had the worship. Mrs. Harold Ruhl was the pianist. The president opened the business meeting by having everyone read the purpose of the Woman's Society.

Invitations were read from Tecumseh, for the Annual White Breakfast to be served Thursday, March 31, and from Blissfield Methodist Church to hear Rev. Carly Judy the Itinerating Missionary, Thursday evening, March 3.

Thank you notes were received from Mrs. Mabel Burleson in Florida, Myrna Bugbee, Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, The Tecumseh Credit Union, and the family of Mrs. Agnes Osborne.

Mrs. Hawkins closed with the Lord's Prayer given in unison. Mrs. Edward Clark and committee served Washington dessert, crackers and coffee.

News from the Tecumseh Library

New books at your Public Library:

MANCHILD IN THE PROMISED LAND by Claude Brown. This author writes what is surely one of the most extraordinary autobiographies of our times. He is now in his late twenties. At nine he was a member of the Harlem Buccaneers, a notorious bopping gang, and of the Forty Thieves, an elite stealing division of the Buccaneers. He was sent to detention schools, but in spite of this, finally was graduated from Harvard University and next year will attend law school. This is the story of his growing up, and of life for the Negro in Harlem.

IN A FEW HANDS by the late Estes Kefauver. The prices we are charged, the products we are offered, the jobs we have, the taxes we pay, the kind of community in which we live, even the safety with which we can use certain products such as drugs, all are affected by the power held in a few hands; the power of the monopolies in America. During the last years of his life, the Senator became increasingly convinced that the public must be informed of the fundamental changes that are taking place in our economy.

HOBBY COLLECTIONS A - Z by Roslyn Salny. Turning a haphazard collection into an organized hobby is a great pleasure, and one that is within everyone's scope.

A DICTIONARY OF AMERICAN ANTIQUES by Carl Dreppperd. Here is an extensive and eminently useful reference book for the collector of antiques and relics of America's settlers, whether colonial, pioneer, or latter-day.

SECRETARY'S COMPLETE MODEL LETTER HANDBOOK by Clari Eddings. Here's the quick, easy way to write all your business letters, without making embarrassing mistakes in spelling or grammar. These pre-written letters cover the entire range of business correspondence.

A CHILD DIVIDED by Henry Cecil. Adoption and blackmail are the themes of this tense, though often funny novel which will fascinate its readers and start a lot of discussions.

THE STALKING MOON by Theodore Olsen A suspenseful tale that pits two men against each other in a strange and vicious duel; only death could determine the victor.

THE STRODE VENTURER by Hammond-Innes. This saga is largely set in the Maldives, those little-known coral atolls that stretch south from Ceylon five hundred miles into the Indian Ocean. On these volcanic islands, a seafaring people prepare for an exodus to a new island, while the London shipping men are thinking only of money and profit.

DREAM OF FAIR WOMAN by Charlotte Armstrong. In a hushed, white room in a Los Angeles hospital, guarded by a nearly spellbound nurse, lies a breathtaking lovely, blond girl, peacefully asleep in a profound trance. Who is the "fair woman" whose mysterious beauty sets every man who sees her to daydreaming?

United Church Plans to Explain Repair Program

CLINTON — Members and friends of the United Church of Christ who have questions about the repair and remodeling program will have an opportunity to have them answered and to be taken on a tour of the building for an explanation of the contemplated changes.

An Open House is arranged for Sunday, March 6, from 2 to 5 p.m. when visiting teams will be on hand to answer questions.

Three-year pledges will be received for the $20,000 repair project.

Visiting teams will call on only those families who are unable to attend the Open House. The visits are to be made Sunday evening, Monday and Tuesday, the closing day of the crusade.

The repair work will begin as soon as the goal is reached. The congregation voted approval for the following work at a meeting last fall:

The church and the parsonage are to be covered with aluminum siding.

Changes in the interior include moving the organ to a side position, rearranged seating in the choir sections, and a new altar placed to the rear of the chancel.

New carpeting will be placed on the aisles and chancel floor.

The interior is to be painted and the floors refinished.

A recent gift to the church will provide for new lighting.

Memorial gifts will be used for specific items of the new appointments in the sanctuary.

The Herald Is Available in Clinton

CLINTON — The Herald is available in Clinton at Steffens Drug Store only. Buy a copy from the outside rack on Thursday while the drug store is closed.

Phone Mrs. Harold Calhoun, 456-4512, Friday, Saturday or Sunday, if you would like a subscription to The Herald. Rates are $4 a year in Lenawee County, $5 elsewhere. Special $1 a year for servicemen, anywhere.

Extension Club Studies Foods

Mrs. Elmer Wilt was the hostess. The study topic, "Leftover Foods," included planned leftovers, frozen foods and tips for leftovers.

Mrs. Wilt and Mrs. Wilbur Boyce had prepared and frozen several foods which were heated and served to members to sample.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Quigley.

ARE YOU SICK or SAVED?

God is the great Physician of Body and Soul!

JESUS offers you health and salvation!

This Lenten season, that you may learn more about health and faith, Emmanuel Lutheran Church offers you a 12-week Bible-centered study on your body and spirit.

These Lenten services will be conducted every WEDNESDAY NIGHT AT 7:30.

Dr. Albert Reissmer, M.D., says, "unless a healing of the spirit takes place, the cure of the body and mind is not apt to be complete or permanent."

The first six weeks of our study are on healing the soul; and the second six weeks are on healing the body. Do not miss these first six weeks because the healing of the soul is basic for the healing of the body.

JESUS always said, "Thy faith hath made thee whole" (read the Gospel of Luke 8:41 to 56).

Dr. Claude Forkner, M. D., Cornell University says, "We don't know what it is that brings about recovery of a patient. I am sure that often it is faith."

Following the Lenten services, this year, prayer and healing services will follow at 8:15. Relatives and friends of the ill are invited to attend this prayer meeting. The sick are invited for the laying on of hands with prayer and anointing, according to God's prescription, in Saint James:

"Let the elders of the church pray over the sick, anointing him with oil in the name of the LORD: and the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the LORD shall raise him up" (5:14-15). Dr. Charles Mayo, M. D., says, "Christian healing has passed beyond the stage of experiment and its value cannot be questioned."

No obligation! No steps to climb — makes it convenient for the sick! Plenty of off-the-street parking.

Visits to the sick and free literature on written request.

There were 103 leaders honored at the banquet.

Norman Ries and Greg Hardy of Tipton were elected from the Northeast District to represent this area on the 4-H Council.

The featured speaker of the evening was Phil Jackson of the Toledo Blade. Mr. Jackson, a cartoonist, used his talents to illustrate his talk on the drawing board. Following the program a buffet luncheon was served by the Sand Creek Senior Class to the honored leaders and their guests.

94 Attend Father-Son Celebration

CLINTON — The annual father and son banquet in the Methodist Church was attended by 94 last Monday.

Charles Knight II and Charles Knight III were the youngest father and the youngest son present.

Dr. Louis Meeks of Ann Arbor was the oldest son with a father James Meeks, present. Carl Jedele was recognized as the oldest present and Stanley Gibbard, the father with the most sons, four, present.

The program featured Mae Hawks, country-music singer and comedienne, Kenneth Eichhorn of Sand Lake with a humorous "Elixer Man" routine and the choral group of high school students directed by Mrs. Donald Geiger.

Plan Second Annual Golf Presentation

DETROIT — The second annual golf show will be held March 4-6 at the Light Guard Armory, 4400 East 8 Mile Rd.

Paul Hahn, world famous trick shot artist will perform, on four occasions during the show.

Daily fashion shows, putting green, local pros and golf equipment will fill the three-day presentation.

Admission is set at $1.50 for adults and 50 cents for children 7-12.

Woman's Club Plans Spring Thrift Shop

CLINTON — A Spring Thrift Shop was planned by the Woman's Club ways and means committee which met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ted Kiebler.

Attending were Mrs. Daniel Reilly, Mrs. William Driscoll, Mrs. Charles Wilson and Mrs. Roy Bowers.

The dates selected for the annual Thrift Shop will be March 31, April 1 and 2. It will be held in Bohannon's store on W. Michigan Ave. Members will be asked to donate good used clothing and household items. A baked goods sale will be featured on April 2.

"Women in Art" will be the program subject for the March 9 meeting of the Woman's Club which will be held in the Community Center. Mrs. Ted Kiebler is the program leader.

The guest speaker will be Dorothy Lamming, Associate Professor of Art at Eastern Michigan University.

Band Boosters Ways, Means to Uniforms

CLINTON — The Band Boosters considered several ways to raise funds to purchase the needed majorette uniforms at the meeting last Monday.

Suggestions made were for another chicken barbecue in the summer, more card parties and a calendar project.

A gift of $25 to the Band Boosters from Frank Gilman, was acknowledged.

The recent card party netted $34, it was reported.

Cars Collide Head-on on 12

CLINTON — A head-on collision occurred at midnight, Friday, on US-12 when Ruth Marie Higgins, 21, Onsted, lost control of her car and skidded across the highway striking a car driven by Gary Couture, 18, of rural Manchester.

Mrs. Higgins was treated at Herrick Memorial Hospital for a severe cut on the head. Clinton State Police issued her a summons for driving left of center of the highway.

Classmates Help Tammy Celebrate 8

BRITTON — Tammy Gibbs was the guest of honor at a birthday party Tuesday afternoon, given for her on her eighth birthday by her mother, Mrs. William Gibbs.

Ten classmates were on hand for the festivities. The girls played games, and Tammy opened many lovely gifts. A Hansel and Gretel cake was featured in the refreshments. Each little guest received a hanky as a gift.

100 Cub Scouts Attend Banquet

BRITTON — One hundred Cub Scouts, parents and Boy Scout officials were present for the annual Blue and Gold banquet held Monday evening in the school study hall.

The Rev. R. A. Mitchinson gave the invocation, and the group was seated for a planned cooperative fried chicken dinner. The boys of each den had made decorations for their tables.

E. G. Frohnapfel, Lenape District commissioner from Blissfield, presented the charter to Daniel Pratt, Britton committeeman. Mr. Pratt in turn presented the charter to the Rev. Mitchinson, representing the Methodist Church, which is the sponsoring institution.

Cubmaster Harley Slick gave Den Mother registration cards to the four den mothers; Mrs. Gerald Thomas, Mrs. Eldon Reeck, Mrs. Wilbur Lorenz and Mrs. Carl Tiede. The den mothers presented cards to boys in their dens.

The program ended with the assembly saying the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag, and the benediction by Rev. Mitchinson.

Announcement was made of a Cub Scout Committee meeting, for den mothers and committeemen, at the Marvin Rayburn home Monday evening, March 7, at 7:30 p.m.

Holloway Club Mothers Fete Their Husbands

BRITTON — The ladies of the Holloway Mothers Club entertained their husbands and guests at their annual supper and card party Saturday night.

Thirty-six were on hand for the swiss steak supper, served at the Britton Congregational Christian Church.

The group then adjourned to the home of Chet and Wilma Godzina for an evening of progressive euchre.

Britton Band Boosters Meet on March 8

BRITTON — Special notice is being made of the Band Boosters meeting to be held at the school Tuesday, March 8 at 7:30 p.m.

Plans are being finalized for a Community Birthday Calendar. This project will aid in the continuing effort to raise money for new band uniforms.

All parents of band members are urged to attend.

Hosts Party for Tories

BRITTON — Dave Fairbanks was the host at a party for the Tory Junior Varsity basketball team and Coach Al Vadasy after the last game of the season Friday night against Adrian Catholic Central.

The boys ate sandwiches, chips, pickles and pop at Dave's house, and then enjoyed card tricks and games. Coach Vadasy was presented with a gift from the team.

HERALD PHOTO BY DICK CARVER

NOW OPEN — Postmaster Ronald C. Cheever plans a May dedication for this new Britton Post Office. Excepting outside completion of landscape, paving and lettering, the building is finished and functional now. It is a total postal service structure with ample light and space facilities.

BRITTON BRIEFS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Papworth, a son, Todd Duane. Todd weighed in at 6 lbs. and 9 oz. when he arrived Thursday evening at Herrick Memorial Hospital. Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and Mr. and Mrs. M. Papworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Spaulding of Mio visited friends in the Britton area Saturday and Sunday.

The G-8 Card Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Paul Rowlands. Progressive euchre was played with prizes awarded to Mrs. Lee Taylor for high score and traveling lone hand, to Mrs. Joseph Hall for most lone hands, and to Mrs. Eldon Reeck for low score.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bortel, David and Kirk of Ithaca, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bortel. Other guests Sunday for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Pat McGuire, Mike and Matt, Roger Bortel of East Lansing and Anne Robbins of Mason, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bortel, Melinda and Jackie.

New Post Office Opens

BRITTON — Postmaster Ronald Cheever is busy but happy in the new Britton Post Office.

The facilities were officially moved Monday, Feb. 28. However Mr. Cheever and members of his staff spent the greater part of the weekend moving equipment.

The building furnishes Britton with their first postal building designed specifically for the purpose. Safety lock doors, security windows and good lighting enhance the spacious building.

The Britton Post Office serves two rural routes of about 1980 patrons, over 200 local patrons and 127 miles of rural travel daily.

Assigned as rural carriers are William Bearinger and George Hawkins. Mrs. Dorothy Lorenz is a recent addition to the staff at the position of postal clerk, replacing Edna Miller, retired after 40 years of service.

Mrs. Ronald Cheever is the sub clerk.

Except for grounds and driveway work and some postal equipment the new structure is complete and Mr. Cheever hopes to dedicate sometime during May.

Tory School Notes

Reported by

◄ SHERRY SQUIRES & SUE EDDINGER ►

Six students and Gary Lovett attended the Viet Nam Forum at Dawson Auditorium on the Adrian College campus Feb. 25, 1966. They were present at the morning discussion and afternoon debate on the moral question of the Viet Nam war.

The purpose of attending the forum was to furnish an opportunity to the students to gain knowledge and hear varied opinions on the Vietnam situation. They, in turn, will report to their classes on the forum discussions.

The first six-weeks marking period of the second semester ends Friday, March 4, 1966. Exams have been held in the various classes this week and report cards will be distributed Wednesday, March 9, 1966.

George Johnson Attends Legion Annual Confab

George Johnson of Dexter, represented the Second Zone including Districts Two, Three and Four at the American Legion's Sixth Annual Conference in Washington, D. C., this past week.

State Commander George S. Frederick and State Adjutant Thomas A. Kouri led the delegation of Michigan officials.

Among the important items on the program was the final drafting of a resolution opening membership in The American Legion to Vietnam veterans.

A series of conferences on legislation, security, economics, foreign relations, finance and rehabilitation also took place.

Girl Scouts Will Display in Window

The Girl Scouts, in observance of Girl Scout Week, March 6-12, will present a display in the window of the Rosacrans building now occupied by the Tecumseh Office Supply.

Mrs. John R. Graham, 406 W. Logan, asks that leaders have their materials for display at her home by Friday, March 4.

The engagement of Sherry Lee Murdock to Larry Smith is announced by her parents, Mrs. Donald Williams, 507 Center Drive and Sherry M. Murdock, of Britton. Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith of Clinton. Sherry attended Tecumseh High School and her fiance was graduated from Adrian High School. He is employed by the Ford Motor Co. at the Rawsonville plant. The couple are planning an April 2 wedding.

The betrothal and May 14 wedding plans of Cherryl Jean Brown of Ann Arbor and George Thomas Smith have been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Justin E. Brown, Clinton. Miss Brown was graduated from Manchester High School and Ann Arbor State Beauty College. She is employed by Groomwell Beauty Salon, Ann Arbor. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Smith of Brooklyn. He was graduated, from Tecumseh High School and is employed by the Ford Motor Co. at Rawsonville.

Second Grade News

March wind doth blow is the story our bulletin board tells. So button up your coats and tie your hats on, girls.

Carolyn Duckworth is now eight years old. She surprised us with lollypops Friday afternoon.

We have a new boy in our room, Arnold Underwood. Now we have 25. Don't forget the PTA program this week.

Fourth Grade News

In Science we have been studying Air. We have done some interesting experiments that have proven to us that air is real. Air fills space, it has weight, it has pressure.

Air used in different ways can do many things to make our work easier.

We saw slides on Africa and compared the different ways in which the African people live and work. Climate and altitude account for a great difference in the way these people live.

In Math we are adding mixed numbers and fractions whose sum is greater than one.

Fifth Grade News

In Language we are having a club which we call the Fifth Grade Community Club. Patty Murphy is president, John Geborowski is vice-president, Alan Sellers is secretary.

The purpose of the club is to help clean our playground and to learn safety habits.

In Science Studies we have been studying about the states of Alaska and Hawaii.

In our Science we have been doing experiments on heat, electricity and magnetism.

Tipton Barn Total Loss

TIPTON — A large barn on the farm at Sand Lake Highway and M-50, the Children's Summer Camp property burned Thursday afternoon. The barn and contents were a total loss.

The fire was discovered by Merle Auten and the Sand Lake Fire Department was called and asked for mutual aid from Irish Hills and Onsted Fire Departments.

Long and Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

About 26,500 parking tickets later, Marjorie Chase has called it a career.

Retiring as the city's meter maid after four and one-half years of duty, Miss Chase selected her 25th birthday anniversary, Wednesday, March 9, to hang up her badge.

She's passing along her ticket book to Mrs. Marie Parish, a 23-year-old widow with one child, of 203 W. Russell Rd.

Mrs. Parish began to trudge the four-mile beat with Miss Chase Monday and looked just a trifle weary by Tuesday evening at quitting time as the photographer happened along.

BUT SHE'S going to forsake the outdoor life, having accepted a position as receptionist in the office of Dr. Larry Burch.

"It has been wonderful," Marjorie summed up her career as a meter maid.

"The merchants have been real good."

Marj admitted that sometimes the jibes of the unthinking could get to her, but most of the time she ignored the vocal needles of violators.

Her biggest chuckles came when an over-parked motorist, finding Miss Chase slipping a little red envelope under his windshield wiper, would chirp, "I've just been in the store to get change."

Only trouble is they usually come with arm-loads of bundles, Marj adds.

Hundreds of people have used the same line — both fellows and gals.

ONE FUNNY incident Miss Chase recalled was the lady, who didn't know Marjorie was nearby, slipped a penny into the dime slot on a meter.

When nothing happened, the woman cuffed the meter. Still no results. Next came a hard shake, without the red flag dropping. Finally there was a rain of kicks at the pole.

"Did you give her a ticket?"

Marjorie grinned, "No, after all that suffering, I didn't think she should have any more."

Exit a hard-working, but kind-hearted meter maid.

Plans Nearly Done on 18x24 Addition for Scout Cabin

Plans for the 18x24 foot addition to the Scout Cabin will be completed within about two weeks.

Scout leaders met with a contractor Saturday afternoon to culminate progress on the 400 foot addition which will be placed on the south side of the present building, next to the fireplace wall.

It is expected that the L-shaped building will be so arranged that doors may close off the new part to provide two meeting rooms or the doors may be opened for larger group activities.

A new roof for the entire building has been incorporated into the plans.

Leaders expect that the building will be started this spring and ready for use in the fall.

Sponsor Social

TIPTON — The Women's Fellowship of the Tipton Community Church is sponsoring a box social on Saturday, March 12, at 7:30. The public is invited. A social hour will follow.

MARJORIE CHASE MAKES ONE LAST PINCH

Orrie Gilbert Resigns Post

He served in the post the past 11 years.

Replacing Mr. Gilbert will be William R. Groover of Willard, Ohio, where he had been administrator of the community hospital.

Mr. Gilbert has not announced his future plans, but reports he will be remaining in Tecumseh. During his tour of duty, Herrick Hospital went from a 62-bed to 102-bed institution and added a Nursing Home.

MR. GROOVER, 44, is married and has four children. He holds a master's degree in business administration with concentration in hospital administration from Xavier University in Cincinnati.

His bachelor's degree was earned at Ohio State University.

An Air Force veteran of World War II, he now has 22 years of reserve service and holds the rank of major.

He entered hospital work in 1954 as director of purchases at Riverside Methodist Hospital in Columbus, a 430-bed institution. While there he served as chairman of the Central District Purchasing Section of the Ohio Hospital Association.

In 1963, he became administrator of the 65-bed Willard Municipal Hospital. During his three years there, the institution for the first time won recognition from the state's Joint Commission of Accreditations.

Medicare

Citizens Can Sign Up

A town meeting to discuss Medicare is slated for Thursday, March 11 at the Community Center.

Sponsored as a public service by the Kiwanis Club of Tecumseh, the meeting is open to all, especially senior citizens.

Deadline to sign up for Medicare is March 31.

A representative from the Jackson Social Security office will be on hand to explain the program and also sign up eligible people.

When the March 31 deadline passes, the next opportunity to participate will be October 1967.

Bishop Reed Dr. Is Newest Name for City Street

A new street name for Tecumseh residents to learn was approved by Council Monday night when city officials agreed to change Algonquin St. to Bishop Reed Dr.

The new name honors Michigan's former Methodist church official, a graduate of Tecumseh High School who now resides in Onsted.

Area Getting $650,000 Bowling Center

A $650,000 bowling center, including restaurant, is being planned on Occidental Rd., across from Tecumseh's Fisher Body Plant.

Contractor Charles Sanch of Britton met with the Raisin Township Board Monday night with the proposal and also asked for a beer and wine license.

James Mitchell, Raisin Township supervisor, said the plans were accepted by the board, which voted and approved granting the beer and wine license.

The new bowling-restaurant center is being sponsored by the Brunswick Corporation and an investor from Monroe.

Mr. Mitchell said he expected construction to start this spring, providing the contractor acquired a building permit and complied with the township's building code.

The property has been purchased from the Carl Gruber farm with the Osburn Real Estate Agency handling the transaction.

Worker Wonders

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Future Dim For Some, Others Get New Jobs

For 20 years, Russ punched a time clock at that hour, starting another eight-hour trick at Bruce Foundry.

But the local industry isn't operating anymore.

More than 60 men lost jobs when the foundry folded two weeks ago.

Russ has applied for work at several other local industries, but wasn't hired. Some of his other former co-workers at Bruce were luckier, catching on at Peerless Gear, Tecumseh Products and G&J Wood Products.

RUSS WAS shipping clerk, making $2.32 an hour. He said Tuesday that he has pay for 64 hours coming.

Others on the payroll are also looking for back wages. No checks were issued during the final two weeks of operation.

In addition, some workers hold other uncashable checks for previous pay periods.

Robert MacLean, 401 W. Brown St., International Service Representative for the UAW-AFL-CIO, said that the union estimates back wages total more than $15,000.

Mr. Creger is a bachelor, living with his brother, William, who works at the Products, and their mother, Mrs. Lottie Creger, on Blood Rd.

Mrs. Creger said she receives $92 monthly in Social Security.

How does Russ feel about the future?

"If he opened up, I'd still go back."

ATTORNEY John Zeigler, appointed as receiver of the foundry by the United States District Court, said the bankruptcy action is at a standstill for the present.

Mr. Bruce must file a statement of affairs and schedules of assets and liabilities before a hearing will be scheduled.

Mayor Harold Easton points out that the city did not close up the foundry, an impression some residents have.

True, city officials applied the padlock, but only after all the other troubles brewed — such as utility turn-offs due to non-payment of bill.

In fact, the city actually delayed action for three days in hopes the firm could get its debts cleared up and meet back taxes of $1,600.

IN 1890, TIFFANY Iron Works built what is now the foundry to make machinery for manufacturing brick, according to Clara Waldron, city historian.

The venture was never successful and it was finally sold to Heesen Iron Co., in 1899.

The Carson Foundry and Manufacturing Co. later took over, selling to William Bruce in June, 1941.

RUSS CREGER HAS TIME TO THINK, WONDER ABOUT HIS FUTURE

Teacher Negotiations Hush-Hush

Closed meetings are being held between school officials and the Tecumseh Education Association over salaries and policies governing instructors here.

Supt. James McDowell declined to comment about the meetings, but hoped that negotiations would be completed by the March 21 board meeting.

The final agreements must be ratified by the teachers in the system and approved by the School Board.

It has been brought out in past School Board meetings that any increase in salaries would necessitate more millage, a probability for an issue on the June ballot.

Supt. McDowell even refused to discuss whether the teachers were seeking salary increases, or any phase of the negotiations. He said that both parties had agreed not to discuss negotiations outside the meetings.

Lass Asks Embarassing Question

City Council and Mayor Harold Easton were somewhat taken back Monday night after the mayor welcomed visitors to the meeting and inquired if anyone had any questions of Council.

"What's being done about the streets in Tecumseh?"

This inquiry, from a young lass in the high school government class, caused a moment's silence, until His Honor, chuckling, asked, "Which one?"

Occidental Rd. was the answer — one picked from many as Tecumseh has its share of spring busters.

Lynn Noble told the young lady that Occidental Rd. was in midst of a three-year program, including a sewer installation and eventually the street would be paved with asphalt.

Tornado Time

Warning — 2-Minute Fire Whistle Blast

Tornado weather is approaching, warns Fire Chief Wallace MacGeorge.

Residents are reminded that the signal of an actual twister being sighted in the area is:

► A two-minute, continuous blast on the fire whistle.

When such a warning sounds, citizens should immediately head for basements or other safe spots.

Take along a transistor radio and tune into Adrian's WABJ or WLEN-FM, the chief advises.

The radio stations will give continuous weather reports and also the all-clear when the danger passes.

"Do not call the fire hall or police station for information," Mr. MacGeorge warns. These lines must be kept open for speedy dispatch of men and equipment in case tragedy strikes.

The chief recommends that families prepare themselves for the possibility of tornado warnings by placing needed items in the area where they'll go if a warning is sounded.

Candles, blankets, food and flashlights are good things to have handy if power should fail.

To new residents of the area, it was just one year ago on Palm Sunday that a devastating twister lashed the area, inflicting hundreds of thousands of dollars in damages.

UCC Church Tops Goal In 3 Days

CLINTON — The bells were ringing at the United Church of Christ Tuesday night, to signal the successful completion of the campaign to raise pledges for a repair and remodeling program.

The 28 visitors were told they had received a total of $26,318 in three-year pledges and cash, more than 125% of the announced goal. There are still some visitors reports to be turned in and some junior groups to complete their reports.

The board of trustees met Wednesday night and began plans to get the work under way immediately.

New Patrolman Michael Norton Hired by Police

Michael E. Norton, 22, Paul's Trailer Court, has been employed by the Tecumseh Police Department as a new patrolman.

He was hired last week, leaving the department still one short in the force.

Norton had been a security guard for Meyers Airport, and was previously employed by two detective agencies.

How's This — 11 Channels?

Tecumseh TV viewers may, in the near future, have the opportunity of selecting from 11 channels, plus a weather station channel and sports 50.

This proposal was presented to Council Monday night by Clair Bristol, representative of General Electronics, a subsidiary of General Telephone.

He told city officials the company wanted either a franchise or license to install TV cables in the city and nearby areas.

If such cables are installed, residents may hook up for a fee of $15 and be assessed at the rate of about $5 a month.

Mr. Bristol said the company would set up an office here and demonstrate exactly what the cable would bring to TV viewers.

It would be optional as to whether residents preferred their own TV towers or roof antennas, or hook onto the cable.

Council delayed taking any action, but requested attorney James C. Beardsley to draw up an ordinance for granting a cable franchise and controlling its usage.

Willis Miller Will Address Friends Church

The Rev. Willis Miller of Damascus, O., will conduct special meetings at the Tecumseh Friends Church beginning Wednesday, March 10, and continuing each evening at 7:30 through March 20.

He will also speak at the regular Sunday morning services at 10 a.m.

The Rev. Mr. Miller is in demand as an evangelist and Bible teacher.

The Rev. Herbert Burch, pastor of the Ypsilanti Friends Church will have charge of the music during this special series of meetings.

The public is cordially invited.

Girl Scouts climax their week this year Saturday with a birthday party celebrating the day that Juliette Low brought the movement to the United States. They have the nicest birthday gift arranged for a little Girl Scout friend of theirs in Jackson.

Earlese Love will again be the recipient of a subscription to The American Girl magazine in braille. By donating a few pennies each, the nearly 200 Girl Scouts in the Tecumseh Neighborhood give this gift costing nearly five times the amount that they pay for their own subscriptions.

Last year Earlese printed a note of thanks, thrilling her friends in the green uniforms here.

Scouts are also recognizing their week with a current display in the window of the Rosacrans building including hand craft, collections and books for each level of Girl Scouting, from Brownies up.

Lenten Lesson

By REV. FRANK W. HAWTHORNE
Rector St. Peter's Episcopal Church

"Is any one among you in trouble? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praises to God."

The Apostle James speaks urgent words on prayer for all sorts and conditions of men. "Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the Church and let them pray over him, anounting him with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer of faith will save the sick man . . ."

In sickness and in health we must pray to God, and we must also ask others to pray for us, in our behalf. "Tremendous power is made available through a good man's earnest prayer" (James 5:17).

Prayer begins with God. God is the first term in religion, not man. When we see God first and look on him, our part doesn't seem so difficult. The great St. Thomas Aquinas answers objections to praying by saying, simply, that some men do not believe that human affairs are ruled by Divine Providence.

These men say it is useless to pray and to worship God at all. These objections sound so contemporary, so 20th Century. St. Thomas points out men have held them for thousands of years.

Which prayer? How? When? What words?

"There is only one true prayer to God," said Father Andrew, "and that is our Lord's intercession; our prayer is only true prayer to the degree in which it is one with His. The more simple and silent your prayer is, the more it will be taken into our Lord's prevailing intercession."

By praying, man surrenders his mind and heart to God who is the source of his life. We must pray even in the face of difficulties when we do not have the heart to pray, and in the time of joy when we are inclined to forget to pray to God. Jesus taught his disciples to persist in prayer. "And he told them . . . that they ought always to pray and not lose heart." (St. Luke 18:1)

Almighty and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all those who are penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

Society Leader Given Surprise

BRITTON — Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland, president of the Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Christian Church, was pleasantly surprised at the Fellowship meeting last Wednesday when her daughter, Mrs. Elwood Tucker, brought a decorated birthday cake to the noon luncheon, and the assembled ladies sang "Happy Birthday." The Golden Rule Circle acted as hosts for the day and presented the program.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Howard Rhora from Matthew 28. Mrs. Ed Rodgers gave a reading, and Mrs. Hoagland gave a tribute to a deceased member, Mrs. Jennie Theeke.

April 2 was the date set for the Father and Son Banquet. A committee was also appointed to find a date and place for the Mother and Daughter Banquet, composed of Mrs. William Raeburn, Mrs. Lawrence Ash and Mrs. Roger Gillespie.

Mrs. Raeburn and the Rev. G. Hannevik were selected to purchase a new duplicating machine for the church.

It was decided to collect T.V. stamps in a box in the kitchen, for the purpose of obtaining an electric can opener and knife sharpener for the church kitchen.

Gal Teams Win

The Girls Athletic Association basketball teams completed their season Thursday with two wins over Napoleon.

The J.V.'s had to go into overtime to pull out a 28-25 win.

Jane Beasley was high scorer with 10 points and Paula Moeller chipped in with seven as did Peggy Martinus.

Peggy, a freshman who should be a good varsity prospect next year, was high scorer of the year with 51 points.

She was followed by Jane Beasley with 46 and Paula Moeller with 42. Linda Oberlin was the leading guard for the years.

The girls had a perfect 6-0 season.

THE VARSITY, although closely guarded all night, had an easier time and won 57-28. Emily Manwaring's 22 points were high for the night.

This was the 19th straight win for the Varsity. They won 31 and lost three in the past five years. Tecumseh has scored 1,485 points against 602 for their opponents.

This year's team had the most ability of any team in five years and will be a difficult team to replace in the years to come, said coach, Mrs. Dick Wells.

Mary Ann Allen was the top scorer this year with 123 points and Emily Manwaring was second with 111.

No Comparison, Speaker Says

Susan, a girl from Argentina who is studying phsychology at the University of Michigan on a Fullbright scholarship, was the speaker March 7 at the Monday Club meeting in the Youth House of the First Baptist Church.

The charming Argentinean was introduced by Mrs. Robert Bonner, program leader for International Affairs.

Susan explained that there is no comparison between her homeland and the United States because the two are different. She went on to say that cattle are raised and agriculture is carried on in the Pampas, central part of the country.

Americans have established what little industry there is in the country.

The Roman Catholic Church is extremely influential in politics there. A democratic form of government is improving because army officers are being removed from office.

Susan elaborated, saying that at present the president is a medical doctor and a businessman and she thinks that the people are more fairly represented than before.

The speaker remarked, with a giggle, that revolutions are an every-day occurence in her country and they don't create the problem that Americans imagine.

There is definite class distinction and the lower classes work in the homes. Temperatures are like Florida weather all year long.

Susan spoke informally and answered many questions concerning education explaining the two-hour siesta period at noon, that children attend classes only half a day and they have seven years of elementary and five years of secondary education.

There is a standardization of education throughout the country and both parochial and public school are supported by the government to some extent.

Most students study English and they must have one foreign language before graduation.

She said that life is hard there, school is hard and the people are still trying to achieve what has already been accomplished in the U.S.

She said that electricty is only available in the cities and also mentioned that in Argentina, food is so much more highly seasoned than in America.

The U of M student said that there are some slum areas, like Harlem, in Argentina but she thinks the people cleaner and more ambitious, however, there is an increasing lower class in comparison to the medium and upper classes.

Cakes and tea were served by a committee headed by Mrs. George Green following the program.

Attend Reading Group Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelty, Mrs. Charles Trickey, Mrs. John Becker, Mrs. Percy Cadmus and Mrs. Chester Baker attended the Michigan Reading Association meeting in Lansing, Thursday and Friday.

The keynote speaker was Dr. Deborah Wolf of Queens College, Flushing, New York, who spoke on "The Role of Reading in Human Relations."

Square Dance

Glen LeFever of Toledo will call for western style square dancing Saturday, March 12 at 8 p.m. at the Tecumseh Community Center. Glen will be back March 19 to call another special "Rusty Hinge" dance.

Raisin Center Extension Club is Patriotic

A patriotic quotation was the answer to roll call by members of the Raisin Center Extension Club attending the meeting last Monday in the home of Mrs. Leonard Harsh.

The members assisted by members from a Blissfield Club and the Northeast Tecumseh Extension Club will entertain residents of Maple Lane Manor at a birthday party March 23.

Mrs. Carl Kottke presented the lesson on "Leftover Foods."

Refreshments in keeping with the patriotic theme were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Alex Payne will be the hostess for the March 28 meeting.

Violates Law

Ellen DeJonghe, 21, of 6331 Ridge Hwy., Britton, was charged with violating the basic speed law, Monday evening, when she lost control of her car on loose gravel, swerved to avoid a mailbox and overturned on Mills-Macon Rd., north of Pennington Rd. She was not injured.

HERE'S A NEW IDEA for your HOME and AUTO INSURANCE

the SUBURBANITE

✓ CASH SAVINGS
✓ BETTER SERVICE
✓ GREATER CONVENIENCE

Ask your Farm Bureau Agent about the Suburbanite. It's a completely different kind of protection. The plan is designed for urban and suburban families by Community Service Insurance.

Your home, car(s), travel trailer, cottage or cabin and boat — can be protected through one plan, one company, and one agent. There is no costly "overlapping" of coverages; no "gaps" in your protection. And, you can choose the amounts of coverage you need — from "all risk" plans to money-saving deductibles.

"The Suburbanite" will mean cash savings, greater convenience and better service for you and your family. There are no additional membership or policy fees.

SWINGING SUCCESS — A jammed Dawson Auditorium, with 1,200 play goers, was the setting for Saturday's performances of "Guys and Dolls" by the Tecumseh Players. It was their ninth offering of the musical comedy and one of the best. Adrian folks raved over the show, which brought an estimated $1,000 to Tau Delta Sorority for the Lenawee County Family Counseling Center and a like amount to the Players. Folks in the cast were delighted with the magnificent Dawson facilities and someday hope there'll be a theatre something like it in Tecumseh. Profits from their shows go into a building fund for this purpose.

AREA OBITUARIES

● ARTHUR L. McQUIGAN

Services were held Saturday at Proctor Funeral Home, Clinton, for Arthur McQuigan, 50, former Clinton resident who died at 10:50 p.m. March 2 at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

He had been a patient for five days after two months of failing health.

Mr. McQuigan was a foreman with the Clinton Machine Co. for 17 years, both at Clinton and Maquoketa, Ia.

For the last three years he had been employed at the Rawsonville Ford Plant.

He was born at Elmira, N. Y., June 24, 1915, and was graduated from Elmira High School in 1933.

Mr. McQuigan moved to Brooklyn, Mich., in 1945, after five years with the Air Force in World War II. He married Louise Smith of Jasper Jan. 23, 1947, and they lived in Clinton eight years, moving to Manitou Beach last summer.

Mr. McQuigan was a member of the Morenci Methodist Church, the Masonic Lodge at Maquoketa and other lodge groups at Davenport, Ia.

In addition to his wife, Louise, he is survived by a son, Robert L. McQuigan, a senior at Clinton High School.

Masonic services were held Friday evening at the Funeral Home.

● EDNA M. MILLER

Services were held Wednesday at the Niblack Home For Funerals for Edna M. Miller, retired postal clerk in Britton, who died Sunday morning at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

She was taken ill Thursday and had only been hospitalized for 18 hours.

Miss Miller lived at 258 Osborne St. in Britton. She had cared for her mother, Mrs. Effie Miller, for years. Mrs. Miller died in January.

Born June 27, 1900, in Palmyra Township, she had lived in Britton 50 years.

She was a member of the York Baptist Church.

Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Roy Kehrl of Northville, and Mrs. Albert Adrian of Blissfield, and one brother, Ervin Miller of Wayne.

The Rev. Edgar Sweetland and the Rev. Duane McNeil officiated and burial was in the Raisin Cemetery, Holloway.

● EDWARD B. LEIGHTON

Services will be held Friday at 1 p.m. at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Edward Leighton, known as Bud, 49, of 205 E. Pottawatamie St., who died Tuesday evening while at work at the Tecumseh Products Co.

He apparently suffered a heart attack.

Born Aug. 6, 1916, in Tecumseh, he was the son of Edward and Edith Toppenger Leighton. A veteran of World War II, Mr. Leighton was employed at the Tecumseh Products for the last 20 years.

He was a member of the Eagles Lodge and the Underwood-Orr American Legion Post.

He is survived by his parents, three daughters, Susan, a student at Ferris State College, and Peggy and Betty, of Tecumseh.

One brother, John, of Port Clinton, O., six sisters, Mrs. Carl Iffland, nee Margaret Leighton, of Blissfield, Mrs. Phillip Futscher, nee Louise Leighton, of Chelsea, Mrs. Dwight Hodges, nee Helen Leighton, 312 S. Union St., Mrs. Herman Henry, nee Maxine Leighton, 12910 Ford Hwy., Mrs. Wayne Townsend, nee Ruth Leighton, of Marshall, and Mrs. Larry Kendall, nee June Leighton, of Allen Park.

The Rev. Donald Porteous will officiate and burial will be in Brookside Cemetery.

● GROVER DARTT

Services were held in Adrian Monday for Grover Dartt, 84, who died Saturday at Herrick Memorial Hospital where he had been a patient for five days.

Mr. Dartt had been in a nursing home in Tecumseh for seven months. He is survived by one son, Norris, of rural Brooklyn, one grandchild and three great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Blair Bashore officiated and burial was in the Deerfield Cemetery.

● JAMES ORANGE WALLACE

Services will be held Friday at 10 a.m. at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church for J. Orange Wallace, 77, who died Tuesday at 1:16 p.m. at Maple Lane Manor, where he had been a resident since Jan. 18. He had been in ill health for one year.

Mr. Wallace lived at 8950 Carson Hwy. He was a long-time resident of this area and a farmer for many years.

Born June 28, 1888, in Washtenaw County, he was the son of James and Mary O'Leary Wallace.

He married Ellena Leyden in Clinton Jan. 19, 1916.

Mr. Wallace was a life member of the Tipton Grange, a member of St. Elizabeth Church and the Holy Name Society.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, James O. Wallace, III, 9236 Carson Hwy., and Leo B. Wallace of 8950 Carson Hwy.

A brother, Peter Wallace, preceded him in death less than a week ago.

Other survivors are one brother, John, and a sister, Miss Bertha Wallace, both of Manchester and four grandchildren.

The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Proctor Funeral Home, Tecumseh.

Interment will be in St. Dominic's Cemetery, Clinton.

Ice Crew Performing at Arena

Eleven hockey players from Tecumseh will perform on Toledo Arena ice Saturday evening for the second time this winter.

The young men are chipping in $2.30 each for the privilege of playing on the Arena ice.

They'll take over at 10:30 p.m., following a game between the Toledo Blades and the Dayton Gems. The action continues until 12:30 p.m.

Wants Support on Tuition Bills

To The Editors:

On behalf of all the college students of Michigan, we, the Administration, the Faculty, and the Students of Madonna College solicit your kind and immediate support of Bill 780 and Bill 51 now in the Michigan Legislature.

Bill 780 is the Tuition Grant Bill; Bill 51 provides state matching money to the Michigan Higher Education Facilities Commission for the construction of academic facilities on private college campuses.

The enclosed press release will inform you in what way the two bills can enhance higher education in Michigan and help reduce the taxpayer's burden. The voice of your newspaper is a very powerful tool in dispelling ignorance and in spreading of truth to the people you serve.

May we assure you that the assistance you will give the college-bound students of Michigan, their parents, and educators will have far reaching influences. We trust that our press release will effect a favorable reaction, possibly in the form of an editorial in your fine newspaper. We would appreciate getting a copy of that paper for our files.

We take this opportunity to extend a cordial invitation to you, Mr. Editor, to visit our new and functional campus. It would be our pleasure to host you at Madonna College.

SWINGING SUCCESS — A jammed Dawson Auditorium, with 1,200 play goers, was the setting for Saturday's performances of "Guys and Dolls" by the Tecumseh Players. It was their ninth offering of the musical comedy and one of the best. Adrian folks raved over the show, which brought an estimated $1,000 to Tau Delta Sorority for the Lenawee County Family Counseling Center and a like amount to the Players. Folks in the cast were delighted with the magnificent Dawson facilities and someday hope there'll be a theatre something like it in Tecumseh. Profits from their shows go into a building fund for this purpose.

'Kind of a Mess'

TO THE EDITORS:

As a person with a wide open mind, with a civic spirit becoming second to none—as a man of letters and prospective author—and as a person in search of a permanent home—as an exponent of the best in American and State traditions—and as a willing servant to all, entitled to equality of opportunity in the field of eminent domain—it occurs to me that I can't be too well read in an area of my life, however widely distributed it may be, but which also includes Tecumseh.

I was in Tecumseh this afternoon, on a routine business call which may result in my taking up a part time residence in your community this spring, as well as throughout the summer season. Under the circumstances it would seem to my advantage to subscribe to the Tecumseh Herald. So, if you will kindly advise me of subscription costs I'll let you know where I'll want the deliveries made at my earliest convenience. It's just possible I'll want a paper delivered to my postal delivery box here in Ann Arbor, since I'll be retaining my Ann Arbor address for an indeterminate period in the future.

I was disappointed in Tecumseh today; for it appeared from my reading yesterday that Tecumseh had been discriminated against by the Michigan public, if not by the National Administration, for a reason that only involved the erring judgment of a famous Indian chief, who, if disappointed in American treatment, should have remained neutral in the War of 1812.

If such is the case, I'm of the opinion that such conduct smacks more of childish behavior than its counterpart — adult intelligence. After all, we're living, or are supposed to be living in the 20th century — not in the year One. At any rate, that's the way I've been taught.

I used to like Tecumseh. I've spent many happy hours in the old town square—as it happened, on Sunday jaunts. I still like the approach on the Milan side; and you have three modern buildings, of which you may well be proud—the light and power plant—the telephone exchange—and your magnificent new library. I have recently donated a score of my books to the U. of M. library. Perhaps, later on, I can add stock to your shelves.

The rest of the town is kind of a mess. Maybe there'll come a time when I can help you to improve it. Let's consider it a suggestion, at least.

Yours very sincerely,
Harvey Richardson

Saline Man Is Not Happy with This One

TO THE EDITORS:

Just a few lines to let the people of this fine city know what Michigan State University is going to do with your tax dollars.

It seem that your money is burning a hole in their pockets, so they came up with a way of getting rid of that excess cash. To do this, one of the board members proposed that MSU should have their printing done only in a shop that could furnish the "union" label.

They didn't bother to consult the administration or to gather any facts about the subject, they just went ahead and passed the proposal.

They did this without knowing, or taking time to find out, that of the 450 printing shops in Michigan, only about 120 are unionized. The board passed this proposal in December 1965 and yet in January 1966 they did an about face and awarded a contract to an open shop because that shop underbid the second lowest bid by $1,200.

Now why do you suppose they did that? Maybe they wanted to save themselves the embarrassment of explaining that additional $1,200 they would have to pay a union shop! Or do they figure, by awarding that shop a contract, they will have effectively silenced their objections.

Doesn't it seem a little odd, to you, that they disqualified 75% of the printing shops, in favor of this 25%? When in the past they have gotten the same quality of work at a much lower cost.

I was pleased to read that one of the board members has a sense of responsibility anyway. If you happen to have a copy of The Sunday Free Press, (Feb. 13) you might want to read what he has to say. (Section B, Page 2, lower lefthand corner).

If you are one of those who care what happens to your tax dollars, concerning this institution, why not drop them a line and let them know how you stand on this issue. After all, it is your money!

Larry W. Wimple
1178 Willis Rd.
Saline, Mich.

On Feb. 14, following telephone and written consultation among Board members, a revised policy was established as follows:

Printing for MSU will be awarded to suppliers on the basis of competitive prices and quality of work. Suppliers must demonstrate that their quotations for work are based on prevailing wages and working conditions in their community. These qualifications can be demonstrated by filing with the university purchasing department a certificate of compliance or authorization to affix the union label.

Detroit Mayor Will Be Speaker at Albion Meeting

ADRIAN — Jerome P. Cavanagh, Mayor of Detroit, will be the featured speaker at the 50th Anniversary of the Adrian Chamber of Commerce Annual Dinner.

Lee Stephens, General Chairman of the Adrian C of C announced that he is particularly pleased with Cavanagh's acceptance because the Mayor is so closely connected with U. S. and world affairs.

He is presently a possible candidate for the U. S. Senate and will travel to Rome to present Detroit's cause for selection as the site of the 1972 Summer Olympics.

His trip to Rome actually commences one week after his appearance in Adrian. Joining Mayor Cavanagh on his visit to Adrian, will be Al Leggat — Director, Labor Relations Bureau of the City of Detroit, and former resident of Adrian.

The Annual Dinner is scheduled for April 14, 1966, and will be held in Ritchie Hall on the Adrian College Campus. Dinner will start at 7:30 p.m., with a social hour commencing at 6:30.

Tickets are priced at $4.50, and are now available at the Chamber office, 216 N. Main St., with other locations announced shortly.

The public is cordially invited.

Music Club Prepares for Festival

Mrs. Burton Wright reports members of the Halfnotes Music Club are busily preparing their solos as the Music Festival draws near.

The March meeting of the club was held Friday at the Missionary Baptist Church with eight members and a visitor present.

The highlight of the meeting was hearing the solos played back to them from a tape recorder furnished by Mrs. Leland Fogelsong.

Those performing on the program were Debbie Fogelsong, Paula and Sam Brantingham and Ricky Bunch, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Brantingham at the piano.

Feature Sale

A white elephant sale will be a feature of the meeting of the Lenawee County Democratic Women's Club, Wednesday evening at 8 p.m., at the home of Jeannette Groth on Crockett Highwy, Blissfield.

Congressman Vivian Says

The first major piece of legislation to be passed by the Congress and signed into law by the President this year was the "Cold War G.I. Bill". This law provides educational, home loan, and other benefits for veterans who have served in the armed forces since January, 1955, the date on which Korean War benefits expired.

► EDUCATION: A permanent program of educational assistance for individuals serving in the Armed Forces, discharged after January 31, 1955. College-level and below college-level training in trade, vocational, and technical schools is provided. Part-time training is permitted. Eligibility accrues at the rate of 1 month of training for 1 month of service, not to exceed 36 months. (Persons serving on active duty for training do not accrue eligibility.)

► GUARANTEED AND DIRECT HOME LOANS — Benefits of both the guaranteed and the direct home loans programs are extended to veterans discharged after January 31, 1955. The guarantee of a loan by a private lender in the amount of $7,500 is extended to this group and, in areas established as direct loan areas where guaranteed financing has not generally been available, a maximum direct loan of $17,500 is authorized.

► NON-SERVICE-CONNECTED MEDICAL CARE — At the present time, veterans serving after January 31, 1955, are eligible for medical care in Veterans' Administration facilities only for service-connected disabilities on the same basis as war veterans. Eligibility for treatment of non-service-connected disabilities is based on availability of a bed and the signing of a statement of inability to pay for treatment elsewhere, as is required of veterans of earlier conflicts.

► PREFERENCE IN FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT — Preference in employment in federal service is extended to the group of veterans discharged after January 31, 1955, on the same basis as is currently applicable to war veterans. This benefit is not extended to those on active duty for training.

Other benefits include Civil Relief, Job Counseling and Placement and Burial benefits as authorized by the earlier Veterans Administration bill.

Missionaries Will Address Family Night

The Rev. and Mrs. Leonard Crain, missionaries to Mandalay, Burma, will be the speakers at the family night meeting March 18, held at the First Baptist Church following a cooperative supper in the Youth House at 6 p.m.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

Boysville's Fighting Knights opened tournament play against Whiteford last Tuesday at the Class C District Tournament games held in the Ida gym. Boysville turned the tide against the Bobcats, 66-40.

Boysville opened with a strong first quarter, outpointing Whiteford 18-9. An equal second quarter followed with Boysville limiting Whiteford to four points, thus taking a 32-13 half-time edge.

Boysville slackened its pace somewhat in the second half, and rebounding was below average. They outpointed Whiteford 37-27 in the final half to cement a 66-40 victory.

Clinton threatened to break the game wide open in the first quarter. Boysville exchanged the lead with Clinton through the second half, but wound up one short on a last-second Clinton basket.

Boysville enjoyed its strongest quarter during the third period. The Knights erased Clinton's lead, and led 43-37 with five minutes remaining in the quarter. Boysville held its biggest lead of 55-45 with one minute remaining in the third quarter.

Boysville scored first in the overtime, but ball handling doomed the Knights. A Clinton free throw cemented their one point victory.

Boysville's Drum and Bugle Corps has scheduled its first parade of the season. Brother Philip Armstrong C.S.C., announces that the Corps will march in the St. Patrick's Day Parade held on Woodward Ave. in Detroit, March 13.

The University of Detroit Choir, under the direction of Don Large, entertained Boysville's student body, Sunday, March 6. The sixty-voice, mixed choir sang an assortment of hits popular on Broadway during the past several years.

Macon Joy Circle Gives Toward Fund

MACON — Mrs. Charles Bigelow assisted Mrs. Dean Moore last Wednesday evening, entertaining the Joy Circle. Mrs. Moore conducted the meeting, opening with the reading of Psalm 126. It was reported that 150 Hymnals have been ordered.

The group voted to give $10 of their Sunshine Fund to the Memorial Fund, to be used towards the purchasing of Bibles for the church.

The circle has vanilla and dish cloths for sale. The April meeting will be on April 13, a week later than the usual date. Mrs. Edward Clark and Mrs. Gerald Miller will be the hosts.

Mrs. Richard Chatters gave a program on Peter Marshall and the book "Mr. Jones, Meet The Master," which was written by his wife Catherine Marshall.

Strawberry Torte, tea and mints were served.

Announce Gloria Dei Activities

"Why Do We Go To Calvary?" is the general theme of the Lenten evening services in the Gloria Dei Ev. Lutheran Church, held every Wednesday at 7 p.m.

The Chancel and the Luther League Choirs participate in the services.

Susan Ruth, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gentz, and Scott David, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Maddux were baptized during the worship services the last two Sundays.

Mrs. William MacBeth, Mrs. Robert Leathers and Mrs. Arthur Bowser are the leaders of the Girls' Scout group attending the church service last Sunday.

Mrs. Florine Pearson will be guest speaker at the LCW meeting Monday, March 14, at 7:30 p.m. Her subject is "Chalk Art." Devotions will be given by Mrs. Melvin Wegner, refreshments by Mrs. Don Creger, Mrs. Marvin Rumpf and Mrs. Robert Warner.

Honor Soldiers

Pvt. Ward Cornell of Fort Knox, Ky., and Seaman Apprentice Norman Grigg of Quonset Point, R. I., were both home over the weekend with their families. The Morris Cornells entertained Sunday with a family gathering for the boys, especially honoring Seaman Grigg on his 21st birthday anniversary.

LARRY E. MERX

Merx Honored on Dean's List

Larry E. Merx, a freshman at Adrian College, and the son of Mrs. Irene Merx of 716 S. Occidental has received the high honor of being named on the Dean's List this past semester.

This honor is reserved for those students who have achieved a superior scholastic average during the semester.

Larry, a graduate of Tecumseh High School, is majoring in English.

'Substance'

The true nature of "Substance" as defined first by Biblical prophets and later by Christ Jesus will be the Lesson-Sermon subject in all Christian Science services this Sunday.

MARDA GENE DUNCAN'S

Thru My Window

CAMERA CHIT-CHAT

Have you ever been caught in the middle of or eavesdropped on a conversation between camera nuts? Somehow they just never seem to run out of talking material.

They go on and on about equipment, pictures they have taken and where good shots are available.

Well, this is somewhat the predicament I find myself in — last week we talked a little about cameras and taking pictures of birds, but really, I hardly scratched the surface.

Although we have described our equipment before, and gone into it in great detail, perhaps a very brief description of how we take pictures would be in order now.

Our 35mm rig is the brain child of three geniuses, Walt, Ed and Guy. And to this threesome I will be forever grateful, because by involving me in photography, they opened doors of great pleasure and unending fascination.

With an upward thrust of my wrist against this switch, the shutter is opened and the flash triggered. A downward nudge advances the film and cocks the camera.

Once the camera is set and everything turned on, I am on my own for 20 exposures and what a thrill to be so independent.

WE USUALLY use a 100mm telephoto lens and the camera is usually aimed at the feeding station, which is about 3½ feet from the window. This lens focused at such a short distance does not give much depth of field within which to work, but it does blow the birds up nice and big.

To eliminate the necessity of changing camera settings and to accommodate the ever-changing light conditions we use an electronic flash. This is a great gadget, much cheaper than flash bulbs over a long haul, and fortunately, the birds and squirrels don't seem to mind it a bit.

Oh, there was one glaring exception to that last statement. The first picture I ever took with this outfit was of a squirrel.

He was on the feeder, eating peacefully and paying no attention when suddenly, I hit the switch. As the shutter clicked open, the flash went off and so did the squirrel!

Doing a perfect back flip, he somersaulted off the feeder and started running before he even hit the ground. From the way he tore across the yard, streaked up the tree and started flying along the tree roads, he may still be running. This performance happened just once however. We rarely have any reaction anymore.

BIRD WATCHING and photography just seem to go hand in hand we have found. Whether the action on the feeder is extra interesting, such as a parent bluejay feeding its big mouth youngster, or unusually pretty as is the case when Papa Cardinal perches on the snow-covered tray.

Whatever the scene, the first reaction is enjoyment and the next is to take the picture.

Only on film can the excitement of the evening grosbeaks' visit be captured and how about the fun of having the pert little tufted titmice picking up and carrying off unshelled peanuts which were almost bigger than they were.

So it is that as we warned you in the beginning, there is simply no end to camera chit-chat.

Amend Builder Licensing Act

New amendments have been added to Public Acts of 1953 for licensing and regulation of residential builders, maintenance and alteration contractors.

A meeting will be held here at the City Council Chambers Sunday at 2:30 p.m. sponsored by the Credit Bureau of Tecumseh and Clinton and Abner's Service.

It is expected that Representative Rollo Conlin will be present.

Act No. 383, Act 208, effective April 1, 1966 makes it unlawful for any person to engage in the business of or to act in the capacity of a residential builder, maintenance or alteration contractor or salesman in the state without having a license, unless exempted by the "Grandfather's Clause."

This clause, briefly stated, says that any individual who has been in the contracting business for a period of five years or more, may, upon submission of proof of this fact by a qualified local building official, be licensed without taking a written examination, provided he meets all the other requirements.

Several new provisions have been added as a basis for revocation, suspension, or denial of a license such as failure to deliver a complete contract, insolvency or bankruptcy, failure of a salesman to immediately pay over any money received in any transaction governed by this Act, conviction of a felony in connection with operation as a builder, contractor or salesman, etc.

The bond requirement is $10,000 for each builder's license and $2,000 for each trade enumerated on a maintenance and alterations contractor's license up to a maximum of $10,000.

Some of the trades effected include house wrecking, roofing and siding, dry wall, formica installation, masonry work, plastering, plumbing and a host of other crafts.

Faith Circle Meet to Tell About Spring

MACON — The Faith Circle met with Mrs. Harold Ruhl, Thursday afternoon. Roll call was answered by telling something about spring. It was announced that the Mary-Martha Circle would be taking a trip to the Chelsea Methodist home, on Wednesday, March 23.

They invited any of the ladies who wish to go, to meet at the church at one o'clock. They would like sewing material, cotton quilt pieces and sheet blankets.

Mrs. Charles Gorton, Mrs. Clare Camburn and Mrs. Clayton Bigelow are on the Circle Nominating Committee, and are to report to the April meeting. It was decided to send Easter cards to the adopted friends and Mrs. Wilma Briggs at Chelsea Methodist home.

Mrs. Melvin Travis will see that Mrs. Blanche Wolfinger, at the Chelsea Home is remembered for her birthday. Mrs. Russell Collins assisted in serving cheese cake, mints, nuts and beverage. Mrs. Guy Zelluff, Mrs. Carl Hawkins and Mrs. Dean Moore were guests. Mrs. Harriet Gleason of Tipton was welcomed back. Because of illness, she had been absent for several meetings. Get well cards were signed by the group for Mrs. Ray Gilmore and Mrs. Lora Hasted.

Mrs. Wade Scudder gave the worship and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore and Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg presented a skit "I Didn't Get a Thing Out of the Program." A discussion followed.

Marilyn Curtis Will Give Report

Marilyn Curtis, Tecumseh High School senior, will give a report on activities of the local DAR at the meeting of the Abi-Evans Chapter Friday at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Charles Mensing is hostess and the Good Citizenship girls will also be guests.

Miss Curtis first gave her report as a project for her government class.

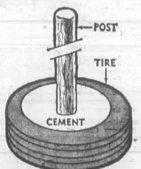
DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING®

DAILY MARKET REPORTS
TELETY

WEAKER HOG SLAUGHTER PRICES are expected by the end of March, possibly around $26. April could see a further weakening. Seasonal decline in slaughter into summer will be smaller than normal this year. Consequently, late spring-summer price gains will also be modest. Fewer hogs than expected have been slaughtered judging by farrowings several months ago. Sow slaughter is down sharply, indicating a holdback for breeding purposes.

SHELTER AND CONCRETE PAVING increased steer gains in Iowa tests. Shelter increased average daily gain .48 pound per yearling steer in winter and .18 pound in summer. Cost of gains with shelter was about $3.50 less per cwt. in winter and 98c less in summer. Concrete paving saved about 70c per cwt. gained and required only one-third as much labor and machine time for maintenance compared to dirt lots.

MOVABLE POSTS are handy around the farmstead where permanent fences are undesirable. Pour concrete into some old tires in which you've placed a sturdy post. They are handy around feedlot bunks where cattle must be kept in separate groups. Others use them to make temporary holding pens and alleyways around farm buildings. Since the posts can be rolled into place it takes but a few minutes to set up a fence or take one down.



GRAIN HEATING may be a serious problem as daily temperatures begin to rise if you still have some in storage. If grain is a little high in moisture and no aeration equipment is used, warm weather will cause it to heat. Fasten a thermometer on a long pole and make deep checks often.

IDA — The Clinton Redskins went into overtime play last Friday night in the Ida gym and came out with a 78-77 margin over the Fighting Knights of Boysville.

The win gave Clinton a bye Thursday night and set them for a contest with the winner of the Leslie-Brooklyn game, Thursday. Play is scheduled for 7 p.m. at the Jackson Parkside gymnasium, Friday.

Seven seconds remained on the clock as Clinton's Hugh Miller, a senior guard, went to the line with a two-shot foul situation.

His first shot was good, but nullified, as a Redskin stepped into the key early. Clinton called a time-out and came back with a successful second foul shot that gave them sufficient padding, 78-75.

The Knights romped down court for an easy basket to make the final score 78-77.

Moe Jacobs took top game honors and scored the pointer that sent this contest into overtime, but was unable to score more than once in the extra period.

Clinton found themselves on the short end of a 55-45 score before the fourth period and with just six minutes to go they broke into a full court press defense.

Clinton forced the Knights into 15 turnovers in the final period while committing only eight.

Neither team broke 50 percent on the floor, but Clinton converted 34 for 81 as Boysville shot 31 for 81. Clinton's 42 per cent thus compares to Boysville's 38 per cent.

Clinton must look forward to two more wins in order to take the District title as a surprise winning Jackson St. Mary team looms ahead and, of course, they must meet the Leslie-Brooklyn game winner.

Clinton Man Is Stricken

CLINTON — E. Edward Wahl, 72, who resides alone at 308 Jackson St., was found suffering from a stroke in his home at 7 p.m., Monday evening by Clinton State Police.

Mr. Wahl, had apparently become ill several days before and was unable to call for help.

Neighbors were concerned when they noticed papers piling up on the porch and called the police.

Mr. Wahl was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Blatchford Receives Discharge

CLINTON — S4 David Blatchford, who has been serving with the Army in Vietnam, was called home on emergency furlough by the serious illness of his father, Edward Blatchford, a patient at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Although David had three months to serve, he is receiving his discharge early because of the illness.

David and his brothers, Philip and Ted, were at Ft. Sheridan, Ill., last Wednesday for the final arrangements for discharge.

Have Moved

Mr. and Mrs. David Heimerdinger have moved to the house on the farm on Pennington Rd., hich they purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sebring. The Sebrings have moved into their thir ne house.

Q. I am 68 years old and still working. What do I do to qualify for Medicare?

A. You need to apply if you have never applied for social security or railroad retirement benefits. And you should apply by March 31 if you want protection under both parts of Medicare when the program starts July 1.

Q. I am over 65 and receive social security benefits. If I choose not to sign up for medical insurance at this time, will I have a later opportunity to enroll?

A. Yes. There will be a general enrollment period from October 1 to December 31, 1967. However, your premium rate will be higher if you wait until then to sign up.

Q. I am 70 years old and not entitled to social security benefits. I came to the United States 10 years ago, but I am not a citizen. Am I eligible for Medicare?

A. As an alien, you can be entitled to health insurance benefits if you were lawfully admitted to the U.S. for permanent residence and have lived in the U.S. continuously for five years just before the month you apply for health insurance benefits.

Do you have a question about Social Security?

If so, write to your social security representatives for Lenawee County, James Hushion, 536 N. Jackson Street, Jackson, Michigan. All letters are confidential and you will receive an immediate reply.

Withheld Tax Due March 15

DETROIT — Michigan employers liable for withheld income tax and social security tax in excess of $100 for the month of February must deposit these taxes by March 15, 1966.

Those amounts must be listed on Form 450 and deposited in a Federal Reserve bank or an authorized commercial bank, Mr. A. M. Stoepler, District Director of the Internal Revenue Service said.

"Employers Tax Guide", which furnishes more detailed information on this subject, may be obtained by writing to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service, Detroit, Michigan 48226.

Ford Motor Gives Special Honor to Tecumseh Motors

James A. Finch of Tecumseh Motors, Inc., a Ford dealership, has qualified for special recognition in Ford Motor Company's first National Dealer Traffic Safety Award Program.

The dealership this week received a plaque and commendation from Fletcher N. Platt, manager of Ford's Traffic Safety and Highway Improvement Department.

"Ford Motor Co. is proud of your achievements, and of the achievements of the entire dealer body, in promoting traffic safety," Mr. Platt's commendation read.

"We appreciate the time, energy and other resources you are devoting to this vital subject and hope that you will continue and intensify your efforts."

National winners in the program were announced Feb. 15 in Dearborn, Mich. C. Philip Leyda, of Leyda Motors, Inc., Richland Center, Wis., received the $5,000 first-place award.

Ford began its program last fall as an annual means of recognizing Ford and Lincoln-Mercury dealers who help improve traffic safety in their communities.

Dealers were urged to act in four specific areas

► Assure that customers are fully informed about the benefits, operation and maintenance of safety equipment on vehicles

► Provide cars for driver education

► Support sound vehicle inspection programs

► Encourage adoption of better local and state traffic laws.

Family Gathers to Fete Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Partridge, Carson Hwy. and son, Arnold, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne G. Partridge on the occasion of their 59th wedding anniversary Sunday.

Deyo Tallman was also a Sunday dinner guest. Eighteen members of the family were seated for the evening meal including eight great-grandchildren of the senior Partridges.

Those attending the event were Mr. and Mrs. Allan Barrett and children, Mary Jo, Michael, Mark, Matthew, Martin and Malcomb, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Partridge, Shawn and Rodney and Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne O. Partridge.

Dr. Evans, professor of English at Northwestern University, has become well known through his columns, features and radio and television programs.

GM Raises Allowance Two Cents

DETROIT — General Motors today announced an upward revision of two cents an hour in its cost-of-living allowance to more than 435,000 hourly-rated employes resulting from an increase in the nation's cost-of-living index.

The revision is effective with the pay period beginning March 7. The GM hourly-rate employes, therefore, will receive a total cost-of-living allowance of 12 cents per hour for the months of March, April and May.

More than 100,000 eligible salaried employes will receive an equivalent increase of $10 in their quarterly cost-of-living allowance. Thus their total cost-of-living allowance for the three-month period will be $60.

News from the Tecumseh Library

New books at your Public Library:

IN COLD BLOOD by Truman Capote. On November 16, 1959, in the small town of Holcomb, Kansas, four members of the Clutter family were savagely murdered by blasts from a shot gun held a few inches from their faces. There was no apparent motive for the crime, and there were almost no clues. Five years later, 3 men were hanged for the crime on a gallows in a warehouse in the Kansas State Penitentiary. This is the story of the lives and deaths of these six people.

HOFFA AND THE TEAMSTERS by Ralph and Estele James. The truth about Jimmy Hoffa, how he gets what he wants from management, how he runs his union, and what he does with the millions of dollars entrusted to him. This is a compelling study of power in the United States. Here is a controversial but unbiased picture of one of the most powerful and least comprehended public figures of the past decade.

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF MALCOLM X. He was "the angriest black man in America," as he called himself. With his biting speech and dramatic oratory, and his contempt for the niceties of diplomacy, he was the Negro leader who expressed perhaps better than any other the fury and despair that have accumulated at the bottom of our social pyramid.

A SENSE OF WHERE YOU ARE, a profile of Princeton's Bill Bradley, by John McPhee. When the greatest player in the history of the Ivy League left the floor for the last time, some 3000 people showered him with five minutes of thundering appreciation. By the end of his college career, Bill Bradley was clearly established as one of the best basketball players who had ever played the game.

Here's how it works. Look at the first symbols (the prefix) on your vehicle identification slip. Then look at the symbols listed above. If you find yours on the list, you've taken the first step toward being a winner. Now go see your Buick dealer. He has a list of 72 winners posted in his showroom. If you see your entire vehicle identification number on the poster—the symbols plus the rest of the numbers—$2332 cash is yours. (If your prefix isn't listed in this ad, don't give up. Your numbers may have been posted during the past few weeks. And every week there are 72 new winners posted on the showroom wall. So watch for next weeks list of new symbols in this newspaper.) No slogan to invent, no puzzles to solve. In fact, you don't even have to own a Buick to have a winning number. While you're in the showroom, get a good look at the Buick Special. The $2332.00* happens to be its price. *Manufacturer's suggested retail price for Special V-6, 2-dr. coupe. Price includes Federal Excise Tax and suggested dealer delivery and handling charge.

Contest Rules. Residents of Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska may, if they prefer, send in a postcard to R. L. Polk and Co., P.O. Box 1347, Detroit, Michigan 48231 and receive the weekly list of winning numbers by mail for comparison with their own vehicle identification number. An official entry form will be included. Sweepstakes limited to persons over 21 living in the continental U.S. Not valid in Florida or states where prohibited by law.

2 Seconds Left, Blissfield Wins

By JIM LINCOLN

DUNDEE — A goal in the final two seconds dropped the Tecumseh Indians out of the District Eight Tournament at Dundee and ended the cage season for Coach Vic Lawson's club.

Blissfield, once a winner and twice a looser to Tecumseh this season, evened the count Wednesday night last week with a 77 - 76 victory.

The Royals avenged a defeat the previous week, a loss which dropped Blissfield into a tie with Flat Rock for the league's crown.

Last week's loss was a truly heartbreaker for the Indians who had led through most of the game, once by eight points and usually by five or six.

With less than two minutes remaining and leading by four points, Tecumseh went into a semi-stall, forcing the Royals to foul to get control of the ball.

Blissfield did just that, but the Indians couldn't connect at the free throw line. The Royals rallied from a 74-70 deficit to go ahead 75-74 with 22 seconds left.

John Goodman gave Tecumseh what appeared to be another win over the Royals, sinking two straight free throws — Tecumseh had previously missed four in a row.

After Goodman's tosses and 12 seconds left on the clock, Blissfield worked the ball across mid-court, fed reserve guard Chuck Burgermeister cutting through the middle. He let fly at the top of the foul circle — and that was it.

Four times Tecumseh squared off this season with Blissfield and whether the third or fourth game was the most crucial is debatable. The last one, however, closed it out for Tecumseh.

'Pappy' Hintz Joins His Sons

Britton's "Pappy" Hintz serves in Vietnam along with his sons and son-in-law. "Pappy" is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hintz of Britton.

An item in the Detroit Free Press recently stated "He didn't want the boys to come home with tall tales he couldn't match, so Air Force M/Sgt. Wayne H. (Pappy) Hintz, 45, of Britton, is serving there along with his sons, Larry, 24, and Hank, 18, and his son-in-law, Petty Officer Jim Shake, 21."

"'Pappy', as he prefers to be called, volunteered for Vietnam and was assigned to the 6250th Combat Support Group at the Tan Son Nhut Air Base. The sons are assigned to U. S. Army units and Jim Shake is with the Navy's 7th Fleet at Saigon."

"Hintz is the father of five boys and two girls. Another of his sons, Jerry, recently returned to the States from duty with the 7th Fleet in Vietnam," stated the Free Press story.

Pappy's wife, Ethel, and youngest son, Chris T., are living in Bunker Hill, Ind. Mrs. Hintz has lived in numerous different areas during her husband's long army career.

Her mother-in-law said of Ethel, "I miss her, we had such fun on shopping trips together, both in Tecumseh and Mt. Clemens."

Both the Mrs. Hintz' have given much to their country with husband, sons, and grandsons so devoted.

Albert F. Baird Killed in War

BRITTON — Mrs. Paul Rowlands received word last week of the death of her brother, Specialist Albert F. Baird, in Vietnam.

Sp. 5 Baird, 32, an Army veteran of more than 11 years, was killed at Qui Nhon, a seaport supply center on the coast of Vietnam. He had been in Vietnam since last May, serving as a diesel mechanic with the 253rd Transportation Detachment.

Baird was first reported to have been killed in action, but a second telegram from the Army revealed that he died of an accidental gunshot wound in the throat. He would not have had to serve in Vietnam but volunteered because he felt it was important to fight Communist aggression.

Specialist Baird graduated from Monroe High School, and served a four-year hitch in the Navy soon afterwards. He enlisted in the Army in 1958, intending to make that his career.

Besides his sister, Mrs. Rowlands in Britton, he is survived by his wife, Nancy, and four children in Sylvania; Sandra, 11; Michael, 9; Kathleen, 6; and Albert Scott, 3; his mother, Mrs. Pearl Baird of Temperance, and one brother and three other sisters.

The funeral will be held at the H. A. Birkencamp Funeral Home on Alexis Rd., Trilby, Thursday, at 2:30 p.m. Specialist Baird will be buried with full military honors, with active Army and Navy personnel participating.

Exchange Student Now in Britton

BY MAXINE CALHOUN

BRITTON — Youth for Understanding Exchange Student, Ana Carlota Gonzelez Torres, finds the school routine here a little different from the private girls' school which she attended in her homeland, Rancagua, Chile.

The vivacious 15-year-old brunette is already 'just one of the girls' at Britton-Macon School where she is a sophomore.

She says the requirements are much less than they were in the school in Chile where the school day was from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. including Saturdays, with a two-hour lunch period to go home.

In Chile she studied Physics, Chemistry, Philosophy, Algebra, Biology, Chilean Government, World and Chilean History, English, Gym, Homemaking, Religion, Grammar, Literature and French.

Ana is the daughter of Mrs. Olga Torres viuda de Gonzalez of Rancagua, Chile.

She came to the United States on Christmas Day and lived in Birmingham for two months before arriving in Britton where she lives with Mr. and Mrs. Marein Ivan.

She likes the people of the United States "best of all."

She enjoys dancing and is learning the "jerk" to keep up with her new friends at Britton.

◄ SHERRY SQUIRES & SUE EDDINGER ►

Sherry Squires, Miss D.A.R. of Britton, has been selected as one of the finalists in the D.A.R. Good Citizens Contest.

She will attend the D.A.R. State Conference, March 17, at Hotel Bancroft in Saginaw, for a program and luncheon in her honor. At this time, the name of the State Good Citizen, her alternate, the runners-up and those receiving honorable mention will be announced.

Ana is 15 and is participating in the Youth for Understanding exchange program. She arrived in the U. S. in January and stayed with a family in Birmingham, until March 1, when she arrived at the Ivan's.

Being an interpreter or an engineer is Ana's hope for the future. Her hobbies include collecting records, banners and books. She enjoys reading and listening to classical music. She also likes sports and participating in community and school activities.

Mrs. Gerald Henricks is now counseling for Britton High as part of her advanced graduate work at Siena Heights College. She will be available by appointment only and each counseling session will take up approximately one school hour and a minimum of two sessions will be held.

If any student has questions on the courses he should take, how to do better work in school, the kinds of work he is best suited for college or trade schools, and personal goals, he should contact Mrs. Henricks by filling out the blank which can be obtained at the main office.

The Junior High Band is preparing for the Junior High School Solo and Ensemble Festival at Brooklyn, March 26. Thirty-two members are to compete as ensemblists, and six as soloists.

The Senior High Band will compete in the Senior High School Band Festival, March 12, at Jonesville High School. Britton will play three selections: "Green Meadows", "El Capitan", and "Pleasant Valley."

The F.F.A. participated in the Regional F. F. A. Leadership contest held at Bedord High School. Britton received the silver award. This team consisted of Charles Drexler, chairman; and team members, Steve Eldred, Tom Korican, Ron Heiden, John Miller, Barney Kurowicki, and Lee Miller.

Students who want to purchase a 1966 BRITTONIAN should do it now. Time is running short. Contact either Joan Check, 451-2767, or Bruce Gillespie, 451-2494, if you want one. Price is $4.

Britton Adult Farmers Meet

BRITTON—The Britton Adult Farmers will meet Monday, March 14 at 8 p.m. in the Britton Agriculture room. Farmers from Tipton, Clinton and Tecumseh are invited to hear Ken Smith, agronomist from Anderson's Fertilizer Co. in Riga, speak on soybean production.

His presentation will cover such areas as:

► Tillage and soil requirements

► Seed selection

► Fertilization, including micro-nutrients

► Disease control

This will be the final meeting in this year's series of programs designed for farmers in this area.

"Please try to attend, and bring your neighbor with you," states Paul Marks, who teaches agriculture courses at the Britton-Macon school.

Ana Gonzalez Addresses C C Fellowship

BRITTON — Ana Carlota Gonzalez from Chile was the featured speaker when the Youth Fellowship of the Congregational Christian Church met Sunday evening in the Fellowship Center.

Ana, who arrived in Britton only last week, gave a talk to the young people on the customs of her country, the life of the people, and what Chileans think of Americans.

Chile is having its summer season now, and school children are on vacation. Ninty-five percent of the people of Chile are Roman Catholic. Ana attends a parochial school in her hometown of Rancugua. She answered many questions from the young audience.

President Doug Fairbanks led the group singing and presided over the business meeting. The group decided to have a bowling party March 20. They will leave from the church at 1:30 p.m., and return after bowling, for a light supper and program.

The Rev. Gustav Hannevik gave devotions on the meaning of Easter. He also requested the youth to conduct the Easter Sunrise service in the church.

Refreshments of popcorn balls and Kool Aid were served by Linda Seagert.

Roger Bortel Graduates from MSU Ag

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bortel attended the graduation of their son, Roger, from a 2-year agriculture course at Michigan State University, Friday afternoon.

The graduation ceremonies were followed by a social hour, banquet and dance.

Others attending with the Bortels were Dr. and Mrs. J. Robbins and Ann Robbins of Mason, and Mr. and Mrs. William Bortel of Ithaca.

Verl Sanchs Entertain at Dinner

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Verl Sanch, Sr., entertained at a family dinner party Sunday. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Sanch and children of Brighton, Mr. and Mrs. Merle (Chuck) Sanch and daughters of Ida, Verl Sanch Jr., of Adrian College and Bonnie Dixon of Jonesville.

The occasion marked the birthday of Verl Jr., and also his engagement to Miss Dixon.

Britton FHA Now Selling Recipe Books

BRITTON — Favorite Recipes of Home Economics Teachers cook books are now being sold by the Britton Future Homemakers of America.

The five different books — meats, casseroles, vegetables, salads, and desserts—each contain 2,000 recipes. All books sell for $2.95 each and may be ordered from any member.

The top salesman of the first week and the top salesman of the sale will receive a free vegetable book. There is also a prize of one free book for every 12 books sold.

Home economics teachers from all over the United States submitted the recipes for the cook books. These books make excellent gifts for weddings, showers, Mother's Day and many other occasions.

Annual FHA Smorgasb'd is March 19

BRITTON — The annual FHA Smorgasbord is set for Saturday, March 19, from 5 to 7 p.m. in the Britton High School cafeteria.

The menu includes turkey, dressing, ham, baked and scalloped potatoes, casseroles, corn, green beans, creamed onions, jello salad, rolls and butter, pie, cake, tea, coffee, and milk.

Tickets are 25c for pre-school children, 75c for children five to 12, and $1.25 for adults. The tickets may be purchased from F. H. A. members or at the cafeteria door.

Seniors of Britton-Macon High earned $118 towards their Washington trip in the annual Tecumseh Herald subscription campaign.

The drive ended Saturday with a Telethon, which lasted from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. as seniors went through the phone book, calling all non-subscribers.

The class collected 40 new subscriptions and 126 renewals, earning $1.25 commissions on the new ones and 50c for renewals.

BRITTON BRIEFS

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Billeau entertained Sunday afternoon in honor of their son, Pvt. Robert Billeau, who was home on a 14-day furlough from Fort Riley, Kan.

Mrs. Richard Bruce, Jr., entertained twelve little boys for lunch Friday in honor of the 6th birthday of her son Richie. The boys played games and rode ponies in the afternoon. Richie opened his gifts.

Born, in Kobe, Japan, on March 3, a daughter, Penelope, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howder. The Howders are missionaries in Japan and are partially supported by the Britton Betnel Baptist Church. Mrs. Howder is the daughter of Mrs. Walter Stutsman of the Tecumseh Book and Bible House.

Carl Bower, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bower, arrived home last week for an 8-day leave, after completing eight weeks of basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. He will leave from Metropolitan Airport Friday, March 11, for Fort Sill, Okla., for training in heavy artillery.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Barrett and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bortel were called to Taylor last week by the sudden death of their brother-in-law, Edward Rudel, Sr. He is also a cousin of Mrs. Ivan Olds. The funeral was held Saturday in Lincoln Park.

Children Honor Parents' Wedding Anniversary

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rohrback, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ash, all of Britton, and Mr. and Mrs. James Woodward of Clinton were among the 80 guests at a surprise 25th wedding anniversary party Saturday evening, given in Rochester for Mr. and Mrs. Donald Currie.

The event was planned by the Currie's children, two sons and a daughter.

Mr. Currie was a Sunday School teacher in the Britton Congregational Christian Church when the family lived here, and was instrumental in forming the Christian Duet Class of that church. He is now superintendent of schools in Royal Oak.

Dr. Musch Operates

By DICK CARVER

His patients are plants.

That's "Dr." Ollie Musch, owner-operator of the Tecumseh Greenhouse, who keeps several others and himself busy nursing a wide variety of greenery.

The business boasts 1,400 sq. ft. under glass in six greenhouses.

Running a greenhouse is like farming on a year-round basis. The catch comes when one observes the product — delicate flowers.

Ollie puts seedlings in dirt, something no mother would do, but the dirt is sterile. It is steam sterilized. The bad guys at this stage are weeds, insects, larvae and a host of others.

WHEN LEAVES start to form, the seedlings are transplanted to a flat, something like people, and therein 96 of them share the nourishing soil.

Tecumseh Greenhouses have 5,000 flats with a full-time girl hired to tend them.

The plants are retained at a night-time temperature of 50 degrees and daytime at 60.

Maintenance of this temperature range is what is known as cool growing. Mr. Musch indicated that this type of growing is a little slower, but produce more stable plants, able to hold up longer on the table at grandma's house.

Eventually the seedlings are small plants and must again be parted from their 95 friends and land in commercial trays or individual pots, for individual people.

Constant care never ends as watering is a regular chore and fertilizer is fed to the already rich soil.

ABOUT THOSE "germs" — total "cloud" fumigation takes place every 10 days or is replaced by spot fumigation, depending on the need.

Those potted fellows, the house plants, are maintained at about the 10,000 plant level, depending on the number of sales in a particular month. Late spring and early summer represent the busiest season for "Dr." Musch and company.

The greenhouse handles 10,000 geranium plants in addition, more summer and winter snap dragons than one could count and sidelines trees, shrubbery, garden plants and many more.

CYPRESS — Dick Neidermeyer, Tecumseh Greenhouse grower, finds it necessary to replace nails periodically in cypress wood flats that "never rot". Each flat holds 96 small seedlings while in use.

SNAPDRAGONS — A. A. Musch, Tecumseh Greenhouse manager, inspects his snapdragons, now in the full-bud stage and ready to open. He grows both the winter and summer variety of snaps. Visible directly above Mr. Musch are the temperature control vents.

Girl Scouts Increase Cookie Sale

On behalf of the Girl Scouts in Tecumseh Neighborhood, Mrs. Stanley Kruse, chairman of cookie sales, now in progress, wishes to thank citizens for their generosity.

Mrs. Kruse was skeptical when asked by Council to urge a 20% increase of sales, for Tecumseh Neighborhood had fewer girls in scouting this year.

Ten troops increased sales 50% to boost their treasuries by $240 and the camping fund by $960. The sales ends March 14 but there are still plenty of Weston cookies available in all five varieties.

A cookie "Booth" is being planned by troop 318 Saturday morning at the United Savings Bank. This will be the last opportunity to get cookies.

Anyone missed who can't get to town Saturday and would like to help in this scouting movement may call Mrs. Kruse, 423-4186 and she will see to it that the cookies are delivered.

Toledo Museum Shows Collection of Modern Artists

The Toledo Museum of Art will show paintings and prints by some of the best-known modern artists in Europe and America from the collection of Toledo Whittier Elementary School Principal, Ralph U. Swisher in the 209th Gallery 8 exhibition, opening Sunday and continuing thru April 3.

The museum exhibition will show about 30 oils, watercolors and prints by such outstanding modern artists as Matisse, Kollwitz, Kokoschka, Chagall, Nolde, and Toledo painter, Israel Abramosky, Museum director Otto Wittmann said.

Mr. Swisher's collection, gathered slowly over more than 20 years, is largely comprised of works belonging to the German expressionist school of artists who worked in Europe between the world wars and greatly influenced today's art.

Rowden Will Visit Taxpayers

Thomas B. Rowden, representing the Michigan Department of Revenue, will be at the United Savings Bank, March 23, between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. for the purpose of assisting taxpayers in the preparation of their intangible tax returns, due not later than April 30.

Intangibles personal property subject to the tax includes all mortgages, land contracts, bank accounts, cash, postal savings accounts, accounts and notes receivable, corporate stocks, corporate bonds and other similar types of property.

However, all United States bonds, are exempt from the tax, and the tax on deposits in Michigan banks and building and loan associations, as well as stocks in Michigan banks, will be paid to the Department of Revenue directly by the banks or building and loan associations.

Under the present law as amended by the Legislature in 1945, all Corporate Stocks are 100% taxable including Michigan Corporations.

The Department has issued a warning to all owners of property, such as outlined above, to file the necessary return forms prior to April 30. The Revenue Department is constantly engaged in checking stockholder's lists, mortgage records, income tax returns and other data for the purpose of discovering evasions of the Intangibles Tax act.

Failure to file a return when a tax is due subjects the taxpayer to severe penalties.

Mr. Rowden will be glad to advise any person concerning his liability, if any, under the Intangibles Tax Act.

Those desiring this advice or assistance are requested to bring with them full information concerning their holdings, including the face or par value, and income received therefrom during the year, and copy of the previous year's return filed with the Department.

Named Reading Program Head

Mrs. John Becker, former principal of the Ridgeway Elementary School, has been named Director of Reading for the new guided reading program in the Tecumseh Schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelty will be reading specialists in the elementary grades, and Mrs. Charles Trickey will be the high school reading specialist.

Mrs. Becker will teach the Junior High guided reading classes.

Each teacher will hold a class of six students for one period, four times a week.

Diagnostic testing is being carried out to aid the teachers in determining each student's specific needs.

A wide variety of new materials including headphones, tape recorders and controlled reading machines will be used. Programmed books will be used so that each child can proceed at his own rate.

This program has been added to the present curriculum under a federal grant to the Tecumseh Schools. It will be in operation within a week.

Head Start in Lenawee Gets $29,246

The Office of Economic Opportunity is prepared to finance Operation Head Start programs in excess of the regular county allocations for community action, reports Rep. Weston Vivian.

Last summer, approximately 500,000 pre-school children across the Nation primarily from low-income families, participated in Operation Head Start.

Guidlines which the Office of Economic Opportunity has drawn up for the coming summer provide Lenawee County with $29,246.

OEO granted $12,870 to Lenawee County Operation Head Start Projects in the summer of 1965.

Applications for 1966 Project Head Start grants are to be submitted by the end of the month.

Republican Executives Will Meet

The executive committee of the Lenawee County Republican Party will meet Wednesday, March 9, in the Birch room of the Big Boy Restaurant, Adrian, to elect the Lenawee County chairman.

Hugh Walters announced that nominees for chairman are James Hadden, former secretary of the Lenawee County Republican party — Yale Kerby, Lenawee County representative to the second congressional committee and Harvey Koselka, Lenawee County prosecuting attorney.

Long and Short

By TOM O'RIORDAN

Jerry Cavanaugh isn't coming out with the official news on St. Pat's day, but he'll be near enough to qualify as an Imp of Erin.

Detroit's lord mayor will announce officially this Saturday — two days after St. Patrick's — that he's going to take on Soapy Williams in the Democratic primary, which will decide who'll be the candidate for United States Senator.

This is creating all sorts of unhappiness among many of the old Democratic hierarchy in Michigan, who wish that they'd never heard of the Smiling Irishman of Detroit.

Obviously, there couldn't be a tougher opponent for Soapy.

And if I'm not mistaken, there are some sighs of delight from the Republican side of the race, too.

No one will be able to do a job on Soapy like the mayor and no one can cut up Jerry like G. Mennen. Whoever wins could lose. That applause you hear is from Bob Griffin, the GOP almost-sure-to-be-nominee.

How do folks feel about the possible return to Michigan of Soapy, the six-time governor, who left the state with a horrible reputation and millions of dollars in debts — blaming the legislature?

"It was the best thing President Kennedy did for Michigan," mused John Brooks, 505 Cairns St., Wednesday morning, while breakfasting in Fern Cutler's diner. John referred to Soapy's appointment to a Federal post.

AFTER A FEW minutes of political discussion, John guided the subject to a new area, the River Raisin.

"Have you taken a canoe trip from the Newburg bridge recently?" he inquired.

As a matter of fact, I've never tried the river route, a definite neglect on my part.

John said that the 2½-mile run into Red Mill Pond is now a joy. In cleaning up the tornado damage, crews removed all debris and logs from the river.

In earlier times, there were dozens of portage points, where huge trees entirely blocked the route. These are all gone now and it's smooth canoeing, at least from Newburg into Tecumseh.

Which brings us to the status of the River Raisin Watershed project. An enormous report has been prepared by engineers, giving all the data on the entire watershed, which touches four Michigan counties and one in Ohio.

The whole effort hinges on government participation. The future seems bright, especially with Washington now placing emphasis on cleaning up America's streams.

IT'S MY personal opinion that one of these days there'll come a flury of trumpet blares and drum rolls as the announcement is made the Raisin clean-up will go into the works.

Certainly, a fellow doesn't have to be too much of a dreamer to recognize what vast improvements there will be when the river is made pure, giant impoundments of water fashioned along its route, new recreation areas and homes built along the man-made lakes.

Fertility Pills, Other Drugs Up Multiple Births

Dr. Robert Greiner of Adrian addressed the Mothers of Twins Club Monday at the home of Mrs. James Hubbard of Onsted.

Dr. Greiner discussed multiple births and all phases of their increase due to the fertility pills and other drugs. A question-and-answer period concluded the program.

Mrs. James Hite and Mrs. Don Hardcastle were appointed to the nominating committee for the election at the next meeting.

Mrs. Henry Smith assisted the hostess with dessert.

Mrs. Walter Gillen furnished favors.

Mrs. Charles Staples, Jr., Mrs. Daniel Bush and Mrs. Orrin Murphy were guests.

The April 11 meeting will be held with Mrs. Donald Hardcastle in Brooklyn with Mrs. Richard Upell assisting.

Sparks from Chimney Probably Started Fire

Fire completely ravished the Louis Rebottaro home at 6124 Hendershot Rd. Tuesday morning.

The family lost everything.

Fortunately, none of the Rebottaros were injured.

One fireman, Dave Ousterhout of the Tecumseh Department and a local florist, suffered multiple fractures of his right ankle, requiring surgery in St. Joseph Hospital. He will be in a cast approximately three months.

Volunteer Ousterhout fell 10 feet onto concrete steps at the side of the house when he slipped from the roof of a porch.

Raisin Township got the initial call at 8:40 a.m. from Mrs. Rebottaro, who heard a crackling sound upstairs, shortly after her four children had left to catch the school bus at Hendershot and Centennial Rd.

Raisin sent its pumper with Roy Brosamer, 5741 Holloway Rd., at the wheel. The 1,000-gallon capacity tanker and the department's grass fire rig followed.

At about 9 o'clock, the Raisin firemen called Ridgeway Township in Britton, asking for more water and that department dispatched its 2,000-gallon tanker.

A call over the fire radio for assistance from Tecumseh came at 9:10 with driver James Forsyth catching it immediately and sending the local volunteers into action.

THE FIRE continued to roar, fanned by a wind from the east. It was apparent about 9:30 that nothing could be saved.

Nearly 14,000 gallons of water were poured onto the flames as the three tankers between them were refilled a total of 13 times.

Raisin had 12 men on duty at various times during the long blaze. Tecumseh sent nine, plus its pumper, tanker and emergency wagon. Two Britton men manned that community's tanker.

Raisin's assistant chief, John Escott, said that two of their vehicles were there until 2 p.m. and the third removed at 3:30.

Tecumseh firemen were on tap for three hours.

DALE MITCHELL, Raisin chief, who was in Adrian when the alarm sounded and reached the scene about 9:30, said he believed that sparks from the chimney ignited wood shingles on the roof.

"It was a real battle. The house was well built with plenty of insulation. A hard fire to fight," Chief Mitchell said.

The Rebottaro children apparently spotted the fire about the same time as their mother, just as school bus driver Fay Kempf, 6852 Billmyer Hwy., drove up.

MR. REBOTTARO, a first-shift employee of Tecumseh Products Co., was on the job when notified.

It was approximately 9 a.m. when he returned home and found "The whole upstairs was ablaze when I got here."

He said the family had lived there the past 14 years and that insurance covered the home.

Chief Mitchell reported that Mr. Rebottaro had continually improved his property all the years he lived there, taking over an old home and renovating it.

14 Years of Work Go Up with Smoke

By DOROTHY GRIGG

"The things I will miss most are my pictures. I can take more of my children, but not my grandfather," said Louie Rebottaro as he stood Tuesday looking at the burned ruins of his home.

Fourteen years of meticulous effort on the part of the World War II veteran and his wife had made a show place of the old Pocklington home, which Louie purchased just before his marriage.

As the family grew, Louie and Martha completed remodeling another room in their home. Only a month ago, did they get the last brush-full of varnish on an upstairs room for the youngsters. Linoleum for the floor was purchased Saturday.

The pictures Louis spoke of were movies of the children as they grew, showing them as they were just starting to walk and of course Grandfather Sinelli, who passed away several years ago.

Martha, still smiling though her heart must have been broken Tuesday afternoon, had the presence of mind to rescue the family strong box before her home turned into an oven, but she and her husband both "hurt" because the precious box of film was melted by the flames.

EMERGENCY AID for the family was quickly administered by Mrs. Arthur Geisenhaver of the Tecumseh Service Club. She went with Mrs. Charles Jameson, the youngster's aunt, and the little folk to purchase necessary clothing.

The family is temporarily staying with Louie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rebottaro, just around the corner on Centennial Rd. from the burned residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kossey, 5472 Rogers Hwy., have offered an apartment. The Kosseys are parents of Mrs. Louis Rebottaro.

KNOWING HER son-in-law pretty well and also realizing that hardship is not new to him — Louis was a German prisoner of war — Mrs. Kossey remarked Wednesday morning, "Knowing Louie, I think they will be back in their home by fall. Plans are going around in his head for cleaning up now."

Louis and Martha were on a shopping trip to purchase clothing for themselves Wednesday morning and were not available for comment, but it is likely that some extra hands Saturday morning to help with clearing away the burned timbers would be welcomed.

ELMER SPREEMAN said Wednesday that he plans to head a crew over the weekend for clean-up, if such plans are in agreement with Louie's insurance agency.

As the old saw goes, "The show must go on" and the Rebottaro family with Mama Rose heading the project were busy with preparations for the annual St. Elizabeth Spaghetti Dinner Wednesday evening.

Always faithful to their church, they care for first things first and will, as usual, do their utmost to relieve the suffering those of the family must now endure.

Boxes Now Are Arriving in Ben Cat

The initial shipment from here was made Jan. 14.

"We here in the 33rd Artillery cannot express enough thanks for the tremendous response that was shown by the people of Tecumseh," the lieutenant wrote.

He offered Mrs. Kenneth Goldmann and The Herald "a special thank you for the enthusiasm and dedication that got the project started and kept it rolling."

In total, the committee has mailed 99 boxes of five pounds each. Mailing charges amounted to $132.66.

Still to go are the eight cartons of books, with about $250 needed to cover mail charges.

Also ready for shipment are 600 hand-held blackboards and 600 erasers from Tecumseh High School students.

"Bullets alone will never win this type of war," Lt. Mason noted. "Education is probably the second biggest factor in winning the war and deterring Communism in the future.

"The people of Tecumseh can feel justly proud of the fact that they have done more than their share in helping to eleviate one of the most pressing problems in the world today — suppression of Communism," he added.

THE SUPPLIES of pencils, erasers, rulers, chalk, crayons and pencil sharpeners are being turned over to the Ben Cat District Chief Dia Uy Bien, "to be used and distributed as he and the school headmaster see fit."

"At the present time, more and more refugees are moving to Ben Cat and the majority of the children are not now attending school. It is hoped that this problem will be able to be solved with these school supplies," said Lt. Mason.

He added that he hopes to have some pictures for The Herald shortly.

Restaurant Opens Soon at M-50 & 52

A new area restaurant will be opening shortly.

Called Country House, it's located on M-52, just south of the intersection with M-50 and is 48'x60' in size.

Seating 150, the establishment is owned by Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, 424 N. Evans St., and Mr. and Mrs. Al Sweatt of Monroe.

Mr. Sweatt presently operates Al's Diner in Monroe and will be doing most of the cooking at Country House.

Mrs. Brown said the Country House will feature "broasted chicken." Plans call for hours of 7 a.m. to midnight, seven days a week.

Card Party Proceeds Go to 'March'

TIPTON — A potluck supper will be served when the Tipton Grange meets Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Meat, potatoes and rolls will be furnished. Supper committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Munger and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Swarts.

Following a short business meeting, there will be a public card party with the proceeds going to the March of Dimes.

$11.34 Gift Will Help in Mailing

An unexpected gift of $11.34 was received last week for the Ben Cat project.

It came from H. J. Daley, manager of the Croswell Theatre in Adrian, who asked that it be used to mail 50 pounds of material to Vietnam.

"If projects such as yours were more widely publicized, perhaps some critics of our policy would be prone to take another look as to our involvement in that country," Mr. Daley said.

"We not only fight for the rights of the oppressed, but we also fight ignorance, poverty, thereby through education, helping these people to assume a brighter and more useful life," he added.

Needed — Volunteer Bakers

This week Chairman Jule Fosbender received a cash gift with a letter from Rhoda E. Kotts. She wrote:

"Seeing in The Tecumseh Herald for which I send my daughter, Mary Louise Chase, each Christmas and I spend my winter out here. This coupon will do my little bit toward this good cause. God bless you in this work."

The Women's Society of the First Baptist Church also donated $5 this week toward the project of hiring a bus to send baked goods and Tecumseh people to entertain the wounded flown back from Vietnam.

Mrs. Fosbender is anxious to hear others willing to help with preparations for the April 2 Tecumseh Day at Chicago's giant hospital where most casualties of the midwest are processed.

Lenten Lesson

By THE REV. BLAIR BASHORE, Pastor
First Baptist Church

FROM BAD TO GOOD NEWS

Lent is not designed to turn our attention away from this world to things which are invisible — quite the contrary. Lent is meant to needle us into facing reality.

At the center of Lent stands the Cross, casting its shadow over the season, punctuating it with the reminder that sin is real.

John told this to the people of his day when he wrote, "If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us."

John also bids all men to walk in the light, that is, to face reality, to open our eyes to what the situation really is.

Self centeredness and pride are the very foundations of sin. Self deception results in an unhealthy attitude towards our neighbors.

This illness of mind and soul must be faced head-on. To recognize the illness or unrighteousness of sinning (or missing the mark) is a good, first step in the direction of freedom of ones' soul.

In reality there is freedom.

In facing reality of God, we are bound to "confess" our self-centeredness and pride — our wasted and destructive "gossip."

Confession is healthy, because it faces reality rather than unreality.

Too, if forgiveness is to have any power at all, one has to realize how much he really needs it.

Recognizing this need, we are ready for the New Life represented in the resurrection of our Lord.

Shattuck Will Address Society

The Rev. Grant Shattuck, field representative of the World Home Bible League will speak at the Tecumseh Assembly of God Sunday, March 20, at 7:30 p.m.

The World Home Bible League is a Scripture distribution agency which emphasizes the placing of Bibles in homes throughout the world.

The League is presently furnishing scriptures to missionaries and churches in about 40 countries. It furnishes Bible and Scripture portions free o charge to churches and mission aries to be placed in homes the people will promise to rea them.

Field representative, Rev Shattuck, is a graduate of Grac Seminary, Winona Lake, Ind ana, and served in the pastorat for nine years before enterin full time with the League.

50 Attend Workshop

The conference was sponsored by Michigan State Chamber of Commerce and Adrian, Monroe and Tecumseh Chambers.

Harry R. Hall, president of the Michigan State Chamber.

Unable to attend the meeting, Wes Vivian, U.S. Representative of the Second District, wired the group, congratulating them for the role in promoting industry and educational services.

After the session, the businessmen and state officials from Lansing had a buffet luncheon at the Tecumseh Country Club.

'Developing Moral Value' Talk Topic

Mrs. Julian Gresham spoke to members of the Child Study Club March 14 at the home of Mrs. Stanley Kruse, 407 Center Dr.

Mrs. Gresham used as her topic, "Developing Moral Values" and related experiences as a social worker.

Mrs. Joseph Schneider and Mrs. Harold Drengberg were guests.

Mrs. William Adams and Mrs. Richard Chatters served frozen fruit salad, tea and coffee for refreshments.

Favors in St. Patrick's theme were furnished by Mrs. J. Richard Gates, Mrs. Carson House Jr. and Mrs. LeRoy Titley.

IMPOSSIBLE TO SAVE — Despite the efforts o f nearly 23 firemen from Tecumseh, Raisin and Ridgeway Townships, who poured nearly 14,000 gallons of water on the Rebottaro house, the dwelling was a total loss.

Injured in Crash

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jolliff, 504 Murray Dr., were injured in an auto accident March 5. about three miles north of Bowling Green, O.

Other passengers in the car were Brenda, 2, and Barbara, 6, daughters of the Jolliffs, and Mrs. Jolliff's sister, Beverly Fulton.

Beverly was treated at St. Vincent's Hospital, Toledo, and released. Mr. Jolliff, who suffered head injuries, was released March 10, and his wife, suffering from a fractured vertebra, will be hospitalized for some time.

Mr. Jolliff is employed at Peerless Gear, Clinton.

The driver of a car on the divided highway coming toward the Jolliff car, lost control on ice-covered pavement, crossed the dividing line and hit the Jolliff auto.

The Jolliff family has resided in Tecumseh for about two years. Beverly Fulton, of Dunkirk, O., plans to stay in the home.

As sure as a leprechaun's Irish,
As sure as a shamrock is green,
Sure, I wish ye the grandest St. Patrick's Day
That ever yerself has seen.

R. W. Dixon of Dixon's Studios attended the three day annual convention of Professional Photographers of Michigan at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Detroit last weekend.

Dale Close was a Sunday dinner guest of the R. W. Dixon family. Pvt. Close is home on leave from Fort Knox, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wolf, nee Shirley Hunt, flew to Midland, Sunday, to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wolf. This was the first flight that Mrs. Wolf has made with her husband since he received his pilot's license. She said that the weather was beautiful and they could see perhaps 25 miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rice and family have moved from Mason to Peebles, Ohio, where Tom is a manager with General Electric Corporation at the proving grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Spreeman returned from a delightful two weeks vacation touring the state of Florida recently. They visited the Howard Truesdales but did not find the Clarence Beaches at home.

Mrs. Spreeman remarked that she thought half of Tecumseh and maybe the whole state of Michigan is down there. The Spreemans also spent a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burleson at Fort Pierce where Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scarbrough and two children were also guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clauda, also vacationing in the sunshine state, and the Spreemans came home together.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Carper, nee Janice Wagner, moved from California to Michigan. They are now residing at 318 E. Hunt St., Adrian. Mr. Carper is a carpenter contractor. Mrs. Carper is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Weber and family of Frankenmuth, spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey, to attend the Linden-McNichol wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brock received a letter from their son, Pvt. David Brock, that he has arrived in Qui Nhon, Vietnam and expects to go to Pleiku in the highlands.

Ardis Drewyor arrived home Saturday evening from Humacao, Puerto Rico, where she has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Edward Mitchell for three weeks.

Mrs. Robert Bonner was in Kalamazoo Sunday to observe Mom's Day with her son, Bob. Sigma Chi fraternity entertained all the mothers at luncheon followed by the organization of a Moms' Club. Each of the honored guests was presented with a rose corsage.

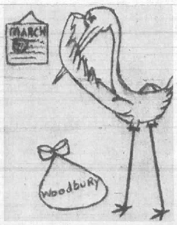
This worried stork, artistry of Mrs. James Wolf, has nothing on the expectant Kent Woodburys and "Grandma." If anyone sees that confused old bird do us all a favor and send him in the direction of EMU. Pa says "he has sure lost his way."



Spring Fling

Cup cake walk, a fish pond, snack bar, door prizes and many other booths will be featured at the Patterson School "Spring Fling" Saturday, April 2, from noon to 5 p.m.

Fred Pokorny is back from Istanbul, Turkey, where he was called by the death of his father, Karl Pokorny. Mr. Pokorny was a visitor here at his son's home last summer.

Mrs. Harold Easton and Mrs. Russell Cooper were accompanied to Kalamazoo by Mrs. Paul McKenna over the weekend to participate in "Mom's Weekend" festivities including breakfast, tea and a sorority sing with their daughters at Western Michigan University.

Mrs. Phillip Colgrove and Mrs. Robert Hanna have returned from a vacation in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Mrs. Cecile Smith arrived home Friday after five weeks in Florida where she said the weather was nice and she enjoyed a busy holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Withrow of Clinton and Mrs. Harry Withrow, Sr., attended ceremonies at Great Lakes Naval Training Center over the weekend in which Fred Withrow graduated.

They arrived home Sunday evening and Fred is expected this week for 14 days leave before going to California for further training.

Mr. and Mrs. James Felton entertained her entire family at dinner Saturday evening in their home, the first time the group had been together in six years. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Carey Jenkins, Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kapnick, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilson and daughter, Cindy, John Marine, Britton, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Kapnick and son, Allen, Carol Kapnick and Sheryl Moon of Owosso.

LOCAL BUSINESS

Keeping a customer "sold" is one of the essential functions of advertising. A first sale is of little value to the retailer. Each store must have regular customers before it can become profitable.

For both retailer and manufacturer, advertising is the only method of stimulating massive repetition of purchasing.

Advertising is a constant reminder that a company or a product is still serving the customer. It provides information on new developments, giving the consumer assurance that he is getting up-to-date goods and services. It maintains prestige for store and product.

The multi-million dollar advertising budgets of beverage companies would be wasted if appeals resulted only in single sales. Through relentless persistence their advertising resells many times.

The hometown retail store faces the same problem of reselling which commands the attention of the national manufacturer. A store really ceases to exist in the mind of the local consumer when it no longer proclaims its own merits.

Every retailer has competition — next door or in a nearby city. That competition is always quick and eager to fill a vacuum created by the absence of consistent advertising which constantly resells.

Beta Sigma Phi Entertains Four

Mrs. Gary Hanna, Mrs. Howard Wilson, nee Judy Truesdale, Mrs. Dean Sheldon and Mrs. Linda Jacobs were rushees at a "Hobo" rush party for Beta Sigma Phi Iota Epsilon Chapter, last Tuesday.

Mrs. Orville Cook was hostess at her Ridgeway home.

Members came dressed as hobos. Refreshments of chicken, baked potato and cup cakes were served from paper sacks.

Candles in tin cans were centered on each table. Candies, nuts and relishes were also served in tin cans.

Party bridge was played as everyone became acquainted.

Mrs. Harley Slick entertained at a model meeting for the same group Tuesday evening, at her home.

'Prelude to Spring'

Final plans for a "Prelude to Spring" luncheon and style show have been made by members of Eastern Star.

The luncheon will be held in the dining room of the Masonic Temple March 22 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Outfits will be modeled by Meredith Green, LaRue Hoagland, Bonnie Purkey and Amy Wolfon.

MRS. ROBERT BONNER, general chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. Robert Warner, Mrs. Weldon Hollar, Mrs. Walter Morden, Mrs. Clara Hicks, Mrs. Marvin Rumpf, Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mrs. Melvin Reuttinger and Mrs. Charles Manley.

Mrs. Manley is ticket chairman and tickets may be obtained from her or any OES member.

Proceeds from the public luncheon will be used for Chapter improvements.

Hold Round-Up

The Spring Round-Up for Holloway Homemakers, Sewing Susies and Tecumseh Top-Notchers this year will be held April 13, Tecumseh Community Center.

4H members are busy sewing and knitting to complete garments for this Style Show.

They Love Dancing

By DICK CARVER

Graceful young ladies glide onto a highly polished stage as the orchestra reaches a crescendo. Swan Lake comes to Tecumseh.

Not quite, but it's a start.

The Tecumseh Parks and Recreation department sponsors its final 10-week session of dance instruction which started March 16. You may still register for this session.

Instruction in Ballet, Tap, Ballroom dance, rhythm and coordination and probable adult courses is now in the second year locally.

Mrs. Bruce Brown, owner of the Eleanor School of Dance, Onsted, came to Tecumseh well recommended and has established a complete dance program for the area.

She is a 1960 graduate of Michigan State University in the communication arts field and has more than five years of practical experience. In addition Mrs. Brown is a certified member of the Cechetti Council of Dancing.

Probably her best recommendation is that when the tappety-tap-tap sounds more like clump-clump-clump Mrs. Brown can smile and think of tomorrow when clumsy children are graceful young ladies.

Tecumsehites End Marine Basic Course

SAN DIEGO, CALIF. (FHTNC), March 10 — Marine Privates Michael E. Meade, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Meade of Rt. 1, Occidental Rd., and Wayne F. Sisty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Sisty of 3841 Kaiser Rd., graduated from Marine recruit training recently.

During his eight weeks of intensified recruit training under veteran noncommissioned officer Drill Instructors, he learned net fighting, and methods of self-small arms marksmanship, bayo-protection.

He will undergo four weeks of individual combat training and four weeks of basic specialist training in his military occupational field before being assigned to a permanent unit.

The engagement of Constance Joyce Rumpf to Garry Lynn Valentine was announced at a small dinner party given by her grandmother, Mrs. George Gordon. Miss Rumpf is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rumpf now of Sylvania, O. A graduate of Sylvania High School, she is attending Stautzenberger Business College. Mr. Valentine is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Valentine of Toledo, O. He was also graduated from Sylvania High School and attended Toledo University. He is stationed at Keesler Air Force Base in Mississippi. Miss Rumpf and her family lived in Tecumseh for nine years. She attended Herrick Park School and Tecumseh Junior High School. The couple plan a May 7 wedding.

Japanese Flower Arranging Shown

Mrs. Laidlaw studied the Ohara school of design while in Tokyo as a serviceman's wife.

A special surprise, Mrs. Neil Pearson of The Tecumseh Garden Club was presented a President's Pin in recognition of her sponsorship of The Little Garden Club.

Five members attended the third and last Horticultural Clinic Workshop at Ann Arbor, on March 10. They relayed useful information concerning roses, bulbs, iris and fertilizing.

Those attending were Mrs. Bill Clausen, Mrs. Richard Hammel, Mrs. Carson House, Jr., Mrs. Laszlo Gero, and Mrs. Stanley Cook.

The May tour of the Kalamazoo Nature Center is coming soon. It is planned to have lunch in downtown Kalamazoo in order to see the mall.

A permanent Landscaping Committee will be appointed soon. The function will be planning and planting the City Park near City Hall.

Workshop meetings were set up for making centerpieces for the Hospital Auxiliary banquet. Members who wish to help will meet at Mrs. Don Moffatt's home, Wednesday mornings, 9:30 to 11:30 or Tuesday evenings, 8 to 10.

A new member, Mrs. Richard Gobba, was welcomed along with four guests, Mrs. George DiCarlo, Mrs. Hugh DesErmia, Mrs. Robert Laidlaw and Mrs. Neil Pearson.

Dick VanSickle Completes Basic Marine Training

During his eight weeks of intensified recruit training under veteran noncommissioned officer Drill Instructors, he learned small arms marksmanship, bayonet fighting, and methods of self-protection.

He will undergo four weeks of individual combat training and four wesks of basic specialist training in his military occupational field before being assigned to a permanent unit.

Library Remodeled

The Hall Memorial Library, Ridgeway, Board of Trustees announced today that the library is once again open during regular hours.

The hours are the same as before: Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. and Saturday, 2:30 to 5:30 p.m.

The interior was completely remodeled and redecorated with new lighting, furniture and shelving.

Those interested in viewing the new interior are welcome at an open house Saturday, March 19, from 2:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Light refreshments will be served while visitors browse through books and magazines.

Opal Miller is librarian.

Abi-Evans DAR Entertains Good Citizen Girls

Mrs. Robert McClain was welcomed as an associate member. Mrs. Neil Pearson, Mrs. Earl Lindsley and Mrs. Fay Whelan will be the delegates to the State Conference in Saginaw.

Marilyn Curtis, THS senior, presented a talk on activities of the DAR which she had prepared as a project for her government class in school.

Give $10 for Ben Cat

The First Baptist Women's Society elected officers for the coming year as presented by Mrs. Floyd Bryan, nominating committee chairman, at the Monday evening meeting.

They were:

President — Mrs. George French

First vice-president — Mrs. Thomas Brooks

Second vice-president — Mrs. Llewelyn Sisson.

Secretary — Mrs. Bertram Updike

Treasurer — Mrs. C. O. Baily

Officers along with chairmen and committee women will be installed at the April meeting.

Mrs. Orville Bishop, president, presided when members voted to send two members to the State Women's Conference in June.

They also voted to give $10 for postage for the Ben Cat effort and $5 for the Great Lakes Naval Hospital venture.

Mrs. William Rader invited all the ladies to their open house Saturday night, March 26.

Mrs. David Champanois presented devotions stressing the need for daily Christian witness. She then accompanied her young daughter, Dawn, as she sang, "Let the Sun Shine In."

A LOVE GIFT of $25.50 was dedicated by Mrs. Bryan. Mrs. Richard Carter presented the program, "The Churches Mission and Ministry."

Mrs. Charles Beland and Mrs. Robert Grigg acted as co-hostess chairmen, Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett and Mrs. George Burkhard served from a table with St. Patrick's theme appointments.

Mrs. Eddie Kirkland served as hospitality chairman and Mrs. Robert Gillsepie gave the closing prayer.

Dads, Sons Stage Supper

MACON — Saturday evening 102 Fathers and Sons, held a roast beef supper, served by the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Tables were centered with a magician's black hat, with silk scarfs and a white rabbit perched on top. The nut cups carried out the same theme. The Rev. Ronald Corl gave invocation and benediction.

Terry Ross acted as toastmaster and a reading was given by Robert Osborne. A solo was presented by Edward Clark accompanied by Mrs. Carl Thomas.

John Moranville, a magician from Saline appeared. Gifts were presented to Carl Hawkins, youngect grandfather with a grandson present. Mr. Ross, Whitmore Lake, father of the toastmaster, received a gift for traveling the farthest.

The Rev. Ronald Corl had the youngest son attending. Clyde Greenfield of Clinton was the oldest father present.

Police Check 5 Accidents

Only five mishaps were investigated by the Tecumseh police during the past week, with none involving personal injury. Two motorists were cited for violations.

A resume of the week is:

March 9 — Frank C. Becker, 46, Britton police chief, bumped a parked car while parking in downtown Tecumseh. He had a prisoner with him at the time and no citation was issued.

March 12 — Hugh Walters, 61, of 1013 Red Mill Dr., let his foot slip off the brake pedal and he ran into a parked car owned by Charles and Mildred Butler. Walters was cited for failing to have his car under control.

March 12 — John L. Kelly, 46, Clinton, was cited for improper passing on N. Pearl St., after he scraped another auto driven by Charles W. Frost Jr., of 9103 N. Union St.

March 14 — Jane Mitchell, 34, of 509 Stacy, bumped into a truck driven by John S. Stephens, 64, of 413 Center Dr. Stephens started to back up on Waskins Dr., stopped, and was then hit by Mrs. Mitchell. No charges were made.

March 14 — A three-car accident involved Robert Vacek, 18, Monroe; Jacqueline Ann Schuyler, 33, of 103 Pine St., and Alta L. Bidwell, 45, of 1214 Murray Dr. Vacek started across the intersection at E. Pottawatamie and Ottawa St., his gas pedal stuck, he then hit the Bidwell car, glanced off and hit the Schuyler auto, knocking it into a light pole. No citation was given.

Announce All Hands on Deck Prize Winners

Mrs. Dale Haught, chairman of the "All Hands on Deck" card party sponsored by the Welcome Wagon Club, announced winners of door prizes given at the event Friday evening.

Bernard Henehan took home first prize, a set of four TV tables. Second prize, a manicure set, went to Mrs. Edward Koscho. Third prize, a complete set of towels, went to Mrs. Bernard Henehan. Mrs. Lawrence Fester, fourth prize winner, received a luncheon cloth.

Drawings were made by Mrs. W. N. Winfield following the serving of a smorpasbord dessert.

The card party proceeds will enable them to give money to the Tecumseh Public Library as its service project for the year.

Police Post Gains Trooper

CLINTON — Trooper Gary A. Felske has been transferred from the Flat Rock State Police post to the Clinton post, effective April 17.

This is one of 78 transfers announced recently by Col. Frederick E. Davids. Shifts are made at the request of officers, to balance up or strengthen posts and to give broader experience.

Alcock Selected to Huron Team

By JIM LINCOLN

Coaches of the Huron League selected Terry Alcock, 6'4" Indian center, on its all-league team Monday night.

Whether the coaches really select the best in the league is debatable. Each school is allowed to submit just three players for nomination.

If a school had five Wilt Chamberlins, only three could make the first team and the other two would have to be relegated to second team or honorable mention status.

The selection of Alcock was no surprise. He outrebounded everyone else in the league, including the 6'5" Gibbons, and averaged about 12 points a game.

A statistical chart for the varsity players for the past season is:

PLAYER	G	FT	RBDS	TO	F	P
Terry Alcock	72-162	66-103	276	75	59	214
Gordon Gibson	57-120	37-62	46	69	54	163
John Goodman	39-124	29-45	62	33	30	107
Ron Rentschler	55-126	20-35	43	66	36	134
Scott Edwards	46-125	18-32	35	68	37	112
Lee Hannibal	3-8	1-9	16	6	6	7
Dean Hebb	113-235	68-85	95	87	56	281

Rev. Leonard Crain Addresses Baptists

The Rev. Leonard A. Crain, American Baptist missionary to Burma since 1938, will speak at Family Night Friday in the First Baptist Church.

Dinner will be served at 6 p.m.

The Rev. Mr. Crain returned to the United States recently on furlough from his work in the Audio-Visual Center in Mandalay of Central Burma.

Mr. Crain founded the Center and was its first director.

Radio ministry such as that being carried on by the Burma Christian Council through the Audio-Visual center, is of vital importance to the spread of the Gospel.

Tapes of Christian programs in the Burmese language, and other languages of the country, have been prepared at the center for broadcast by the transmitter of the Southeast Asia Radio Project in the Philippines.

PROGRAMS are beamed by directional antenna to many different areas by this station. Recently, it has become difficult to transport the tapes from Burma to the Philippines, so that some of the program preparation must now be done outside Burma.

REV. LEONARD A. CRAIN

A native of New York state, Mr. Crain holds the bachelor's degree from Denison University in Granville, Ohio, and a divinity degree from Colgate Rochester Divinity School in Rochester, N. Y. He has done graduate work at Wayne State University, Detroit, Mich.

He and Mrs. Crain, the former Margaret Hall, have two sons and a daughter. Their second son, Warren, is a missionary of the American Baptist Home Mission Society in Alaska.

Daniel Harvey is Promoted to First Class

RANTOHUL, ILL. — Daniel R. Harvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale R. Harvey of 410 E. Madison, Hastings, has been promoted to airman first class in the U. S. Air Force.

Airman Harvey is an administrative specialist at Chanute AFB, Ill. He is a member of the Air Training Command conducting the educational programs necessary to provide skilled fliers and technicians for the aerospace force.

The airman, a graduate of Tecumseh High School, attended Olivet Nazarene College, Bourbonnais, Ill.

Safety People Hit Driver Failures, It's Major Cause of Highway Accidents

Driver failure was labeled the major cause of state traffic deaths by Automobile Club of Michigan's General Manager Frederick N. Rehm at East Lansing, Friday.

Mr. Rehm was a luncheon speaker at the Michigan Press Association's 98th annual convention in the Kellogg Center where he presented the Club's Steering Wheel Award to 420 MPA-affiliated newspapers.

The plaque was presented to MPA on behalf of Michigan motorists in recognition of the positive approach to traffic safety newspapers have taken and for editorial support of the "Bring 'Em Back Alive!" safety program in 1965.

Rehm told newsmen attending Friday's luncheon that safety experts who claim that auto engineering and designing hold the key to reducing highway deaths are lulling motorists into a false sense of security.

"It is a fact that getting into your auto every day is potentially dangerous," said Mr. Rehm. "All you need do to convert this potential into an accident is have a momentary slip in judgment, sight or attention.

"Every driver, if you ask him, thinks he is a good driver," said Mr. Rehm. "And by and large he is. All most of us have to do is give extra attention to driving properly and we won't have an accident."

He pointed out that the Club and Michigan press accomplished three things during the past year:

- ► Helped increase tourism.
- ► The use of autos.
- ► Cut traffic deaths.

This is the fourth time in Auto Club's 50 year history that the Steering Wheel Award has been presented.

Other recipients have been Michigan's Department of Public Instruction, General Motors Corp. and WJBK-TV of Detroit.

Nick Hebert, Jeff Osburn Set Pace in Hockey Win

This marked the second time Tecumseh topped Monroe.

In order to play on the Arena ice, each young man had to pay $2.35, total cost being $50 for two hours.

The game started at 10:30 p.m., shortly after the Toledo Blades' professional squad had performed.

Two hours and 10 minutes later, the young icers quit.

Other Tecumseh scoring:

Doug Goldsberry — three.

King Dunn — two.

Steve Cook and Russ Blanden — one each.

Lonnie Holdridge, wearing a full set of goalie pads borrowed from the Adrian Recreation Department, thanks to an assist from Don Moffatt of Tecumseh, performed capably in the Tecumseh net.

ONCE A TECUMSEH SHOWPLACE, BILLS HOME BECAME EYESORE, NOW IS BEING TORN DOWN

Historic Homes Go Down

Editor's Note — Two historic homes in Tecumseh are currently being torn down. City historian Clara Waldron has prepared stories about them, with this week's article covering the Bills house.

By CLARA WALDRON

Such light-hearted things as dancing and horse racing seem very far removed from the sad old house that is being torn down at 218 East Kilbuck St.

Yet during and before the "Gay Nineties," the Bills House was the center of much that was colorful in the life of early Tecumseh.

It was one of the town's showplaces long before the Civil War. Its exact date is not known, but the main structure was built some time before 1846 by a Mr. Quackenbeck (or Quackenboss) on what was at that time a good-sized farm.

That year it was purchased by Perley Bills who enlarged and improved it. It had an impressive front entrance, with side lights and tall Doric pillars, beautiful interior finish and stairway.

THE MOST intriguing feature, however, was the third story, which provided the only private dance floor in the village. Naturally with a growing family the Bills house was a popular place for many years.

Perley Bills, the owner, was one of several remarkable young Easterners, who came to Tecumseh during the 1830s and helped to make it the prosperous, vigorous community that it was.

Alternately, studying and teaching, he had trained for the law and, after three years in Tecumseh, as head of the Academical School, a private school on a high school level, he established a law office.

He carried on there for the remainder of his life. Among his many interests was a private bank, which was successful as long as he managed it himself.

He served two terms in the state senate, was a delegate at the state Constitutional Convention and a member of the local school board for over 30 years.

With an owner so prominent in village affairs, the house doubtless saw much important entertaining.

ITS GAYEST era, however, though perhaps not the most worthy, came during the next generation when the youngest son, Channing Bills, essayed to turn the family farm into a racing stable.

On the land now occupied by the Rumpf Truck Co., he built an oval, half-mile race track, complete with grandstand. He bought several fast horses including one rather noted racer, "Banker Rothschild," through whom he hoped to build a good racing line.

For a number of years his track was part of a fairly wide circuit and visiting horses competed with local ones.

Horses were part of the social life then as cars are today and "going to the races" was a popular sport for both men and women, so no doubt the house for a few years was very gay.

Like many before and since, however, Bills found horse racing a good way to lose money and "Banker", in spite of his name could not save the situation. About 1895, he and 10 of his stable mates went under the auctioneer's hammer.

The track, in the meantime, had been used for the equally popular sport of bicycle racing and by an early baseball team.

In 1899 the land was used for railroad car shops and Tecumseh's racing days were over.

Although they continued to own the house, the Bills family all lived elsewhere and it stood deserted and empty for many years. Then it had a brief career as an apartment house, but abuse and neglect have brought it to the point of no return.

Vocational Survey Data on Agenda

The Citizens Advisory Committe for the Lenawee County Vocational Survey will meet Thursday, March 24, at 7:30 pm. in Madison School.

Discussion will center on data that have been assembled by the survey so far, especially the questionnaires which were sent out to all the graduates of Lenawee schools in 1965, also to this year's seniors and the parents of 7th graders.

The response to these survey instruments has been lively. The survey committee is contacting all Lenawee County businesses to find out the recommendations regarding vocational and technical education in Lenawee County.

Philip Bailey, in charge of area development with the Vocational Education Division of the State Department of Education, will be the resource authority for the meeting.

Music Makers Planning Election

The committee to report a slate of officers at the meeting April 17 at St. Peters Church is composed of Debbie Blanchard, Linda Gilbert, Jamie McWilliams and Stephen Maples.

The president also announced that National Music Week is from May 1 to 8, and urged members to attend Junior Day at the state convention May 14, at Michigan State University, East Lansing.

The program consisted of vocal and piano numbers by the Half Notes Club and Music Makers Club members who are participating in the State Festival, March 26, at Lansing.

Debbie Fogelsong, Paula and Sam Brantingham and Dianne Mannino performed. Those of the Music Makers who were unable to perform but will at the Festival are Jamie Danforth, Marcia Gilbert, Darlene Smith, Cynthia Wright, Linda Yoder and Karen Schultz.

The Elwood Bush family brass ensemble made up of Jim, David, Don, Michael and Mary Ann, played two selections.

Punch and cookies were served by Kathy Beevers, Debbie Blanchard and Linda Oberlin.

Mrs. Donald Bush of the Britton-Macon School system will be a guest organist at the next meeting.

Joins Honorary

Timothy M. Sisson, son of Mrs. Helen M. Sisson, 200 Chippewa, and Sam Sisson, 2473 E. Monroe Rd., was among 126 members initiated into Tau Sigma, Michigan State University scholastic honorary fraternity for liberal arts students.

Annette Forbes Weds Dale Tuckey

MR. AND MRS. DALE TUCKEY

Annette Theres Forbes became the bride of Dale Gordon Tuckey at the Holy Innocents Catholic Church, Roseville, in ceremonies performed by the Rev. Fr. Mark Thompson, recently.

The new Mrs. Tuckey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. Forbes of Roseville and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Tuckey, 117 N. Ottawa St.

A Dior bow and flower accented the back waistline. Her double tiered veil was secured to a small pearl and crystal crown over a lace edged mantilla.

Her only jewelry was a petite gold cross, gift of the groom.

A large dark olive velvet cabbage rose held her bouffant green veil in place and she carried white chrysanthemums with green ribbon in the shape of a cross.

Mrs. Louise Forte of St. Clair Shores and Chaton Coston of Grand Haven served as bridesmaids attired as the maid of honor.

Thomas Urbaniak of Dearborn was best man and guests were seated by Robert Forbes, brother of the bride, and Gerry Long, friend of the groom.

The bride is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University and is teaching elementary education in Warren.

The rehearsal dinner, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Tuckey, was held at the Old Colony Beef House in Roseville.

The engagement of Karen Leigh Robison and Douglas Richard Sherman is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth D. Robison of Stone Hwy. Mr. Sherman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Sherman of Billmyer Hwy. Miss Robison is a 1964 graduate of Tecumseh High School and is a student at Ferris State College. She is affiliated with the Delta Zeta sorority there. Mr. Sherman is also a 1964 graduate of Tecumseh High School and is in the Naval Air Reserve, stationed at Memphis, Tenn. An August wedding is planned.

Diane McNicol and Dean Linden Marry

Diane McNicol and Dean Linden were united in marriage March 12 at the Grace English Lutheran Church by the Rev. Kurt F. Koeplin.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McNicol, 2413 Occidental Hwy. and Mr. and Mrs. James Linden, 4600 Blood Rd.

Mrs. Hazel Coller presented nuptial music at the organ and the guests were seated by Dennis Linden, brother of the groom, and Clark Nichols.

THE BRIDE entered the sanctuary on the arm of her father. She wore a floor-length gown featuring an empire lace bodice with square neckline and long tapered sleeves and a chapel train of lace which fell from the controlled A-shaped skirt.

Sheri Simmons of Adrian was maid of honor in a full-length gown of willow green lace and yellow organza over taffeta with a watteau train at the back.

Ruth Niedermier and Barbara Posky, both of Arlington, Va. were the bridesmaids attired as the maid of honor.

David Randolph served as best man.

A reception was held in the church parlors for 200 guests with Mrs. Douglas Michling, Mrs. Dale Sayler, Mrs. James Griffin, Vera Fisher and Carolyn Rentchler assisting with the serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sitterly, aunt and uncle of the bride, were the hosts.

BOTH YOUNG PEOPLE are graduates of Tecumseh High School. The bride is employed at Hanna's Insurance Agency and her husband is in the Army.

Mr. and Mrs. James Linden were hosts for the rehearsal dinner given Friday evening at the church.

MRS. DEAN LINDEN

Two Explain Service Club Operations

Mrs. Fred Dickinson and Mrs. Philip Colgrove reported on operations of the Tecumseh Service Club for a meeting of Tecumseh Exchange Club, Monday.

Although records of the Service Club are only available since 1936, it was formed prior to that time.

Unusual experiences over the years in the administration of the club's aid program were related. The aim is to provide only emergency, immedate aid, until other assistance can be obtained.

The area served is that covered by the Tecumseh Public School area. Fourteen women serve on the Service Club board. The funds used are received from the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation.

The Exchange Club commended Service Club and said the community was fortunate in having such an organization.

Valerie Smith Marries Gary Marzolf

CLINTON — Valerie Patricia Smith and Gary Marzolf spoke their marriage vows Saturday afternoon in the United Church of Christ.

Their immediate families attended.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Marzolf of Morenci.

A reception at the Morenci Grange Hall after the ceremony was attended by 200 guests, among them were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smith of Tecumseh.

The bridegroom is a 1964 graduate of Morenci High School. He is employed with the A & P.

Following a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Marzolf will reside in Morenci.

Ridgeway PTA Elects Officers

Mrs. Franklin Schroeder opened the Ridgeway-Macon PTA meeting by reading PTA Objects.

New officers elected for the coming year are:

President — Cecil Pence.

Vice president — Harold Rhora .

Secretary — Mrs. Richard Chatters.

Treasurer — Mrs. Orville Cook.

Corresponding secretary — Mrs. John Escott.

Macon teacher vice president — Jerome Kujawa.

Ridgeway teacher vice president — not determined.

45 parents and teachers were present with the room banner going to Ridgeway fifth grade for most parents in attendance.

Harvey Koselka, prosecuting attorney from Adrian, gave a talk on "Divorce Rate and Its Problems".

Musical skits bidding Mrs. John Becker farewell and a welcome to Mrs. Graham Fleming were enacted by PTA mothers.

Mrs. Becker accepted the position of coordinator of remedial reading and Mrs. Fleming accepted duties of principal at Ridgeway School.

An engraved platter was presented to Mrs. Becker for many years of faithful service.

A decorated cake in the shape of an opened book, made by Mrs. Bernard Bishop, was served by the morning and afternoon kindergarten mothers.

Endorses Program

The Honorable Tom C. Clark, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, and President of the National Conference on Citizenship, has given a strong endorsement to the principles of the new Kiwanis-sponsored Freedom Leadership Program, it was learned by Syd Turner, President of the Kiwanis Club of Tecumseh.

Justice Clark received word of the new program from Kiwanis International President Edward C. Keefe of Oklahoma City when the latter visited the Supreme Court in Washington, D.C. in mid-January.

As President of the National Conference on Citizenship, he has long been active in efforts to strengthen the American heritage of freedom through explaining and dramatizing it to the people of America. The Freedom Leadership Program, which will be undertaken during 1966, and afterwards, by many of the 5,400 Kiwanis clubs, has substantially the same ends, Syd Turner said.

"Basically, the Freedom Leadership Program will be an effort by Kiwanians to bring the freedoms guaranteed by the Bill of Rights and the American jurisprudence system to the attention of their fellow citizens of all ages, explaining and dramatizing them in the process," the Kiwanis president added.

The program has received favorable endorsements from individuals and organizations especially interested in government and in the welfare of the people.

Want To Be in Comedy?

Tryouts for the Tecumseh Players next play, "Mary, Mary", will be Friday at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Community Center.

"Mary, Mary" was written by Jean Kerr, author of "Please Don't Eat the Daisies" and "The Snake Has All the Lines."

The director of this production will be Richard Egli, recently seen as Sky Masterson in "Guys and Dolls." He will be assisted by Mrs. Frank Dalton, who has copies of the play books.

There will be a regular Tecumseh Players meeting Sunday at 8 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

Those persons interested in working on a back stage phase of the play should sign up Sunday night with Ed Mengerink, technical director.

Talk on Art Given

MACON — The Woman's Club met March 10 at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hill with Mrs. Russel Collins and Mrs. Olga Graff assisting.

A tuna salad luncheon was served to 17 members.

During the business meeting, the group made an annual contribution to the various charitable organizations.

These included $5 to the March of Dimes, $2 to Lenawee County Youth Center, $2 to the Indian Scholarship Fund, $2 to Loch Rio (Girls Town) in Belleville and $5 to the Interlochen Musical School Fund.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Lyle Riddell, who gave a talk on art.

She told of its meaning, impressions and then showed portraits painted of famous artists.

Britton FFA Tour Date is Changed

By TOM HOUSEMAN

At the March meeting of the Britton FFA, it was decided to move the Massey-Ferguson plant tour date to April 5. It was previously scheduled for March 8.

Committees were chosen for the annual FFA banquet, April 26.

It was voted to pay expenses for the two delegates to the state convention. The delegates are Ron Eldred and Ron Heiden.

Also discussed was a school assembly, where the parliamentary procedure and Farm Forum teams would give a demonstration.

The meeting adjourned to the gym where the boys enjoyed recreation. Refreshments were served later in the shop.

It will be used by members in an effort to get higher yields off smaller acreage.

Smorgasbord Is Saturday

BRITTON — Annual Future Homemakers Smorgasbord is Saturday in Britton High School cafeteria from 5 to 7 p.m.

Tickets are 30c for pre-school children, 80c for children five to 12, and $1.50 for adults.

Britton Board Will Buy Bus

BRITTON — At the regular meeting of the Board of Education last week, it was voted to buy a 60-passenger bus, to replace the present No. 3 bus, now driven by Verl Lidster. Bids will be let soon.

Routine bills of $2,359.55 were ordered paid. There was no other business transacted.

Visit Ypsilanti State Hospital

BRITTON — A group of ladies from the Grace Methodist Church visited a ward at Ypsilanti State Hospital Wednesday afternoon. They took cup cakes and Jello for a St. Patrick's Day party.

Housemans Celebrate Mary's Day

BRITTON — Mrs. John Houseman entertained five girls after school Wednesday, to celebrate her daughter. Mary K's, eighth birthday anniversary.

The girls, all classmates of Mary K. were Julie Osterhout, Dan Lidster, Mary Beth Bigelow, Kim Bruce and Joyce Cabla. They played games and enjoyed refreshments of individual decorated heart-shaped cakes and ice cream.

Mary K opened many nice gifts.

Grace Church Will Observe One Great Hour

BRITTON — The Grace Methodist Church will observe One Great Hour of Sharing at the Sunday morning worship service, March 20.

The special offering will be for overseas relief, crusade scholarships, national mission projects and ministry to servicemen.

Organ Recital

Robert Roubos, assistant professor of music and acting chairman of the Department of Music of Adrian College, will present an organ recital Sunday at 4 p.m. in the Adrian College Chapel.

Britton Juniors Present 'Arsenic'

By SHERRY SQUIRES

The Junior play, Britton High School, "Arsenic and Old Lace," is coming soon.

Under the direction of Gary Lovett and John Evans, it will be presented on May 5 and 6, 1966.

"Arsenic and Old Lace" will prove one of the most technical plays ever presented at Britton, the director said. The scenery is complicated and requires ingenuity and "elbow grease".

The stage crew has put 200 hours of work into building a stairway and expects 200 more to be ready.

A different method of lighting will be used. It is a system allowing the crew to brighten and dim the lights smoothly.

Shallow and deep stage lighting, flood lights, spot lights, a chandelier, and light fixtures will lend effect to the production.

Sound will be improved with use of six microphones on stage and special sound and electronics back-stage.

Technical improvements on the stage should add to the success of this year's Junior play.

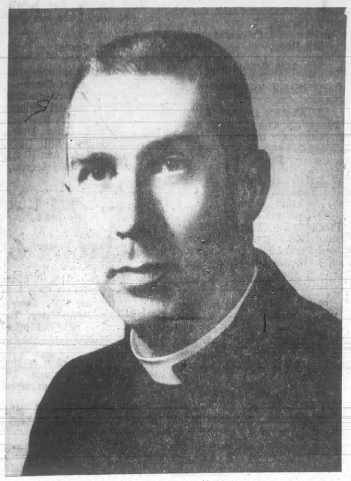
Dr. Whitaker Visits St. Peters Episcopal

Rev. Dr. Robert Whitaker, director of the School of Theology, Michigan Diocese, one of the leading priests in the Episcopal Church in Michigan will be the guest of St. Peter's Episcopal Church congregation Sunday, March 20.

Dr. Whitaker will preach at the 9 and 10 a.m. services, the first one being the 'folk-song mass' with music by Stephen Maples leading the Senior High singers with the guitar.



REV. DR. ROBERT WHITAKER

Dr. Whitaker graduated from Gordon College with an A.B. degree in 1940, Boston University with a Master's degree in 1941. Between 1941 and 1944 he did graduate work at both Yale and Harvard and did further studies at Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Mass., which awarded him the degree Bachelor of Divinity. He received his Ph.D. from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, 1948.

Besides serving in several posts in this country, Dr. Whitaker was a Navy Chaplain in the Admiralty Islands and Guam, and for nearly three years was appointed by the Bishop and Dean of Edinburgh, as guest priest on the staff of St. Mary's Cathedral.

From 1948-1952 he was instructor in church history and philosophy at St. Andrew's Seminary, Manila, Philippine Islands. Following his return to the United States, he as oppointed Visiting Associate Professor of Theology at Bexley Hall, Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio.

Chaplain of the Episcopal Student Foundation of the University of Michigan, Dr. Whitaker engaged in work with students and faculty from 1953-1955.

In 1965 he received appointment "Distinguished Guest Lecturer" in Department of Religion of Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Embassy Display Features Toledo Art Collection

TOLEDO — Outstanding collections and activities of the Toledo Museum of Art were featured in a recent United States Embassy display in Latin America El Salvador, thanks to efforts by former Toledoan Richard M. Hughes.

Mr. Hughes, Cultural Attache for the American Embassy in El Salvador, utilized the many publications of Toledo Museum of Art in organizing the exhibit.

Hot Lunch Fees Are Boosted

School hot lunch cost are going up.

But they may be back to normal, says Norvel Bovee, the school district's finance man.

For adults, the price jumps from 45c to 50c.

THERE ARE three reasons:

This has meant a loss of $364.16 to date in the program, reports Mr. Bovee and the only way to get back in the black is a raise in prices.

Milk will be unaffected, he noted, still 3c per half pint with the Type A lunch at THS, and 4c for youngsters in the elementary schools.

Last month, students consumed 22,000 half pints.

FEDERAL reimbursements amounted to $597 for November and $578 for December, about $200 off the normal pace.

Mr. Bovee pointed out that the same thing happened last year as spring arrived and surplus food supplies were light. By fall, the situation righted itself and the government returned to its former reimbursement schedule.

He predicts the same thing will probably occur this year.

SPEAKS AT LAYMAN'S BANQUET — Maurice Kelly of the creative staff in a large advertising agency, will be featured speaker at the annual Layman's Banquet, Thursday evening in St. Elizabeth School auditorium. The dinner begins at 6:30 p.m. and will be for all men in the community. Tickets are $2 for adults and $1.50 for students. Merlyn Downing, vice-president of the United Savings Bank, will be toastmaster.

Box Social Brings $104 for Diane

TIPTON — An old-fashioned box social was held in the fellowship room of the Tipton Community Church Saturday evening with 40 attending.

The money will be given to Diane Spycher, who is going to South America this summer with the Michigan Chorale.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilheim Spycher of Tipton and a senior at Tecumseh High, Diane will use the money for expenses.

Miss Spycher entertained the group with two solos, accompanied by Mrs. Lester Munger.

Anyone wishing to contribute more to this fund may leave it with Mrs. Grover Swarts at the post office in Tipton or with Mrs. Jack Allen of rural Tecumseh.

Pythian Sisters Prepare for Sale

Mrs. Lynn Hubbard, Mrs. Forest Abner, Mrs. Elmer Wilt and Mrs. Arthur Hare served refreshments following a brief meeting of Pythian Sisters last Wednesday evening.

Members spent the evening mending and preparing articles for a rummage sale held this weekend.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

Today it is no longer a dream—but it is still magic.

Through technical wizardry real life scenes are flashed thru the air, picked up by our rooftop antenna and we — millions and millions of Americans — enjoy the endless parade. The farmer, the rancher, the fisherman, the villager share with the city dweller a new dimension of life.

The nation has an instantaneous means of alarm and communication in emergency.

And it all comes without an admission charge, without dues, without fees.

This is the miracle of our American system of free, through-the-air television.

But wait! Something new has appeared on the scene. The proponents of CATV (Community Antenna Television) are selling a different kind of television.

They turn back to the use of wire, whereas it was the discarding of the constricting limitations of wire that made the marvel of modern American free broadcast television possible.

Before hundreds of city councils over America, including Tecumseh and Adrian, these backers are today trying to persuade city fathers to give them a monopoly—an exclusive franchise to string their wires on the poles, to run them to the homes, to collect lucrative fees.

UNLIKE TV and radio broadcasting, CATV is not regulated by the Federal Government. The only regulation that CATV has today is any local requirement which may be written into a franchise by a city council.

What a far cry this present-day feverish promotion and competition for a franchise is from the early days of CATV, when in many cases it performed a truly useful function. Those were the days when the existing system of off-the-air TV broadcasting could not reach certain communities because mountainous terrain blocked signals.

Where such conditions still exist, and there is no reasonable early prospect for the boon of broadcast television, there can be no logical objection to the use of CATV.

However, in the case of Tecumseh and Adrian, where we are able to receive all three major networks—channels 2, 4, 6, 7, 9, 10, 11 and 13 on VHF and channel 50 and future UHF channels with the proper antenna system, we do not feel that it is necessary.

With the rapid growth of our community in the next few years, is it not reasonable that we could be assigned a UHF station? What chance would it have of being a success if the majority of homes were hooked up with CATV and they did not desire to carry the local channel.

What will be the effect on our local AM and FM radio stations if background music is carried over the CATV system? Will we have any free public service communication available after a period of time?

WE STRONGLY urge that you contact your city council and recommend that they take the following action:

1—Give CATV full study, perhaps by appointing an impartial study committee to consider the pros and cons of the matter.

2—Solicit information about CATV from all possible sources.

3—Determine state public utility commission position on CATV.

4—Postpone final action on any CATV application until the FCC makes a final determination of its authority to regulate CATV.

Manager Resigns Position

CLINTON — Charles Straight, plant manager of the Budd Co., Clinton Division, has resigned his position. He will be the manufacturing manager of the European operations for the Vickers Company of Detroit and will go to Europe in the next few weeks.

Mrs. Straight and two daughters, Holly and Andrea, will join him in London this summer.

Jack Taffe Shows Viet Photographs

Mr. Taffe, a commercial airline pilot, flew a cargo plane to Vietnam last winter with medical supplies for the people. He answered questions about the country.

Mrs. Roy Williams presented the devotions.

Philatheans Study Time of Greatness

CLINTON — Mrs. Thomas Pence read an article titled "Time of Greatness" for the Philathea class, United Church of Christ, at the Thursday afternoon meeting.

Mrs. Pence also conducted a Bible quiz.

Ann Heimerdinger presented the devotions.

The dessert luncheon was served by Ethel Lindsley and Mrs. Elmer Johnson, assisted by the hostess, Mrs. Richard Denning.

Mrs. Arlo Warner and Mrs. Johnson will have charge of a breakfast, March 24.

Clintonians Will Attend FFA Confab

CLINTON— FFA advisor John Jansen will accompany delegates, Dave Heslip and Terry Kershner, to the annual Michigan FFA convention at Michigan State University, March 23, 24 and 25.

Rick Welch will go with them to compete for a position in the National FFA band. This will be a second try by Rick, who plays a sousaphone. He rated a first chair position in the all-county band last year.

SOMEONE SHOOTING — Clinton's Butch Hoelzer and Leslie's Bob Craft jointly aid the ball in one direction, or another in the hectic victory. Jerry Bellmore and Bill Jedele, Clinton senior forwards, were caught off-guard on the play.

Redskins Edged in Final Seconds

By ED VOGEL

Rod McMichael's jump shot at the final buzzer was the first and only time the Blackhawks led in the contest as they triumphed 66-65.

The Redskins held a six-point margin, at 65-59, with 22 seconds remaining. Many fans were leaving, since it appeared that the Clinton cagers clinched the victory, but then Leslie's Chuck Lay scored and was fouled by Butch Hoelzer.

Chuck converted the foul and the Blackhawks trailed by three with the Redskins owning the ball.

Clinton's in-bound pass went astray and Lay put in another bucket. The Redskins still led 65-64 and appeared to be in little danger, since they had the ball with only five seconds left.

Chuck Lay grabbed off another Clinton pass and threw the ball to teammate Rod McMichael, who connected for the game-winning shot, proving the old saying about sports that a game isn't over until the final buzzer sounds.

BUTCH HOELZER closed out a fine sophomore year as he scored 29 points to lead all players. The total was his second highest scoring game, just shy of the 30 he scored in the season's opening game against Onsted.

Clinton jumped into the lead right at the start. Early in the second quarter they opened their largest margin at 27-17, but Leslie fought back to trail by only four at the half. In the third period the Redskins opened an eight point margin, at 50-42, but again the Blackhawks narrowed it to 54-48 at the quarter's conclusion. Then they tied the game 58-58 with 2:58 remaining. The Redskins rallied to their ill-fated six points.

All of Clinton's tournament games were decided by one point. The Redskins won the District Tournament at Ida, 52-51, and Boysville 78-77, but in Friday's contest they came out on the wrong end of a one point decision.

Clinton completed one of their finest seasons in many years as they finished with an overall 14-6 won-lost record.

Mrs. Danforth New Director

CLINTON — Mrs. James E. Danforth of 804 Outer Dr. has accepted the position of choir director at the United Church of Christ.

Mrs. Danforth, a private vocal teacher, studied with the late Dr. Kenneth N. Westerman of Adrian and Ann Arbor. She has performed with the Choral Union Society of the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Danforth came to Tecumseh with her husband, James, about 14 years ago. She has been a soloist and member of the First Baptist Church during that time.

Professor Blaine Ballard, assistant to Howard Rarig, head of the Music Department of Eastern Michigan University, was director of the choir for five years.

Mrs. Danforth said that singing under his direction has been most helpful to her and she feels better able to assume the position at Clinton because of recent study with him.

Choir rehearsals resumed Tuesday at the Clinton Church with the Junior choir at 7 p.m. and the Senior choir at 8 p.m. The choirs will begin working on special Easter music.

James Blumhardt Given Ad Altare Dei Scout Award

CLINTON—James Blumhardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Blumhardt, was presented the Ad Altare Dei Award for Scouting and Religious Proficiency at a ceremony at St. Dominic's Catholic Church, last Wednesday evening.

The presentation was made by the Rev. Fr. Edward Kalinowski in behalf of the Diocese of the Catholic Church. This is the first time such an award has been given in this area.

Dorothy Lamming Addresses Women

CLINTON — Dorothy Lamming, associate professor of art at EMU, analyzed "Women in Art" for the members of the Clinton Women's Club, Wednesday afternoon, at the Community Center.

Miss Lamming used colored slides to trace the history of women in art from Paleolithic times when pictures of women were used as a fertility symbol, Medieval art which dealt mainly with religious subjects, through the Renaissance when paintings began to have a more realistic look.

She described the paintings by the several famous artists through the years who influenced the art of their period.

She advised her listeners to "Buy something beyond your taste because one grows by becoming exposed to things."

The meeting was attended by twenty members. Mrs. Frank Fitzpatrick, the president, introduced a new member, Mrs. Jerry Jaqua.

Mrs. Linn Weaver, Mrs. Viva Riker and Mrs. Roy Bower were appointed to the nominating committee.

MRS. TED KIEBLER reported for the ways and means committee. A thrift shop is planned for March 31 and April 1 and 2 at Bohannon's Store, with a bread and pie sale on April 2.

Mrs. John Mabry is in charge of posters and Mrs. Wilson will have charge of the work committee.

Mrs. Linn Weaver poured from a tea table covered with white lace tablecloth and centered with chrysanthemums and gladiolus and flanked by green candles.

The spring luncheon will be held April 13, at Lyster Hall, with a book review by Mrs. Charles Dengler.

KATHRYN MANLEY

Kathryn Manley Awarded Mention in Science Fair

Kathryn Manley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Manley, 611 Murray Dr., received honorable mention in the Junior High Division in the annual Michigan School for the Deaf Science Fair.

Kathryn, 15, is an eighth grade student at the school which she has attended since she was three years old.

German measles during her mother's pregnancy was the cause of Katy's handicap. The disease destroyed the nerve endings leaving little Katy with only 5% hearing.

Mrs. Manley is enthusiastic about the school at Flint, telling of the remarkably homelike life that students there enjoy.

Awards were presented to the winners in the Science Fair March 9 at an assembly held at the school. Mr. Manley attended the function.

The special award Katy received was a notebook and ball point pen. Her display portrayed both products that are good for the teeth and those not so good. The name of the exhibit was "Our Teeth."

Mr. and Mrs. Manley also have four other children at home.

NEWS FROM BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

Baseball practice for Boysville's 1966 season began in earnest this week. The pre-season outlook is good, as Coach Pat Connors has nine returning members from last year's league champion team.

Two of Boysville's seniors found a berth on the River Raisin Conference's All-League team. Moe Jacobs and James Cowan were elected to the post-season honors in a meeting of River Raisin League coaches held recently.

Jacobs led the Boysville squad in scoring and rebounding. He totaled 320 points on the regular season, hitting for 44 per cent, and an average of 18.8 points per game. Under the boards, the 6'2" forward pulled down a total of 262 rebounds.

Jim, a guard, followed Jacobs in the scoring department. He hit for 38 per cent of his shots, netting a total of 303, for an average of 17.8 per game.

In addition, Jim holds a school scoring record for the most points in a single game with 42, scored against Sand Creek on January 11.

Track practice at Boysville is also under way. Brother James Kinsella, C.S.C., has a good turnout. Many are yet-to-be-proven first year men.

A weekend home is scheduled for the week of March 18. Easter vacation, extending from April 1 to 17, follows in only eleven days.

PVT. DOUGLAS HOFFMEISTER

Hoffmeister Home 15 Days After Basic

Pvt. Douglas S. Hoffmeister is spending 15 days leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Hoffmeister, 6201 Green Hwy. Hoffmeister has completed eight weeks basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. He will report to Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. for training in engineering.

Franklin Hobby Club Meets at Willnows

The Franklin Hobby Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Roy Willnow, March 17, at 7:30 p.m.

Members will bring ideas for Easter centerpieces of other decorations. They will wear something green for St. Patrick's Day.

Larry Stebleton Earns Commission

FORT BENNING, GA.—Larry L. Stebleton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore F. Stebleton, 212 E. Shawnee St., was commissioned an Army second lieutenant after graduating from the Infantry Officer Candidate School, Fort Benning, Ga., Feb. 25.

During the rigorous 23-week course, Lieutenant Stebleton was trained in the classroom and in the field in leadership, tactics of small infantry units, employment of infantry weapons and supporting arms, map and aerial photograph reading, jungle and guerrilla warfare and counter-insurgency operations.

He is a 1959 graduate of Bowling Green, Ohio, High School and received a BS degree in business administration in 1963 from Bowling Green State University. The lieutenant is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

News from the Tecumseh Library

New books at your Public Library:

FACT AND FICTION ABOUT PHONICS by Roma Gans. This aptly-titled book offers a simple definition of phonics, a demonstration of its use in and out of the classroom, and an examination of the fallacies of over-dependence on phonics or any other panacea in teaching reading to children.

YOUR GUIDE TO FOOT HEALTH by Morton Walker. A complete book on the care and comfort of your feet.

THE DROPOUT: CAUSES AND CURES by Lucious Cervantes. In this unique and imaginative book the dropout speaks for himself. His views are compared with those of a high school graduate having the same I. Q. and similar social and economic background.

We learn how these young people feel about their families, friends, and teachers. We gain insight into many of their basic emotions and attitudes.

ABYSS by C. P. Idyll. The author guides the reader on an armchair tour of the strange world of the abyss, the deep sea that makes up nine-tenths of the water of the oceans. He tells of the birth of the oceans, from the very beginnings of our planet, and the first appearance of liquid water in a worldwide downpour "that makes the Biblical deluge seem as a light and transitory mist."

AFRICA AETERNA: THE PICTORIAL CHRONICLE OF A CONTINENT. This is a beautifully-illustrated book, with well-written text, showing the past and present of this magnificent continent.

These are new records that have been added to the collection at your Public Library. These, and many others, may be checked out on your library card for a week, without charge.

Through My Window

WHO WILL WIN THE TREE?

We just might have been in on what could conceivably turn out to be a first class territorial war. For the official record, the initial skirmish occurred on March 3, 1966. The protagonists were a blue-jay and a tousled-head kingfisher. The battle ground was a small tree which grows at the creek's edge.

It was a beautiful day if you will remember — Elizabeth and I had been suffering slight twinges of spring fever. Concentration on things inside was hard and our glances frequently wandered up the creek. After the long and dreary winter this was our first really good inkling of the nice things, the nice spring time things, which will be coming our way.

Does everyone agree that it cannot happen too soon?

Anyway, this was a great day with the temperatures nearing 60, the air soft and, although the sky was slightly overcast, there was enough sunshine to encourage our longing for spring.

It was the kind of day which always possesses a tingle of excitement and expectation. Some thing was going to happen, it just had to. Mid-afternoon found us still waiting, though there had been much bird activity but nothing that lived up to the promise of the day.

Oh sure, there were more cardinals than usual, more blue-jays, more sparrows, more nuthatches and the tufted titmice had been whistling at a near record loudness, but still and all, there should be something else.

Suddenly, on one of our daydreaming excursions through the window, there it was! Excitement raised my hoarse voice to a fairly loud yell as I called for Elizabeth to come and see the kingfisher.

Wow! He seemed bigger than life, so close was he. This side of M. and D.'s Bridge and on this side of the creek, there grows a small tree which over the years has struggled through floods and ice jams.

In their search for light, its branches have been drawn 'creek side' and it was on these tiny limbs, which extend over the water, that our kingfisher perched.

He was a handsome fellow. Most of the time his back was to us, thus we had ample time to "oh and ah" over the prettiness of his dusky blue color and how it was accentuated by the snowy whiteness of his wide collar.

Was it only our imagination or could this have been a great-great-grandfather His head seemed larger, his crest higher and more ragged, his bill bigger. This just had to be the grand patriarch of the kingfisher clan.

There he was, the perfect picture of a kingfisher at work. Perched on a limb over the water, he sat patiently waiting for dinner to swim by. Occasionally that marvelous head turned one way and then the other, but it was an unhurried movement and indicated only that he wanted a better look at something.

All at once, a brash young upstart flew into the scene. Bold and arrogant as only a blue-jay can be, he was looking for trouble, I am sure. Not content with merely resting in the kingfisher's tree, he bounded from one branch to another, moving close to the bigger bird and then backing away. He was obviously issuing a challenge.

Who was infringing upon whose territory? The kingfisher paid absolutely no attention to blue-jay's actions. This, of course, did nothing to soothe our belligerent blue-jay. We were wondering what would happen next when suddenly the long awaited fish appeared, the kingfisher dove and all action ceased.

So it is that we are still wondering whether we were in on the beginning of a feud. If the kingfisher has selected this as a regular fishing spot and the blue-jay continues his attempts at harassment, who will win the tree?

Musicians Club Makes Bookmarks

By KATHRYN SOMMERS

Members of the Tecumseh Music Club met for a work meeting Tuesday evening, March 8, in the basement of the Tecumseh Friends Church.

The group concentrated on making bookmarks for distribution through the library during National Music Week, May 1-8.

During the business portion of the evening plans were laid to purchase books for the library in memoriam of the late Edith Ingersoll, a member of the club.

Mrs. Ashley Chase, Mrs. Leland Fogelsong and Mrs. Lee Spohr sang three religious numbers in observance of the Lenten Season. Mrs. Fred Oberlin accompanied them on the piano.

A newcomer to Tecumseh, Mrs. Clarence Kenney, was a guest for the evening.

Mrs. Fogelsong and Mrs. Truman Rentschler were hostesses for the social time.

The April meeting of the Tecumseh Music Club will be April 12 in St. Peter's Episcopal Church. It will be guest night and Dexter Bailey will present an organ recital.

THE LANSING REPORT FROM senator GIL BURSLEY

As a service to the citizens of Washtenaw and Lenawee counties I am presenting a State Government Day Saturday, March 26 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in Rooms R & S of the Michigan Union in Ann Arbor.

Purpose of State Government Day will be to bring five of the 19 principal departments of our newly-reorganized state government into direct contact with citizens of the area.

Department directors have been invited to make a 30-minute presentation followed by 15-minutes of questions and answers. Questions that cannot be covered in the allotted 15 minutes may be submitted in writing and the Department directors will reply by letter.

The five departments that will participate in this first State Government Day are commerce, state tax commission, mental health, social services and conservation.

I would anticipate that county, city, village and school officials would find this program most worthwhile. But all citizens are invited. This is a service for all the public.

Proceedings will be tape recorded and reproduced as a further public service. It is probable that part or all of the program will be covered by live radio.

The Commerce Department has the period from 9 a.m. to 9:45 a.m. Besides a description of the duties of each of its principal divisions some attention will be directed to federal planning programs for which communities may qualify by applying through the State.

The State Tax Commission will have from 9:45 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

The Department of Mental Health will have from 10:30 to 11:15 a.m. Future plans to deal with the mentally ill and retarded will be discussed as well as the Community Mental Health Program.

The Department of Social Services will have the period from 11:15 a.m. to noon. Attention will be devoted to a description of new programs for senior citizens as well as for young people. Progress on the merger of county welfare departments and social service activities will be described.

The last period beginning at noon will be given to the Department of Conservation. Water resources, parks and deer management are some of the subjects to be covered.

READ THE HERALD IT PAYS

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

Recently I announced sweeping new recommendations for the state to accept responsibility for treatment of all law-breakers under age 21 who are committed by probate and circuit courts.

These proposals mark a historic new departure in the state provision of effective, flexible, and equitable programs for treating and rehabilitating youth from age 15 to 21.

These major steps would not have been possible without the great amount of hard, imaginative planning and action which has been undertaken by state agencies over the past few years.

I will recommend amendments so that the Department of Social Services can and shall accept all juveniles (under age 17) committed to it. State facilities and services will not be just 'finishing schools' for selected so-called 'nice' delinquents.

The Social Services Department has been operating under this policy since last year, but we must make sure it has proper legal authority to carry out this mandate.

Also I will seek a new "Alternative Sentencing of Minors" law, which will give Circuit Judges the option of handling 17-21 year olds in civil "youthful offender" proceedings. Under present law, only criminal proceedings are available for handling these older minors.

Under my proposal, 17-21 year olds whom Circuit Judges choose to handle in civil proceedings would be committed to the Department of Corrections, which would place them in specifically-designated "youthful offender" facilities.

The Corrections Department's "youthful offender" facilities would also be able to accept transfers of appropriate juvenile cases from the Department of Social Services. The facilities would also be available for the treatment of certain juveniles who had been tried under alternative sentencing procedures in Circuit Court after waiver from Probate Court. In no case would minors be mingled with adult criminals.

The Corrections Department now has adequate facilities which it can designate at present for "youthful offenders," but additional facilities may be needed in the future.

I have urged that Probate Court commitments of juveniles (under age 17) should be made to the Department of Social Services, rather than to specific institutions under its jurisdiction, as is now the case.

In this way, there will be no artificial barriers to utilizing the total resources of the Department for rehabilitating committed youngsters. The Department of Mental Health will also assist with facilities and programs.

Proposes Research

By DICK CARVER

Dr. Richard E. Werstler, chairman of the Division of Teacher Education at Adrian College, proposed a Lenawee County Research Council last Thursday evening.

Speaking to Kiwanis members from Tecumseh and Adrian, Dr. Werstler compared national and international growth to Lenawee County.

He proposed the Council as a remedy to "growing like Topsy" both in recreation and education facilities.

Essentially he proposed intra-county coordination and action in a problem that becomes more prevalent each year.

SPECIFICALLY he indicated wide-reaching strides in education facilities with the need for first-hand experience in art, science and natural history. He proposed an Art and Civic Center as one of four arms of the County Research Council.

The other three areas would cover County Parks, Education Research and an Anti-Poverty Center.

"Cooperation of all individuals in our community," Dr. Werstler said, "is essential to complete the task of meeting America's educational needs."

He stressed the need to act soon, before land costs, population and education needs have reached the demand necessity stage.

IN EDUCATION, the council could study such problems as redistricting, efficient school operation, and financial responsibility.

On a project such as the River Raisin development, it could coordinate efforts toward water resource development, camping and recreation areas.

Finally, he stressed the extreme need for communication between areas of the county and this entire area of Michigan.

Each day brings more people, greater needs and greater competition to Lenawee County and the time to act, Dr. Werstler indicated, is now.

THS Class of '56 Requests Address

The Tecumseh High School Class of 1956 planning committee for the annual alumni banquet requests information regarding any change of address for alumni as the invitations are presently being addressed for mailing at a future date.

They would also like information about special get-together parties being arranged by individual classes the night of the banquet, July 23.

Mrs. Russell Hyatt, 6671 Mill Hwy., will accept all information.

In answer to several inquiries regarding what the committee meant by round dancing — this is the regular couple type dancing, fox trot, waltz, etc.

As earlier stated by the committee, there will be square dancing offered.

o

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hadley, former residents who were seriously injured in an auto accident near Greenville, Texas, Jan. 19, will be flown to Chicago and from there will go by ambulance to St. Joseph to be near their son, Jack, and family. Their address is 1111 Flanders Place.

'I Am A Tired American'

Several of our readers have asked that this article be reprinted in The Herald. Since first published by Mr. McIntosh last November, it has appeared in many publications, large and small.

By ALAN McINTOSH

Publisher, The Star Herald, Luverne, Minn.

I am a tired American.

I'm tired of being called the ugly American.

I'm tired of having the world pan-handlers use my country as a whipping boy 365 days a year.

I am a tired American — weary of having American embassies and information centers stoned, burned, and sacked by mobs operating under orders from dictators who preach peace and breed conflict . . .

I am a tired American—choked up to here on this business of trying to intimidate our Government by placard, picket line, and sit-ins by the hordes of dirty unwashed who rush to man the barricades against the forces of law, order, and decency.

I AM A tired American — weary of the beatniks who say they should have the right to determine what laws of the land they are willing to obey.

I am a tired American — fed up with the mobs of scabby-faced, long-haired youths and short-haired girls who claim they represent the "new wave" of America and who sneer at the old-fashioned virtues of honesty, integrity, and morality on which America grew to greatness.

I am a tired American — weary unto death of having my tax dollars go to dictators who play both sides against the middle with threats of what will happen if we cut off the golden stream of dollars.

I am a tired American — nauseated by the lazy-do-nothings who wouldn't take a job if you drove them to and from work in a Rolls-Royce.

I AM A tired American — who is getting madder by the minute at the filth peddlers who have launched Americans in an obscenity race, who try to foist on us the belief that filth is an integral part of culture.

I am a tired American — weary of the bearded bums who tramp the picket lines and the sit-ins — who prefer Chinese Communism to capitalism — who see no evil in Castro, but sneer at President Johnson as a threat to peace.

I am a tired American — who has lost all patience with that civil rights group which is showing propaganda movies on college campuses from coast to coast — movies denouncing the United States, movies made in Communist China.

I AM A tired American — who is angered by the self-righteous breastbeaters critics of America, at home and abroad, who set impossible yardsticks for the United States, but who never apply the same standards to the French, the British, the Russians, the Chinese.

I am a tired American — who resents the pimply-faced beatniks who try to represent Americans as the "bad guys" on the black horses."

I am a tired American — who is weary of some Negro leaders who, for shock purposes, scream four-letter words in church meetings.

I am a tired American — sickened by the slack-jawed bigots who wrap themselves in bedsheets in the dead of night and roam the countryside looking for innocent victims.

I AM A tired American — who dislikes clergymen who have made a career out of integration causes, yet send their own children to private schools.

I am a tired American — who resents those who try to peddle the belief in schools and colleges that capitalism is a dirty word and that free enterprise and private initiative are only synonyms for greed. They say they hate capitalism, but they are always at the head of the line demanding their share of the American way of life.

I am a tired American — who gets more than a little bit weary of the clique in our State Department which chooses to regard a policy of timidity as prudent — the same group which subscribes to a "no-win" policy in Vietnam.

I am a tired American — real tired of those who are trying to sell me the belief that America is not the greatest nation in all the world — a generous-hearted nation — a nation dedicated to the policy of trying to help the "have nots" achieve some of the good things that our system of free enterprise brought about.

I AM AN American — who gets a lump in his throat when he hears the "Star Spangled Banner" and who holds back tears when he hears those chilling high notes of the brassy trumpet when Old Glory reaches the top of the flag pole.

I am a tired American — who wants to start snapping at those phony "high priests" who want us to bow down and worship their false idols and who seek to destroy the belief that America is the land of the free and the home of the brave.

I am a tired American — who thanks a merciful Lord that he was lucky to be born an American citizen — a nation under God, with truly mercy and justice for all.

College and Communism

The American College student today is being subjected to a bewildering and dangerous conspiracy perhaps unlike any social challenge ever before encountered by our youth.

On many campuses he faces a turbulence built on unrestrained individualism, repulsive dress and speech, outright obscenity, disdain for moral and spiritual values, and disrespect for law and order.

This movement, commonly referred to as the "New Left," is complex in its deceitful absurdity and characterized by its lack of common sense.

Fortunately, a high percentage of the more than 3 million full-time college students are dedicated, hardworking, and serious-minded young people; however, their good deeds and achievements are greatly overshadowed by those who are doing a tremendous amount of talking but very little thinking.

Much of this turmoil has been connected with a feigned concern for the vital rights of free speech, dissent, and petition. Hard-core fanatics have used these basic rights of our democratic society to distort the issues and betray the public.

However, millions of Americans, who know from experience that freedom and rights also mean duties and responsibilities, are becoming alarmed over the anarchistic and seditious ring of these campus disturbances. They know liberty and justice are not possible without law and order.

The Communist Party, USA, as well as other subversive groups, is jubilant over these new rebellious activities. The unvarnished truth is that the communist conspiracy is seizing this insurrectionary climate to captivate the thinking of rebellious-minded youth and coax them into the communist movement itself or at least agitate them into serving the communist cause.

This is being accomplished primarily by a two-pronged offensive — much publicized college speaking program and the campus-oriented communist W. E. B. Du-Bois Clubs of America. Therefore, the communist influence is cleverly injected into civil disobedience and reprisals against our economic, political, and social system.

There are those who scoff at the significance of these student flare-ups, but let us make no mistake: The Communist Party does not consider them insignificant. The participants of the New Left are part of the 100,000 "state of mind" members Gus Hall, the Party's General Secretary, refers to when he talks of Party strength.

He recently stated the Party is experiencing the greatest upsurge in its history with a "one to two thousand" increase in membership in the last year.

For the first time since 1959, the Party plans a national convention this spring. We can be sure that high on the agenda will be strategy and plans to win the New Left and other new members. A communist student, writing in an official Party organ, recently stated, "There is no question but that the New Left will be won."

Thus, the communists' intentions are abundantly clear. We have already seen the effects of some of their stepped up activities, and firmly believe a vast majority of the American public is disgusted and sickened by such social orgies.

One recourse is to support and encourage the millions of youth who refuse to swallow the communist bait. Another, is to let it be known far and wide that we do not intend to stand idly by and let demagogues make a mockery of our laws and demolish the foundation of our Republic.

Lenawee County Farm Directors Show Concern

The Lenawee County Farm Bureau Board of Directors, concerned with the provisions of the 1965 Workmens' Compensation Law, took action at their regular March board meeting to inform the public of the requirements of this new enactment.

Ivan Hunt, president, announced that an open meeting was held at the Madison High School near Adrian on March 15, 1966.

Michigan farmers are aroused over the Act which became effective for business and industry on Sept. 1, 1965 and will become effective for agriculture May 1, 1966.

The Bureau feels this law is excessive in costs and confusing in its present form. Further, agriculture, unlike industry, employs considerable un-skilled, short-termed and migrant labor. The rate set by the Workmens Compensation Rating Bureau, payments of $8.35 per $100 of payroll with a minimum premium of $234 are high and, at the same time, insurance companies find it difficult and are unwilling to write required coverage under the existing wording of the law.

When the requirements for farm coverage take effect as presently written, Michigan benefits will become among the highest, if not actually the highest, in the nation.

THS Science Club Plans Science Fair

The Science Club of Tecumseh High School encourages all students in the Tecumseh area to enter the science fair this year.

Those entering have until April 1 to get projects ready for the Fair at the high school April 2 and 3.

"Wouldn't you like to win one of the top honors or possibly an honorable mention? Don't forget you only have till April 1," said Carolyn House, publicity chairman.

OUR READERS WRITE

Serving World's Needy

TO THE EDITORS:

In the course of the year each of the three major religious groups in the United States makes an appeal for overseas relief funds. The Catholics' turn is March 13 to March 20 this year.

"Serving the world's needy without regard to race, creed or color" describes the "Catholic Bishops' Overseas Relief Fund" — administered through Catholic Relief Services of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, a non-profit, voluntary agency registered with the U.S. Government. Headquarters is at 350 Fifth Ave., New York, N.Y.

Last year the Fund bought food, clothing, medicine and other relief supplies to more than 40 million men, women, and children in Asia, Africa and Latin America.

Anyone who contributes gets a bargain — $1 produces $40 worth of relief supplies for the destitute throughout the world.

If you would find space for an announcement you would be performing a public service that will be appreciated by your Catholic readers and that will help bring help to the helpless in many lands.

Property Valuations Increased

By JIM LINCOLN

Approximately 2,200 property owners in Tecumseh received their tax assessment notices Saturday and Monday — in case you hadn't heard.

With few exceptions, all personal and real estate property were increased, some as much as 500%.

The increases were based on the city's adjustment from local assessed evaluations to state equalization, reassessment, inadequate assessments of the past, and increased construction costs.

Taxpayers will have the opportunity Monday to protest increases when the Board of Review meets at city hall 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m.

Many property owners have jumped to the conclusion that their taxes will soar. In general, this will not be the case.

According to City Manager Cal Zorn, assessments with an increase of 17% or less, will receive no hike in tax dollars, based on 1965 millage.

Assessments of less than 17% increase will realize a small cut in taxes. Those over will have higher taxes.

State equalization is 50% of actual value of the property. Tecumseh has been assessing about 40% of its true value.

By going to state equalization and with the addition of about $2,000,000 here in new construction last year, Tecumseh has raised its tax base from $20,000,000 to $26,000,000.

This will enable the city government — if necessary — to collect more tax dollars without raising millage.

According to city officials, there's a chance that city millage for summer taxes may drop a mill, perhaps more.

City officials will not know the 1966-67 millage until next month when the budget is presented to Council, which will set the necessary millage.

Last summer's millage was 12.6, local assessed valuation.

The budget is certain to be greater than last year due to expenditures at the wastewater plant — a project approved at the polls — increases in salaries for city employees, more storm and sanitary sewers, and possible construction of a new city garage and fire station.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

With their building fund now standing at $4,000, the Tecumseh Players are more eager than ever to settle on a little theatre construction project.

Under consideration is an extension to the Glass Room at the Community Center. A plan, naturally, that would require agreement between the Players and the City Recreation Board.

It would not be an addition, but merely the tearing down of the room's present north wall, which runs in front of what once were coal chutes for the downstairs furnaces (long since removed.)

Players' President Preston Caswell and his board of directors feel that this would be an ideal spot for a stage, which could be about 22 x 26' in size.

The ceiling is eight feet higher than that of the Glass Room, offering overhead room in which to haul up scenery.

COST OF SUCH a project is still a question mark and city officials are currently getting the facts together.

Their bank account of $4,000 has been amassed over six years from profits earned on their productions.

"Guys and Dolls" did a gross business of $3,394.20 on nine performances and after expenses of $2,300.50, it accounted for a net profit of $1,093.70.

For one Adrian showing, the Players brought home a $1,068.50 check, so you can see that this is just about the profit for a musical.

Like many others interested in amateur theatre around Tecumseh, I feel strongly that the Players and the city could have a wonderful thing going in the Community Center — if a new stage can be built and the cramped seating conditions alleviated.

GOING NORTH over the old coal chutes seems a logical move, prompting additional benefits Others could certainly utilize the stage, such as high school dramatic groups, music clubs for programs, dance recitals, guest speakers in the city.

The Players have three productions a year and would want to reserve dates for rehearsals and performances, but this would account for only about 25% to 30% of the time.

Council Fights Foul Premises

An ordinance to eliminate foul or offensive premises was given its first reading by Council, Monday night.

Infractions by property owners could result in fines up to $100 and, or, 90 days in jail.

Some complaints had been received about properties which are cluttered with junk and other unsightly debris.

Injured Fireman Returning

Fireman Dave Ousterhout may be released from Ann Arbor St. Joseph Hospital this weekend.

His entire right leg will be encased in a cast, with two pins holding together ankle bones, which were fractured while he was helping fight the Louis Rebottaro fire.

Surgery was required to repair the badly-shattered ankle and Mr. Ousterhout was in traction for six days.

His wife reports he'll be able to get around on crutches and will probably return to work at their floral shop next week.

His mother, Mrs. Bert Ousterhout, who on March 1 sold out her interest in the business to her son and daughter-in-law, is back on the job.

Dave will be in the cast a minimum of three months, his wife said.

20 Help Rebottaros Clean Up

"If it hadn't rained, I would have had the basement all dug," said Charles Rebottaro Wednesday morning as he stood dripping wet, just having come in from operating a backhoe on the site of his brother Louie's burned-out residence, 6124 Hendershot Hwy.

About 20 Tecumseh area people worked both Saturday and Sunday with the Rebottaro family, helping to dispose of the charred rubble, resulting from last Tuesday's fire.

Making good use of the back hoe, loaned by Detroit friends, the brothers kept the equipment busy. Following the clean-up operation they went to work digging a basement for a new home,

High Executive Post Goes to Lewis Lamm

Lewis Lamm has assumed a top executive position with Tecumseh Products Co., having resigned as plant manager of Tecumseh Fisher Body.

Rumored for the past three weeks, the news became official Wednesday following the annual shareholders meeting at Tecumseh Country Club.

Profits were $12,124,947, a jump of 5% over 1964.

At year's end, the company had 7,142 employees at all plants, in Michigan, Wisconsin and Ohio.

At the meeting, shareholders approved a plan to increase common stock at $1 par value, from 1,800,000 to 2,500,000 shares. Market value of Products stock, was $71 asking price, as of last week's over-the-counter listings before the new 700,000 shares were authorized.

In last summer's annual Fortune Magazine list of the United States 500 Largest Industries, Tecumseh Products ranked No. 264, a jump from No. 272 the previous year.

RAY HERRICK, who will be 76 on July 21, founded the company with the late C. F. (Bill) Sage in 1932. It was then known as Hillsdale Machine & Tool Co.

Moving to Tecumseh at the height of the Depression in 1934, the company changed its name and went from the manufacture of automotive parts to refrigeration compressors.

Under the fiery leadership of Mr. Herrick, the company grew and prospered to its present position as the world's largest manufacturer of compressors.

BORN in Canton, Ill., in 1912, Mr. Lamm is a graduate of General Motors Institute in Flint, where he majored in automotive and industrial engineering.

He studied electronics at Massachusetts Institute of Technology and also has a master's degree in physics from Harvard University and a Juris Doctor of Law degree from George Washington University.

After graduation from General Motors Institute in 1937, he joined the Corporation's Patent Section in Detroit as a clerk. Later that same year he was transferred to the GM patent office in Washington, D. C.

From 1941 to 1946, Mr. Lamm served in the Navy and attained the rank of lieutenant commander.

During his service career, he attended the Naval Academy Post-Graduate School where he graduated in Ordnance Engineering.

AFTER military service, he returned to the GM Patent Section in Detroit as a patent attorney. In 1950 he was again transferred to the Washington Patent Section and was appointed later that year as attorney in charge.

Mr. Lamm joined Fisher Body in 1952 when he transferred from Washington to Detroit where he became a staff engineer in the plastic development

He was appointed plant superintendent of Fisher Body's plastics, development plant in January, 1954.

Shortly afterwards, Mr. Lamm was transferred to Fisher trim fabrication plants in Livonia and Grand Rapids, where he served in top managerial assignments.

As a member of the Cleveland Engineering Society, he was one of 12 industrialists who went to Russia in 1962 to study manufacturing facilities and production methods there.

Mr. Lamm has continued his interest in the military and is a member of the Naval Reserve with the rank of commander.

Parents Protest

Britton Butch Haircut Edict Blasted

— Editor's note — Britton-Macon Coach Al Vadasy, who handles Tory baseball and track teams, has required that all spring sport candidates must have short-cropped, crew haircuts in order to participate. The rule has caused considerable comment around the village and also brought letters of protest to school officials. This is Coach Vadasy's second season with Tory teams and according to Supt. William Saxton, Mr. Vadasy has full authority in spring sports. Mr. Vadasy noted in the past that he constantly had to remind his athletes to keep their hair well groomed and this helped to prompt the current ruling.

TO THE EDITORS:

I feel compelled to write in protest against the recent ruling by Al Vadasy, demanding butch haircuts for all boys who want to play in spring sports. It is time someone speaks in behalf of these boys.

I feel, and so do many other parents, as they have told me so this past week, that it is unfair to require this type of haircut unless it is required of every boy in school.

The athletes are being discriminated against, instead of encouraging participation in sports, this ruling has had the opposite effect.

MANY BOYS who wanted to go out and are eligible, are not because of this rule. If they meet the grooming requirements for attendance at school and are scholastically eligible, I don't think it is at all fair for them to be denied participation in these sports.

Parents would go along with a short haircut decree. We don't want the boys to look badly, either, but why this extreme? Whatever effect Mr. Vadasy was working for, hasn't materialized.

The boys only feel hurt and resentful, for even though they have earned the right to participate in sports in their own school, they are kept from playing unless they knuckle down to this unreasonable demand.

One may ask, "Well, why don't they?"

We feel, "Why should they have to? Why should a butch haircut be a requirement for eligibility for track and baseball, if it is not a requirement for school?"

STUDENT AND parent morale is at an all-time low and the current situation only serves to speed the decline of athletics in our school.

Boys should be encouraged to go out for sports, not have stumbling blocks placed in their way. We need to build up the athletic program for all boys at Britton, not tear it down.

The boys who go out for sports are not "bad boys" or "hoods." Few athletes are, yet they are penalized as if they were by this vindictive action.

Some of these boys won varsity letters in baseball and track in previous years and have been active in other sports. Most of them have been on the honor roll for years. And yet this is not enough, it seems. Well, you can't build team spirit or school loyalty with actions like that.

AND WHO wins?

Certainly not Coach Vadasy, with token teams out for spring sports. Not the boys who are being deprived of the opportunity to participate. They may well lose the desire to be active in sports altogether.

Not the school as a whole, or the athletic program in particular. It is a sad situation, where nobody wins and everybody loses.

Woman's Job: Lovely Mother, Beloved Wife

By DOROTHY GRIGG

"Man's place is in public life and woman's in the seclusion of the home," said Pastor Laszlo Gero Saturday evening as he spoke to nearly 100 persons attending the 47th birthday anniversary party of the American Legion at the Underwood-Orr Post Home.

"Woman was created to be a lovely mother and a beloved wife first and then perhaps to take a place in public life. Woman's destiny was never more important than today," continued the speaker.

He mentioned the so-called entertainment stars," saying "outside, everything and inside, nothing."

"They talk too much,' Pastor Gero continued, bringing amused smiles.

He elaborated about gossip before he smoothed the rough edges by saying, "Our town is famous for ladies who are tender and good and female."

Another provocative remark made by the speaker was, "This country has to stand for our rights. It's the Legion's duty to remind us, year by year."

Pastor Gero was introduced by Commander Carl Luegge after the names of both past commanders of the post and past presidents of the Auxiliary had been read and recognized.

Mr. Luegge read the names of officers serving with him as well as the past commanders' names and Mrs. Agnes Woods read the list of the Auxiliary officers and the past presidents.

Poppies were used with red candles and greens in crystal candelabra to center the tables. Corsages and boutonnieres were presented each past commander and past president attending.

Paper poppies made by the veterans were used in the center pieces and corsages fashioned by Mrs. Larry Kanous.

Mrs. Roger Williams and Mrs. Donald Maves handled the invitations.

YOUNG MEN who attended Wolverine Boys State this past year served the dinner. Past president Mrs. Percy Bowen and Service Officer Robert Gillespie cut and served the blue-and-gold decorated birthday cake.

Senior Citizens Can Sign Up for Medicare

Area senior citizens are invited to a free Medicare forum in the Tecumseh Community Center Thursday evening at 7:30.

A Social Security representative will be on hand, along with other experts, to answer questions.

Persons 65 or over will be able to sign up for Medicare at the meeting.

Deadline for taking part is March 31. If an eligible person does not sign prior to that date, he will have to wait nearly 18 months before another opportunity is offered.

Urges School Board Approval

The administration reported to School Board, Monday night that several situations should be approved for the 1966-67 term.

These were, in order of preference of the administration: full time elementary principals and adjustment of their secretaries' time and salaries.

Hoods for welding in the heat treatment program, and recovery of an air system at the high school; high school library clerk, high school incinerator, additional high school secretarial help.

Tolls Dropped on Some Calls

There's going to be toll-free telephone service from Tecumseh to Adrian, Britton and Clinton starting April 1.

Customers of General Telephone Co. will just dial the seven-digit numbers listed in the directory, explains A. T. Jones, Eastern Division manager.

While patrons can phone without charge between Tecumseh and the other three communities, there still will be tolls for Britton and Clinton exchange calls to each other and to Adrian.

Mr. Jones also reports that slightly higher rates for local service will be applied, due to the greater number of telephones in the local calling area.

RATES WILL be raised in Tecumseh, Clinton, Britton and Ridgeway as follows:

	Tec.	Cltn.	Br. & Rgy.
Bus. 1-party	1.10	1.00	1.45
Bus. 2-party	1.00
Bus. rural	.80	.70	1.05
Res. 1-party	.70	.55	.75
Res. 2-party	.55	.45	.65
Res. 4-party	.45	.40	.55
Res. rural	.50	.45	.60

With the implementation of this program, rates for telephone service in Tecumseh will be the same as those in Adrian, while rates in Clinton and Britton will also be identical.

Mr. Jones said the company offered the Extended Area Service to these customers following studies in 1963 and 1964 which showed a high "community of interest" between the communities involved.

In a survey of the customers taken to determine whether or not the Extended Area Service was desired and which included information of the proposed rate increase, a majority of the customers responding favored the service, Mr. Jones said.

THE EQUIPMENT necessary to provide these services was recently installed at a cost in excess of $200,000.

New equipment installed will provide for additional upgrading of local services in each area.

May Postpone Naval Hospital Entertainment

Mrs. Jule Fosbender said Tuesday that the trip to Great Lakes Naval Hospital might be postponed.

People to entertain the wounded vets from Vietnam are available but funds to charter a bus or even cars are just not forthcoming at this time.

Mrs. Fosbender, chairman of the project, wishes to thank those who have made and offered contributions.

If money for gasoline and toll charges is not soon donated, Mrs. Fosbender will return the money already given to her.

'Man of God'

By TOM RIORDAN

"As Christian men, we too often keep our lips sealed," Maurice Kelly of Detroit told more than 100 attending the annual Tecumseh Area Church Laymen's Annual Banquet Thursday evening.

"Like the man who worked in an office for 14 years and later said his co-workers never once discovered he was a Christian."

Entitled the "Hallmark of a Man of God," the talk pinpointed five characteristics of the good Christian.

► Available, ready to act for God when asked.

► Pious, willing to be identified as a Christian.

Mr. Kelly told of an organization, Christian Businessmen International, in which he is active. Its members strive to bring Christ to busy working people—some who don't bother to attend church services.

"We raise no money, we sponsor nothing, we take no offerings, we pay our own way," he explained.

"We meet with businessmen for breakfast and luncheons, offering testimony of fellow businessmen, realizing what God can do in the hearts of man," the guest continued.

Founded in Chicago 20 years ago by five men, CBMI has spread around the world with 650 committees of various numbers.

"There is a great job to be done," he said.

"Do you have the courage, the stomach to stand alone in the office, the shop?" asked the guest, who is a veteran advertising man with a large Detroit agency.

He recounted the Biblical stories of Paul, Moses and David — three men who were called by God to do specific jobs and "were available."

"HOW ABOUT today? What is more important than to reach men?" he asked the audience.

Mr. Kelly told of an engineer with General Electric, who persuaded the company to sell him a heap of television transmission equipment which was headed for the scrap pile.

With the aid of friends, he fashioned a complete broadcasting station, disassembled it, numbered each piece and packed them and then shipped the entire project to Ecuador.

The task took over one year to complete.

Now HCJB-TV is beaming messages of Christianity to Ecudorians, related Mr. Kelly.

When dwelling on tenacity as a quality of the Christian man, the guest urged, "Gentlemen don't give up. Whatever you're doing in your church, keep it up."

"Business is great," he smiled, "But God's business is greater."

A HAM DINNER was served to the group by the Altar Society of St. Elizabeth, where the banquet was held.

Merlyn Downing served as master of ceremonies. Group singing was conducted by the Rev. A. Sheley with Dexter Bailey acompanying the group on an organ, loaned by Flanders Music Co.

The Four Dads Quartet — Dr. Carlton Cook, Gordon Comfort, Gene Earling and Dave Wood — sang two religious numbers.

Pat Meadows was general chairman for this year's affair, the 13th in a series.

A MAN NAMED JOHN

Some months ago, during this present year, E. E. Y. Hales, an eminent historian and writer in the field of 19th century European history, who has taught at Yale University and lectured extensively in England and the United States, and is presently working with the Ministry of Education in London, wrote a book: "Pope John and His Revolution."

There is much food for thought in it.

Just what Pope John wanted it seems he did not feel sure himself. His favorite Scripture text was that one where Our Lord prayed that "they all may be one." The New York Times did an unusual thing: it printed his Encyclical Letter "Pacem in Terris" (Peace on Earth) in full. No Pope in papal history made so many specific and practical suggestions in the realm of social organization as Pope John made in Mater et Magistra and in Pacem in Terris.

There was a return to religion in much of the world after the Second World War; Christians as a whole shared it; there seemed to appear a new spirit of cooperation. John said there had been enough definitions and condemnations. He told men that they must have a more confident faith and a wider love . . . and above all to seek after peace.

He was an old man when elected; many thought of him as an interim leader. He turned out to be an innovator, and shocked the staid "machinery" of the Church, by calling together 25,000 shepherds from everywhere on earth — almost. He did renovate, update, instill new fire, break down many bridges and walls. The future will be his judge.

This is true: the smallest parish church in the world has been moved by what he inspired.

Mrs. Butler Invested Den Mother

Mrs. Roger Butler was invested as a den mother at the meeting of Cub Scout Pack 73, March 15, at the Fellowship Center, Presbyterian Church.

Cubmaster George Brady and Awards Chairman Roger Butler, assisted by Denner Dennis Dermyer, and Assistant Denner Randy Butler, conducted the service for the new den mother.

Mrs. Hermon Murphy led in the opening prayer and James Manley and Lawrence Johnson of Den 3 presented the flags.

All the dens competed in games and relay races, afterwards parading in their costumes for the Knight's of the Round Table.

A skit, "Knight Employment Agency,' was presented by members of Dens Two, Three and Four. Those in the cast were:

Mr. Knight — Den Chief Richard Packard
King Arthur — Robert Murphy
Knight Shirt — Gaylord Long
Arabian Knight — Dennis Dermyer
Sir Laugh a Lot — Lawrence Johnson
Sir Gallon Bad — James Manley

Cubby was awarded to Den Four for best attendance.

The next Pack Committee meeting will be April 12 followed by the Pack meeting, April 19.

Connie and James Brown with their partners, Mr. and Mrs. Al Sweatt of Monroe have reason to be proud of the Country House, which they have opened this week at Billington's Corners. The carpeted Gold Room features a white mosaic wall with wrought iron candle-lit sconces, enriched by walnut paneling on the other walls.

A 12-branch chandelier centers the delightfully-furnished dining room and soft music adds to the atmosphere of the entire restaurant.

Indirect lighting casts a soft glow over the Italian Cherry paneling and Torginoil flooring in the commercial area of the Country House.

None the less spectacular is the fine food, all types, served from 10 to 10 at the area's newest eating place.

Glenn Schmidt has been transferred from the Aircraft Carrier Keasarge to a machine repair school at San Diego, Calif., for 12 weeks. Airman Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schmidt, 209 W. Cummings St., entered the navy in October, 1964, after his graduation from Tecumseh High School.

Mrs. Donald Beaubien and two daughters arrived here March 16, from Nice, France, where she was with her husband for the past two years. Mrs. Beaubien will spend some time here with her husband's mother, Mrs. Pearl Myers, before joining her own parents, in Parma, Idaho. Mr. Beaubien expects to be stationed at Great Lakes Naval Base about May 1.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schooley and daughters, Diane and Helen, spent the weekend in Muskegon, helping her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Berry, celebrate their 58th wedding anniversary. They stopped for a visit with their eldest son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schooley, in Grand Rapids en route home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlon Boyes returned from three weeks and a 4,000 mile trip to and around the state of Florida. En route there they stopped in Albany, Ga., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Fred Betzoldt and children and at Largo, Fla., to see Mrs. Bert Warren and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weatherwax and daughters.

A family reunion took place in Sarasota where the Boyes were weekend guests of his cousin. Another cousin from Washington, D.C., was a guest there too. Three men, who had lived within five miles of each other during childhood, had not been together in 40 years.

Highlight for Mr. Boyes during the trip was an air boat ride through the Everglades. In Englewood, Fla., the Boyes visited Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Ted McConnell.

The Andersons arrived back home St. Patrick's Day bringing their daughter, Mrs. Fred Betzoldt and children with them for a week's stay. All were dinner guests of the Boyes Friday evening.

THS Band Takes Part in Program

The Tecumseh High School band traveled to Dawson Auditorium, Monday, to take part in the All-County Band Concert.

The entire band presented one number, "Land of the Czar," arranged by Bilck, prominent in University of Michigan productions.

Individually, Steve and Phil Van Valkenburg, Jeanette Mannino, Bruce DesErmia and Sherree Harper were members of the All-County Band as part of the program in Adrian.

Council Searches for Water Wells

Search for new water for Tecumseh will take place northeast of the community, along Murphy Hwy., north to Pennington and Staib Rds., and west to River Raisin.

Council approved a plan which includes possible eight test well drillings, actual pumping of the wells, securement of easements from property owners with options for the city to buy.

McNamee, Porter and Seeley, an Ann Arbor engineering firm, told councilmen that they projected the city's population to 14,000 by 1986, and estimated the amount of water needed here by residents and industry.

The firm said the project could be done in stages with the total project costs estimated at $18,000.

Last year, the city drilled west of River Raisin, north of Brown St., in hopes of obtaining satisfactory water. These tests were abandoned after drilling and water samples proved unsatisfactory.

Board Takes Little Action

Although little action was taken Monday night by the Tecumseh School Board, discussion was plenty — lasting to past 1 a.m. Tuesday — and some of it considered additional millage for the June ballot.

School officials do not know how much millage will be needed, but it was generally agreed that more millage will be necessary.

At the present, the Board is negotiating with teachers over a new contract, one which will probably call for an increase in salaries, and possibly fringe benefits.

None of the school officials will release any information pertaining to negotiations, what the teachers are asking, or what the board is offering, if anything.

Tuesday afternoon, the teachers were polled on certain questions pertaining to the negotiations. It's believed the teachers approved their representative's plans, whatever they are.

To a great extent, what the teachers and board negotiates, will affect the amount of millage asked in June.

Supt. James McDowell has repeatedly refused any comment on the issue, but indicated action should be taken by April 10, the date when teachers must be notified whether they're continuing in the system or being fired.

Also, May 10 is the last day for the Board to get millage on the June ballot. Undoubtedly, the Board will have at least one special meeting within the next few weeks.

St. Elizabeth Altar Society Studies Books

St. Elizabeth Altar Society met last Wednesday after Lenten Devotions. Mrs. Joseph Schneider, Mrs. Robert McKee and Mrs. John Forgas were welcomed as new members.

Mrs. Gene Tyrer announced that much interest has been shown in organizing a Youth Club.

Father Thomas J. Collins told members of the new science books being used by the school children.

He said that the students are now using three TV stations and getting the material to go along with these educational programs.

Communion dresses made by Mrs. Melvin Baugh, Mrs. David Shrader and Mrs. Paul Lemanski for girls in the missions were shown to the members.

A letter was read by Mrs. Louis Schneider on the importance of detecting cancer in the early stages.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Cletus Fuhrman and her committee, Mrs. Jerome Kajawa, Mrs. Kenneth King, Mrs. Linda Faust, Mrs. Joseph Cabla, Mrs. Maurice Willaert, Mrs. Exeline DeJonghe, Mrs. E. J. Crawford, Mrs. Louis Schneider, Mrs. Donald Johnson and Mrs. Carl Gruber.

Mrs. Bryan Named Senior Citizen Head

Mrs. Floyd Bryan, president of the Senior Citizens, announced that the Drama Department of the Monday Club will present a program for Seniors, meeting April 12 at the Community Center.

Vice president — Ralph Peotter

Secretary — Mrs. R. C. Pennington

Treasurer — Mrs. Vevia Anderson

A potluck dinner at 12:30 p.m. will precede the program.

The Seniors have been asked to assist with Achievement Day activities during Michigan Week.

Herricks Return

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Herrick returned Thursday, from a six weeks stay at Deerfield Beach, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Herrick will leave this Thursday for Pompano Beach, Fla., where they will be joined Saturday by their daughter, Toni, a student at Gulf Park College in Long Beach, Miss. Mrs. Herrick and Toni expect to spend Easter in New Orleans.

'Real' Milk Price Drops

The "real" price of a quart of milk is represented by the amount of work that the consumer has to do to earn enough money to buy it, according to the American Dairy Association of Michigan.

In 1947 it took 9.2 minutes of work to earn the price of one quart of milk — while in 1965 it takes only 5.4 minutes of work to earn that quart of milk!

Clinton High Choir Presents 'The Mikado'

CLINTON — The high school chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Donald Geiger, instructor for vocal music, will begin work on "Mikado" for presentation in May.

Such a production as the Gilbert and Sullivan musical comedy has not yet been undertaken by the school's music department in recent years.

High school youth who wish to be in the cast or to assist with the production are invited to sign up with Mrs. Geiger for tryouts next week.

Amateur Radio Men Will Meet

A meeting for all amateur radio stations will be held at the Adrian Civil Air Patrol building, Adrian City Airport, Sunday, 2 p.m.

The meeting is for all who operate two, six or 75-meter outfits, or any other lower frequency operators who may be interested in Radio Amateur Civil Emergency Service as a part of Civil Defense.

"Races" is designed to meet emergencies of Tornado Alerts and other types of communication problems.

Lenawee County already has a weather network on a two-meter frequency of 145.350 Mc.

Ridgeway Residents Seek Walks

Several residents from Ridgeway attended Monday night's meeting of the School Board, seeking sidewalks and paved drives at the Ridgeway elementary school.

The Board sympathized with the residents, but explained they did not have the money for such improvements.

No action was taken.

AREA OBITUARIES

● CLARENCE J. EXELBY

Services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Niblack Home For Funerals for Clarence Exelby, 91, life-long resident of Britton who died Monday evening at Herrick Memorial Hospital where he had been a patient for one month.

Mr. Exelby was engaged in farming all of his active life.

He was a former member of the village council and the Britton board of education.

Born near Britton April 29, 1874, he married Fannie J. Wiggins March 24, 1897.

Mr. Exelby was a member of the Congregational Christian Church.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a son, Donald J. of Dearborn; two grandchildren and a brother, Leonard J. Exelby of Britton.

Three brothers and a sister preceded him in death.

The Rev. G. O. Hannevik will officiate and burial will be in Ridgeway Cemetery.

● MRS. LEEBERT COATES

Services were held in Kalamazoo Monday for Mrs. Leebert Coates, 86, who died Saturday morning in the Parkview Nursing Home in Kalamazoo where she had been a patient for three years.

Mrs. Coates was a former resident of the Tecumseh area.

She was born in Ohio, Oct. 4, 1879, a daughter of William and Kathrin Zeh.

Mr. Coates whom she married in 1903, preceded her in death in 1956.

One daughter, Alta, two brothers and a sister, also preceded her in death.

Survivors are one son, Hearold Coates, 1301 E. Monroe Rd., six granchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren.

One brother, Fred Zeh of Toledo, also survives.

Interment was in the Mount Ever-Rest Cemetery, Kalamazoo.

o

● MAUDE E. STRETCH

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Mrs. Maude E. Stretch, 82, who died about 11 p.m. Thursday at St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor, where she had been a patient for three weeks.

She had been in failing health for 10 years.

Born Feb. 9, 1884, in Raisin Township, she married Hartley Stretch in 1904. He died in 1936.

Mrs. Stretch also was preceded in death by a son in 1945, and a brother and a sister.

For the last 20 years she has made her home with her children. Surviving are two sons, Jesse, 8734 Matthews Hwy., and Carlton Stretch, 5419 Allen Rd.; a daughter, Mrs. John Rodesiler of Ann Arbor, six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Lawrence Cox officiated and burial was in the Raisin Valley Cemetery.

● DIANE M. MEYERS

Services will be held Friday at 1:30 p.m. at the Proctor Funeral Home, Clinton, for Mrs. Kenneth Meyers, 25, 1000 Hogan Hwy. who died at 11:15 p.m. March 21 at St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor where she had been a patient for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Meyers had been in failing health for about six months.

Born Diane Nowaczek March 15, 1941, in Belleville, she was the daughter of Henry and Marjorie Nowaczek. She was graduated in 1959 from Wayne Memorial High School.

She married Kenneth Meyers of Ypsilanti June 25, 1959. He survives.

Mrs. Meyers attended the Clinton Methodist Church and bowled with the Lads and Lassies League in Clinton.

She is survived by a daughter, Lesli Kay, 5, and a son, Roger Kenneth, 3; three brothers, Dennis M., Russell A. and Lorry S., all of Wayne; one sister, Mrs. Denny Baldrica, of Livonia, several aunts, uncles and cousins.

The Rev. George Miller will officiate and burial will be in Hillside Cemetery, Belleville.

Friends may call afternoon

o

● AVELT J. KLABUNDA

Funeral services will be held Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. at the Proctor Funeral Home, Clinton for Avelt Klabunda, 70, former owner of a welding business west of Clinton.

Mr. Klabunda died Monday morning at the Michigan Veteran Facility in Grand Rapids where he had been a patient since last December.

Born at Midland June 24, 1895, Mr. Klabunda was a veteran of World War I and moved to Clinton in 1945.

He opened the welding business in 1949 and retired in 1960.

A graduate of Sanford High School, he married Ilah Wisner Dec. 3, 1945. She died in 1960.

Mr. Klabunda is survived by a step-son, Herbert Sackett of Clinton; three brothers, August of Detroit, Rinholdt of Montrose and the Rev. Albert Klabunda of Cayuga Falls, N.Y.

A brother preceded him in death.

Graveside services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday at the Sanford Cemetery near Midland.

Mrs. Jacobs is Licensed

St. Patrick's Day was of special importance to Mrs. Richard Jacobs, 115 W. Shawnee St., this year. It was the day that she received her license as a certified flight instructor.

"I really worked for that, studying and flying," remarked Mrs. Jacobs, Monday, as she told of the government-given test she flew at Willow Run Airport on Paddy's Day.

She is now qualified to teach private, commercial and multi-engine students. She has added a new license each year since she started flying in 1963.

Now it won't be necessary for those who want to take these flying tests to go to Willow Run. Just March 14, Dale Jacobs was appointed a designee by the Federal Aviation Agency and he will give the tests at their Federal Aviation Agency-approved flight school at the Adrian Airport.

Mr. Jacobs is also a licensed instrument pilot and instructor. As soon as completion of the test flights are made, pilots are given their licenses right at the school office.

If you take a minute to check our list of winning vehicle identification numbers, you may know how it feels this week.

The contest's in its last week. So hurry. Here's how it works. Look at the first symbols (the prefix) on your vehicle identification slip. Then look at the symbols listed above. If you find yours on the list, you've taken the first step toward being a winner. Now go see your Buick dealer. He has a list of 72 winners posted in his showroom. If you see your entire vehicle identification number on the poster—the symbols plus the rest of the numbers—$2332 cash is yours. (If your prefix isn't listed in this ad, don't give up. Your numbers may have been posted during the past six weeks. Every week 72 winners were posted on the showroom wall. You may have missed your number before.) No slogan to invent, no puzzles to solve. In fact, you don't even have to own a Buick to have a winning number.

Contest Rules: Residents of Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska may, if they prefer, send in a postcard to R. L. Polk and Co., P.O. Box 1347, Detroit, Michigan 48231 and receive the weekly list of winning numbers by mail for comparison with their own vehicle identification number. An official entry form will be included. Sweepstakes limited to persons over 21 living in the continental U.S. Not valid in Florida or states where prohibited by law.

What Quality Beef Does A&P Sell?

That's a fair question. But not an easy one to answer because we have our own quality standards, different from any other meat merchant.

These standards don't fit exactly the familiar terms you know for grades of meat. As an example, did you know that some beef, graded U.S. Choice, just doesn't meet our "Super-Right" specifications? It's true! You see... we don't buy by grade. We use our own high standards to bring you the best values.

That doesn't mean we don't approve of such grading—not at all. It just means we're very fussy about the beef we label "Super-Right." It stands to reason we have to be or A&P wouldn't be America's number one meat merchant.

Card of Thanks

To the folks of Tecumseh and the surrounding area, our heartfelt thanks. No words can express our appreciation for the generosity and the time given to us in the last week. Thanks, again.

Louis, Martha, Louis, Jr., Carol, Beverly and Rose Marie Rebottaro.

I would like to thank my many friends for their cards, flowers and visits during my hospitalization at St. Joseph's. Also to let you know that I am now back at the House of Glamour and able to resume my regular hours.

Joe Markel.

I wish to thank my friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers, cake and cards I received on my birthday. Thank you all.

Mrs. Margaret Boldon.

We wish to express our thanks and deep appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown us during our recent bereavement of our mother, Florence Wintersteen. We want to thank neighbors, friends and relatives for the floral gifts, cards and the food brought to our homes. A special thanks to Dr. Ralph Helzerman, the nurses and nurses' aides of Herrick Memorial Hospital, the Rev. G. O. Hannevik for his comforting words, Mr. Niblack of the Niblack Home for Funerals, and also the pallbearers. These acts of kindness will not be forgotten.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Linn
Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Adams
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spillman. M24c

ONE MAN'S OPINION

By JIM LINCOLN

Red faces were the rule, rather than the exception, here Monday when the city's tax assessments arrived. Folks were burning—not from an early spring sun—over the increases.

According to city officials, an average increase of 17% in assessments was made and necessary to boost local assessment evaluations to state equalization. They say such an increase, and smaller ones, will mean no more tax dollars from the property owners.

Failure to provide property owners with advance information was an inexcusable error. Many ill feelings could have been avoided.

Many businessmen and businesses took a shellacking with some property assessments doubled, some even increased over 500%.

OFFICIALS SAY a state law passed in 1964 is forcing all tax districts to adjust their local assessments to state equalization.

How about some answers to questions that are puzzling many, including ourselves:

(1) Why don't neighboring townships and cities adjust their local assessments to state equalization?

(2) Why is it necessary to file a financial report in February when such reports are generally ignored?

(3) Can the city assessor substantiate his increased assessments?

(4) Why did the city tell the State Tax Commission last year that evaluations here were too high, and then turn around this year and raise them?

(5) Will Council, which had no part in assessing, take into consideration a 30% hike in the tax base when setting millage?

(5) How can property be skyrocketed for assessment when it hasn't even been inspected?

Our city, in general, is managed and run well. Officials have kept costs at a minimum, perhaps too much so in some areas.

This, however, does not provide allowances for an unjust assessment. We hope that the Board of Review Monday takes a careful look and finds that many assessments are ridiculously high.

Cliff Underwoods Buy Flower Shop

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Underwood have purchased the interest of Mrs. Marie Campbell in the Britton Flower Shop, located in the Underwood residence, one-half mile east of Britton.

The shop will continue to be open seven days a week.

Shower Honors Mrs. Miller

Mrs. John Miller was guest of honor at a baby shower, March 17, given by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Kenneth Poley, and Mrs. Doreen Miller at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Poley, 408 S. Pearl St.

Games were played and refreshments served.

Will Hold Annual JC Baby Contest

The annual baby picture contest for children up to age six is being sponsored by the Jaycee Auxiliary. The proceeds from this contest are used to buy dolls at Christmas for underprivileged little girls.

A $10 gift certificate will be awarded to the king and queen and a $5 gift certificate to the runners-up.

Any picture up to 5 x 7 will be accepted. The back of the entry should list name, address, sex, color of eyes, and color of hair, parents' name and phone number.

These pictures should be mailed to Mrs. Charles Kapnick, 6375 Pocklington Rd., Britton, or Mrs. Roger Butler, 1111 Willow Court, Tecumseh, by Thursday, April 14.

Pictures will be placed on canisters and displayed in local stores starting Tuesday, April 19. Then shoppers are invited to vote for their favorite little tyke.

Each vote will cost a penny. The winners will be notified by phone. Their pictures will appear in the Michigan Week edition of The Herald.

Tipton Jets 4-H Attend Cattle Sale

TIPTON — Members of the Tipton Jets 4-H Dairy Club who attended the 4-H FFA Dairy Calf and Heifer Sale at Williamston Saturday were Mike Douglas, Jill Feight, Gregg Hardy, Bob Platt, Gary and Larry Ries, Gordon and David Whelan and Bruce and Greg Smith.

The group was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Feight, Raynor Hardy, Norman Ries, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Whelan and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith. Eight animals were purchased by the group.

Hold Special Conference

A special Quarterly Conference will be held Sunday at 5:30 p.m. in the sanctuary of the First Methodist Church for the purpose of authorizing the purchase or building of a parsonage.

The session will be conducted by the Rev. Joseph Edwards, superintendent of the Ann Arbor District.

Mrs. Smith Entertains

Mrs. Cecile Smith entertained the Tecumseh Past Chief's Club in her home March 17, with Mrs. Russell Keith assisting.

Mrs. Smith presided at the business meeting with 11 members and one guest present.

Those present signed a get-well card for Mrs. Bert Aten who is a shut-in.

It was decided to have guest night for the April meeting held at the Pythian Hall.

Cards were played with prizes presented to Mrs. Sidney Wilson, Mrs. Harry Carney and Mrs. Verdi Skinner. Rereshments were served by the hostesses.

MICHAELS/STERN

This Precedo won't mellow with age

Just like cars, Michaels/Stern updates the style every year

SOME men love old tweeds that are baggy at the knees, fat in the seat, and full of padding at the shoulder. They wouldn't be caught dead in a Precedo suit.

The Precedo is styled for fellows who feel very much with it—and who want to look it. The coat's just a bit shorter than most, pockets are a little slanty, lapels are skinnier.

Come on in and try one on. If it looks funny on you, the deal is off (and we'll show you the rest of our stock of Michaels/Stern suit styles).

MERCURY-GEMINI SPACECRAFT EXHIBIT — A National Aeronautics and Space Administration display of the Mercury and Gemini spacecraft, the one and two-man vehicles which have carried American astronauts into space, will be on display at the Tecumseh High School Gym from 1:30 to 8 p.m., April 2, and from 1 to 6 p.m. April 3. These are mock-ups of the pioneering craft in which six Mercury astronauts made America's first suborbital solo flights during 1961-1963 and the five history-making two-man Gemini flights of 1965. In the 11 United States manned space flights, astronauts logged 1,354 hours in space, wih Mercury Astronaut Alan B. Shepard's 15-minute suborbital flight in Freedom 7 the shortest, the Astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell the longest — 330½ hours each.

Science Fair Rules

These are the rules for projects to be made for the Fifth Annual Tecumseh Area Science Fair:

Exhibits on any scientific subject may be entered if students are enrolled in any class from kindergarten through 12th grade in any public, private, or parochial school in the Tecumseh area.

Exhibits must be classified in one of the following groups:

A. Primary (kindergarten and through sixth grade)
  1. Individual
  2. Group
B. Intermediate (fourth grade through sixth grade)
  1 Individual
  2. Group
C. Junior High (seventh and eighth grades only)
  1. Individual projects only.
D. Senior High (ninth grade through 12th grades only)
  1. Individual projects only.
    a. Biology
    b. Chemistry
    c. Physics
    d. Mathematics
    e. Earth sciences

ALL WORK on exhibits must be by the student or group. Teachers, parents, or sponsors may advise, but must not build any part of the project.

In the primary division, teachers or parents may aid the contestant, but must indicate this on their registration.

No stamp collections, bone collections, or similar collections unrelated to the field of scientific study will be accepted. A booklet explaining each project is required.

Each exhibit must be confined to a table or floor space three feet front, two feet back, and four feet side to side or smaller. construction must be durable. Mrterial should be rigid and stand solidly. Background wings may be held together by use of inexpensive hinges or tape. Movable parts must be firmly attached and safe. Extension cords will be provided. Titles should be large and clear.

Labeling should be neat and informative, with projects explaining themselves.

NAME, GRADE, and the name of school has to be on each project. All switches and cords for 110-volt operation have to be of the approved variety.

The use of open flame, dangerous flamable chemicals or liquids, and/or harmful substances is prohibited. They should be replaced by harmless substitutes and labeled with the names of the material they simulate.

Containers of liquids must be sealed. Live animals must be fed, watered and cages cleaned daily.

Experiments on live animals must conform with regulations for experiments with animals by the Humane Society. Plants must be watered.

PROJECTS will be judged on this basis:

Creative ability — 25 points
Scientific thought — 25 points
Thoroughness — 10 points
Skill — 20 points
Clarity — 15 points
Dramatic value — 5 points
Possible points — 100.

Decisions of the judges will be final. Neither the Science Fair committee, cooperating groups, sponsors, or the Tecumseh High School Science Club assumes any responsibility for loss or damage to any exhibit or part thereof.

Any project brought in after the designated time of entry shall be considered as a display, and therefore it will not be elibible for judging.

The times for entry are: 5 to 8 p.m. Friday, April 1 and 7 - 9 a.m. Saturday, April 2.

Cancer Drive Opens Friday in Lenawee

With the launching of its educational and fund-raising Crusade Friday, the American Cancer Society will begin a stepped-up program that could save thousands of lives each year.

Volunteers who would like to help work should contact Mrs. John Christian at the Unit office in Adrian, 204 N. Broad St., phone 263-2317.

The "Tell Your Neighbor" program of the Society spreads life-saving facts about cancer.

Volunteers help save lives by raising money for expanded research, education and service programs.

In the first six months of the fiscal year, 34 patients have been assisted with either dressings, loan closet items, medication, therapy or transportation.

Out of these, 29 are new patients.

Harry Hungerford, president of Lenawee Units, says, "Fight Cancer with a Checkup and a Check."

Nearly everyone loves a special sale at which goods are dumped at lower cost prices.

But the store forced to hold a "loss" sale is not happy about the occasion. Newspapers may be less happy about selling sale advertising to an unfortunate retailer.

It is not the function of advertising to unload goods at a loss to the retailer. In fact, advertising is most useful to everyone concerned — retailer, consumer, and newspaper— when it does just the opposite.

Advertising serves best when it brings fair profits to the retailer by providing timely information about goods which are in demand, or by creating demand for new goods.

The retailer who learns about the effectiveness of advertising only through unprofitable sales, too often takes his final lesson in a "going-out-of-business" sale.

Every retailer has good cause to use sale advertising to dispose of normal seasonal surpluses, or to attract traffic to his store.

But it is day-by-day advertising of the latest goods at fair prices which keeps the whole economic community strong and progressive.

'Prisoner' Tells Story of Cardinal

ADRIAN — "The Prisoner," the drama of Hungarian Cardinal Mindszenty in conflict with the police state, will be presented Thursday through Saturday on the Adrian College campus by the Adrian College Players.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. in Dawson Auditorium.

The story is the poignant account of the struggle between the Roman Catholic Cardinal Mindszenty and the mid-1950 Hungarian regiments attempt to get him to confess to "crimes" against the church and the Hungarian people.

'Monopoly' Cash for GIs

Pfc. David J. Brock sent the following letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Brock, 415 W. Logan St., while en route to duty in South Vietnam.

March 3, 1966

I'm still on the ship. We'll probably get there Sunday or Monday.

We left Fort Campbell Feb. 16, early in the morning, about 2:30 a.m. We flew an Electra, which is a four-engine turbo prop. Our plane was the third plane to leave and the first to get to Oakland, Calif.

It was a non-stop flight on American Flyer Airlines. We got there at 5:30 in the morning, their time. We took a bus to Oakland Army terminal, which is right across the bay from San Francisco. Once we boarded the U.S.N.S. General Walker we were not allowed to get off. The ship didn't leave until Friday, so they let us get off and go down to the PX for six hours, Thursday. I didn't get a chance to contact Jack.

The ship left San Francisco Bay Friday at 1 p.m. As we were leaving, we went by Alcatraz and under the Golden Gate Bridge.

The first day out wasn't too bad. It was a little rough and a lot of people got sea sick. It made me a bit woozy. We made about 366 miles the first day, with 6,853 miles to go. But Monday the sea was real rough and we were 1,339 miles out with 5,880 miles to go. The average speed for the trip is about 20.5 knots.

The fourth day out the sea became calm and warmer. We just passed Hawaii. At night they show movies on the back of the ship outside, if it isn't windy or raining. They have a ship's paper that comes out every day but Sunday.

It gives us all the information about how far we have gone and how far we are out, etc. Every day it gets warmer out and smoother going. On the fourth day out we crossed the 180th meridian, which is the International Dateline, and we lost Friday. They gave us a little certificate for proof of crossing the line. It is the "Domain of the Golden Dragon." That was the 24th of February.

Feb. 28 we were 4,350 miles from San Francisco, and 2,960 miles to go. On the first we came within 15 miles of an active volcano, on the northern-cost island of the Mariannas. We could just barely see it on the horizon. It is real warm now, the air and the water are about 79 degrees.

We have had albatross following us as we went by Hawaii. Occasionally we see a passing ship. We see flying fish every day now. They're about 8" long and they go for about 20 or 30 ft. out of the water. I have a sunburn on my arms, neck and face. In two or three days we will be going through the Philippines.

There are about 3,000 troops on board and the capacity is about 5,000. The food is terrible and it is no wonder everyone gets sick. So far I have been lucky. There is plenty of water.

The U.S.N.S. Gen. Walker is an old reconditioned troop carrier. It is run by the Merchant Marines. There are Naval personnel on board.

I have a detail working at the ship's store carrying up boxes of supplies. The prices are tax-free, cigarettes are $1.10 a carton and watches, cameras and other merchandise are about half price.

March 10

Sorry I haven't had time to finish this letter, so now I'll continue. We went through the Philippines last week and I took some pictures of the island. It took us about a day and we were within two miles on each side of ship.

The next day we crossed the South China Sea and continued on to DaNang. As we started to pull into the harbor a destroyer ordered us out. Then we turned around headed for Qui Nhon. We arrived about six o'clock and stayed in the harbor overnight.

DAVID J. BROCK

In the morning we loaded our equipment and ourselves into landing craft. These are the kind that the front end drops down into the water and forms a ramp. Then we loaded into army buses and went through Qui Nhon to the army camp.

We are living in tents now, but it isn't too bad. We are in the process of loading all our equipment into vehicles. From here we are moving to Pleiku, where he will be stationed permanently. Pleiku is in the highlands and I have been told that it is pretty cool at night there.

We are right next to the airfield here. The area we are in is secure. It is guarded by Koreans. Every night there are raids up in the mountains just north of the airfield. This afternoon we got shots and tomorrow we will be flying up to Pleiku. That is, everyone except the men driving the trucks and their guards.

I was just down in Qui Nhon a half hour ago. You should see the way the people live. They're out in the street most of the time. They live in shacks made of bamboo thatched together, outhouses and all.

The food is good, but a lot of it is condensed and evaporated "B" rations. But it's 100 per cent better than the food on the ship. The food on the ship was terrible because it was on the ship for quite a while.

We were paid yesterday. I got $100 and next month I will be getting more because of combat pay and overseas pay. We don't get paid in U. S. currency, we get military payment certificates, which look like monopoly money. The largest is a ten dollar bill, then 5's, 1's, 50 cents, 25 cents, 10 cents and 5 cents. It's all paper money.

Send Airmail, it only takes four or five days.

Tecumseh Garden Club Welcomes New Members

Mrs. Ambrose Clay and Mrs. Douglas Sisson were accepted to membership in the Tecumseh Garden Club, Friday, when the meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Carlos Jones.

Mrs. Archie Dunsmore conducted the meeting when members decided to hold a Home Flower and Horticulture Show in the early summer.

"Flowers to Live With" will be the theme.

Mrs. Neil Pearson reported on the workshop that she attended in Ann Arbor conducted by Dr. C. E. Wildon.

Mrs. Paul Maves, Mary McWilliams, Ann Carson and Mrs. Dunsmore also attended the workshop.

Annuals, roses and bulbs were discussed as well as the best varieties and methods of planting.

A new mulch, "Turface" was recommended for the control of black spot in roses.

Mrs. E. L. McClain and Mrs. Don Heesen served refreshments to 17 present.

George Service Receives Degree

CLINTON — George Service was recently named to receive the State Farmer Degree which will be conferred March 24 in the University Auditorium.

George's mother, Mrs. Charles Service, and his sister, Garna, will attend the banquet in Shaw Hall, preceding the program.

George was an active member of the Future Farmers of America at Clinton High School until his 1965 graduation.

He was active in judging contests and served as secretary of the club.

He has considerable crop and livestock farm experience and since his father's death in 1962, assisted his mother with the operation of the family sheep farm.

While in high school, he had beef cattle projects and has taken a special interest in raising rabbits.

He is a freshman at Michigan State University. Although he is a no-preference student at present, he is interested in forestry as a career.

"George's excellent record-keeping helped him to qualify for the State Farmer degree," Mrs. Service said.

John Jansen, vocational agriculture instructor at Clinton, was accompanied to the Annual FFA State Convention by Clinton FFA delegates, Terry Kershner and David Heslip and by Rick Welch, who is trying for a position in the National FFA band.

Honor Bartons at Coffee Hour

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barton and two children, Michael, seven, and Elizabeth, 11, were honored at a coffee hour in the Methodist Church and presented a farewell gift by the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

The family is moving to Dunedin, Florida, from a house on Van Tuyle Rd., where Mr. Barton will continue in the insurance business.

The family came to Clinton in June, 1961, when Mr. Barton was a member of the Clinton State Police post. He resigned from the State Police recently to enter the insurance business.

David Papsdorf Merits Honor in Air Force

CLINTON — Cadet David W. Papsdorf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Papsdorf, 8041 Arkona Rd., was named to the Commandant's Merit List at the Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Cadet Papsdorf, a member of the class of 1969 will wear a special silver wreath insignia on his sleeve in recognition of his military excellence.

He is a graduate of Clinton High School.

David Hunt Arrives Home from Germany

CLINTON — An emergency furlough has been granted Pfc. David Hunt and he arrived home last week from Frankfurt, Germany, to assist his mother, Mrs. Merle Hunt, in the operation of the Gulf Service Station.

David's father, Merle Hunt, is recovering satisfactorily from a slight heart attack in Herrick Memorial Hospital, but will be unable to work for some time.

Pfc. Hunt enlisted July, 1964, and served in Germany for 15

Bowl in Muskegon

CLINTON — Participating in the Bowling tournament at Muskegon over the weekend were members of the House League of Tecumseh and their wives.

Attending the event were Mr. and Mrs. Milton Grossman, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin McKeen, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Goshorn and Lamont Hunt of Clinton and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Garrison of Adrian.

Clinton Bandmen Appear in Concert

They were: clarinets, Joanne Sharpe, Sherry Olson, Laurie Hulett, Gina Green, Karen Scoviac, Garna Service, and Ann Probert; Cindy Mohr, third chair in alto sax; Rick Welch, first chair bass and Sylvia Williams, first chair percussion.

The Clinton Band received a first division rating in the recent Band and Orchestra Festival for District Eight at Jonesville. This was a noteworthy accomplishment since the band lost 16 seniors last year and took in 25 eighth grade students this year.

Band Director Karl Wirt said, "Hard work and determination to uphold the fine tradition are factors inherent in every member of the band.

This determination and pride has been evident for many years and is the driving force behind this excellent group of youngsters."

The band will not perform at the State Band Festival this year, as they are participating in the Review of Bands and the parade at the Holland Tulip Festival, May 14.

This review is a marching contest in which ratings and plaques are given to each Marching Band.

Band members are currently working on the Band Follies which will be held April 22 and 23.

Board of Education Awards Certificates

CLINTON—The Clinton Board of Education presented Certificates of Service to three previous members, Milton Johnston for eight years, Mrs. Frank Fitzpatrick for one year and Charles Straight for one year. Mr. Straight resigned since his new employment requires him to move.

The presentations were made at an informal gathering Monday evening, prior to the regular meeting in the high school.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce, also meeting at the school, were invited to share in the impromptu festivities and to partake of the cake and coffee.

Later, in regular session, the board voted to purchase 14 new round tables and 100 new chairs for the cafeteria.

Superintendent Richard Wegner announced the allocation of $7,150 by the Federal government for vocational education equipment.

The sum will be used to improve the commercial and business courses and to facilitate the teaching of a cooperative program with local industries.

New electric typewriters, calculators, adding machines and basic office practice machines will be installed.

Mr. Wegner's recommendation was approved for a $2100 expenditure, to upgrade the art teaching program in the secondary school.

The new equipment will make possible teaching of sculpture, copper enameling, crafts, mosaics, ceramics and drawing.

The Automobile Club of Michigan's recent study of traffic patterns and student and pedestrian safety, was read and discussed.

Some of the safety suggestions will be implemented by the board in school area parking, traffic and road signs.

Discussed and up for further consideration was the possibility of awarding certificates of attendance in place of a high school diploma, in certain instances.

Name New Clinton CC Directors

They will serve with present directors, John Prible, David Van Tuyle, Robert Mohr, Harold Gasner, Harlan Ruhl and Mrs. Frank Fitzpatrick.

The Chamber voted to send two boys to Boys' State. Appointed to make the arrangements are: Mr. Van Tuyle, Mr. Ruhl and James Meeks.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick announced the Chamber will sponsor Hospitality Day events for Michigan Week. The group is also preparing a Clinton brochure to be published soon.

Britton Choir in Presentation of Miss Jones

"HRH Miss Jones," an operetta by Wilson and Wakeman, will be presented by the Junior High Choir in the school gym Tuesday, March 29, 7:30 p.m.

The story takes place at a swank resort hotel and involves a group of social climbers and several cases of mistaken identity.

Lead roles are sung by Tammie Tucker as Miss Jones, Richard Schroeder as the boy she meets, Jim Lister as publicity man for the hotel, Ricky Maska as the hotel manager, and Elmer Hall as hotel clerk.

Five wealthy guests continually looking for people to snub, provide the main comedy for the operetta. They are played by Sally Vreeland, Linda Seagert, Diana Spohr, Connie Irwin, and Cindy Hiser.

Other comic roles are Janet Laslo's portrayal of an elderly companion to Miss Jones and Cindy Ivan's role of the escaped mental patient.

The cast includes service station attendants, guards, and bell hops. There is no admission charge for the program, but a collection will be taken to help defray expenses.

By careful "breeding and feeding" the VanValkenburg cows have long been top producers in Lenawee County, currently placing second among DHIA testing in their association. In the past five years, VanValkenburg animals have been increased in production from 9,000 pounds annually to 14,000, a top figure in any dairy circle.

Milk Supplies Drop

43 Tecumseh Area Herds Are Among Top Producers — 12,912 Gallons in 1965

By MAXINE CALHOUN

A second look is being taken at the dairy industry as milk supplies continue to drop sharply.

► National milk production for January and February was down mor than 5% from last year.

► Michigan lost more dairy cattle in 1965 than it did during the five previous years. Dr. John Ferris, agricultural marketing specialist at MSU reports that dairy cattle in the state dropped by about 47,000 head compared to the normal decrease of 10 to 20 thousand head, a decline of 7%.

► Milk production in Michigan, following the decline in cow numbers, was also down 7% from a year ago.

► Michigan Milk Producer's Association announced Thursday the wholesale price of drinking milk sold to dairies will go up, effective April 1.

► Prices to producers will go up from $5.10 hundred weight (46½ quarts) to $5.40 in southeastern Michigan.

► Dairy industry spokesmen said price rises were expected for ice cream, milk and other milk products.

THE HERALD wondered how Tecumseh area dairy farmers are making out in a county where recent industrial growth has spun down unemployment totals to a record low level, less than 3%.

Assisted by Norman Bless, Lenawee Extension agent, The Herald determined there are some 43 dairy herds in a 10-mile radius of Tecumseh, whose 1,758 cows produced more than 21 million pounds of milk last year — that's 12,914 gallons!

About half of the area's dairymen are enrolled in testing programs — 14 in DHIA and eight in the owner-sampler program.

Last fall, when they planned a new loafing barn to house replacement cattle — they built it on the adjacent farm owned by George Heimerdinger on Pennington Rd.

It is estimated that many area farmers have more than $100,000 invested in their dairy operation, including cows — which are selling for $400 a head and up on today's inflated market. The larger herds may involve an investment of close to $200,000.

The Palm Sunday tornado ended the dairy operations on several local farms. Others have sold off their cows during the past year when help became impossible to hire, or when their health failed. Some have gone to work in nearby industrial plants.

For the larger dairy farms, dependent on hired labor, the labor situation is the most critical factor facing them.

James Brown operates a 93-cow herd, owned by his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Brugger, located on Clinton-Macon Rd. James was chosen as Tecumseh Jaycee's Outstanding Young Farmer in 1962.

RIGHT — A daily visitor at the VanValkenburg farm on M-52, just south of M-50, is one of the Fish family, in this case, Carl, the dad, who picks up milk in a huge, stainless steel tank truck. First, Carl uses a dip stick to measure amount of milk in the tank, to compute total poundage, takes a daily sample for testing, then attaches a plastic hose to the VanValkenburg tank and pumps out the milk. It takes 15 minutes to complete this part of the operation. Carl has been hauling milk for 27 years, now works with his sons, Charles and Maurice.

BELOW — Raynor gives an assist to Carl in recoiling the hose through which the milk flows from the VanValkenburg tank into the truck. The black cable carries electrical power from the milk house to the truck's pumping system.

the part-time assistance of teen-ager Ray Handy, who makes his home with the Brown family and attends Clinton High School. Mr. Brugger is employed with Cardinal of Adrian. Three Brown youngsters, Sue 8, Diane 7 and Bradley 5, keep Mrs. Brown occupied with household duties."

Mrs. Brugger, who keeps all the farm records said, "Good records are more important than a good cow!"

SOME DAIRYMEN DEVOTE as much as one hour a day to the keeping of records. Or their wives do!

When 12-hour days (including Sundays) are a fringe benefit of their occupation, you may wonder why they bother with records.

Dairy Herd Improvement Association members, like the Heimerdinger Brothers, can tell you exactly how much milk each cow is producing and how much profit she is making over feed costs, just by looking at the books. A poor producer is soon on her way to market.

Once a month the milk is weighed and tested for butterfat content by the DHIA representative. Feed costs are determined and the dairyman has an exact indication of which cows in his herd are profitable.

Dairymen on owner-sampler testing perform the weighing procedure themselves and take their own samples for butterfat, which are then analyzed by the trained tester.

The spartan cleanliness, bright lights, antiseptic walls and sunken tub effect of the walk-in pit in the modern milking parlor at the Brugger-Brown farm reminded me of the fabled Cleopatra's bath.

Push-button controls automatically sift into a feeder before each cow a carefully-measured ration of grain, which she'll munch while being meticulously bathed with warm water by the dairyman.

Only then is she persuaded to release her milk into a complicated system of clear plastic vacuum tubes, which speed the milk, untouched by human hands, to the bulk storage tank, located in another antiseptically clean room.

The milk is picked up daily by bulk trucks for delivery to city dairies, and soon after — to your dinner table.

That old, familiar milk can is no where in sight.

In the Heimerdinger milking parlor, ropes trip an auger feeder for each cow. Within days after they began using the new facility, several of the craftier cows had learned to give a toothy tug on their own rope — helping themselves to another helping. The ropes were soon moved out of reach.

THE SEVEN-DAY-A-WEEK routine can be a difficult one, dairymen admit. The "family" farm means just that, if it is a dairy farm.

Whole families are involved in the operation on many of the smaller herd farms with the wife and children performing many of the duties.

"We couldn't find anyone competent to do this work even at $2 an hour," George Heimerdinger says.

Quality, not size seems to be the answer, according to David Heimerdinger. "We don't want to get bigger, we want to get better. With herd improvement records, better management of feed costs, and efficient herd management we can make out all right with the present market price, but we will have to substitute bigger machines, and better equipment instead of hired labor," he said.

Each month the participating farmer itemizes his receipts and expenditures and sends them to the Telfarm computer center at Michigan State University.

Quarterly summaries are returned to the farmer along with year-end income tax assistance, such as depreciation tables. Yearly enterprise comparison may be provided which permit a farmer to determine how efficient his farming operation is compared to others in the same area.

Ten years ago, a cow was pretty good if she produced 8,000 pounds of milk per year. Now the goal is to top 12,000. Soon, farm economists tell us, dairymen will need an 18,000 pound herd average to provide an income comparable to his urban neighbor's.

Tecumseh area farmers are hurrying to keep up with the changing times.

BIG HERD — Heifers line up for inspection by owners, George and David Heimerdinger. The new loose-housing, loafing barn was built last fall at the Pennington Rd. site because the Clinton dairymen anticipate local industrial development may soon surround their main dairy operation on Tecumseh Rd. at the village limits. Their 12-cow bulk milking parlor and modern system, installed in 1958, now faces the new Peerless Gear Co. plant and possible expansion of another plant.

Lady Journalist Recounts Start

MACON — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow served a chicken pie supper Tuesday, to members and guests of the Macon Community Club.

Clayton Bigelow led the group in singing, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Halladay. "The Lord's Prayer" and the pledge to the American flag opened the meeting.

Mr. Bigelow asked the group to meet at their home in April. Mrs. Charles Bigelow introduced the program. Mrs. Ralph Halladay paid tribute to Mrs. Irene Kendricks, who formerly lived in Macon and Blissfield.

Mrs. Kendricks had a series entitled "Now and Then In Lenawee County," printed in the Adrian Telegram. Mrs. Halladay told how she came to write the articles.

It all came about one August morning in 1940. A sign on the gate post read, "late cabbage plants for sale."

A car drove up the driveway. In it was a young lady with lively children. The order for the plants was given, and the grandson went to the field to get them.

The two women talked about many things, until it got around to, "Didn't Mrs. Kendrick think it was a good idea when one's children got big enough, for a woman to take up some kind of, well, you might call it education."

Not to just settle down and grow old before one is really old? Mrs. Kendrick agreed with her, and said that she had hoped to be going to the University of Michigan to study journalism.

The young woman looked surprised and a bit amused. Mrs. Kendricks said, "Oh, I can write, but I would like to write well, for I have never had much schooling."

The young woman suggested that Mrs. Kendricks write something for the Adrian Telegram, saying that her husband was the editor. Mrs. Kendrick's first article was accepted and she continued to write every week for 11 years. Mrs. Kendricks has spoken for many different groups around Macon.

Elmer Pocklington read three poems he had written, Clayton Bigelow read an article from the almanac. Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Collins of Timber Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore and family of Tecumseh were guests.

Change Lenten Service Time

Due to many requests, the time of the Lenten services at the Gloria Dei Evangelical Lutheran Church will be 7:30 instead of 7 p.m. each Wednesday evening.

"Why Do We Go To Calvary" is the theme of the meditations and the Chancel and Luther League Choirs both participate in the services.

Barrier May Cause Moisture Problem

If you have a moisture problem in your home — whether too much or too little — the basis of the problem may be a moisture barrier.

Carlton Edwards, agricultural engineer with the MSU Cooperative Extension Service, says that every home must have a moisture barrier. The purpose is to control desired moisture's escaping.

A moisture barrier is usually built into new homes. In new construction it is often a plastic sheet under the plaster board or paneling on all outside walls.

If your house is older and doesn't have a barrier, you can add one to help control the moisture problem, Edwards explains.

To create a moisture barrier, give all outside walls two coats of aluminum paint. You'll do the painting on the WARM side, or the inside, of the wall. You'll need to use the aluminum paint on the outside walls and ceilings of each room. The partitions that divide up the interior space don't need moisture barriers.

When the aluminum paint is dry, you can cover it with whatever type and color of decorative coat that you wish, Edwards adds.

The moisture barrier will keep moisture inside the room from escaping into the walls. If moisture reaches the insulation, and it becomes damp, the insulation becomes a conductor of heat, rather than an insulator, Edwards explains.

Moisture must be kept in to keep humans comfortable, and to keep furnishings from drying out excessively.

MICHIGAN MILK PRODUCERS ASSOCIATION IS CELEBRATING ITS 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF SERVICE

HALF CENTURY OF SERVICE
50TH
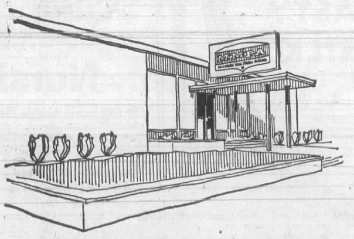
MMPA
MICHIGAN MILK PRODUCERS ASSOCIATION
1916 1966

What is Michigan Milk Producers Association?
What does it do for its members?
What does it do for you?

Michigan Milk Producers Association was founded by a handful of Michigan dairy farmers in 1916. Today, MMPA has more than 9,000 members and last year marketed over $127 million worth of milk. In fifty years, MMPA has become one of the largest dairy cooperatives in America. What is responsible for this remarkable growth? Service. Outstanding service to its members—and to consumers as well.

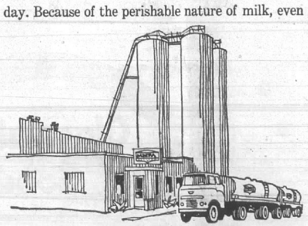
THE PURPOSE OF MMPA

The main purpose of the founders of Michigan Milk Producers Association was to assure members a fair return for their milk through price negotiations with dairies. That is still the main purpose today. Over the years, however, MMPA has added many special services and guarantees which assure a more stable market for members and help assure you, the consumer, an uninterrupted supply of fresh, wholesome milk.



GUARANTEED MARKET AND PAYMENT

All MMPA members are active dairy farmers—shipping large quantities of milk to market every day. Because of the perishable nature of milk, even one day without a market can be costly. MMPA, therefore, guarantees every member a market for his milk, every day of the year—providing it meets health standards. What's more, MMPA guarantees each member full payment for his milk at all times.

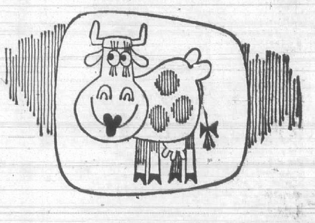


DISASTER AND QUARANTINE PROTECTION

Dairy barns and herds are essential to the dairy farmers income. If a member's barn or milking facilities are damaged by fire or windstorm, MMPA pays that member up to 75% of his milk income for a 90-day recovery period. The same financial protection is guaranteed any member prevented by disease from shipping milk.

TESTING AND FIELD SERVICE

MMPA professional testers check regularly to make sure each member is paid on an accurate basis. MMPA's professional field men call on members regularly to help them with individual problems and to help keep them informed about current quality standards, health department regulations and marketing facts.



FIFTY YEARS OF SERVICE

Many changes have taken place and much has been accomplished in fifty years. Today, MMPA stands as the modern marketing arm of Michigan dairy farmers. Its major purpose still is to serve the dairy farmer members who own and operate it. And the result is to provide you, the consumer, with an uninterrupted supply of fresh, wholesome milk.

We measure our success in terms of our service to our members and to you. And we think we have reason to celebrate.

MICHIGAN MILK PRODUCERS ASSOCIATION

OWNED AND OPERATED BY MICHIGAN DAIRY FARMERS

Congressman Vivian Says

It has now been almost a year since the 1965 Palm Sunday tornadoes struck the Midwest.

The first order of business was, of course, to care for the injured and the homeless. Then followed many months of clean-up and reconstruction, some of which is not yet complete.

In the weeks following Palm Sunday, I wrote and spoke with Dr. Robert M. White, who was the Director of the Weather Bureau at that time, expressing strongly my conviction that we could and should immediately improve our tornado warning capability.

A committee of specialists reviewed this subject, drawing together representatives of the Weather Bureau, the Coast Guard, Army Corps of Engineers, Federal Communications Commission, Office of Civil Defense and the Office of Emergency Planning.

Such disasters are now estimated to cost the Nation between 500 and 600 lives annually, cause economic losses averaging up to $15 billion a year.

In Michigan, one of 15 states in "Tornado Alley,' 85 stations will be connected to a National teletypewriter warning service. The communication links between the tornado detection stations and radio and television stations will be improved.

Princesses Down Clinton Five, 48-44

Paula Moeller was high scorer with 11 points and Peggy Martinus next with 10.

Mary Ann Allen was high scorer for Tecumseh with 20 and Mary McDermott made an equal number of points for Clinton.

Vision, Hearing Help Is Available

Vision and hearing screening is made available again this year to pre-school children. This program, sponsored by the Lenawee County Medical Society, the Lenawee County Health Department, and the Michigan Department of Public Health, is available to all children from three and one-half to kindergarten age.

The screening will help to uncover eye and ear disorders which, after correction, will result in the children entering school better equipped to handle their learning tasks.

A major aim of the program is to prevent one-eyed blindness. This condition, commonly referred to as "the lazy eye," can very often be corrected at the age of three or four years, but becomes a permanent blind eye at age of seven or eight years.

It is estimated that over 5,000 Michigan children each year are destined to be blind in one eye. Some will be found right here in Lenawee County.

Just as a child may not see well without being blind, he may not hear well without being deaf. One cannot detect a slight hearing loss by talking to a child.

Only a special instrument, an audiometer, can pick up the hearing loss when it is beginning, the time when treatment is most helpful.

The screening, free of charge to parents, will be started in mid-April and continue through June. Clinics will be set up in local areas throughout Lenawee County.

Mrs. Helen Vanderveer, vision technician, and Mrs. Vivian Turnwald, hearing technician, will do the screening. Mrs. Kathryn Condon is coordinating the program.

Application letters have been sent to the parents of eligible children and have also been distributed by all schools. The application forms must be completed and returned to local schools or mailed to the Lenawee County Health Department as soon as possible.

BUYER BEWARE by Fred Trump. Clever promoters victimize the consumer to the astounding tune of hundreds of millions of dollars annually. This book sets forth concise, reliable information on hundreds of these scenes; how they operate, now to avoid being taken in, and what to do if you are.

AGRIPPA'S DAUGHTER by Howard Fast. In this major novel of the ancient world, the author paints both the splendor and the ugliness of the people and cultures of Rome and Jerusalem as he traces the story of the beautiful Berenice.

I WAS DANCING by Edwin O'Connor. Daniel is a spry old-time vaudevillian pasionately devoted to himself and to the things he wants in life. Now retired after a lifetime of dancing around the world, he plans to spend the rest of his days in his son's home. When it is learned that it is his intention to stay indefinitely, the conflict begins.

Medicare Blanks Are Available in Tipton Office

TIPTON — Postmaster Thelma Swarts announced today that application blanks for supplemental Medicare benefits are available at the Tipton Post Office.

Application blanks are made available as the Social Security Administration seeks to contact 3.1 million senior citizens before the March 31 deadline imposed by the Medicare law.

President Johnson has proclaimed March as "National Medicare Enrollment Month'. He urged all federal agencies and all citizens to cooperate in enrolling senior citizens.

Senior citizens who reached 65 before 1966, face a two year delay if they do not sign up by March 31 .The application blanks are preaddressed to the Social Security Administration, Baltimore, Maryland.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Jerry and Soapy

It's all official now—Jerry Cavanaugh and Soapy Williams will do battle in the Democratic primary to see who'll be that party's candidate for the United States Senate race next fall.

Right now, the Cavanaugh-Williams clash appears as though it will be lots more fun than the finals. Certainly, there is going to be much from-the-floor swinging.

Right now, we lean to Mayor Cavanaugh—and might even suggest that everyone help Jerry along by voting for him in the primary. Of course, in the fall we'll go with Bob Griffin, but the point here is, should Republican Griffin lose, we'd much prefer to see the Motor City mayor go to Washington as our Senator than Old Soapy.

Ex-Gov. Williams is a tremendous personality and politician, but he's not our idea of a senator—or governor for that matter. He's so closely tied with Augie Scholle and the CIO it would be difficult to tell who would be making the decisions should Soapy become Senator Williams.

The combination did a great job of ruining the reputation of Michigan before George Romney arrived on the scene and pulled up the state by its boot straps.

Remember in the Era of Williams, industry was refusing to settle in Michigan, firms were moving out and red ink drenched the state's books.

No thanks, we've had enough of Soapy.

Learn About Candidates

Too often, elections for City Council are dull affairs. At some, there isn't even a mild challenge for those seeking another term.

But that's not at all the case in two weeks when Tecumseh voters will pick five men from among a slate of 11 candidates.

This week's Herald contains a brief biography of each, as an aid to residents in deciding for whom they'd like to ballot.

After reading through the backgrounds and qualifications of the 11, a person can't help but be impressed. At least eight are well-fitted for the role of being a city father.

Three are incumbents—Mayor Harold Easton, Don Sunderland and Lawrence Mohr—with up to four terms to their credit.

Our city is facing a giant growth situation, which will offer joy and confusion. To councilmen falls the task of keeping the ship on an even keel, anticipating problems and working out solutions before the roof caves in.

Citizens are going to want the best possible people representing them. That's why it's wise for everyone to learn as much as possible about the candidates, then be sure to vote for the men whom they feel will get the job done most efficiently.

The election will be Monday, April 4.

Free Forum on Medicare

Coming up Thursday evening at the Community Center will be a forum on Medicare.

Senior Citizens—in fact anyone reaching retirement age—should attend to learn the various aspects of the government's medical program.

A lineup of experts will be on hand to explain Medicare and then a fellow from the Social Security regional office in Jackson will sign up those who wish to participate.

This makes it mighty convenient for area oldsters.

Through My Window

WE DID NOT HAVE

Before going full tilt into spring-time things, perhaps we should take one last look at the winter, tie up a few loose ends as it were. However, I do not want to fall into the weather trap which Mother Nature usually has set for us.

I hesitate to say definitely that this will be the last winter article because as sure as I do, regardless of what the calendar says — wham, we will be clobbered by a late March blizzard.

Of course, if we do wiggle through without that one really bad late snow storm this will go into the history books as somewhat of a "nothing" winter.

At least up here, where Logan Street meets Evans Creek, there has not been enough snow nor enough prolonged cold to make an outstanding bird-watching season.

THE EXCEPTION to this has been the cardinal — they have been tremendously exciting. A flock of seven cardinals and, in any man's book, that adds up to bird-watching par excellence.

Mourning doves, nut hatches, tufted titmice and downy woodpeckers were also faithful visitors. It was a good chic-a-dee winter, the big hairy woodpeckers were seen oftener than usual and we enjoyed several visits of the lovely cedar waxwings.

The most exciting bird was the little red-breasted nuthatch — Clara Waldron shared a pair of these tiny cuties with us and what fun they were.

On the other side of the coin, though, there were birds, who are usually around when the snow flies, that didn't show up at all.

FOR ALMOST six weeks we were practically blue-jay-less. It was strange to go day after day without seeing a big splash of blue and white come sailing down to the feeder.

Fortunately they are back now, one by one, they returned and those days we have a grand and glorious contingent which numbers five.

The round little song sparrows have not been the ideal free-loaders this winter, either. Two of them were in residence, we saw them at a distance but not once did either of them venture up to the feeder.

At least, they never came when we were watching. They are such cute birds, so heavily striped and with such a distinctive stick-pin dot on their breast, that we always welcome a close-up look.

They spent much time scratching for dinner beneath the feeders but that wasn't where we wanted them.

THE GAUDY colored evening grosbeaks had us completely frustrated. Way back in November we enjoyed one visit — a gorgeous male munched sunflower seeds at the window feeder while two of his women folk perched high in a nearby tree.

That was it — our one and only look at these fairly big birds whose brilliant gold, black, olive and white coloring is such a shocking contrast to the dull grays of winter.

This wasn't even a good animal winter, either. No muskrat and no opossum. From the kitchen and living room windows, Mom saw the muskrat often, to the east of Updikes' big elm tree was its favorite spot. We happen to see him venturing up "our" stretch of creek just once, however.

BUT THE biggest disappointment of all was the rabbits.

Last summer there was a bumper crop of youngsters and we anticipated a winter of good rabbit watching.

Unfortunately, though, the gang of cats, which we fear is raising havoc with our bird population, also destroyed the rabbits.

Our times of enjoying the sight of a rabbit hopping through the yard or hunching up under the corn tree to nibble left-overs were few indeed.

So it is that although the winter did afford some thrills and excitement, there were a great many expected pleasures that we did not have.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

In regard to your article "I am a tired American," there is another aspect which deserves our greatest attention.

This is the American who has no intelligent and active concern for our country's heritage, its current policies, and its place among mankind.

I also get fed up with America's many critics, but a denial of the accusations is no answer. The answer lies in assuming our responsibilities and applying our rights towards a betterment of our country and the world we live in.

This is where I get tired!

How many people intelligently examine and discuss the issues and the people in each election? And then how many quickly protest when an unfavorable policy or bill is activated? This will always be a problem in a democracy, but what can be done about it?

To begin with, read The Herald. Besides the other pertinent information, there are the reports by congressmen, our governor, and the very important editorials.

One may not agree with an editorial, but it should be read to at least gain a more complete perspective of the situation. Our communications are tremendous at this time, so why can't we avail ourselves of them as responsible citizens?

Then a person could give their congressman their opinion of a bill and with all the reasonable positions of his constituents taken into consideration, the legislator would be able to make a more intelligent decision.

If he proves himself unworthy of making such a decision, the voters have the right, and responsibility to decide his future at the election.

Is Communism our greatest threat, or is it from the apathetic who couldn't care less what the city, state, and federal governments do?

I don't know, but I do know that it's much easier to scream at the concept of Communism than to sincerely attempt to become an aware and active citizen of Tecumseh, of Michigan, of the United States, and of the human community.

Sincerely yours,
Dave Porteous

P.S.—Although I probably rambled on too long to have this printed, I do want you at The Herald to know how much I appreciate receiving a newspaper which blends the personal concern of the community with activity on the state and national level. It has faults, as we humans do, but its continual growth makes it and will continue to make it a fine newspaper.

DECREPIT OLD PATTERSON HOME, LONG A MAIN STREET EYESORE, WILL SOON BE JUST SAD MEMORY

Built by Physician

Editor's note — This is the second in a series of articles by Clara Waldron, city historian, on two historic homes in Tecumseh now being torn down. Her article this week deals with the Patterson House, a pathetic sight on Chicago Blvd.

By CLARA WALDRON

However interested he may be in old Tecumseh, no one in his right mind is going to regret the loss of the building, at 210 East Chicago Blvd., currently known as the Bills Apartments.

Even in its heyday — the date in the high front gable says it was built in 1884 — it was no ornament to Main Street.

With its awkwardly proportioned three stories, it looked what it was, an ill-advised addition to a much more worthy building, for it was especially deplorable because of what it had hidden.

Behind that red brick facade are the crumbling remains of what must have been one of the most atractive houses Tecumseh has ever known.

One of those substantial, four-square homes, whose lines spoke of the lofty ceilings and gracious rooms within, its exterior lent itself so well to balanced and interesting detail.

THE DETAILS of this house were especially interesting.

It had been built in 1855 by Tecumseh's pioneer doctor, Dr. M. A. Patterson, who from 1827 through the town's early years, had single-handed dealt with its broken bones, its "lung fever" and its prevailing scourge of "fever and ague."

As a saddle-bag doctor he had ridden over the then inhabited area before primitive roads allowed him to graduate to horse and buggy. (Incidently Dr. Patterson was the great-grandfather of Mrs. Harold Naser).

He married into the Wright family and his first home and office was a frame building on the corner now occupied by Wright's Drug Store, which, when the brick block was built, was moved to the lot south of the present fire station.

Some will remember its use, many years later, as a temporary city office.

DR. PATTERSON then built the square brick house, which for probably 20 years stood alone on the corner of Chicago and Ottawa Sts.

The feature that lent it most distinction was the use, throughout, of "Palladian" windows, groups of three long, narrow, panes under arching lintels.

The same pattern was followed in the dignified front entrance, with its lovely fan-light and in the second story doors that led to balconies both front and back. These windows may still be seen from the rear of the building.

AFTER THE death of the doctor, a son-in-law named Lee, decided to capitalize on the location of the house. Ruthlessly defacing its front, he built on, as a hotel, the three-story structure that was known as the "Lee Hotel" or the "Patterson House."

It was not a successful venture as the town already had two hotels and it was not more so after the rooms were converted into apartments.

During the first World War it had a period of temporary usefulness, when the lower floor housed the office and workrooms of the local Red Cross unit.

Since then its deterioration has been steady, until now it must go, and with it all but a memory of Dr. Patterson's stately home.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Big Jule made his last stand. And it was a pretty ignominious ending, with State Police closing in, ready to pump lead if necessary.

For those of you who missed "Guys and Dolls" or who weren't watching carefully during the sewer scene, Big Jule and this writer are the same person.

The stage role called for a shoulder holster with pistol and Big Jule's came as a gift from Ray Dubrinsky of Ken-Ray Drug, who presented the Tecumseh Players with a neat 007 Secret Operator's kit.

Very realistic. As it turned out this week, much too realistic.

Confused? Well, I'll try to unravel things.

George and one of his ace salesmen, Dick Fox, and I had been racking our brains trying to come up with a brand new sales gimmick. George had agreed to give away $1,000 and the three of us wanted a peg on which to hang the promotion.

Just before leaving the office, there was Big Jule's shoulder holster replete with 007 pistol. Zingo, an idea hit. Let's turn George into an underworld figure, I thought, and take his picture with the gun and an Al Capone hat.

It was a sunny day, the roads were dry and empty. Ah, spring. The accelerator did go down so easily.

THEN, I WAS at Underwood Fordland, pulling in right by the service window. Leaning to my right, I started to pick up the holster and pistol.

An imposing figure loomed through the window. Looking up there was a grim-faced state trooper, going for his weapon.

"Gulp," was my only comment.

Opening the door gingerly, I tried a grin and joke, but the two State Policemen weren't laughing.

"It's only a toy," I said nervously. "Want to see it?"

"Yes, I'd like to," one replied.

Then the whole story unfolded and my knees began to tilt a little.

As I had left Tecumseh, in a 50-mile-an-hour zone, apparently I was rolling 60 (according to the fellows in blue). That's when they first became interested in Big Jule, they tailed right to George's.

Never once did I see the patrol car, even when its flasher spun (as they told me it did.)

The first inkling I got that anything unusual was happening came when that shadow loomed outside my window seconds after I had parked.

AN EYE WITNESS to the final stages of the incident was Lee Smith, who is the Underwood service manager. He chuckled later, "When I saw him go for his holster, I started to duck."

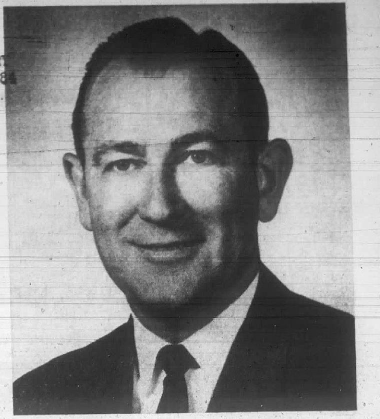
You mean, that nice young fellow would have shot me, I started thinking.

Big Jule now has a date with Justice Ernie Oliver. He'll plead guilty, never once trying that line, "I ain't talking 'til I see my mouthpiece."

Ray, any time you want to pick up your 007 Kit, feel free to stop by. I'm not risking being seen on the street with it.

As for George and his ad gimmick, we did the logical thing. Anyone who'll dole out one grand in cold cash has to be Santa Claus.

Fisher Body Names Conklin



DOMINIC CONKLIN — NEW PLANT CHIEF

"We'll continue working towards our objective — making Tecumseh the best trim fabricating plant in Fisher Body," said Dominic E. Conklin at the time of his appointment this week as manager of the Tecumseh plant.

Fisher Body General Manager Robert Gathman named Mr. Conklin, who replaces Lewis Lamm, now chief executive officer of the Tecumseh Products Co.

Mr. Conklin moves from plant superintendent into his post as manager of the vast upholstery layout, which currently employs 950.

MR. CONKLIN joined Fisher Body in 1941 as a stockman at the Pontiac plant. Between 1943 and 1946 he served in the Air Force as a navigator, with a rank of first lieutenant.

He then rejoined Fisher Body in Pontiac where he remained until 1951 when he was transferred to the division's General Offices as a senior process engineer.

In 1955, Mr. Conklin was appointed supervisor of labor standards and assigned to the Grand Rapids No. 2 plant. He was named shift superintendent there in 1960.

In 1965, he was promoted to the position of plant superintendent and transferred to the Tecumseh plant.

MR. CONKLIN received his preparatory education in Hartland, Mich. He has also attended Cleary Business College, Lawrence Institute of Technology and Montana State College.

He is married, the father of five children and now resides at 808 Red Mill Dr.

$10 Certificate To Be Awarded King and Queen

A $10 gift certificate will be awarded the little king and queen of the annual baby contest sponsored by the Jaycee Auxiliary.

Runners-up will receive $5 gift certificates. Pictures of the tykes will be printed in the Michigan Week edition of The Tecumseh Herald.

Parents planning to enter their youngsters in the contest should mail 5x7 pictures to Mrs. Charles Kapnick, 6375 Pocklington Rd., Britton, or to Mrs. Roger Butler, 1111 Willow Court, by April 14.

The pictures will be displayed in local stores where shoppers may vote for their choice by dropping pennies in the cannisters. Each penny rates one vote.

Senior Citizens Plan Potluck

The Senior Citizens will hold a potluck dinner Thursday, April 14, 12:30 p.m., preceding a program by the Drama Department of the Tecumseh Monday Club.

Award Winners—Robert Belcher, Virginia Dollison, Rick Skinner

Win Science Awards

Rick Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Skinner, 807 River Acres Dr., placed fourth and received a major award of $20 in the Southeastern Michigan Science Fair, Ann Arbor.

Rick also placed first and received $10 with his Chemistry exhibit of "Organic Paper Chromatography."

Virginia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dollison of 402 Herrick Park Dr., received $10 for her second place chemistry exhibit of "Acids and Bases — Their Relation to pH."

Robert Belcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Belcher of 1009 Murray Dr., received a Supplementary Award in the American Society for Microbiology division with his exhibit on "The Effects of pH on Yeast, Mold and Bacteria."

More than 40 judges from nearby schools, universities and industry deliberated up to eight hours each to select the winners.

Rotary Tells Success Story

Tecumseh Rotary Club ranked second in attendance among 50 clubs attending the District Conference March 6 at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Detroit.

Team Supports Haircut Edict

Editors Note — In last week's issue, a Britton mother blasted a ruling by Tory Coach Al Vadasy, who told his candidates for track and baseball teams that they must have locks shorn in a crew cut. Her note prompted members of the baseball team to reply with their opinion.

TO THE EDITORS:

In regard to the letter which appeared in the March 24 issue of The Tecumseh Herald entitled "Parents Protest," we would like to comment.

If such an insignificant issue as a haircut merits a front page spread we feel it necessary to [illegible] what we believe on the matter. The letter [illegible] three major ideas:

1. The team — we feel the meaning of a team has been lost. The letter mentioned "the decline of athletics in our school." When the team runs the coach, one doesn't have a team. When the students' selfish wishes are more important than the team itself isn't a decline in athletics eminent?

2. The athlete — a true athlete doesn't have to be driven or prodded into participating in sports. A true athlete has desire and will make sacrifices for his team.

3. The Grooming — we haven't been forced to shave our heads; we've merely been asked to get reasonably close-cropped haircuts. Personally we don't think we "look badly."

Why did we get our hair cut? To put it simply, it was because we [illegible] play baseball — so we lost our coolness!!! Also we wanted to respect the coach's wishes: he asked us to get our hair cut.

We've won respect and a place
We've won respect an da place on the baseball team.

We're 100% behind Mr. Vadasy.

Mom Supports Policy

TO THE EDITORS:

I was disturbed by the letter last week from a mother in Britton, who criticized the Britton coach in regards to his insistence of the short hair cuts.

In this day and age, sports, whether fall, winter or spring, are played with precision, split-second timing and speed.

Also, cooperation is needed to succeed.

If a boy has to stop to brush hair out of his eyes, he loses his timing and quite possibly the game.

Coaches are proud of their athletes, and want them to be a credit to their schools and community. Coaches set up a code of ethics, rules and regulations, which they feel will bring out all the assets desirable for a good athletic program.

It behooves the athletes to abide by the coaches rules or not participate, regardless of parental influences. They will be disciplined all their lives by rules and regulations and if they can't take it now, they never will.

LOOK AROUND you and tell me, how many coaches themselves have long hair? They never ask the athletes to do anything they can't carry out as well. College athletes have short hair, too. Get with it! You're way behind the times.

It is not being discriminated against — but discriminating — symbol of their athletic abilities.

Most high school athletes are set apart because of these achievements, a status to be upheld! They should be proud and honored to be a part of this program.

Property Owners Protest

Never before has the city's Taxation Board of Review heard so many complaints. Boardmen, from left, T. J. Wagner, Fred C. "Nothing new in this world," reports Mrs. William Dettman of rural Britton. She recalls at the turn of the century, three men, practical jokers all, cooking up an idea that had the neighborhood in wonderment for nearly three weeks northeast of Britton.

They got giant tubs and lanterns, placing them high up in trees and would climb aboard at night, flashing the lights alternately.

"People congregated from miles around," said Mrs. Dettman, then a nine-year-old. But nobody got up courage to venture close enough to investigate.

The trio, apparently running low on sleep, finally called it a gag.

Sooner or later, someone from Tecumseh was bound to see a flying saucer. It happened about 5 a.m. Monday for a local lady while she rode to her job at Rawsonville Ford. However, after reporting the incident, she declined having her name printed.

Former Tecumseh teacher, insuranceman and gentleman farmer, Jim Howard, just loves the soil too much. He recently purchased a large tract of land in western Michigan and will devote full time to farming.

Representative Wes Vivian says he believes that the Northfield Township site, which has been proposed as a location for the Atomic Energy Commission's giant new proton accelerator lab, has an excellent chance of becoming the ultimate selection of the Commission.

In mid-April, a new Toledo television station will be launched, WDHO-TV, transmitting on channel 24. It's billed as the most powerful in Ohio (and possibly in the country), with an effective radiated power of 2,700,000 watts, and will be beamed from the highest structure in the state, a tower 1,466 feet above average terrain.

Thank you, Sir Galahad, one of Tecumseh's fine young people who beckoned a preoccupied woman driver through the traffic light when she had already signaled a left turn. Better watch it gal, he might not be there next time you make that booboo.

Show Cast

Rehearsals for the Tecumseh Players' third offering of the season, "Mary, Mary", are well under way.

Dick Egli, the director, announced the cast at the last Player's meeting.

Lori Egli will be cast as Mary, and Dr. Bob Murray as Bob.

The assistant director is Mrs. Frank Dalton.

TECHNICAL director and set chief is Ed Meyers, who announces the following committee heads:

Properties — Mrs. Duane Steele

Costumes — Mrs. Kim Schneider

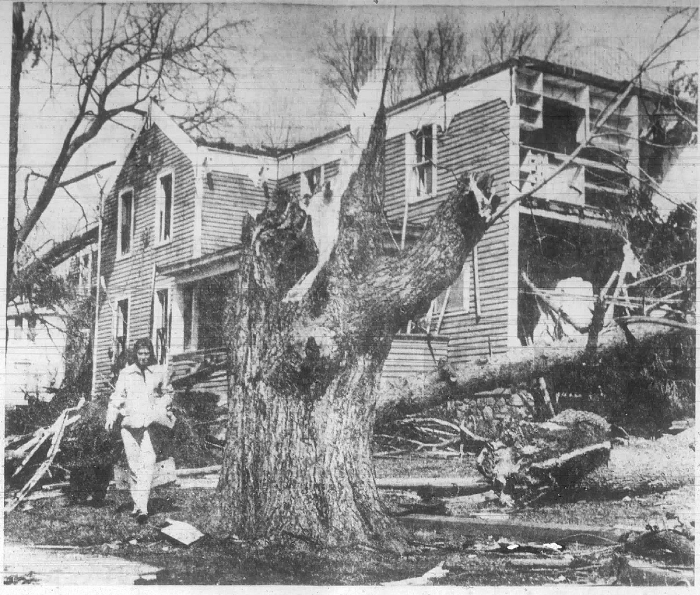
Lights — Ted Pihl

Publicity — Mrs. James Vanzo.

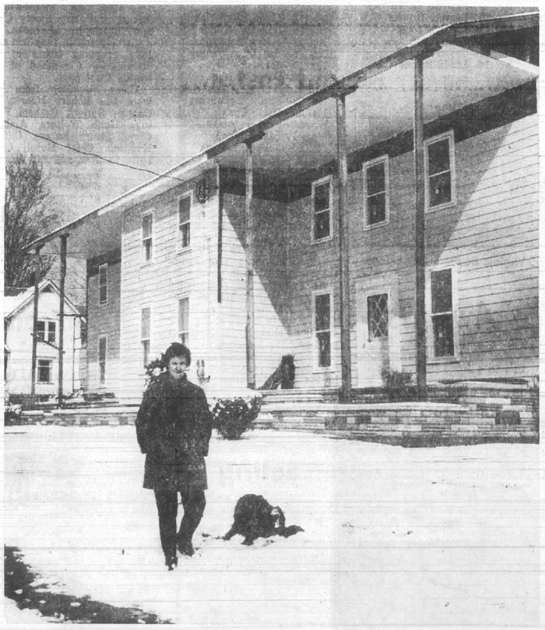
In charge of ticket reservations is Mrs. Bob Bagdon, 423-7375.

The opening night of "Mary, Mary" is April 21 with performances also on April 22, 23, 28, 29 and 30.

Tickets are available in Tecumseh at Colonial House of Beauty, Flanders Music Co. and Wright's Drug Store. In Adrian, they're on sale at WABJ and Morrison's Pharmacy.



One Year Later



Mrs. Guy Cox walks across the lawn of her Tipton home devastated in Palm Sunday's tornado a year ago. Remodeling of the large Cox residence on M-50 had been completed that afternoon, but the following day when the picture was taken, by Herald photographer Delaphene Shelton, Mrs. Cox's chief concern was that she and her husband and their six children had been unharmed in the storm. The picture snapped last Saturday when snow covered the ground shows Mrs. Cox before her residence which is nearing the finished point for the second time. There is still some siding to put in place. Huge pillars will enhance the front of the home.

Gem and Mineral Society to Meet

The State Line Gem and Mineral Society will meet Sunday, April 3, at the Tecumseh Community Center, at 2 p.m.

The program will be presented by Tolson Radloff of Lincoln Park. He will present slides of his "Silver Crosses with Opal."

Refreshments will be served. Guests are welcome.

MOM SUPPORTS

She said that "student and parent morale was at an all time low." If the parents would keep out of it, the morale would probably change immediately.

I have had five sons all participating in athletics, and their short hair cuts didn't hurt them a bit!

With the attitude that "nobody wins and everybody loses," I don't wonder that they are falling apart. Determination and cooperation can work wonders. Try it.

In Tecumseh High School, all participating athletes have short hair, as do their coaches, and I have never been prouder of a more well-groomed group of boys in my life! They are truly a credit to their school and community, bar none!

'Sherlock' Freckelton Finds Out

Mrs. James Freckelton, 124 W. Brown St., like Sherlock Holmes, doesn't give up once she is on the trail of her objective.

Mrs. Freckelton is a racing fan and she wants to know when Derby Week at Louisville, Ky. will take place. In addition, she'd like to know about tours held in conjunction with the famed race.

Mrs. Freckelton traced the facts down — the Derby is May 6, climaxing a May 1-6 race week in Louisville. Three days of tours follow May 6-8.

Thanks, Sherlock.

Michigan has adopted the U. S. Public Health Service recommendations for the production of Grade A milk. The new law becomes effective July 1, 1966. A Michigan State University specialist says the USPH recommendations provide the most up-to-date standards in the United States.

Tipton School Notes

First Grade Field Trip to the Shrine Circus, Toledo, will be Tuesday, April 12. We are making circus pictures, writing circus stories and learning to spell words that tell about the circus. Our bulletin boards are decorated appropriately.

We have two new students bringing our room count to 35 children. They are Delphina and Manuel Maldonado from Brownsville, Texas.

In Science, we are studying about plants and how they grow. We have a seed planting project in progress. Each student has planted seeds and will note how they grow.

Friday, March 25, the sixth grade for Social Studies had a Italian meal. Also Friday, w had a Social Studies project.

Karen Buell, Rae Ann Outma and Theresa Trettin made wealthy Roman's home. Differ ent ones had different projects Wendy Luce and Kathy Munge did a map on Vietnam. Dianne Kimpel, Kandy Van Sickle an Cynthia Freeman did coins o the Roman Empire. David Whe lan and Steven Vargo made Colosseum of Ancient Rome.

The first Monday in ever month we have to hand in book report. Most of us ar working on our book reports April 1, some will take the Science projects to the Scienc Fair.

Darlene Linda Kittle, Paul Underwood Speak Vows

A 35-branch candelabra faced with smilax and stephanotis enhanced the altar. Palms flanked the kneeler and red roses and satin bows marked the family pews along the carpeted aisle.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kittle of rural Clinton and Mrs. Kenneth Jennings, Sutton Rd.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of organza and lace featuring a fitted bodice with scalloped neckline trimmed with sequins and seed pearls and long tapered sleeves.

She carried a gold-throated orchid centering a bouquet of garnet roses.

Mrs. Laurence Slick was her sister's matron of honor in a ballerina length gown of red velvet with matching shoes and hat.

Deborah Graff and Janet Pickford were the bridesmaids attired as the matron of honor, only in blue.

Philip Mobley served as best man and the guests were seated by Harold Underwood, brother of the groom, and William Shavalier, Jr., Eugene White and Earl Goaden.

Michael Underwood, nephew of the groom, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Daisy June Slick, niece of the bride, carried a tote bouquet of white carnations, enhanced with red tulle.

The bride's cake was flanked by tiered candelabra arranged with white pompons and carnations on the white taffeta and nylon net-covered table.

Mrs. William Shavalier, Mrs. Donna Foster, Mrs. Terry Fojtik and Mrs. Owen Underwood assisted with the serving for the reception.

The couple, both graduates of Tecumseh High School, will live at 301 E. Pottawatamie St.

The rehearsal dinner was given by Mrs. Jennings, the groom's mother.

BLAINE BALLARD

EMU Choir, Orchestra to Perform

Blaine Ballard, associate professor of music at Eastern Michigan University, will conduct the University choir and orchestra April 3 at 8 p.m., when they perform the German Requiem by Johannes Brahms in Pease Auditorium.

The Requiem, composed in 1868, combines the beauty and expressiveness of melodic ideas with resignation and faith.

Two outstanding soloists have been engaged for the performance, Grace Trester Jones for the soprano solo and D. Ralph Appelman for the bass.

The choir is being presented in this Palm Sunday concert by the Office of Religious Affairs.

Professor Ballard conducted the choir in the First Baptist Church, Tecumseh for five years and his wife was the organist at St. Peter's Episcopal Church for about the same length of time.

Pythian Sisters Host Grand Chief

TIPTON — The Pythian Sisters met in regular session with 32 present. The Grand Chief, Kay Lewis made her official visit. The District Deputy, Helen Downey and several Grand and Past Grand Officers were also present as were members from Durand, Owosso, Flint, Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti.

The Charter was draped for Past Grand Chief Leta Saville. Three names were balloted to be initiated at the Convention, May 3. All those having little aprons please return to Mrs. Lyle Bailey by April 1.

The lunch committee was Mrs. Verl Miller, Mrs. Don Buell and Mrs. Lawrence Mohr. Easter decorations were used on the tables.

Will Meet

BRITTON — There will be a Cub Scout Committee meeting, April 4, 7 p.m., at the Harley Slick residence, Ridgeway. All Committeemen and Den Mothers are requested to attend.

Sandy Keith, Barbara Clark, Virginia Dollison Named to Girls State

Mrs. Kenneth Herrick, chairman of the Wolverine Girl's State committee, American Legion Auxiliary, has announced the selection of three representatives for this year.

Barbara Clark, Virginia Dollison and Sandra Keith will attend the event on the campus of the University of Michigan, June 14-21.

The girls are chosen for their marked qualities of leadership, scholastic ability, a high sense of duty and morality, enthusiasm, sportsmanship and co-operative attitude and amiability.

Expenses for the week in Ann Arbor for the Tecumseh High School juniors have been paid by the Business and Professional Women, The Tecumseh Products Company and The American Legion Auxiliary.

Her father is general manager of Beach Brother's Inc. Her mother, Virginia, is a housewife. A brother, Lee, 14, completes the family

Miss Dollison, 16, is a member of the National Honor Society, Future Teacher's Club and secretary of the French Club of the high school this year.

She likes to sew and collect coins but has little time for these hobbies.

She is a member of the Presbyterian church and attends the youth meetings there.

After graduation, she hopes to continue her education to become a math and French teacher.

BARBARA CLARK, 16, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Clark, 409 W. Chicago Blvd., is a member of the Future Nurse's Club, the Madrigal Singers and is treasurer of the Latin Club. She belongs to the Presbyterian Church.

Barbara has two brothers, Ron, 19, and David, 12.

She plans to attend a nursing school after graduation from high school.

SANDRA KEITH, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Carpenter, 1441 W. Chicago Blvd., is a member of the Future Teachers Club, the Girls Athletic Association bowling team, Senior Girl Scouts and the Rainbow Girls. She holds the station of Hope in the latter.

She is one of the chairmen of the refreshments committee for the Junior Senior prom.

She likes out-of-door sports such as camping, hiking, swimming, water skiing and horseback riding.

Miss Keith looks forward to becoming a physical education teacher and joining the Peace Corps.

Her parents own and operate Harvey's Motel and Grill.

From left, Sandy Keith, Barbara Clark and Virginia Dollison

Baptists Hold Revival Week

The Missionary Baptist Church, Cairns St., is holding a week of revival services beginning Easter Sunday, April 10, at 11 a.m.

The Rev. James Pinkley of Middlesboro, Ky., will be the evangelist and services will be held each evening through the following week at 7 p.m.

VOTE FOR THESE 5 NEXT MONDAY

Harold Easton

HAROLD HAS SERVED TECUMSEH WELL, BOTH AS A MAYOR, COUNCILMAN AND A CITIZEN. HIS RECORD AS A CITY OFFICIAL IS OUTSTANDING, PLUS THE FACT THAT HE HAS REPRESENTED THE COMMUNITY VERY WELL IN OTHER POSITIONS.

Terrence J. Wagner

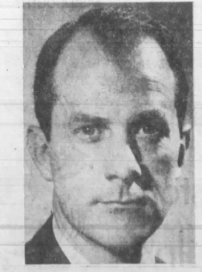
TJ IS A PRESENT BUSINESSMAN AND WELL KNOWN TO MANY. HIS FAIRNESS TO ALL AS A FORMER CITY OFFICIAL IS BEST REMEMBERED. AS A CITY TAX ASSESSOR . . . . WE HAD FAIR TAX ASSESSMENTS THROUGHOUT THE COMMUNITY.

John Saling

JOHN'S RECORD AND ACTIVITY IN SEVERAL ORGANIZATIONS ARE INDICATIVE OF WHAT HE CAN DO FOR TECUMSEH. A BUSINESSMAN, CIVIL DEFENSE DIRECTOR, HIS CHURCH WORK, AND HIS KNOWLEDGE OF TECUMSEH WARRANT YOUR VOTE.

Herbert Barnes

HERB WOULD BE A DEFINITE ASSET TO OUR CITY COUNCIL. HE'S YOUNG AND PROGRESSIVE, WILLING TO DEVOTE HIS TIME FOR CITY AFFAIRS AND FUNCTIONS. MANY TECUMSEHITES KNOW HIM THROUGH GENERAL TELEPHONE, HIS EMPLOYER.



Leroy Betzoldt

"BUZZ", LIKE THE OTHERS, IS WELL KNOWN. HIS INTEREST TO HELP THE COMMUNITY TO EXPAND PROPERLY AND TO SEE THAT ITS CITIZENS RECEIVE SATISFACTORY SERVICES SHOULD WIN VOTING APPROVAL AT THE POLLS NEXT MONDAY.

WHY?

A COMMITTEE, COMPRISED OF LOCAL CITIZENS, HAS VIEWED CAREFULLY THE QUALIFICATIONS OF THE 11 CANDIDATES SEEKING COUNCIL POSITIONS. THE FIVE CANDIDATES HERE WERE SELECTED FOR THEIR KNOWLEDGE ABOUT THE COMMUNITY, THEIR APPARENT WILLINGNESS TO SERVE, AND THEIR PAST RECORDS. IT'S A BLEND OF SOME OLD WITH SOME NEW, RESULTING IN WHAT WE BELIEVE WILL PROVIDE TECUMSEH WITH GOOD GOVERNMENT, ONE WHICH WILL SERVE THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY FAIRLY AND CONSCIENTOUSLY. THESE FIVE CANDIDATES — EASTON, WAGNER, BETZOLDT, SALING AND BARNES — CAN DO THE JOB. WE SINCERELY HOPE THE ELECTORATE WILL SUPPORT THEM AT THE POLLS HERE NEXT MONDAY.

Ginny Murray Shares Coeds' Gaseous Experience

By GIN MURRAY

GIN MURRAY

What' new, pussycat? Why Michigan's flying phenomena, of course!

We are making headlines, being featured on radio and TV, and even the astute New York Times carried a story in last week's big Sunday Edition.

Admit it! Don't you scan the news for the latest on Southern Michigan's "pie in the sky", find yourself trading the latest "flying saucer" stories over the bridge table?

Last Thursday night I was a guest at Eastern Michigan's Downing Hall, mainly to catch up my studies and to be on time for an early morning exam.

Ten-thirty p.m. the peace and quiet of the dormatory was pierced by the shrieks of a multitude of female voices, followed by the clip-clop of padded feet down the halls. In minutes it seemed that the whole dormatory had congregated outside my door.

It had!

A HUNDRED girls cluttered the hallway, filled the stairwell, and overflowed down the stairs into the basement. Down the hill in front of the spanking new dormatory came a torch-light procession of fraternity men. Under the canopy of the front door, they were joined by a large group of beautiful young women. Through the door of the dormatory and into the cold night stepped a handsome, dark-haired young man, on whose arm was a ravishing red-head, the wind cascading her hair around her shoulders and turning the torches into tiny pin-points of light.

The sweet young voices of the sorority girls serenaded the young man, followed by the strong male voices lifted in salute to the lovely lady. A member of the sorority stepped foreward and sang a haunting ballad of young love.

A fraternity brother stepped out with a long, narrow box filled with red roses. The group of young people melted into a warm circle around the newly-pinned couple, cheers rang out into the night, joined by the happy voices down the stairs, on the stairwell, and in the hall. There were tears, and wistful looks of, "if only this would happen for me, someday."

And the answer to the question, "Are you her Mother?" was "No, but I wish I were!"

As the last echo died down, and the last padded slipper pitter-patted into its own cubicle, a piercing cry rent the air. The padded-slipper routine began over, with a vengance, this time accompanied by much louder squeals than at first, and accompanied by some dignified female shouting.

Trying to ignore the noise would have been as easy as ignoring a herd of Buffalo on the roof, and this time a new note was added to the crescendo: fear!

A glance down the hall showed the co-eds clustered in front of windows, dashing up and down the halls, and stairs.

"There it is, it's a flying saucer!"

To the din was added the masculine voices of students outside, "There it is, it's here!"

AND, THERE IT WAS! It appeared larger than a star suspended motionless, half-way between the full sky and the ground, approximately seven miles away. A closer look showed definite flashes of red, green, and white, alternating and, over a period of exactly fifteen minutes, it moved slowly out of sight behind the dorm.

The crowd moved to the second floor to watch , then to the third and then to the fourth.

The following day's paper reported it as a "near riot". To jamb a hundred excited women into a narrow stairwell can lead to anything, but the students were actually marvelously well-behaved.

After the "saucer" passed out of sight, the crowd dwindled down to a few diehards who insisted on labeling Mars, Jupiter, Saturn or anything that vaguely moved or twinkled as, "O look, there's another!"

The by now amateur-astronomer, expert "saucer" watcher, and honorary assistant-house mother, set everyone straight, and shooed the malingerers off to bed.

"Marsh gas", said the experts. "Marsh gas to the experts," said the saucer watchers from Downing Hall.

Clinton School Needs 3 New Classrooms

By MAXINE CALHOUN

CLINTON — Superintendent Richard Wegner told a meeting of the PTA Monday, three more rooms will be needed for elementary grades at Clinton next fall.

This is just one of the many problems he outlined to 40 parents and teachers on the subject, "Schools — The Challenge to the Community."

Faced with the immediate necessity of finding temporary facilities in nearby buildings, the school board and administration must also consider the long range school building needs, he said.

Clinton School district can have a fine school and can avoid being forced into consolidation with larger districts if the Clinton voters really want to pay a high enough school tax to provide school buildings, enlarged staff and improved methods of teaching, Mr. Wegner said.

THE ALTERNATIVE, he said, will be something like the proposed county reorganization plan.

The second proposal by the 18-member County School Reorganization committee which was submitted to the State Board of Education provides for the combining of Clinton, Tecumseh and Britton-Macon into one school district.

This plan has not yet been approved by the State Board, but if it is, it will be submitted to voters in June.

Clinton's school administration has sent its opposition to the proposed reorganization plan to the state.

Clinton Community Schools are accredited with the University of Michigan at present, but not with the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Although Clinton schools have made major strides recently to maintain present accreditation, the requirements are constantly being raised and it may soon be impossible to stay on the list without extensive improvement in the school system.

PRINCIPAL RICHARD Steudle interjected the statement that Clinton graduates are readily accepted by Michigan State University, which shows their competence for college entrance.

Mr. Wegner described Clinton's English department as outstanding in the county since it now offers the accelerated college-level English Course.

Recent equipment purchases upgraded the biology, science and art department. Chorus and vocal music have been added with the hiring of a vocal teacher who will also give individual vocal instruction.

Clinton's school indebtedness still is around $600,000 for present buildings. He said a piecemeal program of additions to present buildings would soon use up the balance of the $1 million limit of bonded indebtedness which the district can have.

He suggested, "The real need is for a large new high school, leaving present buildings to be used for junior high and elementary."

WITHIN 20 years he envisioned the community as part of a vast suburb stretching from Detroit to Chicago.

With such considerations in mind, the school board and administration has given considerable study to the matter of Clinton's school building program.

"The board deserves much praise," Mr. Wegner said, "for their cooperative assistance in providing for each need as it arises."

Now the support for the building proposals must come from the people of the school district.

"Keep up with progress or be taken up," he said in conclusion.

The May meeting of the PTA will feature student art displays.

Chit and Chat Tiptonaires Plan Meeting

TIPTON — The regular meeting of the Chit and Chat Tiptonaires will be Thursday, April 7. All members are to meet at the Custom Drapery Shop, Tecumseh, promptly at 7:30 p.m. and then go to the home of Mrs. Raymond Bolz, Wisner Hwy.

Dentist Is King Arthur

King Arthur, portrayed by Dr. Robert Laidlaw, knighted the Cub Scouts of Pack 4 as they approached to take part in the festivities at St. Elizabeth School, March 28.

Den 14 presented the colors.

Heraldry was explained by Den 9. Den 1 and 14 presented skits on knighthood.

The phases of knighthood training were given by Den 6. Dens 3 and 8 had sword duels and a jousting contest. Den 12 read the Knights code.

The next Pack meeting will be April 25 at 7:30 p.m. at St. Elizabeth's Church.

The Den Mothers will meet Monday, April 4, at 7:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church.

The Roundtable will be April 7 at 7:30 p.m. at the Goodwill Industries Building, Adrian.

Announcement was made that the Scouts will again help with the annual pick-up for the Goodwill Industries.

Den 9 was given the Cubby Award for best attendance. Colors were retired by Den 14.

Rev. Alfred Sheley Will Be Speaker at Sunrise Service

The Rev. Alfred Sheley will be speaker at the Easter Sunrise Service, April 10, at Hidden Lake Gardens. The service will begin at 6:30 a.m. and will last an hour.

Buses will leave from the Presbyterian Church at 5:45 and again at 6:10, weather permitting.

In case of inclement weather the inside and outside lights of the Presbyterian Church will be lighted to indicate that the services will be held at the Friends Church.

Sue Gresham, from the Presbyterian Church, was elected chairman of the service, sponsored by Tecumseh youth. Sonja Sprague was elected secretary. Several others will participate in the service to which the public is invited to attend.

Drivers are asked to stay on the drives at Hidden Lake Gardens Easter morning.

DAVID MATSON

Cedarville College Choir To Sing in Britton Saturday

The Cedarville College Choir is making its spring tour and will appear at the Britton Bethel Baptist Church, 296 S. Main St., Britton, Saturday, April 2, 7:30 p.m.

Cedarville College is a Baptist college of arts and sciences located in Cedarville, Ohio. The choir, under the direction of David L. Matson, consists of 38 members from various states.

Several performances have already been given including Handel's "Messiah" during the Christmas season. The choir program is entirely sacred, including hymn arrangements as well as a selection from "The Creation" by Haydn. Special music will also be provided by soloists and ensembles within the choir.

This year's tour will take the choir through Michigan, Northern Indiana, and Northern Ohio.

CHURCH NOTES from TIPTON

The speaker was Robert Short, author of The Gospel According to Peanuts (a comic strip).

Mrs. Chester Baker of Monroe Rd. entertained the Women's Fellowship Tuesday evening. In the absence of Mrs. Swarts, Mrs. Lee Griffin conducted the meeting. A new date, April 14, was set for the tour of the children's school and ward at the University of Michigan Medical Center in Ann Arbor. It was also decided to hold a bake sale on April 2 at the Sunderland Insurance Office in Tecumseh. Mrs. Merrick Dibble led the devotions for the evening. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Law Will Take Effect Sept. 1

Rollo Conlin, state representative, announced Wednesday morning that Act No. 383, P.A. concerning the Home Builders and Contractors License Law will not take effect until Sept. 1, 1966. It was previously announced that it would be effective April 1.

Farmers who have good records are usually able to plan and operate the farm business at a profit. A Michigan Cooperative Extension specialist in farm management points out that poor records are listed as the number one cause of business failure.

Timing Proves Bad

Timing and a school bus law caused problems for School Superintendent James McDowell, Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. McDowell was driving behind Anna M. Wall, 515 N. Evans St., south on Evans near Bidwell St. Anna missed the flashing lights of a stopped school bus, according to police, and started to pass the bus.

While Anna was passing, the bus driver completed her boarding and turned off the flashing lights.

Mr. McDowell started out just as Miss Wall realized her mistake and slammed on her brakes. Mr. McDowell was unable to stop in the assured clear distance.

Anna Wall was ticketed for passing a stopped school bus and for driving without an operator's license. Mr. McDowell was ticketed for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Miss Wall and her passenger were only slightly shaken up and damage to the autos was minor.

Entertains 28 Senior Citizens

Twenty-eight Senior Citizens were entertained, Tuesday evening, by the Golden Age Club, Clinton, at the Smith-Kimball Community Center.

Mrs. Ralph Halladay presented a program of her own original poems and piano compositions. She also gave a history of medicine from the time of the early Egyptians.

Refreshments were served and games were played.

Folk-Song Mass

The "American Folk-Song Mass" music will be used again at St. Peter's Episcopal Church Palm Sunday at the 9 a.m. service. Guitar accompaniments for the Senior High Singers by Steven Maple.

Though the folk-song mass has been used each Sunday in Lent, its use for Palm Sunday was put into the schedule by popular request of those who have attended the service.

The "American Folk-Song Mass" is the original work of a young priest of the Episcopal Church, Father Ian Douglas Mitchell, who wrote this contemporary score for the Holy Eucharist out of an awareness of the great revival of folk music in the past few years.

Father Mitchell has himself presented his work before many college and community groups, as well as for parishes that asked him to come to perform music for them.

The composer has written: "While this is called the 'American Folk-Song Mass' it could well be called the 'American Folk-Song Eucharist' or the Holy Communion, the Divine Liturgy of the Lord's Supper, or the Holy Sacrifice."

Whichever name or title may be used they all essentially mean the same thing though each places a particular emphasis on one phase of the same Sacrament.

"It has been written that it is like the facets in a precious stone, each reflecting its own angle of light but all deriving their brilliance from the same central point. In short, the Sacrament is a memorial, a communion, a thanksgiving, an offering, and an act of worship. No title can exhaust the significance of the thing itself."

St. Peter's Senior Warden Harry Beland and his wife, Gwen, invited all of the high school young people who participated in singing of the folk-song mass to their home for dinner Sunday afternoon.

Lenten Lesson

By PAUL BRANTINGHAM, Minister

Tecumseh Friends Church

The Lenten season, of course, emphasizes truths we want to build into our lives throughout the year. Christian experience begins with a personal relationship to Jesus Christ.

One day a rich young ruler came to Jesus with the question, "Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life"

The final answer of Jesus was, "Go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven, and come and follow me." (Matt. 19:16-21).

Eternal life is not to be received by doing some good thing, but by coming to a person and following Him. Do I follow Him spasmodically, seasonally or conveniently?

Much has been and will be written relative to Christ's ability to give eternal life. However, the question is, "Does this knowledge result in my acting like I believe what I say?"

My Neighbor's Bible

I am my neighbor's Bible,
He reads me when we meet;
Today he reads me in my home—
Tomorrow in the street.
He may be relative or friend,
Or slight acquaintance be;
He may not even know my name,
Yet he is reading me.

Oh, Christian sisters, brothers,
Would God we always knew
How well it is recorded,
All that we say or do!
Then clear would be our record,
And we at last should see
That neighbor find salvation
While reading you and me.

Committee Fights Plan

A proposed freeway across Lenawee County from US127 to US23 by the State Highway Department prompted the organization March 23 of a group headed by Dr. Edwin C. Kerr of Britton.

In operation for several months, the group did not formally adopt by-laws until last week.

Other officers are:
Vice-president — Ned Swift
Secretary — Oliver Mueller
Treasurer — Stanley Wood
Membership chairman — Leland Bush

All officers of the group named the Lenawee Area Planning, Improvement and Development Association are from Britton with the exception of Mr. Woods from Deerfield.

The group appeared before the Board of Supervisors to support a planning commission budget and study by Michigan State University for a county planning development program.

Dr. Kerr stated, "One does not construct an attractive or expensive house without plans and certainly one does not develop an attractive county with lasting beauty in this day and age without comprehensive master plans."

"IN MY OPINION, the presently proposed freeway route running between Adrian and Tecumseh does not meet in the best possible way the present and future needs for better roads in Lenawee. Far more important than this, the freeway would destroy hundreds of acres of scenic beauty and agricultural richness in this county that could never be recovered," continued the PIDA president.

"Let us insist that we have a comprehensive county Master Plan conceived by and for the people of Lenawee before any freeway is allowed to be constructed across our county prematurely without proper consideration for the needs of the coming generation here."

"I urge you to ask your County Supervisors to vote against any US23 Freeway route proposal until the county has deliberately conceived and carefully executed a comprehensive Master Plan consistent with the best judgement of all the citizens," Dr. Kerr said.

Information about the Lenawee Area Planning, Improvement and Development Association may be obtained by writing the Association at Britton.

Dr. Kerr concluded his statement by saying, "Let us be known to the ages as the generation who knew enough to care and who cared enough to do today what could be done tomorrow."

Honor Mom, Daughter

Mrs. Robert Howder, nee Esther Stutesman, of Kobe, Japan, was showered March 22, with many lovely garments for her new daughter, Penelope Kay.

Penny was born March 3 in Kobe, where her parents have served since December, 1964, with the Association of Baptists for World Evangelism.

Penny doesn't expect to visit America until first furlough time in 1968. Her gifts were displayed unwrapped and later mailed to Japan.

Honored also was Mrs. Gladwin Spohr, who received gifts. Mrs. Spohr, assisted by her daughter Denise, opened her gifts from a beautifully decorated table centered with pink and white floral arrangements under an umbrella.

Mrs. Jack Hintz, Mrs. Duane McNeil and Mrs. Milbourn Preston were the hostesses.

Colored pictures of the group were taken to be sent to th Howders in Japan.

Guests included: Mrs. Alfre Spohr, Mrs. Herbert Long, Mr Fred Long, Mrs. Robert Long Mrs. Earl Caswell, Mrs. Ronal Goodacre, Mrs. Ruth aBugh, Mr Walter Stutesman and Mar Alice of Tecumseh.

Mrs. Margaret Van Vorst, Tip ton, Mrs. Alva Clark and Mr Kenneth Monk of Dundee, Mr Earl Olds of Milan, Mrs. Blain Bryant, Peggy Shepherd, Mr Lauren Gall, Mrs. McNeil, Mr Preston, Mrs. William Miller an Mrs. James Shiels of Britto were also present.

St. Peter's Holy Week Starts Soon

Holy Week services at St. Peter's Episcopal Church will begin with Palm Sunday services at 8, 9 and 10.

A short retreat for Senior High School Episcopal Young Churchmen will be held from 5:30 until 7:30 Tuesday evening.

Maundy Thursday will see the celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 p.m. as the "Institution of the Eucharist." Following the service the altar will be stripped of its hangings and the sanctuary cleared of candles and other decorations in preparation for the Good Friday service "At the Foot of the Cross" which will begin at 12:30 p.m.

Malone College Choir Presents Concert Monday

The Malone College Choir, Canton, Ohio, will present a concert Monday, April 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the Tecumseh Friends church.

The service is sponsored by four area Friends Churches, Raisin Valley, Raisin Center, Adrian City and the Tecumseh Church.

The Rev. Paul Brantingham extends a cordial invitation to the public to hear the choral group.

Seats have been reserved for Wit and Wisdom Club members at the musical. They will go to the Friends parsonage for a business meeting and friendship hour.

Extension Club Manages Money

Members of the Northeast Tecumseh Extension Club answered roll call, March 22, by showing old coins.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. John Quigley.

The study topic, "How Money Can Make Money," included money management, sound consumer buying, investments, savings, insurance and where these might be available.

Members may donate baked goods or candy for Tecumseh Day at the Naval Hospital in Chicago for the Vietnam wounded. Those wishing to do so are asked to call Mrs. Jule Fosbender at the library.

Mrs. Emma Dinius will be the hostess for the next meeting.

Good News Club Study Complete

A Good News Club sponsored by the Child Evangelism Fellowship of Lenawee County has just come to a successful ending with party, prizes and program for the children and their mothers. It was held at the home of Mrs. Lowell Selders March 22.

The club met at the home of Mrs. James Feight each Tuesday for 15 weeks. There were 36 children enrolled who learned a total of 233 Bible verses.

The children were presented a Flannel-graph visual aid Bible Story, correlated songs and scripture verses, by six teachers and helpers. All have taken Teacher-training with the Child-Evangelism Fellowship, an Interdenominational endeavor of reaching millions of children in U.S. and throughout the world with the gospel.

The project offers opportunity of knowing Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord and keeping boys and girls in Sunday School and interested in living a real life for Christ in whatever their goals, interests or denomination.

The teachers were Mrs. John Snyder and Jan, Mrs. James Feight and Cindi, Mrs. David Holly and Mrs. Lowell Selders.

Those children who received a special award for learning 15 verses each during the club period were, Gregg Williams, Jim Holly, Joanna Holly, Connie Younglove, Cindy Younglove, Terry Selders and Dale Johnson.

All children who learned at least one verse also received a prize, and this included several four- and five-year-old children.

Hugh Walter Calls Special Precinct Meet

Hugh Walter, Republican City chairman, has announced a special meeting of precinct workers Tuesday, April 5, at 8 p.m. at The Country House Restaurant. It is located at the corner of M-50 and M-52, commonly known as Billington corners.

This meeting will also afford the group an opportunity to meet Lenawee County Republican Chairman, Jim Hadden.

He will outline plans for other Republican activities in the county.

Mr. Walter extends an invitation to anyone interested.

Counties Have Asked for Funds

The Citizens Advisory Committee of the Lenawee Area Vocational and Technical Education Survey heard Phil Bailey of the State Department of Education, explain the status of such surveys in Michigan last week.

A number of counties have finished studies and applied for construction and operating funds, he said.

Pony Baseball Registration Time Is Here

Registration for the 1966 Tecumseh Baseball Pony and Cub Leagues will be held four nights the next two weeks at the south entrance of the high school.

Wednesday and Thursday, April 6 and 7, and Wednesday and Thursday, April 13 and 14, between the hours of 7 and 8:30 p.m.

All boys nine through 14 years of age, who have not participated in the program before, must register one of these four nights.

Boys must be accompanied by a parent or guardian and must have their birth certificate with them.

If a boy has participated in the program before, he need not register.

Police Check Six Accidents

Only six accidents were investigated by the Tecumseh police during the week. Two motorists received citations.

A resume is:

March 24 — Doris I. Bishop, 38, Britton, backed into a parked car owned by Emma E. Boyce, 51, Billmyer Hwy., on N. Maiden Lane.

March 26 — Marie F. Tucker, 57, Brooklyn, was charged with improper parking after her car was hit by John M. Mulvany, 78, of 313 W. Chicago Blvd.

March 28 — Elva C. Hoelzer, 69, Clinton, backed into Wilbert A. Paschke, 35, Dearborn Heights, on Bidwell St.

March 29 — Thomas W. Creger, 17, rural Tecumseh, was cited for an unsafe start from a parked position after he ran into the side of a school bus, operated by Gloria D. Barnett, 33, of 11 Cairns.

March 29 — Leon J. Richardson, 16, of 1103 Murray Dr. and Lorene Bohannon, 27, Britton, collided in the intersection of Ottawa and Shawnee Sts. No charges were filed.

EMILY MANWARING

GAA Princesses Among Winners at Indoor Meet

Jane Beasley, sophomore, and Emily Manwaring, senior at Tecumseh High School, represented Tecumseh at the Annual Michigan Women's Track and Field Indoor championship meet Saturday afternoon.

Jane finished sixth out of 19 in the long jump and Emily finished second in the 50-yard hurdles out of 14 entries. Emily received a medal.

The winning distance in the long jump was 15 feet, 10 inches and Jane's was 14 feet, 11 inches.

Winning time in the hurdles was 8.1 seconds and Emily's was 8.5 seconds.

Girls from Detroit, Flint, Ann Arbor, Lansing and other cities in central and western Michigan participated in the event held at Parkside High School, Jackson.

The girls say that track is gaining in popularity in Tecumseh and that the Girls Athletic Association at the high school will sponsor a track meet Saturday, May 21.

Your Pharmacist and Your Pharmacy

A pharmacist is a professional man, trained and dedicated to serve people. A pharmacy is a place where the pharmacist works. This is simple enough, but both should be combined to provide people with the finest service and facilities. Hundreds of Tecumseh and area families have found that Holmes Pharmacy does exactly this, seven days a week. You always find at least one pharmacist on duty in its modern and complete pharmaceutical department. And, Holmes Pharmacy is a professional drug store, stocked with fresh drugs for your prescriptions and surgical garments and appliances for every possible need.

Vivian Presenting Awards

This year the Science Fair will be incorporated with the Youth Talent Display, composed of the Art, Home Economics and Industrial Education Departments.

The Art Department, under Mrs. Dorothy Westdyke, will display creative pictures done in colors, pastels, crayons, pencils and charcoal. There will also be imaginary clay masks, figures sculptured from "SanBlox", and cardboard figures submitted by Art Classes. The Art Club will display their talents.

REP. WES VIVIAN

The "Favorite of the Show" will be voted on by the public during exhibition. Three honorable mentions will be awarded to displays that receive a high number of votes running in consecutive order of the voting.

THE HOME ECONOMICS Departments, led by Mrs. Charles Brown, is divided into these categories:

The Home Economics I display includes basic nutrition posters, planned breakfast and Easter cookie displays and a Clothing Construction Unit — Bishop I aprons and shift dresses.

The Home Economics II display includes advanced nutrition posters on the total daily food intake. This unit is also displaying cakes and pastries and Clothing Construction Unit — Bishop II, shirt waist dresses.

Home Economics III is displaying garments made of various styles and fabrics which includes suits, dresses, and nightwear.

Home Economics IV display consists of garments made of various styles and fabrics including suits, two-piece dresses, and jumpers. Pieces of refurnished furniture and curtains will be on display.

Home Management is displaying garments from the Bishop Method of Clothing Construction consisting of apron and shift dresses with set-in-sleeves. All Home Economic projects are made in class.

The industrial education department takes this opportunity to encourage and recognize fine craftsmanship of students enrolled in the Industrial Arts program this year, and to excite the interest of future students.

All programs from the industrial Education Department are made under the supervision of Charles Gross and Kenneth Feldman as part of a learning experience in the Industrial Arts Classes.

Projects will be displayed from the following areas:

► Industrial Materials and Processes
► Power and Energy
► Metal Fabrication and Metallurgy
► Metal Technology
► Drafting

The architectural scale models are made, as part of a problem in Architectural Drawing, in the Drafting I class. The models are of a kind shown to a client by an architect.

They are built to a scale of ¼" or ⅛" to a foot. Removal roofs and interior finishing are optional. Each model must be accompanied by a complete set of working drawings.

Since late September the Tecumseh High School Science Club has been working on the 1966 Science Fair. Under the direction of Peter Kalom, the students organizing the fair are as follows:

► Susan Kennel — Displays
► Victoria Manley and Richard Skinner—Judges and Awards
► Carolyn House — Publicity
► Victoria Manley — Registration and Entry
► Richard Skinner — Table Procuring

THERE WILL BE three technical displays, two from NASA and one from Detroit Edison. The display from NASA will be composed of two ⅓ scale models of the Mercury and Gemini space capsules.

The Detroit Edison display will be composed of an information booth containing information on the atomic power plants.

Following the judging at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, April 2, the fair will be open to the public. At 3 p.m. Congressman Weston E. Vivian will speak and present awards to first place winners, the public is invited to attend. Special awards donated by local industries will be presented at this time.

The complete time schedule is:
Friday, April 1—
5 - 8 p.m. — receive and set up projects.
Saturday, April 2—
7 - 9 a.m. — receive and set up projects.
9:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.—judging.
1:30 - 8 p.m.—Open to the public.
3 p.m. — Congressman Vivian will speak and present awards.
Sunday, April 3—
1 - 6 p.m.—Open to the public.
6 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. — Removal of projects.

We received "best wishes for a successful and productive fair" from Col. John H. Glenn, Jr., and Governor George Romney sends his "best wishes for a most memorable day."

With all the best wishes, the only thing that can make The Fifth Annual Tecumseh Area Science Fair the great success it has the potential to be is overwhelming public participation.

We are sure every minute of this year's fair will be very enjoyable and memorable, join us and share our experiences.

Spend $12,000

Purchase of approximately $12,000 heart equipment has been approved and authorized by the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary with full cooperation of the Hospital Board.

Purchase of the expanded heart equipment project was presented to the Hospital Board at the February board meeting by Mrs. Neville Hart, president of the Hospital Auxiliary, in cooperation with Dr. Richard Coak.

Mrs. Hart described the great community interest in the growing "Heart Fund" which was established only a few months ago by the Auxiliary and pointed with particular pride to the $1,230 obtained from the recent "Tag Day" sponsored by the Auxiliary.

After much deliberation, purchase of the emergency equipment has been made, and it will soon be placed in use.

Details are being worked out with Corbin-Farnsworth Co., Inc. which is furnishing this equipment.

This modern cardio-respiratory equipment will give our local hospital a ready "emergency cart" available for heart and breathing emergencies anywhere in the hospital, as well as a two bed "coronary care unit", one of the most modern types of facilities for caring for the heart attack patient.

A planning group is working with hospital administration and the medical staff on the location of the two-bed coronary care unit in the hospital.

Current changes in the X-ray and Out-Patient Departments are to be completed soon, then the installation of the coronary bed unit will be made later

With electronic monitoring equipment enabling the physicians and nurses to constantly watch the beating heart of the patient, and if necessary record this on permanent record as well as initiate electrical impulses to revive and regulate the wandering heart, it has been found that many fatal complications can be prevented when they are found early.

It has been thru the use of such equipment that physicians are finding that heart problems occur in many more patients than previously known.

Yet without such monitoring equipment, many of these complications go unnoticed until fatal irreversible complications develop.

Eric is Six

Several classmates and friends of Eric Pratt helped celebrate his sixth birthday, Saturday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Pratt. Eric's grandmother, Mrs. Otto Kuhlenkamp of Manchester was present for the occasion.

Band Boosters Adopt Ruling

CLINTON — The Band Boosters adopted new rules for the care of band uniforms and new by-laws at the meeting Tuesday.

Instead of the former plan which required each band member family to pay $10 a year for uniform, now each child will be required to pay $10 as he goes into the concert band. He will then be issued a uniform to be used without further charge while he remains in the band.

Mrs. Edward Hulett presented Band Boosters with a bell for use at the card parties.

April 1 and 2 was set for a Band Tag Day for the Majorette Uniform Fund.

Band Director Karl Wirt was present to explain the Band Camp in which he hopes to have more parental interest. The 72 concert band members may be able to attend Camp Walden, Long Lake near Cheboygan, Aug. 29 to Sept. 3. The cost for the six day week is $36 per band member.

It was suggested that the Band Council and band parents might initiate fund-raising projects to help members with the cost of part of their camp fees.

"The camp's directors provide a full schedule of marching drills and concert practice in the pleasant resort facility offering an unusual opportunity for the band youth," Mr. Wirt said.

The annual Band Boosters family banquet will be held May 9, with a cooperative dinner.

Connie Harrison, Gale DeMeritt Plans Announced

The engagement of Connie Jean Harrison to Gale Darwood DeMeritt is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn R. Harrison, 205 Coman St. Mr. DeMeritt is the son of Mrs. Juanita DeMeritt of Morenci and Darwood DeMeritt of West Branch.

Miss Harrison is a graduate of Clinton High School and is employed at Hoover Ball Inc., Manchester. Mr. DeMeritt is a graduate of Morenci High School and is employed at Meyer's Furniture Store, Morenci. An October wedding is planned.

Odells Attend Mercy Hospital Nurse Capping

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Odell of rural Clinton attended capping ceremonies at the Mercy School of Nursing, Detroit, for their daughter, Mary Louise, Sunday.

Miss Odell is a 1963 graduate of Clinton High School and was employed at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, for two years before she began nurse's training.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Washington entertained at their home in Mt. Clemens, at a dinner honoring Miss Odell after the ceremony. A decorated cake marked the festive occasion.

Edward Hulett Remains Fair in Hospital

CLINTON — Supervisor Edward A. Hulett remains in fair condition at Bixby Hospital, Adrian, where he was taken at 10:30 a.m., Thursday, when he suffered a heart attack at the courthouse. He is not allowed visitors.

Mr. Hulett was stricken at his desk in the supervisors room where he was attending a meeting with other tax assessors of the county.

A sheriff's department resuscitator was called and he was taken to the hospital by ambulance.

Clinton Students Succeed

RICHARD SERVICE

Richard Service Is MSU Graduate

CLINTON — Richard Service has completed an Agriculture Two-Year Short Course in Crops and Soils at Michigan State University.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Service, 4797 Clinton-Macon Rd., attended a graduation banquet at the university.

Richard is a 1964 graduate of Clinton High School.

He has enlisted in the Army Reserves and will continue to assist his father with the family farm and Clinton Grain Company business.

Clinton High School Choir Gives Program

CLINTON — The high school choir presented a 45-minute program for the junior and senior high school students at Deerfield High School, Tuesday morning.

The 52-member choir is directed by Mrs. Donald Geiger, vocal music director.

Featured on the program were vocalists, LuAnn Rhoades and Chuck Wilder; Barbara Bowman, pianist and Sylvia Williams, percussion drums.

Many of the choir members will perform in the Band Follies which is scheduled for April 21 and 22.

Council Grants Dance Permits

CLINTON—The Village Council took action to rescind the resolution of Aug. 4, 1965, which prevented dancing in local taverns.

Dance permits were granted to Stanley Sinclair, owner of "The Bucket" and to Ross Merritt, owner of the Town Bar, with the understanding that the permits shall be retained based on the conduct of the establishments and the control exercised by the proprietors.

Discussed and disapproved was the request from the Tecumseh Products Company for the construction of a septic tank at the site of a proposed new heat treatment plant at their Peerless Gear Division.

Gary Underwood requested the council to waive the minimum side footage requirement for proposed dwelling on Lot No. 31 of Clinton Heights Addition No. 1, from what might eventually become an extension of E. Franklin St. No action was taken pending further consideration.

Bids were accepted from:

► Washtenaw Asphalt Company for concrete curbing and sidewalk on Division St.

► Tucker and Taylor Construction Company for concrete curbing on Coman St.

Church Women Elect Officers

CLINTON — Mrs. Paul McKenna and son, Ivan, presented "The Terrible Meek," a dramatic reading in the Lenten mood for the meeting of the Women's Fellowship in the United Church of Christ, Thursday evening.

In the darkened sanctuary, with only the light above the suspended cross at the altar, they recreated the historic scene 'at the foot of the cross' with words by the lamenting mother of Jesus and a Roman soldier who helped crucify Him.

It was voted to present the gift of $20 which the Fellowship received from the estate of the late Jennie Davis to the Memorial Fund of the church in memory of Miss Davis, a former member of the Fellowship.

The following officers were elected:

President — Mrs. Robert King

Vice-president—Mrs. John Gilman

Secretary — Mrs. Ben Mahrle II

Corresponding secretary—Mrs. Robert Vogel

Treasurer — Mrs. William Shelley

Parish chairman — Mrs. Robert Wojtowicz

New officers will be installed at the May meeting.

Mrs. Clyde Greenfield was named chairman of the Father and Son banquet, April 30.

Committees were named for the Mother and Daughter banquet, May 7. The Philatheas will arrange the program; the Mary-Marthas, the food; the Priscillas will do the decorations and Mrs. Martin Hoelzer will have charge of the tickets.

It was voted to table plans for a spring church auction so that members might devote their time and attention to redecorating projects.

Mrs. Linn Weaver displayed the Fellowship scrapbook which Mrs. Clyde Greenfield Sr., kept since 1945. Mrs. Shelley volunteered to take charge of it now.

Mrs. Paul Dunham invited members to attend the April 14 meeting of the Priscilla class in the church when Mrs. John Hoelzer will present pictures of her trip to Mexico with Indiana Girl Scouts.

Clinton Alumni Will Hear WJR's Bud Guest Speak

CLINTON — The Clinton Alumni Association officers have made plans for the appearance of Edgar (Bud) A. Guest, Jr. WJR announcer, as the featured speaker at the annual Alumni banquet, June 11.

The officers met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steffens last Wednesday to discuss plans for the event.

Alumni members are asked to advise officers of any change of addresses so records may be kept up to date. Reservations for the banquet are to be made by May 31.

Postpone Meeting

CLINTON — The UCC Mary-Martha Class will postpone it's April meeting from April 4 to April 14 when they will meet with the Priscilla Class at the church.

There will be a brief business meeting following the showing of Mrs. John Hoelzer's pictures of her Mexican trip.

Allen Brooks Will Head Rotary Club

CLINTON — Allen Brooks was elected president of the Rotary Club last Wednesday.

Other officers named are:

Vice-president—Raymond Williams.

Second vice-president—Wayne Hulett.

Secretary-treasurer—Max Steffens.

The club will form three bowling teams to compete in the Rotary tournament to be held in Warren, April 24.

The program was arranged by Karl Wirt, director of the school band.

Clinton Students Honored on Dean's List at Eastern

CLINTON — Students on the Dean's List for the fall semester at Eastern Michigan University are:

SELF-SERVICE, PRE-PACKAGED MEATS CAN BE A PROBLEM!

You can see the top side of the meat but not the bottom.
So you wonder.
The steak looks good, but is the bottom all bone and fat?

It's a problem...a problem we've given a lot of thought.
We think we have the answer.
We have a policy.
We put the best side down.
The side you don't see is guaranteed to be equal to or better than the side you can see.

Simple? as ABC.
Effective? No more gamble.
Fair and square? Sure because "We Care."

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.

Teen Cancer Fund Dance Is April 1

The Second Annual Teen Dance to help stamp out cancer will be held at the Eagles' Hall, 205 N. Winter St., Adrian, Friday, April 1, from 8-11 p.m.

This is a teen contribution to the cancer fund. Posters were made by art students and music will be donated by teen bands, the Necessities of Clinton and the Syndicates of Adrian.

Tickets are $1 and are on sale at Flanders Music Co.

WLEN-FM sponsors the event and portions of it will be broadcast live. The dance will be chaperoned and is a special project held in cooperation with the Lenawee County Unit of the American Cancer Society.

Last year, $111 was donated to the Cancer Crusade by this teen project.

'Robin Hood' Visits Village

Douglas Fairbank's spectacular presentation of "Robin Hood," regarded by most critics as his greatest picture, will be shown in the Famous Early Movies Series at Greenfield Village, Sunday at 2 and 4 p.m., in the Henry Ford Museum theater.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

A "rag-tag" day was featured on the Boysville campus, Friday Students agreeing to pay a nominal amount were given the privilege of wearing old clothes to school. This Student Council gimmick to raise funds for the Bishop's Relief Fund, netted near the $20 mark.

A school-wide spell-down was the main event of the afternoon March 25. Intra-class eliminations were held earlier in the week to determine representatives of the inter-class competition held in the gymnasium, Friday. Senior, Martin Whittaker, emerged as the winner, in front of Sophomore Joe Gordon, and third-place Junior, Lester Logar.

Boysville Campus PX, and its proprietor, Brother Leonard Swierka, C.S.C., are sponsoring a Baby Photo Contest. Unidentified baby photos are on display in the PX window, leaving it up to the participant to identify each picture with an individual on campus. Prizes are yet to be announced.

Boysville's third quarter of study has drawn to a close, and with that comes the Easter vacation. Check-out is tomorrow at 1:00 p.m., and check-in is seventeen days later at 8:00 p.m. Upon returning, Boysville's student body faces only seven weeks before graduation; seven busy weeks involving a Junior-Senior Prom, class trips, class picnics, and the spring sports program.

Orville Bishops To Head Fair

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Bishop are co-chairmen for the "Spring Fling" Patterson School Fair, Saturday, April 2, from noon until 5 p.m.

The snack bar will feature homemade foods this year and those attending will be able to take goodies home with them from the baked goods booth.

Homemade candy and popcorn, hats, toys and door prizes are available.

There will be movies, a fish pond, cake walk and bowling. A white elephant sale will feature comics plants, clothing and other items.

Dancing to a four piece live band will highlight the event.

William Raders Open House

An open house was held Saturday evening, March 26, at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. William Rader at the corner of Staib and Newburg Rds.

Last year's Palm Sunday tornado completely demolished the Rader residence.

Mrs. Rose Service assisted by Mrs. George Fletcher and Mrs. Jennie Bird made arrangements for the party. Mrs. Service made and decorated cakes.

In speaking about the tragedy of losing their home last year, Mrs. Rader commented, "It was awful to go through but now we have a new home of which we are proud and we never would have had it, had it not been for the tornado."

As Mrs. Blair Bashore said, "there is always some good comes from every tragedy."

The Rader residence boasts three large bedrooms, living room, kitchen-dining area and a full basement with fireplace and recreation room to be completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Rader have two sons, Gary and Douglas and two daughters, Deborah and Carol.

The Lawheads Hear Bad News

The Russell Lawheads, 515 Russell Rd., received a phone call Thursday evening from their son-in-law, Clarence Hinch, Philippine Islands.

He was in San Francisco en route to St. Louis, Mo., and Griggsville, Ill., called by the death of his father.

Mr. Hinch and his wife, the former Janet Lawhead, are teachers at Clark Air Force Base, Manilla. Mrs. Hinch did not accompany her husband home.

Ridgeway Boys Help Rebottaros

By DOROTHY GRIGG

Two boys, passengers of the school bus driven by Fay Kempf, were the instigators of a considerate deed for three of their fellow passengers this past week.

Kellius Williams, sixth grade, and Joe Gottschalk, fifth grade, spotted the fire, March 15, in the roof of the Louis Rebottaro home. The home burned out.

Concerned for the welfare of Louis Jr., Carol, Beverly Rebottaro and little Rose Marie, the boys circulated among the other passengers of the school bus collecting funds.

From piggy banks, parents and even some lunch money, the children collected nearly $11 and presented it to Louis Jr. as he left the bus the following evening.

Several of the children went through their closets for clothing the same size as that needed by the fire victims.

Mrs. Graham Fleming, principal at Ridgeway, and other teachers considered the act one of initiative and kindness for their fellow bus riders. The Rebottaro children attend St. Elizabeth School, but share a bus with the Ridgeway children.

HERALD PHOTO BY DICK CARVER

SMILES FOR HALOS — Young men are often devilish, but it's all a front. Kellious Williams and Joe Gottschalk, students at Ridgeway school, are capable of putting up the front, but they gave themselves away recently when they collected $11 for a few good friends. The halos don't show, but they are there.

Hosts Grand Family

Tecumseh Chapter No. 51 hosted the Grand Family of Michigan, O.E.S. March 16 when dinner was served to 100 members and guests at the First Baptist Church.

The invocation was given by Henry Kempf, chaplain of Tecumseh Chapter. The welcome was given by Worthy Matron Mrs. Melvin Ruettinger and response by Mrs. Alice Vollink, worthy grand matron. The group adjourned to Masonic Temple.

The Chapter was re-opened by Mrs. Ruettinger. Introductions were in order for the Grand officers:

Worthy matron — Alice Vollink
Worthy patron — John Kaatz
Associate matron — Bernice Hiller
Associate patron — Kenneth Wiseman
Conductress — Blythe Parks
Associate conductress — Lucille Koken
Chaplain — Rachel Levely
Marshall — Isabell Gille
Organist — Kathleen Howe
Adah — Alexina Alexander
Ruth — Grace Hall
Esther — Eleanor Moon
Martha — Mary Beattie
Electa — Helen DeBaun
Warder — Rena Perry
Sentinel — Robert Reighard

Carroll Curtiss, worthy grand organist of the general grand chapter and past grand patron of Grand Chapter of Michigan, Mrs. Etha Jeffrey, past grand matron were introduced.

Superintendent and Mrs. Kenneth Fields of the Villa and representativs of other associations were from Hillsdale, Macomb and Jackson County.

The degrees were conferred on Mrs. Raymond Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cook and Bernard Isaacson by the grand officers of Michigan.

Worthy Grand Matron Mrs. Vollink and Worthy Grand Patron John Kaatz were presented honorary memberships in Tecumseh Chapter by Mrs. Ruettinger. Each of the Grand Family was given a gift.

The committee was Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beland, Mrs. Lynn Harris, Mrs. Thomas Judd and Mrs. Lyle Hayford. There were 175 members and guests present from many lower Michigan cities.

28 Friends Progress Backwards

Twenty eight young people of the Friends Church ate dinner backwards at a "progressive" party Friday evening.

Meeting at the home of Mrs. Ernie Hammack they proceeded to Mrs. Marilyn Huber's for dessert of ice cream and cake before going to the Charles Sinkey residence for the main course.

Bundling up again, the group went to the Clark Pearson residence for tossed and molded salads and then back to the Hammack home for an appetizer.

Games were played and another event, a kidnapping party, was planned for the near future.

Hal Weakly Visits Berlin

Editor's note — This is the third in a series of articles prepared by a junketing Tecumseh resident, currently on a four-month tour of Europe.

By HAL WEAKLY

Milan, Italy — I've been pretty much on the move since my last letter. I believe I had been in East Berlin and was on my way out by train. I didn't want to press my luck hitchhiking since I had gotten into Berlin on one ride.

Once I got back out of the zone where I could use my Eurial pass again I headed south in Germany.

One of my most memorable stops was Heidelberg with its beautiful Heidelberg Castle and University. I almost felt like bursting out with a chorus of "The Drinking Song" from "The Student Prince".

AFTER A short train ride from Heidelberg I was in the Grand Duchy of Luxemberg. Although the country is very small, it has some of the loveliest scenery in all Europe.

I was soon back in Germany passing through the Black Forest on my way to Munich, where I had a most eventful three days helping to celebrate Germany's yearly festival called Fashing — similar to our Mardi Gras.

I no more than stepped off the train when I had confetti thrown in my face. I was just in time for the big parade which lasted 2½ hours and found out that I was standing next to a fellow from Minnesota.

He asked me where I was staying and since I hadn't looked for a place yet, we took a small double room in a pension nearby for four marks each ($1 each) with hot water.

To get to our room, which was six stories up, we had to take a winding stairway that reminded me of Heidelberg Castle. One night they had a huge masquerade ball and we had to improvise a little to come up with a costume, but we did it.

I had seen pictures before of people dancing on the tables and in the street, but here at Fashing I was seeing it for myself.

Everything ended the Tuesday night before Ash Wednesday at midnight and at 12:15 a.m., with confetti still in my hair, I was on a train bound for Vienna, Austria.

VIENNA IS a beautiful city, but I had to see it in the rain. I walked around the city for two days and it rained the whole time.

The rain, however, didn't seem to dampen the spirit of the people. They are exceptionally friendly and always singing — rain or shine.

The train ride from Vienna to Innsbruk through the Austrian Alps was breathtaking. Once again, I had seen only pictures of this beautiful landscape and here I was now in the midst of it.

While in Innsbruk I skied at a resort called Seefeld of Tirol. Innsbruk is in the valley and Seefeld, about 2,500-ft. up the mountain. The skiing was tremendous and the weather was warm and sunny. We skied in short sleeves.

Once we crossed the Austrian border we were in the Swiss Alps and on the way to Zurich, Switzerland. The Swiss keep their country immaculately clean. Everything was spotless and the countryside very picturesque.

After a couple of wonderful days of sightseeing in Zurich and on the Zurich Sea I took the train south to Lake Como in Italy and on to Milano. I spent two days with a friend and saw many of the sights including the famous Scala Opera House, although I was unable to attend an opera. I will definitely go to one when I get to Rome.

I am now on my way to Venice and the canals and gondolas. Chow!

Announce Increase in Postal Rates

Increases in money orders, insurance, registry, certified mail and COD rates will become effective Saturday, Postmaster Jack G. Metcalf announces.

Cost of operating these five special services now exceeds revenues by $60 million annually. The fee increases will narrow the cost-revenue gap by $36 million, based on business handled in fiscal year 1965.

Fees for money orders, registry and COD were last changed in 1961, insurance and certified mail in 1957.

THE INCREASES include:

► Money order — Domestic and international increased by 5c.

► Insurance — Minimum bracket increased from $10 to $15 and the minimum fee will be 20c instead of 10c.

The revised insurance fees will be as follows:

Up to $15 — 20c
$15 to $50 — 30c
$50 to $100 — 40c
$100 to $150 — 50c
$150 to $200 — 60c

► Registry fees — Present 60c and 75c fees will be combined to 75c for values up to $100 Registry fees for articles valued in excess of $100 will remain unchanged.

► COD — Present 40c and 50c brackets will be combined into one fee bracket at 60c for amounts up to $10. There will be no change in the fees covering items valued above $10.

► Certified mail — Increased from present 20c per item to 30c.

News from the Tecumseh Library

New books at your Public Library:

PULSE OF DANGER by Jon Cleary. A superb story of endurance and survival in the most rugged terrain on earth, the Himalayas, and against cunning Chinese adversaries. An effective tale, contemporary and suspenseful.

CHILDREN OF ALLAH by Agnes N. Keith. For nine years the author lived in Libya where her forester husband was chief of the FAO Mission of the United Nations. It was his responsibility to find young Libyans who could be trained to replant forests, revitalize oases and extend irrigation. This book is alive with the people of Libya, the secluded Moslem women, the arrogant Libyan men, and the endearing children, underprivileged and and too often underfed. Because of her sympathy and understanding, Mrs. Keith was admitted to homes and to confidences which a foreigner rarely enjoys.

THE SOUND OF MUSIC, the musical play — warm-hearted, unashamedly sentimental with strangely gentle charm, based on the Trapp Family Singers story.

HOW TO MARRY SOMEONE YOU CAN LIVE WITH ALL YOUR LIFE by Dr. Leland Glover. One-fourth of all the marriages in the U. S. eventually end in divorce. The success of your marriage, therefore, depends on serious thought, careful consideration and a realistic evaluation of yourself and your partner before the vows are made. Using modern psychological research methods Dr. Glover shows you how to use up-to-date testing techniques to determine all aspects of your compatability.

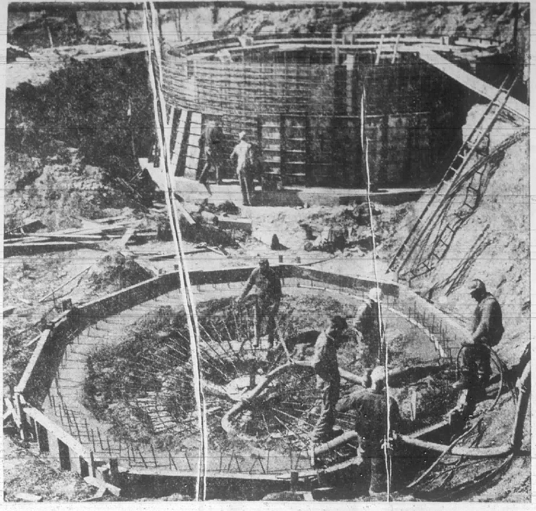
AMERICAN FURNITURE, Jacobean, Queen Anne, Chippendale, Classical period, Early Victorian, with 700 illustrations, by Helen Comstock.

SAINT FRANCIS by Nikos Kazantzakis. A passionate and highly personal vision of the life of Francis of Assissi, the poor man of God, who was one of the most human and beloved saints.



HERALD PHOTO BY TOM RIORDAN

WORK SPEEDS ALONG — Concrete has been poured on a sludge thickener at the addition to Tecumseh's wastewater treatment plant. A digester takes shape in the background. The present plant has a design capacity to serve a population of 7,000 and process 1.4 million gallons of waste per day. When the current construction is complete, this will jump to 2.8 million gallons and be able to take care of a city with 14,000 people.

Social Worker Guest Speaker

Diane Drayson addressed a meeting of the Lenawee District Nurses' Association, Thursday, in St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Miss Drayson is a social worker in the field of mental health. She is affiliated with the Ypsilanti State Hospital and the Lenawee County Health Department, which are cooperating in a new mental health program in the county.

Miss Drayson explained how the Public Health Nurse acts as a link between hospital and the discharged patient. She becomes a friend who visits the patient at his home, sees that he takes his medicines and talks over his problems with him.

She is someone who understands him and is willing and able to help when needed.

After a brief discussion of the mental health cooperative program, Miss Drayson spoke on "Emotional Maturity." She related it to nurses and nursing and its importance to both.

Some criteria of emotional maturity which were mentioned are: the ability to deal constructively with reality; to adapt to change; to be free of symptoms from anxiety or tension; to obtain more satisfaction from giving than receiving; to be emotionally stable in relations with others; to direct energies of hostility into creative acts; to love.

During a brief business meeting the nurses enjoyed Moonbeam Salad served by Mrs. Journey Stoner and her committee.

The next meeting will be April 21 at Bixby Hospital with the program by the Rev. Julian Gresham. There will be an election of officers.

Portable Class

Two portable classrooms are under construction at the Sutton School and should be ready for use next week.

Some elementary classes now held in the public library and elsewhere will be moved to the new quarters.

Dream Flowers

YPSILANTI — The stuff of dreams became reality yesterday.

Thousands of little people of great vision have made Ypsilanti overnight a name that must be reckoned with whenever theatre is a word to be reckoned with.

The miracle began three years ago when one woman, Mrs. Clara Godwin Owens, had an infectious idea. It took shape during the past 27 days when the 25,000 people of her native Ypsilanti and the 70,000 people of Ann Arbor raised approximately $300,000 in a last-minute campaign to make her dream a reality. Better than $90,000 of the total came in small contributions in a one-week prodigy of emergency fund-raising.

That response has launched a new summer theatre Festival of international importance. The Festival will present to American audiences for the first time under professional artistic conditions the "Oresteia" of Aeschylus, considered the greatest Greek tragedy, and "The Birds" of Aristophanes, one of the most delightful Greek comedies.

THE INAUGURAL Festival also will present a modern play of enduring merit, to be announced shortly, as part of a three-production repertory cycle.

The two Greek productions will be under the direction of Alexis Solomos, for 14 years distinguished director of the National Theatre of Greece and most recently director of his own independent company, "Veakis Proskenion," Athens.

Equally audacious have been scores of others of modest means, willing to gamble their savings, their dignity and their reputations on the rightness of an exciting idea that could be proved only by mounting a festival.

How did a few average Americans raise $300,000 in less than four weeks?

A local resident for the past nine years had invited her close friends to bring money for a good cause instead of gifts to a birthday party in her home. For her tenth annual party, she made her cause the Ypsilanti Greek Theatre. Part of the 1966 Festival is her $76.06 birthday present. Many more cases were just as responsive.

A total of $286,633 was raised in Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor in four weeks. This included an ananymous loan of $150,000 obtained on the basis of the demonstration of unprecedented popular support.

Tory School Notes

Reported by

◄ SHERRY SQUIRES & SUE EDDINGER ►

The Easter cantata, "The Crucifixion" by John Stainer, will be presented by the BHS Senior Chorus, Tuesday, April 5, at 7:30, at the Britton Congregational Church.

This presentation will be part of Holy Week services. The cantata is open to the public.

It is the musical story of the sacred passion of Christ Jesus presented in various chorals, solos, and recitatives.

CONGRESSMAN Weston Vivian will be at BHS Friday, April 1, to talk to the assembly of the student body. Later, he will visit the American Government class and answer any questions the seniors may have concerning the government, politics, or Mr. Vivian's personal views.

The action took place in a plush hotel and there seemed to be a case of mistaken identity. It all started when a publicity manager, played by Jim Lister, decided the hotel needed something to bring in rich people. He told Miss Jones, played by Tammee Tucker, she should pretend to be a princess. A mental patient, played by Cindy Ivan, thought she was the princess and stayed at the hotel.

At the end, the real princess, played by Beckie Montalvo, appeared. As a result, there was quite a bit of confusion.

The rest of the cast was: Janet Laslo, Dick Schroeder, Rick Maska, Rhonda Cheever, Elmer Hall, Connie Irwin, Sally Vreeland, Linda Seagert, Diana Spohr, Cindy Hiser, John Gilbert, Jim Smith and the Chorus.

Toll-Free Dialing Explained

BRITTON — General Telephone Co. officials remind Britton customers that certain changes were made in local telephone numbers to prepare for toll-free calling between Britton and Tecumseh on April 1.

In order to provide this service, those numbers in the 451-3xxx group were changed to 451-4xxx.

As an example: Audcliff Flower Shop's old number was 451-3280; the new number is 451-4280.

As the change in numbers took place prior to the publication of the directory, they appear correctly in the phone book.

L-M Extension Holds Luncheon

BRITTON — The L & M Extension Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Bernard Clement. A noon luncheon was served to the nine members present by the hostess and her assistant, Mrs. Edward Kanous.

Mrs. Leslie Downing presided over the business meeting. It was decided to have the dates and programs for the coming year placed on the community calendar which is being planned by the Band Boosters.

The study theme "How Money Can Buy Money" was presented by Mrs. Martin Ivan.

The next meeting will be April 28, at the home of Mrs. Chester Brown.

Britton-Macon Re-accredited

BRITTON — Supt. William Saxton announced Tuesday that Britton-Macon High School has been re-accredited by the University of Michigan, after being off the accredited list since 1964.

The school completed a self-study of the entire curriculm in grades 7-12, employing the Evaluation Criteria. Mr. Saxton emphasized the work of the teachers in the evaluation program.

The violations were corrected in the following areas:

Library; A new room has been provided for the library facilities, and a full-time qualified librarian has been employed. The number of books has been increased to 15,000, and includes many very recent publications. Many old and outdated volumes were eliminated.

Employment of a Girl's Physical Education Teacher.

Increased time given to the Guidance Counselor.

Enlarging and improving the Science facilities. Both the Science room and the range of subjects offered have been enlarged, and the science equipment improved.

Lower teacher turnover; Mr. Saxton feels that since the recent raise in teacher salaries, this will not be as much of a problem as in the past.

Congregational Services Planned

BRITTON — Lenten and Easter services in the Congregational Christian Church were announced by the pastor, the Rev. G. O. Hannevik.

There will be a Lenten service Thursday evening at 8, and next Thursday, when Holy Communion will be observed.

Good Friday, the area churches will hold a Union Good Friday Service at the high school at 1:30. Rev. Hannevik will bring the message, assisted by the other pastors.

Good Friday evening at 7:30, Junior and Senior choirs of the church will present a sacred cantata by John Peterson, "No Greater Love," under the direction of Mrs. William Raeburn, organist and choir director.

The youth of the church will present the Easter morning sunrise service at 7 a.m., and the Baraca Philathea Class will serve breakfast following this service. The regular morning worship is at 10:30 a.m. The public is cordially invited to attend any or all of these services.

NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Dunham entertained at a family birthday dinner Sunday for their son, Gary, home on leave from the Army. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Miller, Manitou Beach, and Sandra Gibbs, Britton. Mr. and Mrs. Miller also celebrated their birthday anniversaries.

TOLL FREE CALLING

Britton to Tecumseh

Effective April 1, Britton customers will be able to dial Tecumseh as a local number, without being billed for a long distance call. It will no longer be necessary to dial "90" to call Tecumseh. It will be necessary to dial all seven digits of the Tecumseh number, however, to complete the call.

Also effective April 1, Britton customers calling the business office will be asked to dial: 423-2181.

Repair service will remain as is—dial operator and ask for Britton repair service.

School Lunch Association Meets Locally

BRITTON — The Lenawee County School Lunch Association met at the Britton School Monday evening with the local cafeteria staff as hosts.

Mrs. Dorothy Kaiser, president of Hudson Schools, presided at the business session. Plans were discussed for the county work shop in June.

All managers were urged to attend the annual meeting in Lansing, April 21, 22 and 23.

The entertainment consisted of a vocal duet by Jacqueline Kunkle and Betty Lake, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. William Raeburn; a saxophone trio by Linda Seagert, Tammy Tucker and Becky Maschino; and a comedy spring parade by six ladies, introduced by Mrs. Robert McCrate.

Our exchange student, Ana Carlota Gonzalez of Chile, gave a brief resume of her home land.

Refreshments were served by the school cafeteria personnel.

Mrs. Judkins Entertains at Dinner

BRITTON — Mrs. William Judkins entertained Sunday with a family dinner party. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Neal Judkins and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Judkins and family, Jean Judkins and Mrs. Harvey Trinkle.

The birthday anniversaries of Neal Judkins, Gary Judkins, and Mrs. Trinkle were observed.

Mrs. Trinkle celebrated her 91st birthday. She is planning to return to her home in Madison, Ind., this coming weekend, after spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. William Judkins.

Britton High Choir Sings Crucifixion

BRITTON — The Crucifixion, a sacred cantata by John Stainer, will be sung by the Britton High School Choir Tuesday, April 5, at 7:30 p.m. in the Britton Congregational Church.

The cantata is a musical setting of the story of the sufferings and death of Christ and is an appropriate observance of Holy Week.

Tenors and basses from the choir sing the recitatives or narrative parts of the cantata. In addition to performing the main choruses, the choir sings chorales in which it represents the congregation.

These chorales are expressions of faith of the people.

The program is open to all in the community and there is no admission charge.

Britton-Macon Schools Start Fluoride Work

BRITTON — The Britton-Macon Area School Fluoride Program will be held at the school May 16 - May 24, 1966.

Cards have been sent home with eligible children. For any additional information about this program, call either Mrs. Sam Vreeland, 451-4471, or Mrs. Russell Pilbeam, 451-4804.

Britton Dinner A 'Big Thought'

BRITTON — A ham dinner was served to over 200 Bluebirds, Campfire and Horizon Club girls, their fathers, leaders and sponsors when the annual Father-Daughter Banquet was held Saturday evening in the school cafeteria.

The decorative theme was "Think Big, and See the World." The tables were decorated with nut cups containing miniature flags of all nations, and the centerpiece for each table was of crossed American flags.

Sherry Squires acted as Mistress of Ceremonies for the program which followed the dinner. Dianne Ivan welcomed the fathers, and Martin Ivan responded to the daughters.

Ana Carlota Gonzales, an exchange student from Chile, who is residing with the Martin Ivan family, spoke on the customs of girls in her native land.

SEVEN HORIZON Club senior girls were honored by their leader, Mrs. Martin Ivan, who has been with them since they started as Bluebirds in the second grade.

Each girl received a gift from Mrs. Ivan, and also one from their sponsor, Mrs. Harold Osterhout. Joan Check, Nancy Downing, Dianne Ivan, Karen Ivan and Sherry Squires will receive 10-year pins from the Tuckabatchee Council in Adrian, and Lois Auten and Sylvia Luegge will receive seven-year pins. Mrs. Ivan and Mrs. Osterhout were presented with corsages from the girls.

Group singing was accompanied by Mrs. Donald Bush. Bluebirds recited the Bluebird Wish, and the Campfire girls gave the Campfire Law. The Senior Horizon Club pantomimed the record, "The Men in my Little Girl's Life."

Mrs. Walter Prill presented a gift to Mrs. Harold Osterhout, in behalf of her fifteen years of active participation in the Campfire organization.

Mrs. Osterhout is president of the Leaders and Sponsors Association, and a former Campfire girl.

Mrs. Prill also brought a ceremonial gown and beads which had been worn by Edna Miller in 1919, and it was given to the Leaders and Sponsors Association.

The Rev. Duane McNeil gave the benediction.

Britton Bethel Baptists to Hear Mr. McCullough

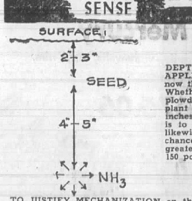
BRITTON — Dynes McCullough, missionary to Brazil, will be the special speaker at the regular Wednesday evening service at the Britton Bethel Baptist Church, April 4.

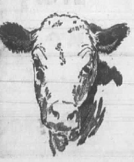
Mr. McCullough attended the Moody Bible Institute, and after graduation in 1938, went to Brazil and worked in the Amazon Valley for 16 years.

He then worked in the central regions of Brazil for two years, and for the past nine years has been working in Southern Brazil, Sao Paulo, the largest city.

Mr. McCullough has sung over radio station WMBI from Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, and he has made several long-play recordings for the cause of missions in Brazil.

The public is cordially invited to attend this meeting.





DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING®

DEPTH OF ANHYDROUS AMMONIA APPLICATION can be more important now that heavier rates are being used. Whether you put anhydrous on as a plowdown this spring or make a preplant application, inject it about 5 inches below seeding depth. Safest bet is to plow at least 8 inches deep — likewise with injection. Otherwise, chance of harming germination is greater, especially with rates of around 150 pounds.

TO JUSTIFY MECHANIZATION on the basis of labor saved, here's a rule of thumb. Investment costs must be no more than five times the amount of labor used in a year. A machine that saves a dollar a day, at $1 per hour saves you $365 a year. Using this figure you can justify $1,825. Timeliness, convenience, or increased capacity may increase this amount. This rule allows for 10% depreciation, 5% interest and 5% of original cost for repairs.

A GOOD PASTURE RATION for steers that have been wintered on roughage depends on the amount of legume in the pasture. At more than 50% legume, feed 1 pound of supplement to 12 pounds of ground ear corn for the entire pasture season. Corn ears prevent bloat and scours. Shelled corn can be used where pasture is mainly grass. On young grass feed at the same rate as above. Increase ratio to 1 pound supplement for each 10 pounds of shelled corn as the pasture matures.

GIVE BABY PIGS supplemental iron before five days of age. Pigs are born with only a small supply of hemoglobin and unless provided with supplemental iron early they will show signs of anemia at 10 to 14 days. Anemic pigs do poorly and are subject to scouring.

Britton Women Study Christ's Crucifixion

BRITTON — A program centered around the theme of the Crucifixion and Easter, and the election of officers for the coming year, were the highlights of the March meeting of the Britton Woman's Club held at the home of Mrs. Gustav Hannevik.

The program was in charge of the music committee, Mrs. Lee Spohr and Mrs. Fred Schober. Mrs. Spohr read several poems, "In His Steps," "I Pray," and "Your Christ and Mine."

A trio of ladies, Mrs. Spohr, Mrs. Ashley Chase and Mrs. Leland Fogelsong, sang "When I Remember," "Calvary Conquered My Heart," and "Wounded For Me." They were accompanied by Mrs. Loren Avery.

Mrs. Schober played a piano solo, "Rustles of Spring."

Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the following slate of officers:

President — Mrs. Robert McCrate

Vice-president — Mrs. Tom Judkins

Secretary — Mrs. Earl Taylor

Treasurer — Mrs. Viola Daisher

The club voted to send $5 to Loch Rio Girl's Home.

Mrs. Walter Prill reported that the Goodwill Industries would like to have a container for used clothing someplace in Britton. It would cost about $100.

Refreshments in the St. Patrick's Day motif were served from a dainty tea table.

The April meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Edward Kanous.

702 Series Is Pitched by Doug Tate

Doug Tate piled up the score March 16 while he was bowling with the Tecumseh Products League at the Airport Bowl.

He was high individual for three games with a 208, 238 and 256 for a total of 702 pins.

Mr. Tate bowled for Drewry's against Al's Sunoco. The competition was keen since Drewrys only took one point.

Doug who averaged 234 points in the three games was rolling on the toughest alleys in the place. No. 13 and 14.

His years of experience finally paid off.

Full 10% Excise Tax Goes Back

Action by Congress ordering the re-imposition of the Federal Excise Tax on telephone service will mean a 7% hike in telephone bills.

Rescinding legislation which had reduced the Federal tax on most telephone service from 10% to 3% on Jan. 1, re-imposes those reduced taxes to the full 10% rate.

Daniel Rodehaver Is Scout District Explorer Delegate

Dan Rodehaver of Explorer Post 87 will be the Lenape District delegate to the National Explorer Delegate Conference at Indiana University from August 14-18.

The group toured the Revco Products Co.

The next Council Cabinet Meeting will be held June 16, in Tecumseh, with Post 87 as host and a tour is planned of Tecumseh Products.

The March Cabinet Meeting was directed by Cabinet President Don Rodehaver and Council Explorer Chairman Bradley Henson of Deerfield.

Monday Club Members Meet for Dinner

Sixty three members and guests of the Tecumseh Monday Club were seated for dinner March 21, at the Grange Hall.

President Mary McWilliams welcomed the group including husbands of the members and gave the invocation.

Tables were decorated with flags to carry out the international theme and dolls representing many of the countries of the world.

Close up pictures of the elaborate shrines and bronze Buddhas, still maintained, revealed the richness of the culture in direct contrast with poverty of the masses.

Driscolls Observe 50 Years

MR. AND MRS. GLENN DRISCOLL

An open house will be held in the Parish Hall at St. Peter's Church Sunday, April 3, in observance of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Driscoll, 107 W. Brown St.

The family is inviting friends and relatives to call there from 2 to 5 p.m. The couple asks that gifts be omitted.

Glenn L. Driscoll and Vera Myers were married April 8, 1916, at the West Rome Church by the Rev. F. D. Hague, Onsted.

They are the parents of three children, Mrs. Frank Gray, 607 N. Evans St., Mrs. Harry Crosby, 305 E. Pottawatamie and Gerald of Clinton, six grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

WSCS Names Chairmen

The March WSCS was opened with an Easter Poem by the president, Mrs. Carl Hawkins. She then turned the program over to Mrs. Harold Kuder and Mrs. Edward Clark, who introduced Jack Tonneberger. Mr. Tonneberger spoke on "The School Drop-Out."

Mrs. Herbert Morden and daughter, Marilyn, sang "Ivory Palace" acompanied by Mrs. Carl Thomas. Mrs. Eugene Hill had the devotions for the evening.

It was decided to send a special offering to the Seventh Assembly in Portland, Oregon.

The members voted to increase their pledge $25.

Money was given from the WSCS to the Macon Church Board to purchase land from the Edison Co.

The following slate of officers were elected for the coming year:

President — Mrs. Carl Hawkins

Vice-president — Mrs. Guy Zeluff

Treasurer — Mrs. Dean Moore

Secretary — Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg

Campus Ministry — Mrs. Charles Gorton Jr.

Spiritual Life Cultivation — Mrs. Ronald Corl

Supply Work — Mrs. Harold Kuder

Local Church Activities — Mrs. Edward Zick

Nominating Committee — Mrs. Eugene Hill, Mrs. William Gorton and Mrs. Robert Osborne

The group decided to give anyone going to the Prayer Retreat $5 toward expenses.

Dates coming up are:

April 21 — Annual Spring Meeting in Monroe.

April 30 — Mother and Daughter Banquet.

May 20 and 21 — Prayer Retreat.

Gerald L. Hale Starts Semester at CG Academy

NEW LONDON, Conn. — Coast Guard Cadet Fourth Class Gerald L. Hale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Q. Hale, 108 Evans Creek Dr., has begun his second semester of study at the Coast Guard Academy in New London, Conn.

He was appointed to the Academy in the summer of 1965 after satisfactorily completing the nationwide College Entrance Examination Board test and intensive screening.

While at the Coast Guard Academy, he is being schooled in the Liberal Arts and professional subjects such as navigation, seamanship, ordnance and communications.

Cadets are graduated from the four-year course with a bachelor degree in engineering science or social science-management and are commissioned ensigns in the Coast Guard.

Legislators Disappointing

By DICK CARVER

"Legislators are disappointing this year," Gerald W. Shipman, Consultant with the Michigan State Safety Commission, told safety and police officials, last Thursday, at the Lenawee Country Club.

Mr. Shipman indicated that safety legislation results were, "good last year" but, he felt, little legislation one could get "excited about" is up for consideration this year.

A number of the state bills are merely ties with National legislation on auto safety.

This stands in the light of a probable 12 to 14% increase in traffic fatalities in the state this year. The National Safety Council projects a 2,200 to 2,250 total in national auto deaths this year.

In addition, more accidents have marked an increase in insurance costs. Mr. Shipman indicated that the recent Michigan un-insured driver legislation provides a double insurance plan for the insured driver as well as covering the un-insured.

This means that an accident victim may collect from partial insurance on the part of an insured liable person and collect, in addition, up to the court judgment on the uninsured driver fund.

In an effort to get a complete idea of public opinion on traffic safety, Governor George Romney is planning public meetings at points around the state.

A meeting in Ann Arbor, May 3, will be announced at a later date as to exact time and place.

Mrs. Purple Hosts Progress Extension Club

Members of the Progress Extension Study Group arrived at the March 28 meeting in unmatched and odd colored clothing.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Melvin Purple. Mrs. Merton Boss spoke on "Emergency Health Care Relative to Fallout and Nuclear Emergency.

A discussion followed preceding the refreshments served by Mrs. Howard Kronberg and the hostess.

Mrs. Robert Wood will be the hostess for the April meeting.

Parsonage Purchase OKed

Unanimous vote of the members of the congregation at a Special Quarterly Conference last Sunday in the First Methodist Church, the purchase of a parsonage was authorized.

The house, located on Seminole St. was recently built and occupied by the Rudy Grua family, which was transferred East. Occupancy of the dwelling will take place in June.

Presenting the recommendation of the Building Council to the congregation, Lynn Noble, reviewed the work of the council in coming to this decision. Mr. Noble said that the original building crusade which took place one year ago included the relocation of the parsonage from its present site on Chicago Blvd.

In keeping with this plan, the committee inspected numerous houses in the area and reviewed several plans for a parsonage. Bids were received on a plan and were opened last Thursday evening. At this same meeting the availability of the Grua home was discussed.

Following this meeting the building council made the recommendation.

This purchase will complete original plans set up by the committee when the building off N. Brown St. was agreed upon. The new sanctuary and educational unit are moving along rapidly.

Arthur's Court Relived by Cubs

The gymnasium of Herrick Park School was transformed into King Arthur's Court for the meeting of Cub Scout Pack 72, March 21.

Cubs, dressed in armor, complete with helmets, swords and shields, paraded in and sat in a circle before the throne of King Arthur, portrayed by Cubmaster Robert Hyde.

The meeting opened with a Pledge of Allegiance, a prayer by Bill Rohweder and a coronet solo by Den Chief David Frownfelder.

Boys who earned awards received them by kneeling before the King and being knighted. Those receiving awards were:

Bobcats — Karl Bowen, Jack Hammel, David Spillman, Michael Creswell, Eric Baldwin, John Isom, Jesse Higgins, Dale Bird, Edward Clark and John Warner.

Bears — John Frownfelder, David Wilson and Colby Welch.

One-year service pin went to Rickey Vealey.

Webelos — William Rohweder.

Silver Arrow Awards — Colby Welch Douglas Eggleston and Douglas Geissler.

Recognition to Committee People — Den Mother Mrs. Caroline Booze No. 1, Den Mother Mrs. Doris Kronberg No. 2, Den Mother Mrs. Dorothy Welch No. 3, Den Mother Mrs. Janis Creswell No. 4. Assistant Den Mother Mrs. Irene Isom No. 1, Assistant Den Mother Mrs. Roma Gray No. 3, Committee Chairman Dick Lask, Pack Secretary and Treasurer William Rohweder and International Representative Harold Wilson.

A skit was presented by Den Two, and Den Three led a tug of war. The meeting closed with the Cubs and their families singing "God Bless America," and a prayer by Phillip Rumpf.

The next Pack Committee meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Kronberg on April 12. The Pack meeting will be April 18 at Herrick Park School.

LIVING LAST DAYS — Athletically-inclined businessmen from Tecumseh and Adrian are getting the last fragment of use out of the old gymnasium at Adrian's YMCA, which soon will be a memory. Friday noon finds volleyball fans, interested in working rather than watching, on the nets and spiking with the best of them.

Will Present Demonstration

An electrical demonstration will be presented by David Allen, Paul Turlukowski and Jeff Jones at a meeting of the Tipton Jets 4-H Club Saturday, April 3, at the Tipton Grange Hall.

Following the business meeting, recreation will be provided by Pat Bolz, Susan Platt, Bruce Smith and Ben Osburn.

Refreshments will be served by the Lawrence Churches, the Robert Osburns and the Peter Gebarowskis.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Groans of Unhappiness

Groans of unhappiness filled the otherwise carefree spring skies over Tecumseh last week as more than 2,000 property owners found that valuations had been changed.

"What's it all about? Does this mean I'll have to pay more taxes? Holy cow, what gives?" These questions probably best sum up the feelings of citizens.

Explaining the highly-complicated structure of local valuations, state equalized valuations, millage, winter taxes, summer taxes and all that goes with them takes a lot of courage.

But we'll try.

The easiest way to start is by taking a home in Tecumseh with a market value of $15,000, which had a local valuation of $6,400 in 1965.

Last year, when the municipality levied its summer tax at the rate of 12.6 mills (legally, it can go up to 15 mills without any special vote) the total tax was $80.60.

Now, the same home has been raised in local evaluation to $7,500, which is exactly 50% of its true value. That's a 17% increase over last year (which happens to be the average increase made on nearly 2,400 parcels of property in the city last week.)

This summer, the city is expected to levy 11.6 mills, slightly less than 1965.

So the fellow with that $15,000 home will be taxed $87 in 1966 — an increase of $6.40.

Of that 11.6 mills, 1.61 will be used to help pay for enlargement of the wastewater treatment plant. In dollars and cents, this amounts to $41,000, principal and interest. General Motors is paying $15,780 of this. GM agreed to a $1,000-per-month installment to the city, which will cover the entire cost of the line to the new Fisher Body plant, plus its share of the enlargement construction. For GM, over the next 20 years, that will total $216,000 in principal and interest.

OK, now back to the family with the $15,000 home.

That $87 they're asked to pay will be their share for police and fire protection, street maintenance and all other city governmental services.

Actually, it's easy to figure your own summer tax. Take your new property valuation — as shown on the pink slip received last week — and multiply it by .116 (which is 11.6 mills). This figure is not entirely official yet, subject to Council approval April 5, but for all practical purposes, your answer will be within a few dimes of the tax total.

NOW, FOR THE winter tax situation, — happily, there is no change from last year, — with money going for schools county government, school bonds, special education and library.

This tax is based on state equalized evaluation. Tecumseh's local assessment was 85% of state equalized last year and with the recent changes, local and state equalized are nearly identical.

In 1965, the $15,000 householder shelled out $181.50 in winter tax. His payment will again be the same, with a rate of 26.42 mills, which break down:

► County government	4.50 mills
► School operating	14.30 mills
► Special education intermediate	.70 mills
► School bond	6.32 mills
► Library	.60 mills
Total	26.42 mills

TAR

About Personal Property

There is another aspect of the local tax picture — personal property. This affects industrial and commercial inventories, as well as utilities.

They cover 250 assessments.

Here the picture is slightly grimmer. Most of these factories and business places have received a 25% boost.

Thus a $10,000 inventory in a retail store last year was assessed at $4,000. At the 12.6 rate in 1965, this figured as a $50.40 city tax bill.

That same $10,000 inventory — jumped 25% in local valuation — is now assessed at $5,000. Applying the 1966 rate of 11.6 mills, the storeman will be asked to kick over $58.

Using that .116 factor, personal property can be figured by multiplying it with the new local personal property valuation.

Where All Revenue Comes From

Rounding out the tax situation, citizens should know a little about where all the revenue comes from to do business as a municipality.

Tecumseh has a proposed 1966-'67 budget of $700,000, which will pay for services as well as capital investments and interest on bonds.

This money will come from [illegible] sources. Local taxation is slated to bring in $301,600, as compared to last year's $258,914.

The remainder will be furnished by weight and gasoline taxes, sales tax and city utility billings (sewer and water.)

Knights Spotlight 'Irish' John Smith

John Smith, 112 W. Kilbuck St., received the Grand Commander's Service Award for distinguished and meritorius service in special ceremonies Friday evening, at the Masonic Temple, Adrian.

Robert Hunt, Commander of Adrian Commandery No. 4 Knights Templar, introduced the guests including F. R. Goodwin of Sturgis who made the presentation.

Mr. Goodwin also gave a resume on John's activities in his Masonic affiliations. Joining the Knights Templar in 1948, John has always held an office. He is a life member of the Tecumseh Lodge F & AM, Tecumseh Chapter R & AM, Adrian Council No. 18, Tecumseh Chapter OES and a charter member of Southern Michigan York Rite College.

He is also Tyler Emeritus of the Tecumseh Lodge F & AM.

An Irish top hat, clay pipe and pin were donned by John while Mrs. Robert Hunt, representing the Ladies Auxiliary, read a selection, "Friends".

The children of the Eastern Star Villa were guests for the dinner. A group of them gave a tribute to "Irish John" by singing "My Wild Irish Rose" and "Too-ra-loo-ra-loo-ral."

Slides of Egypt were shown and narrated by Tom Riordan. Mrs. Riordan displayed several momentoes of their trip and dressed two of the Villa children in authentic Egyptian costumes.

Each child received a sugar egg and wooden top as a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt.

The next regular meeting of Knights Templar will be April 1,

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

Something tells me that I promised to write to you this week about some kind of a meeting. All that comes to mind is the forum on Medicare sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club at the Community Center last Thursday evening.

In my opinion the meeting was not only well conducted, but was very worthwhile and, believe it or not, it was well attended.

It did my heart good to see many of our young business people present — don't know where the Rotarians and Exchange-ites were. Maybe I just didn't recognize them in the audience.

After the panel members made their presentations the assembly, mostly senior citizens on this occasion, participated well with questions. Don't know why we have so many questions at our age unless it is because we have been so busy answering the questions of our children and telling others how to run the world that we don't get around to asking our questions until we are 65 years old or older.

What I really want to tell you is that right in the middle of everything it occurred to me why we who are of the old school had to learn the three R's. There was the answer as plain as day. They are the tools for us to use when we become Senior Citizens.

IN OTHER words we have volumes of materials to read and much of it has great big words such as Medicare. This we have to do when our eyesight is failing and print is smaller.

Then comes the tedious job of filling out forms for this and that which is time consuming because we write very slowly now.

We are ever hopeful that all of this will bring us some numbers that will be in our favor and can be turned into dollars and cents. Strange to say with all of our frailties we can spot an error in arithmetic.

It occurs to me also that all of my dear teachers have gone to their heavenly homes, but when I get there — right now the Methodists will think such a feat is impossible — I'll give those teachers a pat on the back for preparing me so well for my "after 65" days.

As I told the audience I looked forward to fishing, hunting, playing cards, spending lots of time sunning on the beach, climbing bleachers in school gymnasiums to hear concerts and seeing plays, ets., but instead I spend my time reading, writing and figuring Medicare, other insurance, and how to avoid payment of income tax so I can pay property taxes in Tecumseh.

The schedules set up for Senior Citizens on our birthdays keeps us so busy that the family doesn't have to entertain for us now because either there is no time after all of the health check-ups, the driver's test, etc. or as a result of them we are too poohed to participate.

Despite all of this, believe me or not, I don't envy the young folks because I can ask all of the questions that I want to and they are supposed to be polite to an elder and not tell me to "shut up" as they do the children.

May you become a happy Senior Citizen some day.

Yours truly,

P.S. I did hear through the grapevine that there was an all-day session in the Council Room last Monday about something that concerned a lot of local people. Will see if I can gather up some of the facts for you — that is, if you haven't already done so.

TO THE EDITORS:

I want to let it be known how much people away from home enjoy The Herald. I, for one, enjoy it very much and like to know what's going on with the people at home and the people away from home.

I saw in last week's edition that Tom Wilson was coming down here to Radio School. These kind of things are nice to know as I am in radio school and will look for him.

Without The Herald I probably wouldn't know he was coming and wouldn't see him even though we'll be in the same company.

Also I encourage your support of Lt. Mason's Ben Cat project.

Keep up the good work.

From a faithful reader,
Yours truly,

Through My Window

THE COLOR IS BLACK, BLACK, BLACK!

Have you ever noticed how our appreciation of something is often in reverse proportion to its availability? I am thinking primarily of birds — the ones who are with us day in and day out seldom receive the attention given a newcomer. Soon, however, the newcomers become old hat and our attention darts to someone else.

We are in that time of year when each day holds the excitement of something new, the springtime migration is beginning to gather steam.

Mother Nature shortchanged us on one bit of migration excitement this year. When the winter travelers to the south start coming back home, it is a thrill to welcome them, each and every one of them.

Even those of whom we are not especially fond look good in the springtime. Grackles are prime examples.

This year, however, a sizable flock of these birds hung around all winter and thus we were cheated out of welcoming them back home. It is a shame too because the first few days we see them is about the only time our thoughts concerning grackles even border on being nice. Grackles are just not favorite birds.

His legs are relatively long and black, his big feet are black and his bill is large, sharply pointed and black. His beady black eye is circled by a narrow band of vivid, bright yellow.

This yellow eye peering out of a cloak of black makes the bird look the very personification of all that is evil and cruel. The females are slightly smaller, slightly duller replicas of the males.

Even more than this appearance of wickedness, is the action, sound and number of grackles to which we object. Our winter flock has now been joined by all their smarter relatives who did go south.

All the sisters and brothers, the aunts and uncles, cousins and all the other shirt-tail relations are back.

There are grackles everywhere!

They are overrunning the feeders, yards and trees, wherever there is room for a bird there is a grackle. Few of our other free-loaders will stand up to a grackle and so all of our business lately is the black ones. Dr. Marsh always called them the black thieves — how appropriate.

IN THE VOCAL department, they have an absolutely ridiculous voice. Most of our springtime serenaders, if not excellent singers, at least have a pleasant whistle or chirp.

Not so the grackles.

In addition to a squawk which just sets nerves on their edge, they choke out a garbled croak which sounds anything but bird-like. This noise and the antics which accompany it are either part of the courtship or a phase of the peck system which establishes dominance in the flock. More likely it is a combination of both.

Anyway, the performing bird 'hunches up his shoulders', spreads and opens his wings, ruffles up his feathers and stiffly moves his head down and then up.

As it comes up his bill opens, he rocks up on his toes and from deep down inside somewhere, this silly squeaky croak is burped up. The show is funny once or twice but after that it gets to be an old story.

So it is that we look outside lately and see nothing but grackles, grackles, grackles — the color is black, black, black.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Did you realize that you're living in the "swing county" of the Second Congressional District?

Except of course, unless you happen to be a Herald subscriber residing in such places as Junction City, Kansas; Sun City, Arizona; or McLean, Va.

Or one of our regular readers in Vietnam, where it's a whole "swinging country," if we dare get frivolous about something so tragic.

But this isn't about a war — or is it? Anyway, not a shooting affair.

What I'm getting to, in a most round-about way, is the coming political showdown on who gets that Second Congressional District seat next November.

The experts now refer to this section of real estate as the "swing county." They explain that Washtenaw is about equally divided between Republicans and Democrats. Livingston will go Republican, while Monroe is in the Democratic bag.

That leaves Lenawee, the key to the battle between Wes Vivian and whomever the Republicans nominate.

It would be a safe prediction to offer that you'll be seeing a lot of politicians in the next few months, testing the area sentiment, asking questions — and eventually seeking your vote.

All of which means a vigorous joust.

The Democrats have their man, Congressman Vivian, who edged George Meader a year ago. Wes has been hustling ever since his upset victory in 1964 to insure that he keeps the job —

Buses Leave Early for Sunrise Service

The Rev. Alfred Sheley of the Church of God will be the speaker for the Easter Sunrise service at Hidden Lake Gardens at 6:30 a.m.

Buses will leave from the Presbyterian Church at 5:45 and again at 6:10 a.m. weather permitting.

In case of inclement weather both inside and outside lights at the Presbyterian Church will be turned on indicating that the service will be held at the Friends Church.

'Unique Galilean' Will Be Topic at Baptist Church

The Senior Choir of the First Baptist Church will sing the anthem, "My Lord, What a Morning," at the worship service beginning at 10:55 a.m. Easter.

The pastor, the Rev. Blair Bassore will speak on the topic, "The Unique Galilean."

Breakfast will be served at the church Youth House following the Easter sunrise service at Hidden Lake Gardens.

The Primary Department will present a program during the Sunday School hour beginning at 10 a.m.

Maundy Thursday communion and baptismal services will be held at 7:30 p.m.

Friends' Choir To Sing Cantata Sunday Evening

Adult Choir of the Tecumseh Friends Church, under the direction of Mrs. Paul Brantingham, will present the cantata for Lent and Holy Week entitled "The Cross of Christ" by Stewart Landon Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

This cantata is based on familiar hymns, interspersed with reading of the Scripture pertaining to the Easter story.

Soloists are Ben Ross, Clark Pearson, Mrs. Robert Baker, Ray Sommers, and Linda Sinkey.

The organist is Mrs. Loren Avery and the narrator is Russell Rieve.

The public is invited to hear this cantata.

Cook, Burns Capture City Council Seats

Three incumbents and two newcomers were voted to seats on Tecumseh Council in a light vote here Monday.

Returnees are Mayor Harold Easton, who again topped all candidates, Lawrence Mohr and Donald Sunderland.

Easton was returned for his fourth term and Sunderland and Mohr for their second terms.

Dr. Carlton Cook and Paul Burns are the newcomers. Dr. Cook, a local physician and member of the Planning Commission, and Mr. Burns, high school ag teacher, both sought public offices for the first time.

Monday's race for the fifth spot on the Council was close with Mohr edging Leroy Betzoldt by three votes and T. J. Wagner by six.

Only 884 votes were cast in the election, at which the only issue was for five Council seats.

Council will hold its annual organizational meeting next Monday night, at which time Mr. Burns and Dr. Cook will take office.

The Rev. Laszlo Gero and the Rev. Julian Gresham will be the speakers.

Special music will be provided by the host choir.

1,000 Coming to Egg Hunt

Some moms get a bit dismayed at the thought of coloring a dozen Easter eggs. How would you like to start in on 15 cases, or 2,160 eggs, one night this week?

Fifth Tecumseh annual Easter Egg Hunt, sponsored by the Eagles, will be held Saturday at 2 pm. at the Athletic Field.

Youngsters up to 10 years of age are invited to hunt for the eggs, with many of them marked for prizes.

Giving a hand to the Easter bunny at a giant coloring bee Thursday night, in the Eagles Hall will be the Eagle officers, Charles Anspaugh, George Melosh, Duane Creger, Earl Harrison, Harvey Creger, Russell Creger, Adrian Blunk and Bill Spohr.

Earl Harrison tossed out the hopeful suggestion, "Adult volunteers will sure be welcome to help color the eggs."

Life of Christ Graphically Ends in Friday Service

The Rev. Kurt F. Koeplin, pastor of the Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, explained the impressive Tenebrae Service to be held at his church Good Friday evening at 7:30 p.m.

The message, to be delivered in darkness, will center around "The Seven Last Words of Christ" as He hung on the Cross.

As the meditation progresses, one taper at a time of a seven-branched candelabra will be snuffed out, representing the ebbing of the life of Christ.

After a period of complete darkness, designating the despair gripping the disciples and the blackness of sin, two resurrection candles will be lighted to signify the glimmer of light from the Easter tomb.

This is the third year, the tenebrae service has been held in Grace Lutheran Church and the pastor has said that his congregation finds it most meaningful.

Luncheon Earns $416

By MARIE YOUNG

Even the weatherman cooperated for the second annual Salad Luncheon, staged by the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary at St. Elizabeth's School.

Last Wednesday was bright and warm. Approximately 350 tickets were sold for the luncheon.

The committee reports a profit of $416.59, with a few minor expenses still to be paid.

The profit will help boost the Heart Fund in the goal to purchase the resuscitation cart and the expanded project of more heart equipment for the hospital.

FAREWELL and welcome seemed to be the order of the day around Herrick Memorial Hospital during the past week.

Thursday, a lovely farewell tea was held in honor of Orrie Gilbert.

The department heads served as hosts and hostesses and furnished the refreshments for the occasion.

A farewell gift of a golf cart was given to Mr. Gilbert by members of the Auxiliary in appreciation for all his help and cooperation during the years he served here as administrator.

An informal welcome buffet luncheon was served April 4 in the cafeteria to honor William Groover, new administrator.

The event was attended by the doctors, nurses, all employees of the hospital, representatives of the Auxiliary and co-publishers of The Herald.

ACTIVITIES for the near future include:

► The 25th Anniversary Banquet for the Auxiliary to be held April 28.

► Hospital Week, May 8 to May 14, when an "Open House" will be held at the hospital with the details to be announced at a later date.

Addition Can't Be Finished

An appeal to Council by Frank Horton Monday night failed to get city permission to complete a front porch at the Horton home, 747 N. Union St.

The eight-foot porch, in violation of the city's zoning ordinances, was started last year. Work was stopped by Lynn Noble, building inspector.

Neighbors of Mr. Horton asked Councilmen to grant permission and allow the enclosed porch to be finished.

Mayor Harold Easton told them that Council does not have this authority.

The Board of Appeals already has rejected Mr. Horton's appeal. Only recourse left is through Circuit Court, according to city officials.

Mr. Horton explained that the late Ed Nelson, then city manager, gave him permission to add on five feet. When the city constructed curb and gutter, Mr. Horton said that the installation actually gave him more space between his house and the street.

He also said that Mr. Noble told him to get a building permit, and then refused to issue one after completing the application form.

Bill for $77 Upsets Council

A bill for approximately $77 from the Tecumseh schools touched off a minor rhubarb Monday night at Council.

The bill was brought to the attention of city officials by Cal Zorn, city manager.

Mr. Zorn said the bill for 1965 was the same as for 1964. It was for use of the lights at the athletic field, and the city manager told Councilmen that useage in 1965 was only half of 1964.

He asked the Council if it would be proper for the city to bill the school for a street light on school property at the high school.

Zorn said he did not know how or when the light and pole were installed on school property, but the city has been paying the tab.

Council agreed to visit the School Board on April 18 and iron out the differences.

Signing Up Youngsters

Boys and girls from 12 to 18 are invited to sign up for a beginner's course with the Tecumseh Rifle Club.

They can enroll any Saturday afternoon at the Community Center rifle range from 2 to 5, or by contacting George Racey, 503 Adrian St., the instructor.

The club is affiliated with the adult Rifle and Pistol Club, also the National Rifleman's Association.

The two-month course for beginners starts in two weeks and will center on firearms' safety.

LONG & SHORT

and doing an impressive job of it.

Democrats were naturally delighted by his win, suddenly realizing one of their number can get votes in Lenawee. They're breaking out in battle gear never seen before in these parts.

Who'll be Mr. Vivian's opponent?

This is a fascinating question, to which a lot of people would like to have an answer — including Lenawee Republicans.

So far, one man has announced he wants the nomination. He's Marvin Esch of Ann Arbor, currently the State Representative from Washtenaw County.

Two other well-known fellows, from the same city, are standing in the wings making folks wonder what they're thinking.

One is Mr. Meader, now legal counsel for a Congressional reorganization committee in Washington. The other is Stan Thayer, former State Senator who was nipped in the primary by George.

ALL THREE men were in Tecumseh Tuesday evening as guests at a GOP session.

Rep. Esch said he'd be delighted to have the party support.

Messers Meader and Thayer spoke briefly, but both stopped short of saying whether they'll go for the nomination.

It's my personal belief that Stan will.

But whoever gets the nod is going to have a rough battle with Mr. Vivian.

If Lenawee Republicans realize this, they'll get going now. Their performance next November will likely win or lose the battle for the Second District GOPs.

State Senate Honors Herrick

Ray W. Herrick, recently named Tecumseh Products Co. board chairman emeritus, has been honored by the Michigan Senate, with a resolution offered by Senators Gilbert Bursley and Haskell Nichols.

The tribute states:

Whereas Raymond W. Herrick retired March 24, 1966 as Chairman of the Board of Directors, Tecumseh Products Co., and at the Board's insistence, accepted election as its Chairman Emeritus — to remain active in the Company's interests; and

Whereas, A remarkable story precedes those facts, a story of the emergence of a man whose development is synonomous with the emergence of an entire community, through his philanthropic leadership; and

Whereas, Raymond Herrick was born July 20, 1890, and with character and an eighth grade education, began his business career in Jackson, holding positions of growing responsibility in the area's industries, until late in the 1920's, when he formed the Hillsdale Machine & Tool Company in that town; it was the forerunner to Tecumseh Products; and

Whereas, In 1934 he gathered "shoestring" capital of $12,997.00 and moved to Tecumseh, which was then a community of 2,500 residents. He borrowed machinery and obtained title to an old, abandoned plant and applied mass-production techniques to refrigeration compressors.

The new plant and the community of Tecumseh grew and prospered together; the city now enjoys its title of the "Refrigeration Capital of the World," and it and Michigan have been helped by Raymond Herrick to reap the harvest; and

Whereas, Mr. Herrick uses his funds to spark community building, through matching and partial payment plans that unite area residents to raise the needed remainder. He contributes time and his outstanding management talents to numerous community development projects: schools, parks, public buildings, hospital, library, and Tecumseh economy.

His generous contributions helped Central Lake, the town where his boyhood was spent following his birth at Muskegon. Holland, Michigan, his summer home, received major contributions to schools and other projects. Colleges, ranging from the state's large universities to schools such as Adrian, are recipients of considerable support from Herrick interests; now therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate, That its members, by these presents speaking for themselves and for the People of the State of Michigan, offer this tribute to Raymond W. Herrick, whose character, stamina and acumen indelibly wrote upon the pages of Michigan's history the signature of a Favorite Son — whose husbandry and increase he applied to his brothers in the land, whose personal advance he made into a community vehicle for progress, and who influenced generations of Michigan and other residents that they may severally and collectively attain their best potential; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this tribute be presented to Raymond W. Herrick, as an enduring testimony of the esteem for him by The Michigan Senate and the People of the State.

Light Easter Candle

BRITTON — Holy Week services for the Emmanuel Lutheran Church have been announced by Pastor Thomas Drobena.

"On Maundy Thursday at 7:30 p.m., we will commemorate the Last Supper and the sermon will be on the 'Love of God,' " he said.

The stripping of the altar will conclude the service; symbolically depicting the words of the Psalm, "they parted Jesus' garments among them."

Good Friday, the Tre Ore suffering of Christ on the cross will be remembered with a service from 1 to 2 p.m. The devotion will have the theme "The Way of the Cross."

"On Holy Saturday, our burial through baptism in Christ will be observed with the lighting of the Easter candle and the renewal of baptismal vows. This begins at 7:30 p.m. as a watch service of Jesus resurrection from the dead," the pastor noted.

A sunrise service begins the joyful Easter season on Sunday, April 10 at 7 with a guest speaker, the Rev. Curt Bormann. An Easter breakfast follows the service.

Sunday Bible School will study the events of Holy Week at 9 a.m. with a slide presentation by Pastor Drobena. He'll show pictures he took a year ago in the Holy Land.

At 10:30 there will be a Eucharistic festival service commemorating the resurrection. Sermon theme will be, "He that believeth shall never die." On this day the T. F. Babcox memorial chimes will also be dedicated.

Councilmen Wondering About Dump

Future of Tecumseh's city dump was questioned by Council Monday night when City Manager Cal Zorn cited new regulations by the State Health Department.

No action was taken, but Councilmen discussed:

► County disposal site.

► Use of an incinerator.

Four townships are presently using the dump along with citizens here. Townships pay $200 annually for the use.

Councilmen asked Mr. Zorn to schedule a meeting with the townships' supervisors and discuss the dump problem, along with the amount that the townships' are paying.

MRS. JOHN SCHUYLER STRAHL

Karen Hall, John Strahl Are Married

Sprays of white flowers enhanced Kaney Chapel at Western University, Kalamazoo, Saturday, for the wedding of Karen L. Hall and John Schuyler Strahl.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Garth L. Hall, 406 N. Union St., and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Strahl, Sault Ste. Marie.

The Rev. Minoru Mochizuki, Presbyterian minister on campus, performed the ceremony. David Schau sang "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Paul Ritsema.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Merlyn Downing, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white peau de soie fashioned with lace appliques at the scoop neckline and down the front of the skirt.

Soft pleats were featured at the side of the gown with a long train extending from the waistline.

Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion was secured to a petal crown of pearls and crystals. She carried a white Bible topped with two white orchids and trailing ivy.

Kathleen Hall was her sister's maid of honor in a floor-length gown of pale yellow with empire waistline and watteau train secured with a bow.

Her matching veil was attached to a bow on her head and she carried apricot carnations with foliage.

Cheryl Natterstad, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Donald Hamilton were the bridesmaids attired in gowns of apricot shantung like that of the maid of honor. They carried yellow carnations.

Maury Strahl, brother of the groom, served as best man and the 100 guests were seated by Gary Soboleski and Dean Hebb.

A reception was held in the social room of the chapel immediately following the ceremony with Mrs. Maury Strahl, Mrs. Robert Allen, Gail Wellenkamp and Mrs. Merlyn Downing assisting with the serving.

Among the guests were Mrs. Soren Johnson, Mrs. J. L. Judson of Gladstone, Mrs. King LaVillette and Mr. and Mrs. Jud LaViolette of Milwaukee, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Downing of Britton.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and attended Western Michigan University. She is employed at Liberty Mutual Insurance Company, Kalamazoo.

Her husband is a graduate of Western Michigan University and is field engineer for Canonie Construction Co., South Haven.

Following a 10-day honeymoon to New Orleans, the couple will live at 710 S. Rose St., Kalamazoo.

The rehearsal dinner given by the groom's parents was held at Chicken Charlie's Restaurant, Kalamazoo.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG

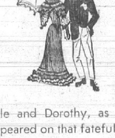
Scott Steiner Woodbury arrived via a covey of carrier pigeons (the stork gave up) Sunday just in time to make the Lyle Griggs silver wedding anniversary, Tuesday, just about perfect.



Lyle and Dorothy, as they appeared on that fateful day a quarter of a century ago.

Weighing in at 8 lbs., 11 oz., the little man looks exactly like Daddy Kent, transporting Mama Camilla back to Cloud Nine.

All this joy added to our pleasure in two-year-old Michelle, waiting like her uncles, Marv and Norm, to meet her new brother — our cup runneth over.

Brian Keith Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson, 600 Stacy St., was baptized, March 27, at the Methodist Church. The Johnsons entertained at dinner following the service.

Those present besides the parents and other children, Lawrence, Todd, Dawn and Diane were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Routson, Blissfield and Mrs. Edith Miller of Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Routson and family of Sylvania, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. James Nulter, Manchester.

Mrs. Harold Green, Mrs. James E. Danforth, Mrs. John Westgate and Mrs. Thomas Brooks attended the concert at Eastern Michigan Uuiversity campus with Blaine Ballard conducting both choir and orchestra Sunday.

Jennie Satterlee has been moved from Herrick Memorial Hospital to the adjoining nursing home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McRae returned home, 702 Outer Drive, from Palmetto, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Sturtevant, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt, Howard Wilson and Mrs. Edgar Buttolph were in Ann Arbor, Sunday, where they attended the Easter Observance program of Ann Arbor Commandery. The message was delivered by the Rev. Harold Melzer, Chaplain at Veterans' Hospital.

Pvt. and Mrs. Keith Kruse arrived, Thursday, from Fort Huachuca, Ariz., for a 30-day leave.

Pvt. Kruse is to report in San Francisco for Vietnam assignment by the first of May.

Mrs. E. J. Aebersold returned home from Bradenton, Fla., Monday, accompanied by Mrs. Bert Warren. They were preceded the previous Thursday by Mrs. Louis S. Schneider, also from Bradenton.

Mrs. Hilda Will of Dayton Ohio, was a weekend guest of Mary McWilliams.

Mrs. Anna Morse was presented a dozen red roses by the Rev. Blair Bashore during the service Sunday morning at the First Baptist Church honoring her on her 97th birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bryan and Del Finch entertained a family gathering Sunday following the service at First Baptist Church when two children, Jack Allen and Jane Elaine Mitchell, were dedicated.

The children's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dana Mitchell, and another daughter, Jill Ann, of Grand Rapids were present as were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bryan, of Britton. The Floyd Bryans are great-grandparents of the little people.

Solemn 3-Day Worship Series Opens Thursday

The solemn three days of Holy Week begin at St. Peter's Episcopal Church with the celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 p.m. Maundy Thursday, the night of the Lord's Supper.

Good Friday will see two services, one at 12:30 noon, a service of lessons and prayers from the Book of Common Prayer called "At the Foot of the Cross."

Good Friday evening will have the Stations of the Cross at 8 p.m.

The first service of Easter will be held at 4 p.m. with the baptisms of infants and children.

Baptism of adults will take place at the Easter Vigil at 10 p.m. when the Font is blessed, the church is lighted and members of the congregation renew their own baptismal vows as the newly-baptised adults are welcomed into the body of Christ and the fellowship of the local congregation.

Rites and ceremonies of the Easter Vigil, starting at 10:45 p.m. have been set forth by the liturgical leaders of the Episcopal Church and have had the sanction for use in the Diocese of Michigan by Bishop Emrich.

Easter day will see the first celebration at 8 a.m., with Holy Eucharist and hymns and the Festival Eucharist with choir at 10 a.m.

Jets Accept Two Projects

A slave auction and bake sale were accepted as fund raising projects by the Tipton Jets 4-H Club at the meeting, Saturday, at the Tipton Grange Hall.

Homemade pies and assistance for the spring horse sale, April 29 and 30, were also recruited.

Members received an invitation to the Onsted Sweetclovers 4-H meeting, April 11 at Onsted High School.

Pat Bolz, Bruce Smith, Susan Platt and Ben Osburn were in charge of recreation.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Church, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Osburn and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gebarowski furnished refreshments.

'Mary, Mary' Starts Practice

By JUDY VANZO

Three cast members of the Tecumseh Players' coming production, "Mary, Mary," have extensive amateur theatrical background.

In the feminine lead role is Mrs. Dick Egli, who majored in speech and drama at Westminster College in New Wilmington, Pa.

While in college Lori played the lead in "Light up the Sky" and "Cat and the Canary". She was in "Dear Ruth" and "Years Ago", also "Two Blind Mice" as well as doing radio work.

Lori's most recent play was the Players' production "Never Too Late." She is the mother of three daughters.

DR. ROBERT MURRAY, who plays Bob, is a charter member of the Tecumseh Players.

He was in the first offering, "Charlie's Aunt". He also had leads in "Born Yesterday" and "State of the Union". At Clark Lake, Bob appeared in "Third Best Sport", "South Pacific", "Street Car Named Desire", "Tunnel of Love".

For his performance in "Tunnel of Love", he won the "Best Actor Award" for this past summer season.

His most recent outing was "The Children's Hour" by the Jackson Civic Theater Group.

Another well-known face to Tecumseh Theatre goers is Dick Boyd, who'll be Oscar in this play.

Another charter member of the Players, he was in "Charlie's Aunt."

Dick appeared in "The Golden Fleecing", "Ten Little Indians", "The Man Who Came to Dinner", and had the lead in "The Male Animal."

At Clark Lake, he was seen in "The Match Maker," and "Hasty Heart."

In Ann Arbor's Civic Theatre presentation of "Beckett" he was the Archbishop of Canterbury.

A NEWCOMER in his first show is Don Geiger, principal at Deerfield High School.

Mrs. Roland VonKaler, another newcomer with the Players, will portray Tiffany.

Ingrid moved to the United States eight years ago with her husand from Heilbronn, Germany.

"Mary, Mary" opens Thursday, April 21.

JoAnna Ball and Earl McKinney Wed

The marriage of JoAnna Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ball of Adrian and Earl McKinney, son of Mrs. Gilbert McKinney and the late Mr. McKinney, was solemnized Saturday afternoon at Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, Adrian.

The McKinneys were formerly Tecumseh residents. She is now a resident of California.

Pink and white flowers and lighted candelabra were used to enhance the altar.

The bride wore a floor length sheath gown of silk organza fashioned with an empire waistline and long tapered sleeves embroidered with appliques and seed pearls.

A chapel train also embroidered with appliques and seed pearls flowed from the shoulders. She wore an elbow length veil.

Mrs. Larry Myers, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Sylvia Bragg was the bridesmaid. Gerri McKinney, niece of the groom, served as flower girl.

All the bride's attendants wore ballerina length dresses of pink chiffon over taffeta with delicately scalloped lace jackets over the sleeveless dresses.

Larry Myers served as best man, George Hall as groomsman and the guests were seated by Paul Dean and George Hamden.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Adrian High School and the groom is a 1959 graduate of Tecumseh High School.

The new Mrs. McKinney is employed as a secretary by Revco, Inc., Deerfield. Her husband is a foreman at the General Motors plant.

The couple will live at 1560 Sand Creek Highway, Adrian.

Methodist Services Open Thursday

Special services for Holy Week have been announced by the Rev. Donald Porteous, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

Thursday morning at 10 a.m. a special Communion service will be held in the church parlors for those who cannot climb the stairs and those whose work schedule forbids them from attending the Maundy Thursday Communion in the evening.

At 7:15 p.m. the church-wide Communion Service will be held. It will be a service of the fourth century Tenebrae using the candles to represent the apostles.

Sunday morning two services will eb held. The first one at 9:30 a.m. will feature the Chancel Choir. During the second one at 11:00 a.m. the Junior Choir will sing.

The Easter sermon, "Why Do You Seek the Living Among the Dead?" will be delivered at both times.

Because of the rescheduling of service times, Sunday School for nursery through third grade will be held as usual with no classes for the fourth grade through adults.

A nursery will be open during the early service. The public is invited to worship at all of these services.

Musicians Half Note Will Meet

Dawn Champanois was a special guest for the April meeting of the Half Notes Music Club at the Tecumseh Friends Church. She sang a solo, accompanied by her mother Mrs. David Champanois.

Also on the program were Nancy McDonald and Judy Sommers, playing the piano.

Mark Hayford was welcomed a new member.

The counselors urge all members to attend the May meeting at the Missionary Baptist Church which will be the last of this season.

All members are asked to per cordially invited.

Participants Will Be Seated Around Table

Thursday evening at 8 p.m. the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed in the Fellowship Center of the church.

As in previous years, participants will be seated around the table at this traditional Maundy Thursday Communion Service, as were the disciples when this service was instituted.

"Members of the church family, friends and any who are confessing Christians are invited to share in this sacramental service of meditation, prayer and breaking of bread," said the Rev. Julian Gresham, pastor of the church.

Sunday morning, following the Sunrise Service at Hidden Lake Gardens, there will be a breakfast in the Fellowship Center for anyone wishing to attend. The breakfast is free and is open to members and friends of the church.

There will be two identical worship services Easter morning. At 9:30 the first will be held along with Church School classes for kindergarten children through the Junior Department.

There will also be nursery services available at this time.

At 11 the second service will be held and nursery services for parents with pre-school children will be available at this service also.

The sermon for Easter Sunday will be "Victorious Living."

Society Given Rare Opportunity

By KATHRYN M. SOMMERS

Members and guests of the Ladies Missionary Society of the Tecumseh Friends Church will have a rare opportunity, Saturday, April 9, 9:30 a.m.

The event is their second Lenten Brunch in the basement of the Friends Church. Featured speaker will be Mrs. Harold Berk, Blissfield.

Mrs. Berk, B. A., R. N., will tell highlights of her nine years in Brazil. With her husband, a pilot of Cessna 180's for Missionary Aviation Fellowship, Mrs. Berk pioneered three mission stations in the Brazilian state of Goias.

While in Brazil the Berks became the parents of four daughters. They also learned the Portuguese language, lived under a military dictatorship, supplied medicines and supplies to jungle outposts and conducted a school for their children.

They are scheduled to return to Brazil in August.

Mrs. Ralph Comfort, program chairman, has announced that the morning will also include selections from a trio composed of Mrs. Lee Spohr, Mrs. Leland Fogelsong and Mrs. Ashley Chase and a dramatic reading presented by Mrs. Ray Sommers.

Other committee chairmen are Mrs. Clark Pearson, favors and decorations; Mrs. Charles Staples, Jr., menu selection and serving and Mrs. Richard Butler, follow-up custodian.

Confirmation Class Parents Meet on Tuesday

Mrs. William Rohweder will use the topic, "Women of the Bible" for the LCW of Gloria Dei Church meeting Monday, at 7:30 p.m.

Devotions will be given by Mrs. James Colson and the refreshments will be served by Mrs. Douglas Dunn and Mrs. Dean Sheldon.

A meeting especially for the parents of the confirmation class will be held Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m. Preparation of the confirmation will be discussed for the 18 teenagers to be confirmed Pentecost Sunday, May 29.

The Rev. Paul Tideman, pastor of the All Saints Lutheran Church of Mason will be the guest speaker Sunday, April 24.

The Southern District of the LCA Michigan Synod has arranged a pulpit exchange. Pastor Laszlo Gero will speak in the Mt. Hope Lutheran Church of Marshall.

Richard Meads Now Serving Aboard USS Jack

USS JACK — Electronics Technician Second Class Richard L. Meads, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Meads of 315 Adrian St., is serving aboard the nuclear-powered fast attack submarine USS Jack, currently conducting sea trials off the coast of New England before being commissioned this spring.

Sea trials are operational tests of the propulsion plant, ship control, sonar, communications and fire control systems before acceptance of the ship by the Navy. Propulsion plant testing is being personally directed by Vice Admiral Hyman G. Rickover, "Father of the Nuclear Submarine."

After commissioning, Jack will be a unit of Submarine Squadron 10, which operates out of New London, Conn., with the Atlantic Fleet.

ONE IN SERIES

Lenten Lesson

By The Rev. JULIAN GRESHAM, Pastor,
First Presbyterian Church

God did not try to save the world with words, but with deeds. The crucifixion clearly shows this. God did not just talk about the problem, but became involved in a sacrificial and loving way in the solution of the problem. The life and ministry of Jesus clearly shows this.

While Jesus spent time worshipping in the temple and on occasion went apart in meditation, for the most part, a study of His life shows Him actually engaged in those activities which were concerned with and involved in life situations.

The crucifixion is more than a theological doctrine It is first and foremost an action. To be killed, to be crucified, to give your life for a belief is a specific deed of the highest order. Behind all our terminology and doctrines is a human and worldly action on God's part. It is not by words, but by deeds and an action very much involved in the life and fabric of society that God saved man.

It would seem from this that the fruits of salvation, on man's part must also be seen by involvment in the world. Clearly the Christian life should be one which neither retreats from the world nor condemns it as unworthy of his time and energy, but rather is doing in the world that which speaks of the love of God and gives testimony to Him. Doing those acts which are beneficial and redemptive in nature.

The crucifixion is an action on the part of an individual that sought to help and improve mankind individually and collectively. By an unsolicited deed, God brought salvation to man.

Cradle Shower

BRITTON — Mrs. Ronald Croll was the guest of honor at a cradle shower Saturday afternoon, held at the home of Mrs. Delta Croll and given for her by Mrs. Croll, Mrs. Charles Patterson and Mrs. Fred Schober.

Forty-five were present and played Stork Bingo, with prizes awarded to the winners. Mrs. Charles Ricica won the door prize.

Mrs. Croll opened gifts from a table centered with a stork. An arrangement of tulips graced the refreshment table, and the hostesses served chicken salad, rolls, ice cream, wafers and coffee. Peggy and Sherry Croll, Garden City, assisted in the serving and with the gifts.

Out-of-state guests included Mrs. Croll's mother, Mrs. Ruth Dumire; her sister, Mrs. Richard Pendergast and son Scott; Mrs. Bud Pendergast; and her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dumire and daughter, Kathleen, all from Pittsburg, Pa.

18-Year-Old Loses Control of His Auto

BRITTON — Vaughn Nolan Parsons, 18, Milan, failed to negotiate a turn on N. Main St., at the north village limits and lost control of his automobile, Sunday night.

The accident resulted in a ruptured spleen and hospitalization for him and no injuries to his passenger, Nickolas Pulver, 17, also of Milan.

Mr. Parsons was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital, then transferred to the University Medical Center, Ann Arbor, for surgery. The spleen was removed.

Authorities say the Parsons auto rolled several times and struck an electrical power pole. The accident put lights out north of M-50 in Britton, for about two hours.

AREA OBITUARIES

● MRS. MABLE GOODACRE

Services were held April 1 in Battle Creek for Mrs. Mable Goodacre, 82, who died March 30 after suffering a stroke.

Mrs. Goodacre had been a frequent visitor in Tecumseh. Among relatives here are Mr. and Mrs. Clark Goodacre, Ronald and Charles Goodacre and Mrs. Harold Cole.

Burial was in the North Adams Cemetery.

● MRS. VEARL OSBURN

Services were held Saturday at the Proctor Funeral Home for Mrs. Vearl Osburn, 65, who died Thursday at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

She had been in ill health for six years and a resident of Moody Nursing Home for four years.

Vera Osburn was born Aug. 24, 1900 in Tecumseh and married Vearl Osburn Aug. 20, 1919. He preceded her in death in 1960.

Mrs. Osburn was a member of the Friends Church and a graduate of Tecumseh High School.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. James Winzeler, 2620 Russell Rd. and Mrs. Robert Ferguson, 725 N. Union St.; a son, Richard L. of Rochester, Mich., and 11 grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by two sons.

The Rev. Paul Brantingham officiated and burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

● MRS. DELLA MAY PATTERSON

Services were held March 27 at the Niblack Home for Funerals for Mrs. Della Patterson, 88, who died March 24 in the Shelhart Nursing Home after 11 years of failing health.

Mrs. Patterson was born near Cone, June 17, 1877.

She spent all of her life in the Britton area.

She was a member of the former DeSpelder Prehbyterian Church near Britton and a member of the Christian Congregational Church there.

Mrs. Patterson was a member of the Tecumseh and Pomona Granges.

June 18, 1903, she was married to Samuel C. Patterson of Britton.

He preceded her in death Jan. 27, 1957.

Surviving are one son, Charles Patterson, of Britton; two grandsons, Jack of Adrian and Larry of Sturgis, and three great-grandchildren.

Five sisters and three brothers preceded her in death.

The Rev. G. O. Hannevik officiated and burial was in the Ridgeway Cemetery.

● HARRY ROSACRANS

Burial will be in Toledo Friday for Harry Rosacrans who died Sunday at his home in Sun City, Calif.

A native of Tecumseh, Mr. Rosacrans attended school here and was the brother of the late Leon Rosacrans. He moved to California eight years ago.

Survivors include his wife, Laila, and two married children.

o

● EDWARD A. HULETT

Services will be held Friday at 3:30 p.m. at the Proctor Funeral Home, Clinton for Edward A. Hulett, 73, of 12447 Matthew Hwy. who died at 12:30 a.m. Wednesday morning at Bixby Hospital.

Mr. Hulett, Clinton Township supervisor since 1960, was stricken with a heart attack March 24 at a supervisor's meeting.

Born March 5, 1893, the son of John W. and Eliza Rogers Hulett in Toledo, Ohio, he moved to Clinton with his parents when five years of age.

He left Clinton High School after completing the 11th grade and started working for Buick Motor Co. in Jackson. That same year he moved with the company to Flint where he was employed until retirement in 1954. He moved back to Clinton July 3, 1954.

He married Minnie E. Forth of Flint June 20, 1911 who survives. Other survivors include two sons, Wayne E. of Clinton and Dr. Ralph M. Hulett, a pathologist in Ann Arbor and seven grandchildren.

A brother, Frank Hulett of Hialeah, Fla. and three sisters, Mrs. Stanley Bailey of Flint, Mrs. Walter Bacon, Montrose and Mrs. Eva Pupard of Detroit also survive.

Mr. Hulett was a member of the Flint Masonic Lodge No. 74 F and AM.

The Rev. Fr. Donald Heacock will officiate and burial will be in Riverside Cemetery.

4 Hospitalized in Accidents

A few weeks of comparatively accident-free traffic came to a screeching halt during the past week when local police handled nine accidents, four involving personal injuries.

Last Thursday a two-car collision at the intersection of N. Evans St. and Brown St. sent two men to Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Still confined are Nathanael C. Oswald, 28, Birdsall, driver of one car, and a passenger, Chris Wheeler, 25, Orchard Lane. Wheeler has a fractured pelvis.

According to the police report, Oswald was driving north on Evans St. when his Volkswagen was struck by Neville Hart, 64, of 115 W. Brown St.

Two Clinton-Macon Rd. ladies are still in the hospital after an accident Friday at N. Union St. and W. Logan St.

The Langham auto collided with Francis J. Yates, 20 . He was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

A RESUME of the other mishaps is:

April 1 — David Koronowa, 41, Toledo, was cited for improper backing after a mishap with Marjorie Mae Comfort, 33, of 5432 Sutton Rd. The accident occured behind Don's Beef Buffet.

April 1 — Both motorists were cited in a school bus mishap on N. Evans St. Carol Ann Woodby, 17, of 733 S. Union St. ran into the rear of a car driven by Dr. Carlos Lee Knisely, 39, of 106 S. Maumee St. Both were attempting to stop for a bus discharging students.

Miss Woodby was cited for failure to have her car under control, and Dr. Knisely, for violation of the basic speed law.

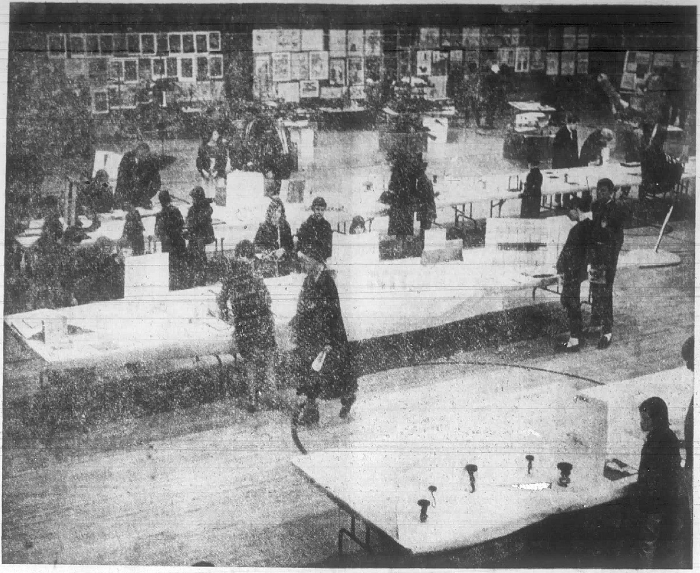
April 1 — T. J. Bowman, 18, Adrian was charged with failure to have his car under control after running into the rear of a car driven by Raymond J. Frolich, 44, Tipton. The accident was in the 100 block of S. Evans St.

April 1 — William S. Anderson, 17, of 516 W. Chicago Blvd. suffered minor injuries in a Herrick Park accident. Young Anderson rounded a curve on Inner Dr., attempted to miss a parked pickup and lost control. He collided with the truck before stopping in a resident's lawn. He was cited for careless driving.

April 2 — Douglas E. Gillies, 18, of 712 Outer Dr. was charged with failure to yield the right of way and not having an operator's license after a mishap with Lloyd J. Stites, 50, of 1954 Russell Rd. Accident was at N. Evans and Shawnee Sts.

George Surratt, 15, passenger with Gillies, suffered minor injuries.

April 2 — Two motorists attempted to pass a garbage truck on W. Chicago Blvd. and bumped together. Drivers involved were Larry E. Chase, 18, of 500 Occidental Rd., and Russell A. McKenzie, 30, Port Huenema, Calif. Neither was cited.



TWO-DAY SCIENCE FAIR ATTRACTED MANY VISITORS, WHO WERE TREATED TO SOME OUTSTANDING EXHIBITIONS

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

I would like to speak out on behalf of some of the females of this community. Last year well over 100 of us participated in summer softball, ages ranging from five to middle-age women. Last year we felt that the Recreation Department was very generous with providing us with fields and times to play, although they were a bit skimpy with the money and equipment.

By talking with Mr. Moffatt a few days ago, I found that this year we get close to nothing.

Although I am interested in Pee Wee Girl's Softball, Junior Girl's Softball and Mom's Softball, my main concern is the Senior Girl's Softball, since I play on the team.

We belong to the Southeastern Michigan Girl's Softball League. This summer we will have 14 to 22 games — half of them at home. Since the plowing of the fields behind the pool, the Pony League will be using the hardball diamond.

This means that the softball diamond cannot be used at the same time, because the softball diamond's right field is the baseball diamond's left field.

My big beef is that the boys have preference over us, because as Mr. Moffatt tells me, the girls may use the field until 8 p.m. on any evening.

The Pony League is mostly local, with the exception of Britton, Deerfield, etc. whereas our league has teams which have to travel sometimes 40 miles to play here. After a two-hour game and socializing (as we often do) some of the teams may not reach home until almost midnight.

That's pretty late for girls who hold day jobs. You say cut out the socializing? Isn't one of the purposes of a league to promote better relationship among teams?

This year, I was told, most of the equipment we need we will have to purchase ourselves with no money. As it stands now, we have less than five good bats, less than seven good balls,, three holely bases and no coach.

Does any of this matter to anybody but a few of us who love softball? Maybe some people don't realize that females can be good athletes. The girls at Monroe begin to train in May and have fields to practice on regularly. It probably wouldn't interest anybody that they went to the national tournament last year and were runners-up.

I'm not pulling for a national championship for Tecumseh, just some cooperation from some people to get "equal right" for us girls — or aren't we worth it?

$30 Stolen from Station

Ed's Standard Service Station at the corner of N. Evans St. and Herrick Park Dr. was burglarized early last Thursday morning with approximately $30 taken.

Entry was gained by kicking in a door.

Police here had two suspects, but both were released. Another suspect is a West Virginia man who had been at the station just before midnight to have his brakes fixed.

4-H Club Presents Skit, Displays Spring Projects

"Curing That Cold" was the name of a skit presented by the younger clothing members for the Round-Top 4-H Club, March 28, at the North Adrian Grange Hall.

Barbara Bailey had charge of the recreation followed by a business meeting.

Handicraft, gun safety, electrical, knitting and clothing-members displayed their projects for spring achievement.

County Extension Agent Mrs. John Taylor was guest speaker.

Hosts were the Robert Paschals, the Robert Murrays, Pam and Debbie Townsend and the Walter Scharers.

Trucking Gives Jobs to 3,516

In Lenawee County, 3,516 people are employed by Michigan's trucking industry. Their annual payroll is $21,489,792.

These are two of many highlights in Michigan Trucking Association's new industry fact book.

Pontiac Motor Division

It's 1968.

(Aren't you glad you bought a Pontiac?)

Sure you're glad you picked a Wide-Track Catalina back in '66. Because year after year the record book shows Pontiac with one of the best resale values in the industry. After all, used car buyers go for that handsome Pontiac styling and lusty performance, too. For the steady Wide-Track ride, and everything else that has made us third in sales every year since 1961. (We know it's still '66—still time to price a Catalina.)

Wide-Track Pontiac Catalina

*Manufacturer's suggested retail prices for 2- and 4-door sedans and 2- and 4-door hardtops are all less than $3000. These prices include excise tax and suggested dealer delivery and handling charge. Transportation charges, state and local taxes, accessories and optional equipment additional.

William Cook Addresses Future Nurses

Members of the psychology class and the Future Homemakers Club were guests.

Plans were discussed for a tour of the State Hospital in the near future.

You may save $6 to $8 per acre with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia: lowest cost nitrogen in the field.

The reason is, anhydrous ammonia gives you far more nitrogen per pound than any other nitrogen fertilizer. Which means it takes far less Dow ANHYDROUS AMMONIA to do the job than it does with any other form of nitrogen fertilizer.
If you're planting corn on corn, it will take 150 to 200 pounds of nitrogen per acre to decay the old stalks and still have the nitrogen you need for high yields. Supply this nitrogen with Dow ANHYDROUS AMMONIA and you may save as much as $6 to $8 an acre. And boost crop yield quality and feed grain protein content while you do it. It's so long-lasting, one application is all you need. See us today for details. And save some money for a change.

Did You Ever Think of Getting Your Easter Bonnet From A&P?

EASTER BONNET

We don't sell Easter bonnets but…
we suspect many an Easter hat
has been paid for with money saved by shopping A&P.

Are we implying that A&P has the lowest prices
on all items all the time?
No!
There is no store that can make that claim.

What we are saying is:
if you're interested in your total food bill,
if you're looking for the best values
for your food dollar, A&P is the store for you.

It's a little late for this year's Easter bonnet,
but start shopping A&P this week, anyway.

It won't be long before
somebody in the house will need a new pair of shoes.

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P?
It's one of many.

The reason is, anhydrous ammonia gives you far more nitrogen per pound than any other nitrogen fertilizer. Which means it takes far less Dow Anhydrous Ammonia to do the job than it does with any other form of nitrogen fertilizer.

If you're planting corn on corn, it will take 150 to 200 pounds of nitrogen per acre to decay the old stalks and still have the nitrogen you need for high yields. Supply this nitrogen with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia and you may save as much as $6 to $8 an acre. And boost crop yield quality and feed grain protein content while you do it. It's so long-lasting, one application is all you need. See us today for details. And save some money for a change.

Did You Ever Think of Getting Your Easter Bonnet From A&P?

EASTER BONNET

We don't sell Easter bonnets but...
we suspect many an Easter hat
has been paid for with money saved by shopping A&P.

Are we implying that A&P has the lowest prices
on all items all the time?
No!
There is no store that can make that claim.

What we are saying is:
if you're interested in your total food bill,
if you're looking for the best values
for your food dollar, A&P is the store for you.

It's a little late for this year's Easter bonnet,
but start shopping A&P this week, anyway.

It won't be long before
somebody in the house will need a new pair of shoes.

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P?
It's one of many.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

Last week I vetoed Enrolled House Bill 2241. My opposition to this measure and its method of so-called improvement of our Veterans' Homestead Tax Exemption program is on the record.

This administration vetoed the same bill last fall and I have expressed myself on its approach many times since then.

There is no disagreement that improvements are needed in our system of offering tax relief to certain veterans and widows of veterans.

However, to base such improvement on a system that is already inequitable in its approach is to merely compound those inequities. This is not improvement. This is making a faulty system worse.

IF THERE is a reason for veterans' tax relief, and I believe there is, then our method of extending such relief should recognize these essentials:

► First — differences in the need for tax relief based upon the degree of disability suffered by a person while in the service of his country should be recognized.

There are some 62,000 veterans currently receiving tax relief, a majority of whom have some degree of disability. These disabilities range from a relatively minor injury to multiple amputees. Is an amputee in greater need of tax relief than those who suffered less? I believe so. Yet neither our existing program nor this bill recognizes that fact.

► Second — Widows of non-disabled veterans are not entitled to the same level of relief I hope that we can yet take as disabled veterans and their widows, as the current program and this bill advocate. This approach is totally indefensible.

There is further cause for concern in this area in light of the program of homestead tax relief for senior citizen homeowners adopted last year.

This bill would give more relief to widows of non-disabled veterans than our senior citizens receive and would obviously result in a plea for equity on the part of senior citizens at a multi-million dollar cost to the state.

There is good reason to provide that widows of non-disabled veterans and senior citizens receive comparable treatment, but not at the level accorded our disabled veterans and their widows.

TO PUT THIS legislation into effect would be a disservice to disabled veterans and their widows and families, as well as to the general public which has reason to expect reasonable care in the use of their tax dollars.

Political relief has been permitted to replace sound tax relief, and the result is an unacceptable program.

Yet it is not too late to realize some improvement this year. This administration has developed a special program that would meet the essentials I have outlined beginning in 1967 and in the meantime improve the general level of relief for veterans and widows at a range consistent with other tax relief programs.

Will Study Crucifixion of Christ

The ministry of Christ Jesus, his crucifixion according to St. Luke, and the resurrection account from John, form the basis for this Sunday's Bible Lesson at Christian Science church services.

Responsive Reading from Isaiah will include this verse: "Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence; he will come and save you."

Area Artists May Submit Their Work

Entries for the 48th Toledo Area Artists' Annual Exhibition will be accepted at the Toledo Museum of Art Thursday, Friday and Saturday, between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Work submitted will be selected for the exhibition by a three-man jury on April 15 and 16.

Artists and craftsmen from 17 counties in northwestern Ohio and southeastern Michigan, as well as former Toledo residents, are eligible to participate in the showing.

Prospectuses may be obtained at the Museum for the exhibition, May 8 through 29.

Hospital Apprentice Donald Rudd is returning to the Great Lakes Naval Training Center, Ill., to begin four months' Hospital Corpsman training, after spending a 14-day leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rudd, 506 Parkway Ct. He has completed nine weeks of boot training at Great Lakes.

State Police Ticket Keyser

Paul R. Keyser of 206 N. Maiden Lane, was ticketed Friday afternoon, by Clinton State Police.

Keyser made an improper left turn and failed to yield the right of way, when he turned in the path of Archie O'Gillman, 18, Adrian, on M-52 just south of M-50.

Family Film Program Set For Friday

DEARBORN — A family film program of animated cartoons is scheduled at Greenfield Village during the week of April 8 thru April 17.

"Panda and the Magic Serpent, Hot Rod Huckster, Room and Wrath, and Hansel and Gretel" will be presented twice daily during the Easter vacation period.

Weekday showings will be at 1 and 3 p.m., and at 2 and 4 p.m., on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Greenfield Village movie program is held in the Henry Ford Museum theater and is included in the regular admission charge to the Museum.

The Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village are open the year around to visitors. In 1965 more than 1,400,000 admissions were recorded at this world-famous Museum of Americans.

Committee Wants Friendship Image

A continuous program designed to make Michigan known as the friendliest place on earth has been prepared by the Michigan Week Hospitality Day Committee of which Ron Gamble, Greenbush resort owner and Detroit television personality, is chairman.

The committee has outlined a broad program of suggestions for Michigan Week and the observance of Hospitality Day which will be Friday, May 20, but its main objective is the promotion of hospitality by all citizens of Michigan throughout the entire year.

"We are making a special effort in 1966 to develop the reputation of Michigan as a state of great hospitality," Mr. Gamble said. "This is something that starts right now with all people of our state and will carry far beyond Michigan Week and Hospitality Day.

It is something, we hope, that will be heard and talked about throughout the world."

TO ACCOMPLISH the objective, Mr. Gamble pointed out, it is necessary to have every person in the state develop a habit of being unusually friendly to the people he meets, especially visitors from other areas, states and nations.

"We believe that the hospitality habit will be contagious and snowball into great proportions," he added.

The committee expects every community in the state to have a hospitality committee to carry forward the state program to build a friendly spirit everywhere. The 16 Michigan Week regional chairmen and 83 county chairmen will all have Hospitality Day chairmen to augment the state committee's work.

Since the inception of Michigan Week 13 years ago, Tuesday has been designated as Hospitality Day. This year Hospitality Day is Friday of Michigan Week, and Our Heritage Day, formerly on Friday, will be celebrated on Tuesday.

"BY OBSERVING the day on Friday," Mr. Gamble said, "the whole program will have greater impact as it will reach people who are traveling on the weekend."

Deputy chairman of the state committee is Warren C. Smith, general manager of the Gaylord Division of U. S. Plywood Corporation, Gaylord.

Barry McGuire, publicity director of the East Michigan Tourist Association, Bay City, is the committee's executive secretary.

The committee has prepared a special handbook with many suggestions for local committees. Copies may be obtained from the Michigan Week state office, Manson Building, 520 Cherry Street, Lansing.

Leaders Preview Michigan Week

Outstanding business and cultural leaders from around the world will be invited to a "World Preview of Michigan Week," Governor George Romney announced.

Michigan Week itself runs from May 15 through May 21. The "World Preview" events will be held from Tuesday, May 10, through Monday, May 16.

Dale I. Sellers of Detroit, president of the Greater Michigan Foundation which administers Michigan Week, said the World Preview has been approved as a new special event this year. General chairman of Michigan Week is Paul Penfield, Detroit Edison Company.

THOSE INVITED to attend will be guests of Michigan business firms and other organizations with interests in international trade and friendship. It is expected that 20 to 30 individuals from various nations will be invited to participate.

Governor Romney said the plan is to include Nobel Prize winners, educators, labor leaders, industrialists, authors, musicians, publishers, and government officials.

"We are sure this program will be of mutual benefit to our state and to the guests and their countries, in terms of trade and friendship," Governor Romney said in explaining the objectives.

SET THE SET — Gary Griffin and Director Gary Lovett, Britton High School student, teacher and set builders are preparing for the Junior Class production of "Arsenic and Old Lace". "Arsenic" with a cast of 13 is the zany story of lovable old aunties and their lovable but somewhat goofy nephew who put people in stitches and in the ground. Presentation is scheduled for May 6.

Tory School Notes

By SHERRY SQUIRES and SUE EDDINGER

The sacred cantata "The Crucifixion" by John Stainer, was presented Tuesday, April 5, by the Britton Senior High Chorus. It was given at the Britton Congregational Church as part of the Holy Week.

The cantata was a musical story of the sacred passion of Christ, presented in various chorals, solos, and recitatives.

Contrasts of the music shown by two selections: "Fling Wide the Gates", a stirring account of the Palm Sunday processional; and, "All for Jesus," which quietly closes the cantata.

RON HEIDEN and Ron Eldred attended the FFA State Convention at Michigan State University as delegates from the Britton Chapter of the FFA.

The boys attended various meeting at MSU, including the public speaking contest, the parliamentary procedure contest, and the State Farmer and Star Farmer award meetings.

THE JUNIOR High School Solo and Ensemble Festival was held March 26, at Brooklyn. Among the 43 members in the competition, 15 received the highest rating possible. These students are: Connie Irwin, Ronda Cheever, Dan Bush, Rita Vershum, Jim Bush, Becky Maschino, Marilyn Heiden, Linda Seagert, Byron Gall, Tammee Tucker, Nancy Vreeland, Peggy Hagans, Karlene Prielipp, Sandra McNeil and Cindy Ivan. Twenty second-class ratings were also given.

CONGRESSMAN Weston Vivian spoke ot the student body during an assembly April 1. His topic was the typical week and days of the average Representative when Congress is in session.

After the assembly, Mr. Vivian visited the Civics and Government classes and answered any questions that the students had concerning politics, the government, the world situation, and any other topics of interest.

Train, Doing 80, Nips Off Bumper of Papworth Car

BRITTON — A Wabash passenger train, doing 80 miles an hour, nipped the rear bumper off a car driven by Mrs. Richard Papworth as she drove over the S. Main St. crossing March 25 at 8:30 a.m.

She told police chief Frank Becker that she neither heard nor saw the train. He reported that the crossing warning was working and visibility clear.

A. J. Rosendale of Dearborn, the train engineer, said he saw the car crossing in front and blew his whistle.

When the vehicle was struck, he stopped and backed up to check the damage.

Riding with Mrs. Papworth were her two younger sisters, Linda and Shelley, whom she was taking to school when the mishap happened.

Darlene Sue Albring Given Holy Baptism

BRITTON — Darlene Sue Albring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Albring, and Adrienne Ann Swain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Swain, received Holy Baptism at the Palm Sunday worship service in the Congregational Christian Church.

DISTRIBUTOR OF DOW
ANHYDROUS AMMONIA

You may save $6 to $8 per acre with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia: lowest cost nitrogen in the field.

The reason is, anhydrous ammonia gives you far more nitrogen per pound than any other nitrogen fertilizer. Which means it takes far less Dow Anhydrous Ammonia to do the job than it does with any other form of nitrogen fertilizer.
If you're planting corn on corn, it will take 150 to 200 pounds of nitrogen per acre to decay the old stalks and still have the nitrogen you need for high yields. Supply this nitrogen with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia and you may save as much as $6 to $8 an acre. And boost crop yield quality and feed grain protein content while you do it. It's so long-lasting, one application is all you need. See us today for details. And save some money for a change.

Britton Church Choir Will Sing

"No Greater Love," one of the most popular Easter cantatas by John W. Peterson, will be presented by the junior and senior choirs of the Britton Congregational Christian Church Good Friday evening, April 8, at 7:30 p.m.

This cantata, one of the Singspiration series, tells of the life, ministry, sacrificial death, and glorious resurrection of Christ.

Several soloists will be featured during the performance of this stirring cantata. Jack Brown and Carl Studnicka will sing the words of Satan and Jesus in a dramatic scene of the temptations of Christ.

Baritone solos will be sung by Bruce Gillespie as Jesus and William Raeburn as Pilate. The Rev. and Mrs. G. O. Hannevik will sing a duet, and soprano solos will be sung by Gail Lister and Mrs. Joseph Hall.

Douglas Palmer will read the Scripture narration, and Mrs. William Raeburn will accompany the two choirs.

The public is cordially invited to attend this musical presentation of events brought to mind so vividly during this Holy season.

BRITTON BRIEFS

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Barrett and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Downing attended the wedding of Karen Hall and John Strahl, Saturday afternoon in Kalamazoo. The new Mrs. Strahl is a granddaughter of the Downings. The wedding was held in the chapel at Western Michigan University.

Mabel Linton, Hillsdale, and Mildred Linton, Detroit, spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patterson, following the death of their aunt, Mrs. Della Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks attended a surprise dinner party, Saturday evening, held at Leutheuser's in Saline, to honor the 49th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Church, Manchester.

Other children of the couple who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Church of St. Clair Shores, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Carson of Sand Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Church, Saline, who planned the event. A grandson, Mr. and Mrs. William Carson of Adrian, also attended the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Patterson and Kelli, Sturgis, are spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patterson, during Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Reeck called on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Reeck, Dearborn, Sunday. Mrs. Reeck underwent major surgery last week, and is recovering in Garden City Hospital.

Knights Meet Round the Table

BRITTON — The Cub Scouts of Pack 23 met recently at the Grace Methodist Church for their monthly Pack Night.

The program and decorations followed the theme for March, "Knights of the Round Table." Den Three opened with the Pledge of Allegiance and "The Knight's Code."

Richard Rayburn of the Britton Boy Scouts was made Den Chief, and the following awards were presented:

Bobcat pins — Dalton Figpen, Jeffrey Slick, Ricky Hand.

Wolf badge — Tim Logan, Douglas Rayburn, Mike Hintz, James Reeck.

Bear badge — Ronald Logan

Lion badge — Jim Rayburn

Denner stripes — John Lorenz, Douglas Shields

Den Two presented a short play on the knighting of Sir Helpsalot, played by Ricky Hand. Others of the cast were Jim Thomas, Jack Colson, Mark Maschino, Jeff Slick, Tim Logan, Chris Spohr and Mike Hintz.

Closing was by Den Five, followed by all the Cub Scouts parading with the shields and armor they made in the den meetings. A very rousing jousting tournament closed the meeting.

Refreshments were served by the mothers of Den One.

Easter Sunrise Will Initiate New Sanctuary

RIDGEWAY — The Easter Sunrise service, 6:30 a.m., Sunday, will be the first service in the recently completed sanctuary of the Ridgeway Church of the Nazarene.

The service will be conducted by the Rev. Wade Roberts. Special music will be furnished by the quartet.

Sunday School will convene at 10 a.m. Morning worship service will be at 11.

The public is invited to all services.

New books at your Public Library:

THAT SUMMER by Allen Drury. This Pulitzer Prize winning author of ADVISE AND CONSENT turns from the world of international politics to the private politics of an exclusive vacation colony high in the California Sierras, where an intense love story is played out against tribal country club mores and tragic social pressures.

THE INVISIBLE SCAR by Caroline Bird. Crammed with fact and illuminating anecdote, this book makes brilliantly clear the far-reaching effects of the Great Depression on business and government; on women, sex, and life; on education, the professions, and political ideas; and above all, what the decade of economic standstill did to the individual American as a human being.

WHY YOUNG MOTHERS FEEL TRAPPED, a Redbook documentary with an introduction by Margaret Mead; thirty-two women, in their own words, tell how each solved the insoluble problems of too little time and too many pressures, from their husbands, their homes and their children.

ONE MARRIAGE, TWO FAITHS by James Bossard. Here is a sane, straightforward account of what differences in religious faith really mean to a marriage and a home. Holding no brief for any single creed or point of view, the author speaks authoritatively from rich experience gathered during decades of family counseling and research.

CHINESE COOKING FOR PLEASURE, by Helen Burke. There are over a hundred superb illustrations both in black and white and outstanding color, and the recipes are all completely practical.

Among the Top Research Areas in United States

"Southeastern Michigan stands at the threshhold of becoming one of the three or four leading scientific reasearch centers in the entire nation," Congressman Weston E. Vivian said last week.

"The research potential of the area already has been recognized by a number of U.S. firms who have located new laboratories here in recent years.

"But, now, with the selection of a site in Northfield Township, north of Ann Arbor, as one of six sites which were selected for final review as possible locations for a proposed $375 million atomic particle accelerator laboratory, the promise of this area will become very widely known.

"Having survived the rigorous screening procedures of the National Academy of Sciences Site Evaluation Committee, I believe that the Northfield site now stands an excellent chance of becoming the final choice, by the Atomic Energy Commission.

"We probably will not receive a final decision, however, until late in 1966 or early 1967," he concluded.

Glenn H. Kohler Notches 20 Years Selling Real Estate

Glenn H. Kohler has been in the Real Estate business in the same building on W. Chicago Blvd. for 20 years Tuesday.

He received his salesman's license on April 5, 1946, became a broker in 1948.

A lifelong resident of Lenawee County and a graduate of Tecumseh High School, Mr. Kohler spent three years in the navy before starting his career in selling properties.

He is the first realtor in the county to receive his "Final Certificate in Real Estate" from the University of Michigan, School of Business Administration, June 18, 1959.

Mr. Kohler was taken into the membership in the Society of Residential Appraisers in 1962.

His wife, Helen, a licensed real estate salesman and associate member of the Lenawee County Board of Realtors, has worked with her husband for nearly four years.

The Kohlers have two daughters, Mrs. Thomas Simonds, 107 S. Union St. and Carol, a sophomore at Tecumseh High School.

Products' Tim Neill Attends Safety Institute

Tim Neill, director of safety at Tecumseh Products Co., was one of 16 executives of nationally-known concerns to attend the March session of the Safety Management Institute held by Liberty Mutual Insurance Companies at its home office in Boston.

One of several such sessions held each year by the insurance companies, the four-day program included seminar discussions on evaluation of safety program effectiveness, improved teaching methods for safety managers, effective use of visual aids, psychology of accident prevention and self-development for the safety manager.

The program also included a field trip to the Liberty Mutual Hopkinton research center, 26 miles from Boston, to see demonstrations of the companies latest research efforts in the field of industrial loss prevention.

The group visited the insurance companies Boston Rehabilitation Center to see what is being done to restore industrial accident victims to the point of being able to return to work.

Liberty Mutual is the country's 10th largest casualty insurer with assets in excess of $1 billion.

James Pinkley Speaks on Easter

The Rev. James Pinkley, Jr., of Middleboro, Ky., will speak at revival services at the Missionary Baptist Church each evening next week.

He will also present the Easter Sunday sermon April 10, at 11 a.m.

The Rev. Mr. Pinkley is superintendent of Missions in the Bell County Baptist Association and has held this office since February, 1963.

He was born in Tahoka, Tex., and moved with his family to Amarillo, where he lived until he was 18 years old.

After two years in the U. S. Army, he attended Wayland Baptist College, Plainview, Tex., graduating with a bachelor of science degree.

He studied one year at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville.

Mr. Pinkley has since served as assistant pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle Church in Louisville, and pastor of Baptist Churches in Sinai, Campton and Elkhorn, Ky.

The Rev. Pinkley and his wife, Elizabeth, have two children, Noel, 17, and Marlis, 15.

The Rev. Seal Janeway invites the public to attend these special services, Sunday and each evening next week at 7 p.m., at the church on Cairns St.

Democratic Women's Club Holds Program

The Ann Arbor Democratic Women's Club has invited area women to attend a Second Congressional District Women's Day Friday.

The program and luncheon will be held at the Women's City Club in Ann Arbor and will honor Congressman Weston E. Vivian, Mrs. G. Mennen Williams and Mrs. Jerome Cavanaugh, wives of the Democratic candidates for the U.S. Senate.

The purpose of the Democratic Women's day is for women in all parts of the district to learn more about the district and to stimulate interest in the fall campaign.

The program will begin at 9 a.m. and continue through luncheon and an afternoon session.

BUILDING PERMITS

Tecumseh Township has zoning regulations and a permit is needed to build, alter or repair any dwelling. A first floor plan is required which will be kept by Building Inspector.

Permits should be secured before construction is started.

No House Trailers will be lived in, any place in Tecumseh Township, except in Trailer Parks.

Also required is an electrical permit for any type wiring. This permit can be secured from the City Engineer of Tecumseh.

Township Board meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month at The Tecumseh Implement Company.

PVT. RICHARD VAN SICKLE

Marine Private Dick VanSickle Ends Training

CAMP PENDLETON, CALIF. — Marine Private Richard A. Van Sickle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Van Sickle of 8988 Tipton Highway, has completed individual combat training here.

The four-week course included over 200 hours of instruction under simulated combat conditions, covering squad tactics, guerrilla warfare, day and night combat, patrolling and the use of infantry weapons.

His next stop is four weeks of basic specialist training in his military occupational field. Marines to be assigned to infantry units will be taught infantry subspecialties, such as the machine gun, grenade launcher, rifle or mortar. Marines to be assigned to highly technical specialties will be sent to military technical schools for their specialist training.

WSCS Studies Magdaline at Breakfast

"Mary Magdaline At the Cross" was the Easter meditation given in the first person by Mrs. Joseph Edwards, wife of the Ann Arbor district superintendent, at the annual White Breakfast, Thursday in the First Methodist Church.

Using a flannel board and figures, Mrs. Edwards followed the teachings, death and resurrection of Jesus as seen through the eyes of Mary Magdaline.

The lovely pictures presented were enhanced by a multi-colored rotating light.

Welcoming the guests was Mrs. Carroll Sprague, president of the Women's Society of Christian Service, sponsoring the event. Mrs. Donald Porteous offered invocation with Mrs. Carlton Cushing leading the devotions centering around the theme, "What Is a White Breakfast?"

Mrs. Gordon Mitchinson presented two solos and participated in the program offered by Mrs. Edwards. She was accompanied by Mrs. Frank Gray.

The Irene Circle, under the chairmanship of Marvel Steinhoff, was responsible for arrangements.

Cancer Drive Opens

April is Cancer month as designated by an Act of Congress. The Tecumseh drive to open April 11 with a "Kick-Off" Breakfast, 9:30, at the VFW Post Home on N. Evans St.

Joe Fortunato is general chairman and has charge of the business and professional drive. The chairman for the residential drive is Mrs. Lloyd Stites and co-chairman, Mrs. Richard Eisenmenger.

Remember the slogan "Fight Cancer with a Check-Up and a Check." Great work is being done in research to control and even cure some forms of cancer.

THE AMERICAN Cancer Society is fighting Cancer. Last year alone nearly $12,000,000 was spent on cancer research alone.

There is a hopeful side of Cancer.

Last year 180,000 were saved from cancer deaths through early detection and prompt treatment. All told, more than one million Americans have been cured of Cancer. But — this year there will be about 540,000 new cases.

As a killer of Americans, Cancer is second only to heart disease.

If present rates are not checked, about 290,000 men, women and children will die of Cancer this year. Of this group some 90,000 will lose lives needlessly because they failed to see their doctors in time.

Have your yearly Check-Up and save millions of lives who otherwise will die of this dreadful disease. Please give when the volunteers come to your door.

Do-nuts will be donated by Van's Bakery for the breakfast.

A film strip, one minute long, narrated by Gregory Peck will be shown during the months of April at the local theatre.

Through My Window

PLEASE WRITE YOUR CONGRESSMAN

May I depart from my usual theme today?

Picture with your mind's eye, if you will, please, a towering dam, one that would be the highest in the Western Hemisphere. It would back up a lake almost a hundred miles long.

My, that would be something to see, wouldn't it, quite a sight. Such a construction is entirely feasible; in fact, it is on the drawing boards, engineering studies are being made, and about the only thing necessary to begin building is an O.K. from Congress.

Surely such a dam would benefit mankind in innumerable ways — wouldn't it?

Now if you would please, click another picture into your imagination. This time make it the Grand Canyon — the beautiful the unique, the inspiring Grand Canyon.

Without a doubt this is one of the world's great natural wonders, it defies description. To see and visit the Grand Canyon National Park is a magnificent and never-to-be-forgotten experience.

Nature worked millions of years to create this marvel, man can never hope to create its equal.

And yet, with our bulldozers, our dynamite, our cement-mixers we can destroy the Grand Canyon. We can change "the great ditch' and it will be lost forever.

Unthinkable — it certainly is. Impossible — no.

A dam is proposed which would flood parts of the Grand Canyon. If this is allowed to happen it is entirely within the realm of possibility that the breathtaking grandeur of our Grand Canyon will be no more.

The proponents of this dam are being particularly careful to soft pedal its infringement upon the National Park. Even by its name they are striving to disassociate it from the Grand Canyon and the Colorado River.

The Bridge Canyon Dam does not sound frightening, does it? Its results are though, just imagine destroying the Grand Canyon!

In the January-February issue of AUDUBON magazine an article explains what the building of these dams will mean.

It is frightening!

That people would even consider tampering with one of God's great works is shocking.

Yet the supporters of this dam are going to unbelieveable lengths to keep us, the American public, from knowing the full story of the Bridge Canyon Dam.

It's the same old theme. If we don't know what is going on until it is too late — well, then the "pork barrel" boys are home free. Realizing that there might be opposition to the destruction of the Grand Canyon National Park, persons interested in the dam have even gone so far as issue promotional literature in which the words "Grand Canyon" are not even mentioned.

What about the benefits of this project which, by the way, would be horribly expensive? Again refering to the Audubon article, the benefits would be minimal.

The Bridge Canyon Dam, to quote directly from the magazine, "will serve no purpose that cannot be served at least as well in a variety of other ways". (This statement is true of the Marble Gorge Dam too; they are twin dams but time and space do not allow us to go into Marble Gorge here.)

Dams, in the southwest particularly, conjure up three things. We think of them as being built to provide: a new water supply, flood control, or power.

It is important to realize that these dams will not be a new source of water for Arizona. They are not necessary for flood control, they are not even designed for it. They are dams to produce electricity.

As power dams, many experts feel they are unnecessary and, by the time the construction could be completed, they would be pitifully uneconomical. Other sources of power are available which would be cheaper and more fitted to the need.

These other sources would not flood one of our greatest scenic attractions either. But, please read the Audubon article and decide for yourselves.

If you feel as I do, if you feel that the Grand Canyon National Park is worth saving one of the things to do is write some letters. If enough of us write our congressmen letting them know that we feel the Grand Canyon is worth saving, then perhaps there is a chance of stopping this senseless project.

In this area our congressmen are:

Senator Philip Hart — U.S. Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D.C.

Senator Patrick McNamara — U.S. Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D.C.

Representative Wes Vivian — House of Representatives Office Bldg., Washington, D.C.

So it is that next week we shall get back to some spring bird talk but for today PLEASE, OH PLEASE, WRITE YOUR CONGRESSMEN!

Next Week:
ABOUT BLUEBIRDS

Mrs. Wright Celebrates 90th Birthday

RIDGEWAY — Mrs. Anna Wright, celebrated her 90th birthday quietly in her home, last Sunday. She was born in Lenawee County, April 3, 1876, and has lived most of her life here and for the last 46 years in the same house in Ridgeway.

In 1964 Mrs. Wright suffered a stroke and due to several small strokes she has been confined to her bed.

Dave Natterstad Will Instruct at Engine School

A/3 David Natterstad is home until Tuesday, after completing a jet engine course at Chanute Air Base in Illinois.

He will return there for a two-month of instructor's school and then remain for the next three years as an instructor.

He is the son of Clarence Natterstad of Occidental Hwy.

NEW OWNERS OF LENAWEE BRAND DAIRY — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bow recently purchased the Lenawee Brand Dairy from Harold Erhart. The Bows and their four sons came to Tecumseh from Hudson three years ago. Smiling Mrs. Bow is in charge of the dairy most of the time with help from the boys and her husband when they can. She "loves to meet people."

Bows Buy Dairy Store

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bow, 605 Brook St., have purchased The Lenawee Brand Dairy from Mrs. Bow's former employer, Harold Erhart.

Mrs. Bow said that she and her husband had never been in business before, but she had worked for Mr. Erhart for two years and enjoyed meeting people who come for dairy products.

"Ninety-nine percent of them are just as nice as they can be," commented Mrs. Bow.

The Bows, with their four sons, come to Tecumseh from Hudson three years ago. Mrs. Bow worked in the school lunch program there.

A Tecumseh Products employee for 19 years, Mr. Bow helps with the store in his off-hours, but Doyce, 15 and a sophomore at Tecumseh High School, is the real help to his Mom.

"Rightly so," said Mrs. Bow," "since he was employed here before we bought the place."

JERRY, oldest son of the Bows, is in navy training at Idaho Falls, Idaho. He recently completed a nuclear electronics course there with top honors and was asked to stay on as staff member. He will be 21 in September.

Glen, 19, in July, is employed by Budd Co. in Clinton.

Randy, 14, in the eighth grade at Junior High School, helps stock shelves and carry-out sometimes at the Dairy when Doyce is busy elsewhere.

Milk comes from the Michigan Producers Dairy Co. in Adrian each day.

One favorite customer gets eight gallons of milk each week at the Dairy.

Recent interest-getter at the dairy is a colorful free balloon bunny, which children receive when they get a chart filled with bottle caps carrying names of states.

Top Beet Growers

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Albring, rural Britton, attended the annual Top Ten Sugar Beet Grower Award dinner, Tuesday evening, Toledo.

The dinner is sponsored by the Northern Ohio Sugar Company, Findlay, Ohio, and is held each year to honor the highest rated sugar beet growers who ship to this company.

This is the fifth time Mr. Albring has earned a spot in the Top Ten, after participating for eighth years. Each year, the award winners are presented with a gift of silver.

The Albrings received a silver teapot this year. It corresponds with the silver creamer and sugar bowl and other gifts they received previously.

The production figures which gained the Top Ten awards for Mr. Albring are:

On 20.6 acres, they harvested 25.49 tons per acre.

Percent of sugar obtained — 16.71%.

Pounds per acre of sugar — 8,516 lbs.

IN THE LAST article, the writer neglected to acknowledge that Mrs. J. T. Callihan of the Home Economics Department had a great deal to do with the making of that display, "therefore we would like to extend our appologies and give credit where credit it due."

The Industrial Education Display the top 10 models will be on display beginning April 6, 1966 in the Adrian Federal Savings and Loan window.

Science Fair and Youth Talent Display officials thank all the people involved in the making of the fair this year:

- Congressman Weston E. Vivian
- The Tecumseh Herald
- 20 judges — who came from Stauffer Chemical, the University of Michigan, Adrian Catholic Central, General Motors, Adrian College, Siena Heights and Adrian Elementary Schools.
- Tecumseh Products Co.
- General Motors
- Stauffer Chemical
- Gray Manufacturing Co.
- H. W. Tuttle Co.
- Leaders of the Art, Home Economics, Industrial Education and Science Departments.

"If anyone was left out we would like to thank them also," said a Fair official.

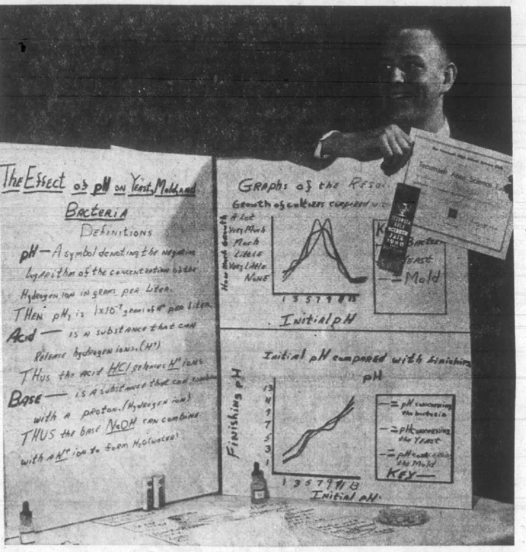
VIRGINIA DOLLISON CAPTURED BEST GIRL IN SHOW AWARD



BOB BELCHER EARNED A BLUE RIBBON WITH THIS EXPERIMENT

Franklin Residents Gather

TIPTON — The Annual meeting of Franklin Township was held Saturday, April 2, 1966, at 1:30 p.m. in the new township hall.

The financial report was read and approved. It was decided to use an amount not to exceed $100 for memorial decorations, etc.

The Civil War memorial will be 100 years old this coming July 4, a special service may be given in tribute to it and those who so worthily supported the cause.

A proposed salary increase for the supervisor from $1800 to $2200 was not acted upon.

A motion from the floor to use a recommended salary schedule from Michigan Townships Association was rejected by one vote.

The schedule is listed below:

- Supervisor $2,375 expenses up to $300.
- Clerk $1,225 expenses up to $100.
- Treasurer $1,250 expenses to $75.
- Trustees a per diem of $12.50 per each meeting attended.

It was then moved that the salaries be set at the following rates:

Supervisor $2,000.
Treasurer $1,400.
Clerk $950.

The motion carried by one vote. The above salaries included expenses.

The proposed budget was read and approved with the tentative salary rates to be adjusted.

Thomas Co. Employing 40 Persons

CLINTON — Six members were elected to the board of directors of the Thomas Co., and an increase in the capital stock was voted at the annual stockholders' meeting.

Named to the board are:

John C. Thomas — president and general manager

Waldo Papsdorf — vice-president of manufacturing

Martin Glenday — vice-president of engineering

Mrs. John Thomas — secretary and treasurer

Don Thomas, founder and former president of Clinton Engines.

James Moore of the sales department.

A state and federally-sponsored apprentice program was approved by the stockholders.

Mr. Glenday recently left the staff of Ford Motor Co., to head the engineering department. Mr. Glenday has previous experience with Clinton Engines Corp., and R. E. Phelon Co., of Longmeadow, Mass.

Thomas Co. employs 40 persons in the production of special cutting tools, tools and dies, jigs and fixtures, and production machinery.

The company also regrinds cutting tools.

CO-CHAIRMAN OF BABY CONTEST — Mrs. Charles Kapnick with Julie, (left) and Mrs. Roger Butler with her son, Jeffrey, are co-chairman for the annual baby contest sponsored by the Jaycee Auxiliary. The chairman stated Tuesday that any size picture up to a 5x7 may be submitted to them for the contest and the pictures will be returned. Ten- dollar gift certificates will be awarded the winners of the contest. Too bad the Kapnick and Butler children are not eligible.

Hold Annual County Cattle Tour Thursday

The 37th annual Lenawee County Cattle Tour will be held Thursday, April 14, at 9:30 a.m., with coffee and doughnuts at the first stop at the farm of Ezra Daniels and Sons, Carleton Rd., southwest of Adrian.

William K. Brown, Tecumseh cattleman, is president of the Lenawee County Cattle Feeders' Association which co-sponsors the cattle tour each year with the Cooperative Extension Service.

Area cattlemen can learn of many innovations in cattle feeding by taking part in the tour. This year's highlights will be: Liquid Manure Handling, Raising Replacement Feeders and New Feeding Methods.

At the Daniels' farm, visitors will see 390 steer calves, fence line feed bunks; pit silo; treated silage; luquid manure handling.

Stop two: Wayne Lipp, Ridgeville Rd.; 270 heifers laid in October and November; outdoor rollover auger feed bunk; steep slope concrete barnyard; supplemental silage storage under plastic; good parasite control.

Stop three: Morris Vanbrandt and Son, M-156; 164 yearlings laid in November from Kentucky, and 250 steer calves from Kentucky and Missouri; combination fence line and auger feeding; silage under plastic, floor auger for versatile feed handling.

Lunch catered at Stop three.

Stop four: Two States Farm, Dale Storer, M-120; Angus cow herd, registered and grade feeders fattened on same farm, hay silage and ear corn feeding program. Specialist will present facts on cow, calf, feeding programs on one farm.

Stop five: Jay Gould and Sons, Weston Rd.: 75 yearlings, 140 steer calves and 45 heifers from the south, west and northern Michigan. Sealed high moisture corn silo, rollover auger and chopped corn stalks for bedding.

The tour is by private cars and ample parking is provided at each location.

Among the specialists who will participate in the tour program will be Hugh E. Henderson, Beef specialist and Robert L. Maddex, Agriculture Engineer, both of Michigan State University.

The day's events will be climaxed at a banquet at 6:30 p.m. in Blissfield High School.

Bible Evangelist Speaking April 13

The Rev. H. B. Kelchner, Bible teaching evangelist, will be the speaker at the Tecumseh Assembly of God Wednesday, April 13, at 7:30 p.m.

His subject is "Living Your Christian Life Now in the Light of Eternity."

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

Michigan is America's water wonderland.

Our water resources exceed those of any other state, but with this rich endowment comes responsibility.

Michigan once was rich in virgin forests, but carelessness destroyed them. The judgment of succeeding generations will be harsh if Michigan's water wonderland is transformed by our neglect into a polluted water wasteland.

We have to be doubly vigilant — we have to become more concerned about how they are used — we have to be sure that we have good laws and enforcement to protect them, and that people get over the careless attitude that developed in the past because we have plenty of water.

TO HELP meet the challenge of water pollution, this administration has pressed vigorously for tighter state laws, strengthened state enforcement, effective interstate and federal action, adequate state planning, and completely new state financial assistance to local governments.

The State Water Resources Commission has adopted a fast-moving program of remedial action establishing time schedules and requirements to be met by 21 industries and 11 units of government which are now polluting the Detroit River and Lake Erie.

But this record of vigorous state action is only the beginning. More action is needed.

RECENTLY a Task Force on Water Rights, Use, and Pollution Control, which I appointed, submitted a series of major proposals. Twelve of them deal with problems of water pollution. Favorable action on my legislative program recommendations, together with administrative action already underway, will secure at least partial implementation of 11 of the Task Force's 12 pollution control proposals.

Of special importance, I recommend that the state begin a completely new program, unprecedented in Michigan history, for financial assistance to local units in controlling water pollution caused by their own disposal of municipal wastes.

At present, federal grants administered by the State Water Resources Commission will pay up to 30 percent of the cost of local sewage treatment facilities, with the remaining 70 percent of the cost to be borne locally. The Commission designates priority projects for federal assistance.

(Editor's note — Tecumseh's wastewater enlargement program currently underway is being done under this program).

THIS INITIAL new $1 million program for the first time would make state grants available to local units to supplement the federal grants. It would permit more local projects to be undertaken every year.

Also, I recommended again that the Legislature enact tax exemptions for industrial waste water treatment facilities, similar to the exemptions passed last year for air pollution control equipment.

I do not recommend reimursement by the state to make up for any resulting loss in local tax revenues because local units, as well as the state, have a stake in the purity of local water supply.

Clean water is an economic boon to local communities. A local unit's long range return from this new incentive for industry to upgrade waste disposal will more than offset immediate loss of local revenues, particularly when the incentive is coupled with vigorous state enforcement of industrial waste disposal standards.

MMPA Chef Lashes LBJ on Imports

DETROIT — "The highly touted 'Great Society' caters to the masses of voters in the cities, but it's a closed society to dairy farmers," Glenn Lake, President of the 10,000-member Michigan Milk Producers Association, said this week.

Mr. Lake's statement followed the most recent actions of the Administration to hold down milk prices by refusing to increase minimum Federal Order prices in Southern Michigan, and President Lyndon B. Johnson's directive to nearly triple cheese imports from other countries during the next three months.

Mr. Johnson also ordered the Tariff Commission to study the feasibility of quadrupling imports for the next year. The world price of cheese is about half the U. S. price.

Mr. Lake said, "The impact of this action is clear: It is an attempt to control prices of milk and dairy products by Presidential proclamation.

"It's cheese now, but it can be butter and butterfat next," he said.

Fred Randall Heads Drive for This Area

Fred Randall, 908 Red Mill Dr., has been named Tecumseh area chairman for the alumni phase of the current Adrian College development campaign.

The Tecumseh area includes all college alumni living in Tecumseh, Britton, Ridgeway and Tipton.

Known as "Action at Adrian," the program has set a goal of raising $1,500,000 to strengthen the college's endowment, general campus development, and academic and physical plant and equipment.

Through April 1, more than $478,000 had been pledged by members of the college family and by Adrian and Lenawee County businesses and individuals.

Servicemen in Vietnam Get Letters

Twelve members of the Shawnee Republican Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Ned Baldwin March 29.

The group undertook a project of writing letters to servicemen in Vietnam, offering encouragement and appreciation.

Each one attending took a single name from a list published last week in a Detroit paper.

The project serves as counter action to the draft-card burners, explained Mrs. Baldwin.

The March workshop Conference reports were given.

Adult Farmer Class Holds Final Meeting

The Tecumseh-Clinton Adult Farmer class will hold a final meeting Tuesday, April 12. All members of the class are requested to meet at Tecumseh High School, 9 a.m.

The group will tour the Massey-Furgason Tractor Plant, the Crown Packing Co., and Standard Beef.

All farmers planning to attend this all day tour should contact Paul Burns or John Jansen for reservations as soon as possible.

Fly Kites Safely

There is only one way to fly a kite.

According to Area Manager Lee Wetherby of Consumers Power Company's Jackson Division, that way is, safely.

"Each spring we ask youngsters to observe simple kite safety rules," he said. They are:

► Fly kites made of wood, paper or plastic, with no metal parts.

► Never fly kites in rainy or showery weather; lightning might hit.

► Fly kites with string, not with wire or metallic gift cord.

► Stay out of streets and roads with kites, as with any toy.

► If a kite lands high in a tree or on a wire or phone line, don't climb after it; leave it there. You might fall and get hurt.

Mr. Wetherby added that Consumers Power has distributed kite flying safety rules to a number of schools in the area, and that each year the company appeals for "kite [illegible]" in the hopes that there will be no unhappy incidents during late March and early April, Michigan's kite season.

"On the first day of spring this year, in Baltimore, a 39-year-old father was electrocuted when he flew a kite with thin copper wire, instead of string."

"The kite outing was a treat for his five-year-old son."

"The senseless tragedy need never have occurred. So we ask parents as well as children to remember there is only one way to fly a kite," Mr. Wetherby said. "And that's safely."

Methodists Dedicate New Baptism Bowl

BRITTON — A new baptismal bowl was dedicated at the Palm Sunday morning worship service, Grace Methodist Church. The bowl was presented by Larry Ash, in memory of his grandmother, Mrs. Florence Ash.

Susan Kay Every, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Every, Tipton, was baptized. She is a great-granddaughter of Mrs. Florence Ash.

Britton Juniors Present Arsenic

By SHERRY SQUIRES

Like many plays, the Junior Play, Arsenic and Old Lace, has a love interest angle. The young lovers, Mortimer Brewster and Elaine Harper, are played by Chug Brablec and Kathleen Cheever.

Mortimer, nephew to the two elderly Brewster ladies, is a play critic. Naturally, Elaine's father, the Rev. Harper, doesn't relish this aspect in a prospective son-in-law.

Little does Rev. Harper know that Elaine is not the ideal "preacher's daughter". She certainly is not the shy violet type.

The Brewster family also has a skelton in their closet in the form of the other nephew, Teddy. Teddy is suffering from delusions.

He thinks that he is Theodore Roosevelt — Rough Rider, President of the United States, and all.

Teddy persistently runs through the play yelling "Charge", brandishing a side-arm or two, and trying to negotiate with the other nations of the world.

His bugle also disrupts some of the more "serious" action of the play.

The play will be presented May 5 and 6 at the Britton-Macon gymansium and the public is welcome to attend. It is an unusual performance and an entertaining one.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Readers Wonder Who Did It

Several inquiries have reached The Herald about a paid political advertisement, which boosted five candidates for City Council in last week's edition.

We ran the ad and withheld the names of the sponsors, as they had requested. This will often happen when a group of citizens decides they'd like to back a person or persons for some political office.

Usually, it's on a state or national basis with a vast number of people, like Citizens for Goldwater or Americans for Democratic Action, putting up the necessary cash.

In this case, a group of local businessmen asked if they could purchase space to support five men, whom they felt would be good Councilmen. They asked that their names be withheld and The Herald complied.

We do the same thing with the "box classified." The person placing it — asking for someone to rent a home to, or for a secretary — wishes to go through applications and accept or reject the replies.

Quite often, someone will call us and ask, "Hey, who is looking for office help in the Box X ad?" We never reveal the name.

The only thing we can do is suggest the caller mail an application, which will be sent to the advertiser.

In the case of last week's political ad, we were following the same procedure.

However, there is a question that this was A-OK in the minds of some readers. For instance, a representative of a high school civics class called and wanted to know who was boosting the five men.

A lady dropped by to voice her disapproval that the sponsors were not identified. Another woman came by to "get the names of the candidates" The Herald had endorsed. (We hadn't.)

Maybe next time we should advise folks who wish to support local political hopefuls to sign their advertising. TAR

Reviewers Can Relax Now

Well, the Taxation Board of Review can relax now.

Last week was a busy time for the three-member group. They heard a record 150 taxpayers, who didn't like or understand their new valuations.

Boardmen made some changes, all but two downward. Forty-one real estate and 14 personal property taxpayers found their appeals to the board pay off in a drop from the proposed valuation.

However, two who came with personal property kicks, discovered that when their inventories were more carefully examined, the valuations had to be increased over the first figures. Better they had stayed home.

All told, the changes amounted to less than $100,000, explains Larry Goddard, city assessor, who is presently buried in a maze of figures and won't have the exact total until the end of the week.

Top priority for Mr. Goddard at the present is getting all city valuation figures to the State Tax Commission.

As we mentioned in last week's editorial, the aim of Tecumseh officials is to bring local valuations even with state equalized figures. This objective has been realized.

Thus, the new local valuation of $26.1 million is within a few dollars of what the state says we're worth.

Mr. Goddard points out that if any of the 150 property owners, who appeared before the Tecumseh board, are not satisfied with the local decision, they can appeal to the State Tax Commission in Lansing, having until May 2 to do so. TAR

One, by One, By One

"I won't bother. My one vote doesn't mean a thing," a few billion people have said on one election day or another.

Probably, the comment was made a number of times Monday around Tecumseh when five Councilmen were being selected.

After checking the final returns, can anyone say a single vote doesn't mean a thing?

Three men were separated by a total of six votes. Only one was able to make the grade — and Lawrence Mohr, no doubt, breathed a sigh of happiness that 366 people cared, especially those final three.

At the same time, defeated hopefuls Buzz Betzoldt (363) and T. J. Wagner (360) were probably wondering why a couple more folks couldn't have turned out to support them in the race.

The moral: always vote. Your ballot does count. TAR

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

This is an open letter to James T. Kelleher, Deputy Director of Public Affairs, Office of Economic Opportunity, Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Kelleher:

An attempt is currently being made to seek a renewal of the "Willow Village" anti-poverty program that was imposed upon a portion of Ypsilanti Township in Washtenaw County last year.

I was but one of many journalists who felt compelled to bring this matter to public attention. But since my efforts, done on assignment for True Magazine, were used as a pretext by your former public affairs chief Holmes Brown for wasting another $1,440 of anti-poverty funds on the secret hiring of an investigator named William C. Daffron in a futile attempt to refute what I wrote — a stunt that Sargent Shriver termed "a lousy thing to do" — I am making this effort to avoid further poverty-program scandal in advance.

In Ypsilanti Township, branded "an urban-fringe pocket of poverty" in countless OEO press releases, family income is currently somewhere between two and three times the national average, and real unemployment is less than 1%.

YET BACK in 1960, unemployment was very much a problem — not 30% as was reported to the OEO for the purpose of obtaining poverty funds, but very possibly half that amount.

The change that has since occurred can be credited largely to a determined six-year-long campaign on the part of Township Supervisor Roy Smith and other community leaders to attract industry and encourage business expansion. Now, when the new Gar Wood and St. Regis plants are completed, some 600 more will be employed in this area.

Yet ironically enough, at the very moment when the Ford Motor Co. was awarding a silver ground-breaking shovel to Mr. Smith for his extensive efforts in bringing in the new Rawsonville plant with its 2,000 jobs, a falsified report was being dispatched to the OEO on the basis of which a fringe institute at the University of Michigan was awarded a $188,252 poverty grant and Ypsilanti Township was awarded an undeserved poverty label. Can you question the need Supervisor Smith and others felt to challenge that label?

Unfortunately, national notice was focused on this matter too late, and a poverty program was permittd to proceed. Poverty officials had to search outside the alleged "pocket of poverty" for an unemployed person to fill a janitorial job, and the person found promptly stole the safe from the poverty office.

The poverty fighters began fighting among themselves, and the losers, from Director Gerald Foley to Co-ordinator Henry J. C. Alting, each condemned the entire program upon leaving as a total waste of public money — in even harsher terms than Supervisor Roy Smith had used,

The University of Michigan distastefully disassociated itself from the project.

But poverty funds had been spent, by then, on baton-twirling, cake-decorating and modern-dance classes, on reducing sessions for overweight women complete with slogans like, "Ladies! Don't Fry in Your Own Fat this Summer!" and on the building of a parade float and the staging of a chili-dog banquet honoring Congressman Weston Vivian.

It is small wonder that Mr. Vivian recently felt compelled to vote for an increase in the automobile excise tax. Someone has to pick up the tab for this sort of insanity.

Clearly enough, what was done with the poverty money is an even more shocking story than the details of the fraudulent way it was obtained, particularly for places like eastern Kentucky and western Georgia, where the ladies are in no danger whatsoever of frying in their own fat.

And if this deplorable program is prolonged, I feel safe in saying I won't be the only one writing that story, no matter how many private investigators you can afford to employ. So I hope you were sincere in your protestations that the Willow Village debacle was merely an unfortunate by-product of the OEO's fumbling infancy, and that your future efforts will be restricted to legitimate poverty areas.

Representative Notes Changes in New Law

TO THE EDITORS:

Because of the widespread concern in our area over the Construction Act passed during the last session of the Legislature, I am enclosing a copy of an explanation of the compromise to this legislation which passed both Houses yesterday and was signed by the Governor.

Other than the postponement of the effective date which was the issue brought out most often in the meeting held in Tecumseh a couple weeks ago, I think one of the best features of the agreement is that administrative rules will be promulgated by a council.

This council will be composed of eight people from the trades and businesses most concerned with this type of law and not left to bureaucratic decision which I feel has led to a great deal of the present confusion.

Rollo G. Conlin
State Representative
Lansing, Mich.

Senate Bill 813, passed by the legislature, given immediate effect and signed by Governor Romney, March 30th, 1966, does the following—

1—Postpones the licensing and bonding provision of the Residential Builders License Law until September 1, 1966.

2—Postpones the repeal of P. A. 208 (existing licensing law in some nine counties) until August 31, 1966.

3—Creates a State Residential Builder's and Maintenance and Alteration Contractors Board consisting of 3 licensed Residential Builders, 1 licensed Maintenance and Alteration Contractor, 2 who are contractors in the construction trades (probably 1 electrical and 1 plumbing contractor), 1 representing the building supply industry and 1 representing the building trades unions for a total of 8. The terms of office will be for three years, however, the terms will be staggered to begin with. The board members shall serve without salary, but shall have their actual expenses taken care of as may be provided by law.

4—The board will work under the supervision of the Director of the Department of Licensing and Regulation but the Director is an ex-officio member only. The board further has the power to "elect such officers as it deems necessary".

5—Rather than merely an advisory board, this "Board Shall Promulgate Rules and Regulations setting standards of conduct, performance, Qualifications and fitness of applicants; Examination of applicants; conduct of investigations; settlement of complaints; and disciplinary procedures.

6—All rules and regulations promulgated by the board shall be subject to approval by a joint legislative committee under Act No. 88 of the Public Acts of 1943 as amended in 1948, and Act No. 197 of the Public Acts of 1952 as amended.

7—Finally, "the board shall prescribe, by rules and regulations the amount, conditions, form and sufficiency of the bond which shall not be less than $2,000 nor more than $10,000 under the law."

Vietnam Vet Signs for Paper

TO THE EDITORS:

Enclosed is a check to renew my subscription to The Herald.

Since I have returned from Vietnam I have enjoyed reading the paper every week. You do such a fine job covering the local news. I am very interested in what is going around Tecumseh.

I am now stationed at Fort Belvoir, Va. I am an instructor at the Engineer Officer Candidate School here.

Keep up the good news coverage and keep my papers coming.

Kiwanis Club Thanks Those Who Helped

TO THE EDITORS:

Judging from the comments put forth by Mrs. Rentschler in her letter, which appeared in last week's Herald, I believe the recent forum on Medicare can be considered a success.

Many thanks to her and all the other citizens of the Tecumseh area who took the time to attend and participate in the meeting.

It is this kind of response which encourages all community organizations to give more of themselves as the opportunity arises.

This public service project could not have been possible, however, without the cooperation and assistance of other people in the community who contributed more than a little to this project.

To the news media of which you are an integral part, the members of the panel and the recreation department, we express our sincere appreciation.

TO THE EDITORS:

Just a note of sincere thanks for helping me so greatly in the publicity of the Hospital Auxiliary luncheon. The ad and the "hand bills" were just perfect, but I was particularly happy with the picture and right on the front page no less.

Being a novice in the publicity field everything was so greatly appreciated, you made it so easy for me.

Thanks again and if I ever do anything like this again. I hope I can feel free to call on You.

Most sincerely,

More on Haircuts

TO THE EDITORS:

Enclosed is an article from the Grand Rapids Press, written by two high school students. I think this article should be of great interest to the parents of the students from Britton.

After reading the letter written to you by Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, concerning butch haircuts for the boys participating in sports, I was very upset and so felt compelled to write this letletter.

In part I agree with Mr. Vadasy. If the boys are wearing their hair too long then it should be a requirement that they have short haircuts, although, I don't think a butch should be specified.

On the other hand I feel this requirement shouldn't be for only the boys in sports. This ruling should be made by the school board to concern all the boys in school.

In Grand Rapids the school boards have ruled no long hair for all boys, no short hemlines for girls, plus no Granny dresses. They not only made the ruling, they carried it out. Believe me it's a pleasure to see the boys look like gentlemen and the girls like ladies.

Now for Mrs. Fairbank's comment on the student and parent morale being at an all-time low. For as long as I can remember this has been a problem. The parents complain, grumble, discuss and yes, "cuss" the teachers, school officials, board and system, but when it comes right down to the actual "put up or shut up", they choose to "shut up".

I truly believe it is high time the parents of Britton stand back and look long and hard first at themselves and then at the school system. Naturally, just looking won't do much good. Only true action and togetherness can solve problems.

To me this business of the boys' haircut is a very insignificant problem compared to the other problems that plague the Britton school system. But maybe this one small thing will be the "straw that breaks the camel's back" and the parents will wake up and demand their children get the best education there is to be offered and be a little less concerned on this business of the haircut.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Dana Mitchell
(nee Ruth Ann Bryan)

The article is reprinted as follows:

Dear Ele and Walt: I've waited and waited but so far you've made no comment on the great hair debate of 1966. So, on behalf of the other Date-Line readers I'll put the question to you: Do you think boys and men have a right to wear their hair as they please, or should society be able to freely wield the clipping shears of conformity? — Samson.

Dear Samson: As we see it, a self-supporting man has a right to set his own standards of dress and grooming — as long as he doesn't endanger the safety of others. But a driver to try to see through a curtain of sheepdog bangs is dangrous. Ditto the pedestrian who steps into the crosswalk with hair blinders obscuring his peripheral vision, or the machine operator whose stray locks might cause an industrial accident.

But take note of the self-supporting qualification. If parents or society are supporting you, they have a right to set certain pre-reqesites for this gift of food, clothing and shelter. Thus for a man to go on relief because he can't get a job with his Beatlebob, seems to us an immoral action. The same goes for a teenager who shames his parents by wearing a hair style that's unacceptable in their social strata but still expects use of the car, a good wardrobe and spending money. — Ele and Walt.

No 'Little Napoleons'

TO THE EDITORS:

When the letter concerning Britton athletes' hair cuts first appeared in The Herald a couple of weeks ago I had every intention of writing a letter in support of Mrs. Fairbank's contentions.

Then, as often happens, I simply didn't take time to sit down and write.

However, since the letter in opposition from Mrs. Collins and the one purported to express the view of the baseball team in support of the coach, I feel constrained to take the time to express my ideas on the subject.

I fully agree that athletes should have their hair short enough so as not to be annoying to him while participating in any sport.

However, NO ONE, coach or anyone else, should attempt to be a "Little Napoleon" and dictate that the boys have a butch or not participate in sports. Who in blazes do these coaches think they are?

Teachers in general have been granted tenure so now, even though they aren't competent, to teach or coach, we are stuck with them.

But this is not enough for them. Now they want to dictate dress styles, hair styles, diet, curfew time, etc. etc., etc. On the other hand if a parent is overheard to say "I'll be glad when the kids are back in school" — they are accused of making the teachers into baby sitters.

It appears to me they are attempting to wield undue influence on our children.

At present I don't have a son in high school. My most sincere hope is that by the time my fifth grader is in high school the present coaching staff will have been replaced by some competent coaches who will treat the boys fairly and let them play according to their talent and not just because they are "teachers pet," while at the same time boys with talent and desire turn into "bench warmers."

I know Mrs. Collins to be a fair-minded person, so I feel sure she was not fully informed in regard to the dictum issued by Mr. Vadasy.

If she had been fully informed she might better have understood Mrs. Fairbanks' protest. Perhaps the coaches who her sons played under were able, wise and fair, so it is difficult for her to conceive of a situation in which a boy's freedom to think for himself has been usurped.

I'm sure all this letter writing will change nothing at Britton. However, it may give Mr. Vadasy some food for thought and help him to realize that the parents of Britton students will not stand by and see their sons pushed around.

Sincerely,
Gladys Prill,
Britton.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

In any business, there are always a few people who are different and fascinating. They know what they're talking about, they're anxious to help the people coming up, give them tips and advice.

Whether it's manufacturing tires or selling appliances, a few characters stand out in the field.

In the business of photojournalism, there's Charlie Haun, picture editor of the Detroit Free Press.

Charlie has been around the Motor City morning paper since the Year One. As city editor, about 15 years ago, he complained so much about the way pictures were being handled, the management installed him as photo editor.

The rest is history.

Charlie has done such an outstanding job that the Free Press has long been admired as one of the best examples of top-flight photojournalism.

To meet Charlie the first time can be a chilling experience. He's gruff, outspoken and looks mean. But he is a real gentleman, fascinated by the business of newspapering.

A couple of weeks back, he spoke at the annual Michigan Press Photographers convention and, as always, had some salient comments to make.

"Think," he told his audience.

Expressing the opinion that photographers have a great responsibility to come up with striking pictures, he urged the lensmen to keep their brains spinning with ideas.

BUT THE BEST part was Charlie's plea for photographers to keep taking pictures.

This may sound redundant, but there are lots of people who have the equipment and the talent, but don't take pictures.

Then they break out the gear some fine day and mess up what could be some fetching pictures. Reason: they're too rusty, too out of practice.

Surprisingly enough, this applies to a lot of working photographers as well as to the average guy with a camera.

Charlie's thought, like many of the bread-and-butter variety, is simple and basic.

Many of Charlie's ideas are like this — and the fellows taking pictures for him better believe it. He's not a cameraman himself and he has said on numerous occasions he doesn't care to know anything about taking pictures.

All he wants are good pictures for his newspaper. When a photographer lays a print on his desk, if it grabs Charlie, it will grab a million readers, he reasons.

When an ordinary shot appears — along with a bunch of excuses by the cameraman as to why he couldn't do better, like I ripped my pants climbing over a barbed wire fence and slipped in the mud — Charlie will be unmoved.

"I'm not interested in your problems. All I want is a great picture," he growls.

Either the guy will quit in a huff — or decide to become an expert.

Representative Weston E. Vivian will speak at a special meeting in the Tecumseh Community Center on Monday evening, at 8:30 p.m., a session arranged by the Lenawee County Democratic Committee. U. S. Senator Philip A. Hart will accompany Congressman Vivian and is also expected to speak. All interested area citizens are invited to attend.

City Budget Goes Up $50,000 for 1966-67

A tentative budget, up approximately $50,000 from the previous year, was presented to Council by City Manager Cal Zorn Monday night.

Anticipated expenditures for the 1966-67 fiscal year, starting July 1, is $707,095. Anticipated income is $697,119.

The current budget is $655,000, or $52,000 less than the proposed one, which must be approved by Council by May 9.

HUMP IS REMOVED — That roller coaster effect that motorists have long endured on Occidental Hwy., opposite Tecumseh Woodworking, is currently being corrected by a city crew. Dale Slusarki manned a front-end loader, which is cutting off three feet of the hump, with fill being hauled north to the dip area. When this job is completed, work will start on a sewer line. Occidental's roadbed will be sealed this fall.

Bulk of the increase is due to costs of expanding the sewage plant and salary increases. The sewage plant costs will be up about $25,000, and salary raises will cost $15,000.

Pay raises for all city employees amounted to approximately 10% of their present salaries.

If the budget is accepted in its present form, Tecumseh will operate on 11.6 mills on local assessed evaluations of an estimated $26,000,000.

In 1965, the city took 12.0 mills on assessments of $20,548,000.

A BREAKDOWN of anticipated expenditures is:

► General operation, including police and fire departments — $248,326.

► Highway — $185,005.

► Cemetery — $20,030.

► Auto parking — $14,355.

► Wastewater plant — $36,816.

► Parks and recreation — $46,108.

► Sinking fund — $16,650.

► Water department — $86,070.

► Expansion fund — $41,735.

► Special assessment — $12,000.

IN HIS report to Council, Mr. Zorn cited accomplishments achieved during the past year:

► Completion of Evans Creek Interceptor sewer and a lift station for the N. Union St. area.

► Solution to the storm water problem in southwest Tecumseh.

► Construction started at the wastewater plant.

► Improvements in street lighting and street signs.

► Local assessments brought in line with state laws.

► Complete study of water system.

► Comprehensive planning, contour maps, etc.

He also informed Councilmen that the proposed budget did not include major expenditures for a solid waste disposal area, Globe Mill Pond interceptor sewer, garbage, fire station, park improvements, replacement or relocation of the Blood Rd. bridge, and water improvements.

FINALLY, SPRING HAS ARRIVED — It's official now, folks, as this picture indicates, with baseballs flying at the Athletic Field. Rick Filber is connecting with one of Sheldon Pease's pitches as Henry Mensing crouches behind the plate. Sheldon and Henry are expected to be the opening battery when Tecumseh High School meets Milan Tuesday in Huron League play. Details page 6.

On, Off Stage, He's Show Biz

Ed Mengerink, acting as technical director and set chief, reports that all is going well in preparing the stage for the Tecumseh Players play, "Mary Mary".

He has experience backstage, starting by building the set on stage at the Strand for "You Can't Take it With You."

He has worked in some capacity backstage on almost every play. He was on stage in "Born Yesterday," "Pajama Game", "Solid Gold Cadillac" and most recently as the police detective in "Guys and Dolls".

The technical director is in charge of all backstage operations. These include lighting, props, set and costumes. These committees must work closely together to create a color scheme that is harmonious.

Ted Pihl is working to create various lighting effects, and helping him is Rick Skinner.

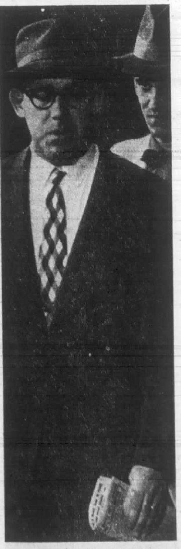
Betty Steele has been busy gathering props and furniture. Her helpers are: Sharon Jones, Sue Lamb and Judy Sherwood.

Joyce Schneider is the costume mistress, and Cynthia Frayer will be on hand to help with make up.

Helping build the set and paint it with enthusiasm were Roland Von Kalor, Howard Furry, Ted Broderick, Ray Aylesworth, Frank Dalton, Dr. Richard Hammell, Robert Bagdon, Howard Gentry, Keith Tucker, Dick Carver, Mike Brose, Peg Geiger, and Bill DePuy.

The set will be on a stage built in the glass room at the Community Center. Among the problems of this set was trying to include five necessary doors, a window, closet and stage space on a very limited area.

There will be six performances of "Mary, Mary" starting April 21. Tickets are available at Wrights Drug, Flanders, and Colonial House of Beauty. For reservations call 423-7375.



Ed Mengerink has long been one of the Tecumseh Players' busiest members during productions, both on stage and behind scenes. The Herald camera caught him here during "Guys and Dolls," as he portrayed Lt. Brannigan. Sneering over his shoulder is Dennis Bryan. For "Mary, Mary," Ed will be technical director, meaning he's responsible for everything backstage.

Driver Hits Parked Car

Five accidents were investigated by the Tecumseh police during the past week, and none of the mishaps was serious.

A resume is:

April 5 — Carol Susan Harvey, 21, of 514 W. Chicago Blvd., backed across Adrian St. into a parked car owned by Robert M. Powell, 17, S. Occidental Rd. Mrs. Harvey was charged with improper backing.

April 7 — Raymond L. Pate, 29, Ridgeway, was cited for improper passing when he struck the rear of a truck driven by Charles N. Veneros, 19, Hudson, on E. Chicago Blvd. Veneros also was cited for driving without a chauffer's license.

April 9 — Everett J. Cilley, 26, Adrian, was charged with failure to stop within an assured clear distance after running into James E. Hickok, 30, Adrian, who was making a left turn into Wilson Motor Sales.

April 11 — Murell W. Clark, 56, of 302 N. Van Buren and Frank E. Rigden, 23, Pittsford, bumped in the intersection of Ottawa and E. Logan St. Rigden had planned to make a left turn, instead started through the intersection. Neither was cited.

April 11 — Minor D. Jones, 16, of 1201 Willow St., lost control of his car on N. Occidental Rd. and rolled over. He was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital for treatment. Jones was charged with failure to have his car under control and for not having an operator's license.

14 Teachers Resign

Fourteen Tecumseh school teachers have turned in their resignations, effective at the end of this term.

Supt. James McDowell reports that the number leaving is about average.

Teachers leaving are, High school: James Bedford, Richard Chatters, Ann Farrah, John Fennell, Gail Kummings and Karen Smith.

Junior High: Ed O'Hare.

Elementary: Marilyn Baker, Sally Cayce, Dolores Colson, Marilyn Aylesworth, Gloria Jadwin, Vernita Sanders and Arlene Swaney.

Income Tax Forms Due Before 5

"All income tax forms must be deposited before 5 p.m., Friday, at boxes at the Post Office and in the two in the business district to carry an April 15 postmark," said Jack Metcalf Tuesday.

The postmaster said that all boxes in the residential area will be collected as posted on the box, some at 2 and 3 p.m. and some even earlier.

• Decorating Center

By MAXINE CALHOUN

A three-day Grand Opening will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday in The Decorating Center, 140 W. Chicago Blvd.

The new shop, which opened in November, is co-owned by Earl Salomonson of Adrian, Harvey Frankhouse of Monroe and Darrell (Bill) Lent of Adrian.

"The Decorating Center" will offer a wide selection of Armstrong Floor coverings, Mohawk carpets and Stylon ceramic tiles and will provide installation.

A wide range of decorator wallpaper may be selected by browsing customer.

A variety of Dutch Standard, Lowe Bros. and Kem Products paints are available.

The store also features a complete line of artist supplies, also does custom framing. Local artists have been invited to display their paintings at the Center.

HARVEY FRANKHOUSE, manager of the Tecumseh store, lives in Monroe, but is anxious to move to Tecumseh. He and his wife have three children.

He has been in the painting and contracting business for 25 years.

Mr. Frankhouse said, "The way people have accepted us in Tecumseh is really terrific."

Visitors from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Grand Opening days will receive free hot dogs and coffee. The store will be open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. for the opening days.

• Kustom Kraft Draperies

By DOROTHY GRIGG

"It just happened," said Mrs. Doug Hall Tuesday when asked how she got started in draperies — ending up as owner of the Kustom Kraft Draperies shop.

Jean had a friend in Ypsilanti, who worked in yards and yards of luscious fabric. When visiting with her, Jean usually found it necessary to help with the sewing.

First thing she knew, she pricked her finger and the thrill of making gorgeous hangings went racing through her blood.

After sewing with shops in Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor, Jean attended a school for interior design in Toledo and since then has had nine years of experience making custom-made draperies.

There'll be a Spring showing at her business place Friday and Saturday, 9 to 9, with refreshments and door prizes.

"BY CUSTOM MADES, we mean handmade especially for an individual window. We go into the home and measure each window to guarantee exact fit and then we do the installation to make sure they are just right," Jean explained.

The business started small. Gradually the Halls realized the vast potential and the family moved from their Murray Dr. residence to 116 S. Evans St. in 1960, giving Jean more work area.

Continued growth dictated enlargement of facilities. This winter a 15'-35' foot showroom was added to the front of the residence and shop combination with a 10'-12' office at the side.

'The Exiles' Will Appear at Teen Club

The Tecumseh Teen Club and Clinton Youth are co-sponsoring a dance, Saturday night, from 8:30 to 11:30 at the Community Center, Tecumseh.

Featured are "The Exiles" an Adrian group that has appeared in the Tecumseh area and at Green's Pavilion, Devils Lake.

Members of the Teen Clubs must bring membership cards to receive the special 50 cent rate. All others gain admission for 75 cents.

The newly redecorated Teen Club will be the center of Saturday nights "Action".

Caddies Can Sign on Friday

The Tecumseh Country Club proshop will hold job interviews for prospective caddies for the summer golfing season.

Boys, 14 and over, interested in caddying should report to the Pro at 10 a.m. Friday.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

Kathy Hall wrote a letter last week, pleading for some consideration to girls softball activities. One sentence was printed incorrectly. It should have been, "Mr. Moffatt tells me the girls may not use the field until 8 p.m. on any evening." We're sorry to have run it wrong, but even more sorry the gals can't make connections on a place to play.

A new cartoonist makes his debut this week in The Herald. He's Spencer Curtis, 216 W. Logan St. and a Tecumseh High School freshman, who'll be making contributions from time to time.

An Adams among the Dickinsons. Too late for addition to the regular copy about the Presbyterian Father and Son banquet came the information that Dr. William Adams would be the toastmaster for the event April 18 at the church. The Dickinsons are Fred E, who will give tribute to the sons and Tim who will respond and Grandfather Fred C. who is going to lead the singing.

Now Soapy wants Jerry to quit as Detroit Mayor and be a full-time campaigner. Real interesting. If memory serves correctly, ole Soapy never was troubled by being an office-holder at the same time he was running for election. Fact is, he has been campaigning steadily all his adult life. We told you this was going to be a merry primary.

✓

"Teenagers, look wilder, dress wilder and act wilder because parents are imitating them," so sez Patrice Gaunder, America's Junior Miss, just retired. Sort of explains some things in this topsy-turvy world, doesn't it?

Sorry to see that the Brooklyn Exponent's chief assistant exponent, Holly Rothfuss, wasn't able to glean anything from the circular file last week. Surely an old map or something was laying around unused.

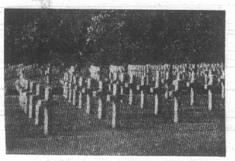
A bulletin board at Tecumseh Products carried a poignant clip from a trade magazine. It cuts deeply into some current world attitude towards our nation.



"Yankees go home!"

"But these Yankees, who saved the very nation now screaming this contemptible demand — these Yankees whose country's gold rebuilt those nations . . . these Yankees can't go home."

The Easter bunny didn't forget residents at Maple Lane Manor this year. Thirty-two pound cans of candy left from a recent sale of the Ridgeway-Macon PTA was donated by the committee and found its way to the Manor via rabbit cart with Mrs. Franklin Schroeder and her kiddies.

Requests are coming all the way from Belfast, Ireland, for picture postcards of Tecumseh, biggest little town on earth. The John Costellos and their five children have returned to the states for a visit from Red Roofs Upper Gallaway and wanted some cards to send friends there. Just as soon as Thomas O'Riordan gets delivery on the first eight scenes from a color printing house in New York, we will be sending a set of cards to the Emerald Isle for the Costellos. Cards will be available about May 15 at Tecumseh drug and dime stores.

Peanuts isn't going to be a regular feature with us. The panel you see on our editorial page this week was summarily swiped from the Free Press.

"The case of Mr. Bailey's missing bell, from his Shoe Repair Shop was solved. I am glad I had a share in the case, by telephoning your office I started the whole thing to a happy conclusion," writes Mrs. Herman Schanz of Macon.

Tecumseh's Rotary Club Safety-Check story will be on the air Monday at 10 a.m., over WLEN-FM. That's Betty Flander's show, "The Tecumseh Spotlight."

Will someone please help Bud McEnroe? He can't remember the Chicago Cubs' top pitcher when the Tigers played the Windy City crew in the 1935 World Series. He can tick off the Detroit lineup, but is stopped on the Cub hurler.

And now do you see what an opening day Tiger victory does to guys like Bud? The next thing he'll be reserving Series seats for this October.

Back steps of the Charles Staples residence at 1202 Shady Lane certainly are jinxed. Wednesday morning as Mrs. Staples returned to her home she was shocked to find two men blasting away at the porch.

Their amazement equaled hers when they found out that they should have been working at 1206 Shady Lane, the Jesse Nichols property.

"If I had stayed away all day, they would have had our new family room foundation all in," said Mrs. Staples.

This is the second time the Staples steps have been in jeopardy. The late Oscar Meads almost removed the steps in error a year ago.

WELCOME TO KUSTOM KRAFT DRAPERIES — Mrs. Douglas Hall is ready to greet open house visitors over the weekend at her newly-remodeled business establishment. Newly-installed red carpeting as well as a filled coffee pot and cookies are in readiness for the guests. Free gifts and a drawing will highlight the open house and spring showing at the drapery shop, lovely with a multitude of decorating ideas.

Jean's husband, Doug, is in engineering at Peerless Gear. He has been Jean's biggest booster in her business and she gratefully admits that he "puts up with her odd hours."

These are made necessary by Jean's willingness to talk home decorating problems with customers at their convenience, not hers.

Home for Easter. Jim and Judy Vanzo with their kiddies, Mark and Michelle, moved back to their W. Chicago home just the day before Easter from the little trailer home at Lee Villa Mobile Court.

Fire Nov. 29, starting in the chimney, did extensive damage to the residence but it's all only a bad memory now. Judy is so pleased with the new wainscotting, false ceiling beams and the new brick Colonial fireplace. She still can't quite forget her chagrin when carpenters suggested that the cupola be torn down.

"Why, that was the reason we bought the place," she said again indignantly Tuesday.

Osborne Purchases TV Store

Some changes are planned for Osborne's Department Store.

Mrs. James Osborne has purchased the next door building, which currently houses Lawson TV.

She plans to take over the 20'x20' area May 1 and will have a new front put on it.

Mrs. Osborne will move her shoe department there when remodel work is completed.

Purchase was made from Mrs. Catherine Carey, formerly of Tecumseh and now a resident of Lansing.

Mrs. Osborne explains that she will no longer rent what is now the western section of her store, owned by Mrs. Duane Service, who has an apartment over it.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lawson, who operate the television shop, are hopeful of locating another spot in Tecumseh. At present, they are running a sale on their merchandise.

Knisely Twins Fly to Chicago

Pat and Pam Knisely, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Knisely, made their First Communion, Holy Thursday, at St. Elizabeth Church.

For their First Communion gift from their parents, the girls enjoyed their first plane ride from Metropolitan Airport to O'Hare Field, Chicago where they were met by their grandmother, Mrs. F. W. Balk.

ROBERT C. HLAVIN

Bob Hlavin Is Promoted

WARREN — The appointment of Robert C. Hlavin to the position of plant superintendent of the Tecumseh Fisher Body plant, was announced today by Glenn W. Wiegand, general manufacturing manager for Fisher Body Division of General Motors.

He succeeds Dominic E. Conklin, who was recently named plant manager.

Mr. Hlavin joined Fisher Body in 1943 as a sample engineer at Euclid, O. He attended Ohio State University and in 1944, he enrolled in General Motors Institute as a cooperative student with the Cleveland plant.

He graduated from GMI in 1948, and in 1949 was assigned as a junior process engineer in the engineering department at the Cleveland assembly facility.

After a series of promotions, he was made a senior production engineer in 1952.

Mr. Hlavin was transferred to Fisher Body General Offices in 1964, as a senior process engineer and was assigned to the new Tecumseh facility in 1965, as plant enginer.

In January, 1966, he was promoted to superintendent of the trim fabrication operations.

He is married and the father of three children.

Club Will Meet

The Franklin Hobby Club will meet April 21, 7:30 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Lois Echelbarger, W. Munger Rd.

$1.2 Million Allocated for Schools

LANSING — The Michigan Department of Education today allocated $1.2 million to 159 school districts, colleges and universities for purchase of equipment used in vocational education programs.

Lenawee County will receive $30,538 for seven communities.

Britton — $1,835.
Clinton — $7,160.
Tecumseh — $4,870.
Addison — $4,349.
Adrian — $6,457.
Morenci — $4,650.
Onsted — $1,217.

The Department is distributing a total of $10.6 million in state and federal vocational education funds this year compared to $7.3 million last year.

The equipment allocation—all federal funds—must be matched on a 50-50 basis by the schools.

Cantata Greatly Enjoyed

By GIN MURRAY

Members of the Britton Congregational Christian Church had good reason to be proud of their beautiful church, and their talented congregation on Good Friday evening.

Highlight of the cantata, "No Greater Love," by John Peterson, sung by the joint choirs of the church.

The Junior and Senior choirs brought great joy to their parents, brothers and sisters, members of the congregation, and music lovers, who were delighted to be asked to share this memorable evening.

THE CHOIRS showed months of practice. They enunciated beautifully, did not sing too loud, as large groups are inclined to do, they held their heads high, and their choir books low, their faces were scrubbed and shining above their beautiful blue and gold choir robes. All in all, they sang like angels.

The solos were well done, but the duet by the pastor, the Rev. and Mrs. G. O. Hannevik was particularly memorable.

All those who were present at the Britton Church have a ready answer to the question "Is God Dead?", and God himself would probably have answered, "Not quite, and my favorite number was the last, when the entire congregation joined in singing, 'The Old Rugged Cross'."

ONLY HOURS before he died on the cross, Jesus told his disciples, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

No one who heard it will forget the oft-repeated theme,

"No greater love, no greater love,
There is no greater love, nor could there be,
Than God's great love,
Love he revealed through Christ at Cavalry,
No greater love, no greater love,
This glorious theme we'll sing eternally."

It is sincerely hoped that the combined choirs of the Britton Congregational Church, under the able guidance of Rev. and Mrs. Hannevik will do just that!

Treasurer — Mrs. C. O. Baily

Outgoing president Mrs. Orville Bishop presided when the date for the Mother-Daughter banquet was set for May 12.

The members voted to give $50 to the Lenawee Migrant Ministry Fund.

A love gift of $23 was received and dedicated by Mrs. Floyd Bryan.

Mrs. Charles Beland was in charge of the White Cross dedication assisted by Mrs. Bryan, Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. Lillian Hoagland.

"The Unseen Instrument" was the title of the installation service.

Mrs. Hal Kelso and committee served a molded spring salad from a table centered with spring bouquets.

Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. French presided at the urns.

OBITUARIES

● MRS. ALWINA SPIEGEL PRIELIPP

Services will be held Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the Immanuel Lutheran Church, North Blissfield for Mrs. Alwina Prielipp, 75, of 3385 S. Britton Rd. who died early Wednesday morning at Herrick Memorial Hospital where she was admitted Tuesday noon.

Born Jan. 16, 1891, in the N. Blissfield area, she was the daughter of Karl and Ernestine Spiegel.

Mrs. Prielipp married Albert Prielipp in 1922. He survives.

She as a life member of the Immanuel Lutheran Church, belonged to the Friendship Circle and was for many years a Sunday School teacher.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Prielipp is survived by one son, Carl of rural Dundee and five grandchildren.

Three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Huenke of Birmingham, Mrs. Fred Pagel and Mrs. Barbara Fischer of Blissfield and a brother, George Spiegel of North Blissfield also survive.

She was preceded in death by two brothers, one sister and a grandchild.

Pastor Daniel Mathes will officiate and burial will [illegible] in the Spiegel Cemetery, North Blissfield.

Friends may call at Niblack Home For Funerals.

600 Expected

"We must explore the values and goals that are appropriate for youth for living in tomorrow's world," says Dr. Donald N. Michael, author of The Next Generation.

Currently a Resident Fellow at the Institute for Policy Research, Washington, D.C., Dr. Michael will be the Tuesday keynote speaker at the Michigan Council of Cooperative Nurseries 15th annual conference, East Lansing, May 9 and 10.

This year's meeting at MSU's Kellogg Center for Continuing Education is expected to draw over 600 nursery school parents and teachers from all parts of the state.

Dr. J. Clayton Lafferty, Detroit Consulting Psychologist will speak at the Monday dinner meeting on "Values That Defeat Learning," to complete the conference theme of "Today's Child — Tomorrow's World.'

Other highlights include area nurserys exhibits, nursery equipment.

Duguid Named to Siena Post

Ben Duguid, recently appointed Director of Public Relations at Siena Heights College, will assume his new work, April 15.

Resigning his position as Public Affairs Manager of the Allstate Insurance Company, held since June, 1963, Mr. Duguid comes to the Siena post with wide experience in public relations.

Mr. Duguid, the first layman to hold the Public Relations position, resides in Northville, with his wife, three daughters, and a son. He is a native of Northville, where he received his elementary and high school education.

After graduation from Albion College, where he received a degree in Business Administration, he entered the U.S. Air Force in World War II. He spent two and one-half years in the European theater.

He entered the service of the Allstate Insurance Company in 1947 as an underwriter, then as agent in sales work. In 1949, he became the District Sales Manager of the firm in charge of Ohio.

Promotion to Customer Relations Manager in 1951 brought him back to Michigan. His appointment as Public Relations Manager, 1954, was followed by the Public Affairs Management in 1963 — the position held until the present time.

He was a member of Governor George Romney's Special Commission on Traffic Safety. He acted on the Curriculum Committee of the State Department of Public Instruction.

He is the past president and member of the Board of Directors of the Michigan Safety Conference. At present he is on the Board of Directors and Secretary of the Greater Detroit Safety Council.

As a full-time Director of Public Relations at Siena Heights, Mr. Duguid will direct communications and aid in the development of the College. As assistant to the president, Sister M. Petronilla, he will aid in the promotion of loyalty, support, and interests between Siena Heights and its publics.

This will include publicity through the media of programs, TV, radio, advertisements, publications, meetings, and contracts.

BEN DUGUID

CANCER DRIVE KICK-OFF BREAKFAST — Volunteers for the Cancer Drive in Tecumseh heard an informative talk Monday morning given by Ralph Pickett of Lansing, director of professional information and service. They also were shown a film on cancer narrated by Gregory Peck. Grace Christian, secretary of the Lenawee Cancer Board, Mrs. Guy Cyr and Mrs. Crone, also of the Board, were present. Mrs. Lloyd Stites and Mrs. Richard Eisenminger, co-chairmen of the Tecumseh drive, distributed materials to the workers. Coffee was served at the VFW Hall by Auxiliary members, along with rolls donated by Van's Bakery.

AREA OBITUARIES

● HENRY LEWIS KELLEY

Services will be held Friday at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church for Henry L. Kelley, 90, who died at Maple Lane Manor Monday where he had been living for the last three years.

Mr. Kelley was born Feb. 16, 1876, at Hicksville, Ohio.

A former foundry worker, he had made his home in Tecumseh for many years and had been in failing health since 1961.

He was a member of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. Howard Sanders of Bucyrus, Ohio, Mrs. Max Morden of Clinton, Mrs. Ogland Lay, 215 W. Brown, Mrs. Christine Coffey, Green Hwy., and Mrs. Irene Woodcox, 503 S. Pearl St.; five sons, John of Perry, Gerald of Pinckney, Owen and Thomas, both of Mark Center, Ohio, and Henry L. Kelley Jr., of Coldwater; several grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren.

Three sisters, Mrs. Charles Wonderly of Mark Center, Mrs. Clarence Cousino of Toledo and Mrs. Eleanor Shafer of Hicksville, Ohio also survive.

Mr. Kelley was preceded in death by both of his wives, a son, two brothers and five sisters.

The Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins will officiate and burial will be in Brookside Cemetery.

The Rosary will be recited Thursday evening at 8 p.m. at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home.

● MRS. SIDNEY WILSON

Services were held Monday at Proctor Funeral Home for Mrs. Sidney Wilson, 76, 217 Herrick Park Dr., who died on admittance to Herrick Memorial Hospital Friday after she had collapsed at her home.

A graduate of Tecumseh High School, she married Sidney Wilson Sept. 7, 1910.

Mr. Wilson died July 9, 1965.

Mrs. Wilson was a member of the Daughter of St. Peter's Church, the Pythian Sisters and the Monday Club.

She is survived by two sons, Robert, 217 Herrick Park Dr., and Harold, 1010 Red Mill Dr., and two grandchildren.

The Rev. Frank Hawthorne officiated and burial was in the Brookside Cemetery.

● MRS. DONALD L. SWEET

Services were held Saturday at the Everiss Funeral Home in Adrian for Mrs. Donald Sweet, 74, who died Thursday at Bixby Hospital where she had been a patient for two weeks.

Mrs. Sweet was born April 12, 1891, in Franklin Township and attended the Tipton School.

She married Mr. Sweet May 20, 1909, in Windsor, Ont.

Mr. Sweet was a member of the Tipton Church and Madison Grange.

In addition to her husband she is survived by five daughters, Mrs. George Koradjian of Detroit, Mrs. Beatrice Hand of Adrian, Mrs. Clifford Sanderson, of Bridgewater, Mrs. Donna Jean Lott of Winterhaven, Fla., and Mrs. Leroy Ford of Ann Arbor; four sons, Arthur of Clinton, Raynor, Ives Rd., and Lester, 208 Adrian St., and Percy Swreet of Adrian; 34 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren.

Two daughters, Gloria and Doris Sweet, and three brothers and two sisters preceded her in death.

Burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

● FRANK R. DANIELS

Frank Daniels, 63, an employee of the Gray Manufacturing Co., died Sunday in Bixby Hospital where he had been a patient for five days.

An Adrian resident, Mr. Daniels had been employed by the company since it was known as Schwarze Electric Co. in Adrian.

He is survived by his wife, five daughters and one son, 23 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Burial was in the Madison Cemetery.

● JOHN RODNEY MILLER

Graveside services were held Wednesday afternoon at Brookside Cemetery for John R. Miller, infant son of John and Susan Poley Miller, who died at birth Tuesday evening at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Survivors include grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Poley and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller, all of Tecumseh.

Arrangements were made by the Green-Dunn Funeral Home.

The Rev. Donald Porteous officiated.

Larry Bemis Ticketed in Accident

Larry Bemis, 21, of 9750 Clinton Rd., was treated at Bixby Hospital, Adrian, for injuries received Monday morning when his car ran through a stop at the M-52 and Austin Rd., intersection near Manchester. The Bemis car struck a road sign and ran down an embankment.

The mishap occurred at 6:13 a.m. Washtenaw County Sheriff's officers ticketed Bemis for driving too fast for fog conditions on the highway.

Missionary Has Message

By KATHRYN M. SOMMERS

"A missionary has a message," said the lady with sparkingly alive brown eyes and short graying hair. She is Mrs. Harold Berk, Blissfield, veteran of nine years of mission work in the interior of Brazil.

Mrs. Berk spoke for the second annual Lenten Brunch at the Tecumseh Friends Church, Saturday morning, April 10. The event, sponsored by the ladies of the Missionary Society, was attended by nearly 50 members and guests.

The tables were decorated in shades of yellow and lavender to carry out the theme, "Showers of Blessing." The favors were small floral umbrellas made from egg shells.

MRS. BERK and her husband serve with Missionary Aviation Fellowship (MAF). MAF is known as a "servant of missions" because it aids mission stations in problems of transportation and communication.

Its trained pilots use Cessna 180's to supply these mission posts with food, medicine and equipment.

The Berks work with a Mennonite mission in Brazil, 500 miles from the nearest large city. Their plane is an air taxi, allowing the missionaries to snatch extra time for their work by eliminating the slow travel of the river or jungle trails.

WORKING WITH Indian tribes in Brazil, Mrs. Berk makes good use of her education. As a registered nurse she runs a dispensary, delivers babies and orders medicines for the outposts.

As a college graduate with teaching certification she conducts a school for missionary children — her own as well as others.

She must instruct these children so that when they are on furlough in the United States they can enter grade level without serious problem.

Communicating enthusiasm to her audience, Mrs. Berk gave highlights of life in Brazilian jungles. She mentioned the simplicity of housekeeping for the Indian.

Primitive laundry facilities in the nearest river or stream, meager meals of rice, beans, fish and beef, very few furniture items to care for and the tropical heat (60 degrees is the coolest night) all point up this simplicity.

With their four daughters, ranging in age from 11 months to 10 years, the Berks are scheduled to return to Brazil in August.

THE MORNING also included three trio selections by Mrs. Lee Spohr, Mrs. Leland Fogelsong and Mrs. Ashley Chase. In costume, Mrs. Ray Sommers presented a soliloquy of Mary Magdalene as she came to the empty tomb after the resurrection of the Christ.

Mrs. Amos Wilson serves as president of the Tecumseh Friends Missionary Society and Mrs. Ralph Comfort was program chairman for the brunch.

New Gateway Development Starts Locally

Gateway Construction Co., Inc., opened development of its first subdivision last week with two homes under construction on Green Hwy., just outside the city limits, across from the IOOF Hall.

The new company, formed locally last month by William Powell, William Mackey and Keith Bottoroff, has approximately 24 acres platted for 42 houses.

Homes for the area will be in the $16,000 to $18,000 range.

Britton FFA Wins

BRITTON — The Dekalb Corn Awards Banquet was held last Thursday evening at the Holiday Inn, Jackson.

Britton Chapter FFA, was represented by David Reeck, Bruce Gillespie, Tom Korican, Jerry Korican, Mike Moore and Jim Henry. All of those attending received scores of 100% and all completions from the chapter were scored at 95% or above.

The Britton Chapter and Advisor Paul Marks were awarded a trophy for the best over all record of the entrants present.

The banquet and awards were sponsored by the Dekalb Corn Company. Scoring, with plaques going to highest contestants in each category, was done by representatives of the Dekalb Company.

Cancer Death Rate Is on the Upswing

By DOROTHY GRIGG

"Cancer is the number two killer of mankind, second only to heart disease," Arthur Crampton, executive vice president of the Michigan Division of the American Cancer Society told 26 attending the Community Services Forum luncheon at the Elks Hall, Adrian April 5.

"Forty-nine million living Americans will have cancer before they die, one out of every four persons and the dread disease will touch two out of every three homes on an average in the nation," continued the speaker.

The Cancer death rate is increasing. One person is dying every two minutes from cancer, about 820 a day, but Mr. Crampton said there is hope. He said that 1,400,000 people have survived five years or longer since they first discovered they had the disease. This is due to some form of treatment such as cobalt.

"Doctors still do not know what cancer is. They know that some cells 'go haywire' like a juvenile delinquent and spread like a brush fire," said the iVce-President.

"Scientists don't know the secret of life and what makes a cell normal, so how can they possibly know what makes one abnormal? It's a complex thing but on the basis of what doctors do know, people have had their lives saved," explained Mr. Crampton.

"ONE OUT OF FOUR persons were saved in 1956 and now one out of every three will be saved in 1966. It could be one out of every two if we could get people to go to the doctor in time. Fear, ignorance and embarrassment are three factors that hold up progress in stamping out cancer."

"Men seem to think that cancer is a woman's disease, but this isn't so. Out of every 100 people that die of cancer, 54 are men and 46 women."

Mr. Crampton stated that the American Cancer Society symbolized by a sword of hope is the largest volunteer health agency in the nation, made up of 58 divisions. Pennsylvania, New York and Wisconsin each have more than one division. Michigan has one with 76 organized groups — 100,000 volunteers and only 75 paid staff people.

The Society is a doctor-oriented organization with one out of every two board members a physician.

Mrs. John Christian announced that the Adrian office of the Cancer society is open from 9 to 4 each day except Saturday and appointments may be made.

Cancer dressings and sick room equipment are given out from the office and Mrs. Guy Cyr is available to discuss financial need of cancer victims.

"THE SOCIETY does not pay doctor or hospital bills," Mr. Crampton said.

It was announced that over 1,000 dressings are made each month and often more than 1,500 are given out to individuals, nursing homes and hospitals.

Mr. Crampton was introduced by David Norton, program chairman after a brief business session when the group decided to discuss the purpose of the organization at the May meeting.

Paul Diller, president, announced that there will be an election of officers and invited all interested agencies and individuals to come to that meeting, May 3.

State Hospitals Seeking Workers

A recruitment campaign has been inaugurated in Southeastern Michigan by the Department of Mental Health and area news media.

The goal is to obtain non-professional people to fill vacant positions at the seven state hospitals for the mentally-ill and mentally-retarded in the seven-county area.

Openings are now available for male institution workers, cooks and janitors; male and female attendant nurses; typists and stenographers.

There are no specific education or experience requirements for any of the positions listed except for typists and stenographers, who must be high school graduates.

Applicants are to be at least 18 years of age and able to pass basic Civil Service examinations. The new salary range, effective July 1, for institutions workers is $4,343 to $4,573; typist-stenographers $4,491 to $5,311; cooks $4,531 to $5,262; janitors $4,761 to $5,345; and attendant nurses $5,178 to $5,450.

Further information and application forms may be obtained by contacting the personnel office at any one of the hospitals either in person or by phone:

Hawthorn Center, Northville, 349-3000.

Howell State Hospital, 546, 3270.

Lafayette Clinic, Detroit, 963-5400.

Northville State Hospital, 349-1800.

Plymouth State Home, 453-1500.

Pontiac State Hospital, 335-8146.

Ypsilanti State Hospital, 482-8700.

Local Teacher Attends MEA Laws Session

Larry Crittenden, High School government teacher and delegate from Tecumseh Education Association, attended the legislative session, MEA, Lansing last week.

The local group elected officers at a meeting held April 6 in the Tecumseh High School library. They are:

President — Mrs. John Jones, Tipton.

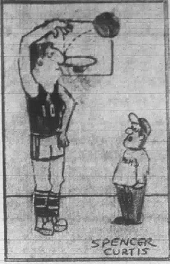
President elect — Larry Crittenden.

Secretary — Mrs. James Heimerdinger, languages.

Treasurer — Earl Green, Patterson.

George Choske, Junior High School science teacher, was elected representative assembly delegate to the Michigan Education Association.

Harry Travis, Junior High School Geography teacher, was elected Region III Council delegate.



I thought you were too good to be true.

Back from Florida

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McConnell arrived home from Englewood, Fla., Thursday evening.

Named Top Cadet

Michael Rohrer, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Rohrer, 604 Center Dr., is the recipient of the President's Award for outstanding leadership and academic achievement in Army ROTC at the University of Michigan.

Cadet Colonel Rohrer, brigade commander, started at Michigan in 1962, after graduating from Tecumseh High School.

The ROTC publication "Fall In" stated that Rohrer received a Branstrom Award as a freshman and since managed to establish 3.4 overall grade point average.

Currently he is the commander of the Pershing Rifles, a member of Scabbard and Blade and the Counterinsurgency Company.

Along with numerous scholarships, Cadet Col. Rohrer has earned such ROTC honors as outstanding freshman and junior cadet awards, The Kelsey Hayes Award and the Michigan Aerospace Foundation Award.

Cadet Rohrer and Cecelia Ann Austin of Jackson plan to be married in May, before he goes on delay of active duty to pursue study of dentistry at the U. of M.

"Fall In" said that Cadet Col. Rohrer is a distinguished military student and will be a distinguished military graduate.

His parents, and Bill, Tom and Rick, attended the awards ceremony, April 11.

OES Easter Service Held

An Easter memorial service, "Message of the Lilies," was presented by the officers at the Chapter 51, OES meeting, April 7, with 40 members and guests in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ruettinger presided. Mrs. Henry Kempf, page of the Lenawee - Monroe County Association and Mrs. Adeline Upton, of Bowling Green, O., aunt of Mrs. Ruettinger, were welcomed.

The memorial service for departed members of the past year was impressive as the officers formed a cross at the altar. As each one read a verse, they placed a lily on a cross on the altar.

Mrs. F. S. McRae sang as the conductresses, Mrs. Calvin Dixon, Jr., and Mrs. Cecile Viele, gave each one present a small white cross.

An Easter message was read from the worthy grand matron and patron. An invitation was read from Lenawee-Monroe County Association for the spring meeting with reservations to be made with Mrs. Donald LaBounty by April 23.

Friendship Night at Fairfield is April 14 and at Addison, April 15.

Mrs. Raymond Nichols and Bernard Isaacson were presented ritual books by Mrs. Ruettinger.

Five members with April birthday anniversaries were given cup cakes and as each was lighted, the members sang a greeting.

Another meeting will be held April 14, for the ceremony of initiation.

Refreshments in the Easter theme were served from decorated tables by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smith, Mr. and Mrs. James Tonneberger and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt.

A&P KNOW WHEN OUR SHIP CAME IN?

In 1859.

That was the year an imaginative 26-year old, named George H. Hartford, had a brilliant idea.

The idea? Buy tea direct from the Orient by the clipper shipload.

1859…that's when our ship came in. That was the beginning. That's when our founder showed he cared about people.

Today, in keeping with that proud heritage, A&P is still dedicated to bringing the most good food, to the most people for the least amount of money.

Today, more than a century later, we can honestly say, "WE CARE…about you."

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.

Firm Searches For Old Films

An unusual historical treasure hunt is under way in Michigan. The treasure may be almost anywhere — in attics, in basements, in garages — and probably is concealed in rusty old tin cans.

It is old film footage, shot in Michigan between 1900 and the 1930's. If it can be found, some of it may wind up in an important new motion picture being produced by Consumers Power Company for use in Michigan schools.

An appeal for help in locating these rare and often unique bits of film is made by motion picture producer, William Murray of Portafilms, who is researching a half-hour film of Michigan during the first half of the 20th century.

THE NEW motion picture, commissioned by Consumers Power, will be the third and last in a series of award-winning films about Michigan's history.

THE FIRST, titled "WHEN MICHIGAN WAS YOUNG," was released in 1964.

It covered the period from the Ice Age to about 1800.

The second film, titled "MICH-I-GAN-I-A," was released late in 1965.

It deals with Michigan's coming-of-age as a state in the 19th century.

The third film, as yet untitled, begins about 1900, and brings the story of Michigan to the 1960's.

Since the movie camera wasn't invented until 1888, and because motion pictures didn't come into general use until early in the 20th century, the two earlier films utilized drawings, etchings, sketches and paintings of the period.

These were brought to life by a process called iconographic animation.

As the historical spotlight moves into the 20th century, however, it becomes possible to reflect this exciting period of Michigan's development in true motion pictures. That is, if the right film can be found.

MURRAY SAYS he is trying to contact as many of Michigan's old-time movie men as can be found, as well as persons who knew the ones who have died. He hopes in this way to discover long-forgotten caches of old film.

"Obviously, we can't include all of it in one 27-minute motion picture," he says. "But a good deal of important footage, that otherwise might deteriorate and be lost forever, will thus be saved."

Murray asks anyone with old film in his possession to contact him at Portafilms, 4180 Dixie Highway, Drayton Plains. His telephone is (Area Code 313) 674-0489. Or contact your nearest Consumers Power Company office.

ADF Will Appeal Funds May, 1-17

The Archdiocesan Development Fund campaign, Archbishop Dearden's annual appeal for assistance in sustaining a multitude of indispensable works of the Church, will be held in every parish and mission of the Archdiocese from May 1 through May 17.

This is the 24th annual ADF drive. What the ADF has accomplished since its inception in 1943, is cause for prayerful thanksgiving. The ADF has enabled the Church here to meet the tremendous challenges and problems of the past two decades when the Catholic population has grown at an unprecedented rate.

When the first ADF drive began in 1943, the Archdiocese had 211 parishes and missions to serve approximately 800,000. Today the Archdiocese has 346 parishes and missions and a Catholic population of more than 1,500,000. The founding of 135 new parishes and missions would have been a financial impossibility without the ADF.

The ADF has helped to build St. John's Major Theological Seminary, Boysville, the Cardinal Mooney Latin School of the Sacred Heart Seminary, Carmel Hall, St. Mary of Providence School for Retarded Girls, St. Louis School for Retarded Boys, Don Bosco Home for Homeless Boys, Lourdes Nursing Home — all were made possible through the ADF.

Mrs. Joe Rice returned to her home from Herrick Memorial Hospital, Saturday. Her daughter, Mrs. John Fox, and Nancy and Joe Petey of Grand Rapids, were in the city until Sunday when they returned to their home. Another daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Converse, of South Pasadena, Calif., is spending this week with Mrs. Rice.

About $100 was realized from a benefit polio dance sponsored by the combined PTA's in the high school gym, Saturday.

Life Insurance Companies Paid $210 Millions

Michigan families received $210,600,000 in death payments from life insurance companies during 1965, according to the Institute of Life Insurance. This was $19,200,000 or 10 percent more than in 1964.

Death claims were paid on 93,800 policies in 1965, compared with 87,900 policies in 1964.

The rise in death payments is due mainly to the increasing amount of life insurance protection and larger number of policies owned by American families, according to Blake T. Newton, Jr., president of the Institute.

Policyholder death rates have changed relatively little in the United States during the past decade.

By far the largest share of Michigan's 1965 total was $91,900,000 paid on 30,500 ordinary life insurance policies owned by individual families. The rest included $105,900,000 on 32,900 group certificates and $12,800,000 an 30,400 industrial policies.

Science Church Will Consider The Atonement

"Doctrine of Atonement" will be the subject of Christian Science church services this Sunday.

Bible passages to be considered will focus on Jesus' parable of the prodigal son (Luke 15), and end with his statement, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me."

BRUCE SMITH WAS ONE OF SCOUTS WHO PASSED OUT GOODWILL BAGS LAST YEAR.

Scouts Help Goodwill

Before the weekend of April 16 and 17 is over, every household in the area will have received a Goodwill bag.

Nearly 1,000 are being handed out by Boy Scouts in the annual "Goodwill - Good Turn Day" to further the rehabilitation program of Goodwill Industries in Southeastern Michigan.

Jim Reed, Scout Executive of Wolverine Council, is in charge of the project.

Kenneth Erwin, Executive Director of Goodwill, explained the rehabiiltation and sheltered workshop program through slides and story at the kick-off dinner for the project last Friday.

The job to be done by the Boy Scouts was told by Iola Morningstar, Director of Community Relations and Sale. She said this year the boys will receive "Goodwill - Good Turn, 1966" patches for their uniforms. It was stated this was a more personal way of saying "Thank you" to them.

About 9,000 bags were given out after the meeting to be distributed and filled. Scout leaders who did not get bags may pick them up at the Beecher Street plant.

Pick up in Lenawee County will be April 23.

Roland Rumpf of Rumpf Truck Lines is in charge of truck placement in both Counties and will include other large trucking firms.

MSU Reports 'Dough' Costs Total One-Fifth

It takes a lot of "dough" to feed a family In fact, Michigan State University food specialists report that money spent for food takes almost one-fifth of the total consumer income in the United States.

Dr. Portia Morris, extension specialist in foods and nutrition, says that money spent for food at home and for meals away from home is generally the largest recurring item of expense in the budget of most families.

The proportion of the budget spent for food varies from family to family less than might be expected. Those families with higher incomes tend to buy more expensive foods; larger amounts of some foods, such as baked goods and less flour and cereals; more services and more foods that add variety to meals.

BECAUSE FOOD is a basic necessity, families with low incomes and those with several children tend to spend a larger part of their income on food than those families with higher incomes and fewer children.

Although each family member adds to the total family budget, expenditures per person in larger families tend to be less.

Dr. Morris reports that farm families pay out only half as much for food as urban families. Rural non-farm families also spend less than urban families.

However, as these groups have lower incomes, the share of total income going for food is not greatly different from urban groups.

Projections for 1980 show that some kind of food stamp plan will probably be in effect. This will allow low income families to have consumption patterns similar to those of families who have incomes of $3,000 a year at present price levels.

Mrs. Morris studied food expenditure patterns as part of MSU's futuristic look at Michigan's rural potential in 1980.

DOW
ANHYDROUS AMMONIA

You may save $6 to $8 per acre with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia: lowest cost nitrogen in the field.

The reason is, anhydrous ammonia gives you far more nitrogen per pound than any other nitrogen fertilizer. Which means it takes far less Dow ANHYDROUS AMMONIA to do the job than it does with any other form of nitrogen fertilizer.

If you're planting corn on corn, it will take 150 to 200 pounds of nitrogen per acre to decay the old stalks and still have the nitrogen you need for high yields. Supply this nitrogen with Dow ANHYDROUS AMMONIA and you may save as much as $6 to $8 an acre. And boost crop yield quality and feed grain protein content while you do it. It's so long-lasting, one application is all you need. See us today for details. And save some money for a change.

THE LANSING REPORT FROM senator GIL BURSLEY

Saline's efforts to establish a sister city relationship with Brecon, Wales, as part of the People-to-People program are most laudable. I note that Ypsilanti also has active negotiations underway for a similar relationship with a city in Greece.

The stimulus to youth travel and understanding, the cultural interchange and understanding and even the commercial contacts that are established are all natural outgrowths of People-to-People program activities.

Last November it was my privilege to sign the sister city agreement papers between Ann Arbor and Tubingen, Germany. I was in Europe on another mission but was able to get to Tubingen, Germany on a Saturday in late November and I was most impressed by the city and by its people. It's a university town of almost 60,000.

It's in the Schwaben area of Germany from whence many Washtenaw County residents' parents immigrated. Ann Arbor has a lot of natural mutual interests with Tubingen.

I am sure that many common bonds could be found and developed between Saline and Brecon, Wales.

RECENTLY I participated in a similar program in which Michigan has become a "partner" with British Honduras — soon to be the independent country of Belize.

This relationship was established under the State Department's "Partners in the Alliance" program initiated under President Kennedy's administration and involving states of the USA and countries and provinces of countries in Latin America. Specific projects that can aid the partner are undertaken.

For example, a Rotary Club might raise a couple of hundred dollars to buy a pump for a well dug by villages in an Andean town who had no way to get a pump.

American leadership throughout the world — American responsible actions for preserving the peace, can be effectively supported by people working with people — by human, friendly, dignified contacts that avoid any overtone of arrogance or big brotherism.

Will Tecumseh some day get a sister city?

Franklin 4-H Prepare Bake Sale Posters

CLINTON — Franklin 4-H Club members spent their meeting time last Monday, working on posters for their bake sale to be held April 16, in Baldwin's Hardware, Tecumseh.

Judy Wilson was the hostess for the meeting which was held in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wilson.

Proceeds from the bake sale will be used for the club's "Christmas in July" project. Packages of food treats will be sent to local servicemen in Vietnam in July.

Names and addresses of such servicemen are to be given to club members or the club advisor, Mrs. Claude Creger. Anyone wishing to contribute food or money to the project may do so.

Plans are being made for mothers and junior leaders to furnish pies for the meals which the County 4-H Mothers will serve at the annual Horse Sale in Adrian, April 29 and 30.

Proceeds earned by the 4-H group are used to maintain the 4-H building at the fairgrounds.

Shuffleboard games were the diversion of the evening. Refreshments were served by the hostess and the parent advisors, Mrs. Tom Carleton and Mrs. Charles Aebersold.

Grossmans Entertain, For Debbie

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Milton Grossman entertained at a smorgasbord supper Sunday, honoring their daughter, Debbie.

Debbie was confirmed April 3, in the Emmanuel United Church of Christ, Manchester.

Among the 45 guests present were Debbie's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Jacobs, and relatives and friends from Manchester, Grass Lake, Ann Arbor, Chelsea and Clinton.

Two Remain at Herrick After Injury

CLINTON — Mrs. David Langham and her mother, Mrs. Roy Haft remain patients at Herrick Memorial Hospital since they were injured April 1, in an auto accident in Tecumseh.

Mrs. Langham recieved a concussion when she was thrown from the car which she was driving.

Mrs. Haft, who was a passenger in the Langham car, is in traction for a back injury received in the mishap.

Both women may be hospitalized for several more days.

Clinton Village Council Adopts $42,000 Budget

CLINTON — The Village Council adopted a budget of $42,000 for 1966, Wednesday night. This is an increase of $1,100.

The tax rate was set at 10½ mills, a reduction of a half-mill from last year.

The Council voted themselves a pay raise from $8 to $15 for each regular meeting. They receive no pay for special meetings, which have become quite frequent of late.

The Village Attorney and the clerk will also receive a $10 per month raise.

Stanley Gibbard presented the Rotary Club request to build a barbecue pit and shelter in the park on W. Michigan Ave. The Council will give consideration to the matter and report later.

A new councilman, Gary Underwood, was welcomed.

Village committees were named.

Clinton Baptists Make First Use of New Church

CLINTON — The Clinton Baptist Church observed Easter Sunday in the new sanctuary on Tecumseh-Clinton Rd.

Morning worship was held upstairs in the sanctuary and the church school classes met in the basement.

The Rev. Floyd Vaughn and his congregation looked forward to an Easter dedication of the new church since construction began last fall. A formal dedication will be held in the near future.

Although the church was not completed inside, several members worked diligently last week, cleaning up, to make the move possible for the service Easter Sunday.

The service included special music by the Junior Choir, directed by Mrs. Jack Brooks, accompanied by Stephanie Brooks at the piano. Mrs. Lewis Lake of Britton sang, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Ronald Cross, and Mrs. Jack Brooks and daughter, Stephanie, sang a duet.

Clinton High School Seniors Visit Capitol

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. John Truesdale, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Harrison accompanied 57 Clinton High School seniors on their trip to New York City and Washington, D.C., this week.

Leaving the Community Center at noon, Sunday, by bus, the plans called for a train trip from Toledo to New York City for a three-day visit and then by bus or train to Washington, D.C. before returning home Friday morning.

Clinton Director Creates Follies 'Dazzlin' Surprise

CLINTON — Band Director Karl Wirt says he has cooked up some surprises for this year's Band Follies by Clinton High School students.

"Dazzlin' Dixie" is the theme for the show to be staged Thursday and Friday, April 21 and 22.

The Dance Band is rehearsing such numbers as "Jazz Me Blues," "Rock-a-bye Your Baby With a Dixie Melody," which will feature the twirlers; "St. Louis Blues," "The Yellow Rose of Texas," "Swanee" and "Way Down Yonder in New Orleans."

The 1966 Chorus line is coached by Mrs. Wirt.

This year's show promises to be a fine evening's entertainment.

'Arsenic' Slated for May, 5-6

By SHERRY SQUIRES

Is this a private home or a lunatic asylum?

This is the question which may be frequently asked by those who see the Junior Play, "Arsenic and Old Lace" at B.H.S.

The play will be presented May 5 and 6 at the high school gymnasium. The cast of 13 is under the direction of Gary Lovett and Jack Evans.

The play centers around the actions of two kindly, little old ladies, the Brewster sisters, Abby and Martha. These parts are ably filled by Brenda Hall and Diane Lake.

The ladies feel sorry for a series of bachelors. They open a boarding house in their home to help out these homeless gentlemen. They do many favors for them, especially giving them arsenic.

The bodies, often hidden in inconspecious places about the home, usually end up in the "Panama Canal" in the basement.

At least poor demented Teddy, their nephew, thinks that he's working on the canal. He also thinks that he's Theodore Roosevelt!

Little does he know that he is really digging the last resting places of those poor, homeless bachelors who come and go(?).

This play is bound to be the best yet from the classes at Britton and everyone is urged to come and see who gets what done to whom and how everything turns out in the end.

A July wedding is planned.

Tory School Notes

Reported by
◄ SHERRY SQUIRES & SUE EDDINGER ►

School is out this entire week for Spring Vacation so there is not much to write about from the school notes department.

The Tories showed a very sparse crowd of fans what to expect from the team this season as they posted a 7-6 win over the Mason Eagles in a scrimmage Thursday after school at Britton.

Although the Tories were greatly out-numbered, they showed that spirit and skill, not numbers is what it takes to win.

Five girls from the Britton FHA will be delegates to the Grand Rapids, Mich. State FHA Convention April 21 and 22, 1966.

The girls named to go are: Kathleen Cheever, Nancy Hawkins, Barbara Drexler, juniors; Karen Ivan and Sherry Squires, seniors. The girls will be accompanied by Kathleen Wood, FHA advisor.

The annual FFA Parent-Son Banquet will be held April 26 at the BHS study hall and cafeteria. The program will consist of presenting the FFA awards of achievement and other awards to the FFA boys and any outstanding parents.

The Seniors received the itinerary for their coming trip to Washington, D.C. The trip will begin May 9, and end back in Britton May 13.

Teen Tours has arranged tours of Arlington, Lincoln and Jefferson Monuments, Alexandria, Annapolis, Library of Congress, FBI, and the Wax Museum among others. The Seniors will stay at the Diplomat Motel in Washington.

The Juniors have chosen the date and theme for the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Tender is the Night is the name they decided on and the prom will be the night following the Seniors' return from Washington, D.C., May 14. Plans and construction for the social event are well under way.

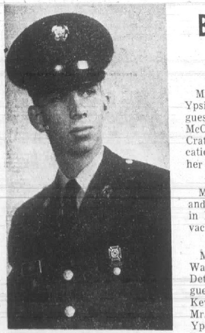
The Seniors also ordered "pocket diplomas" from the Balfour Company. The plastic replicas are the size of a wallet-vue folder and will come in handy when a diploma is needed for verification of identification and you don't have the real thing with you.



PVT. ROBERT J. BILLAU

Robert Billau Given Transfer to Leonard Wood

BRITTON — Pvt. Robert J. Billau, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Billau, Route 2, Tecumseh, has been transferred from Fort Riley, Kansas to Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. He is attending supply clerk school there.

Pvt. Billau was graduated from Britton High School in 1963. He was employed in farming before his induction Dec. 16, 1965.

Easter Bunny Helps Honor New Daughter

BRITTON — An Easter Bunny theme was used in decorating the gift and luncheon tables when 56 friends gathered for a shower in honor of Wendy Lynn Benedict, newly-adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Benedict.

Mrs. [illegible] Benedict, Mrs. Martin Ivan, Mrs. Gerald Benedict, Mrs. Charles Benedict and Mrs. Neil Benedict were co-hostesses for the event, held Tuesday evening in the Lee Benedict home.

The guests played Bingo, with prizes awarded the winners and Wendy Lynn. The hostesses served fruit salad, pink and white cake, coffee and punch.

Mrs. Benedict opened gifts for Wendy Lynn.

Church to Take Special Offering

BRITTON — The Grace Methodist Church will take a special offering next Sunday, April 17, in the church and Sunday School, for the Quessua Primary School Scholarship. This school is in Angola, Africa.

The Adrian Commandery, Knights Templar attended the Easter Sunrise Service and breakfast presented by the youth of the Grace Methodist Church.

Ronald Jeffery Papworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Papworth of Britton, and Charles Gordon Bourns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Bourns of Tecumseh, received the sacrament of baptism at the Easter morning worship service of Grace Methodist Church.

AAA Reports Traffic Count Data Friday

Results of an $8,800 survey of Lenawee County traffic problems, together with recommended solutions, will be presented at a meeting of county officials Friday.

The full-scale study, conducted by Auto Club's safety and traffic department, was performed without cost to the county as a public service.

The Lenawee County Board of Supervisors requested the study in February, 1964, because of growing concern over changing traffic patterns.

FOUR WEEKS of on-the-spot work were required last summer for the survey, during which a three-man AAA-research team measured traffic volumes and movements, pinpointed hazardous or potentially-hazardous areas and analyzed 1964-65 traffic accident records.

Auto Club employed as consultant on the project a Detroit traffic engineering firm, Gibson and Associates. Representatives of the firm will be present at the April 15 meeting to explain the survey in detail.

The survey will be formally presented to county officials during an 11 a.m. meeting in the Lenawee County Road Commission office, 1160 N. Main St. in Adrian.

Fiesta Planned for July

Lee Sanchez, president of Lenawee Republican Ethnic Club, along with Phil VanDam, Arnold Garcia, Fred Garcia and Armando Garcia, attended the Michigan State Republican Nationalities Council meeting Thursday in Detroit.

Twenty-five clubs were represented.

The entire group endorsed Governor Romney for another term. Robert Griffin was unanimously endorsed for the United States Senate.

Mr. Sanchez announced that Lenawee County would host a giant fiesta party in July with Lt. Gov. William Milliken attending.

Census Drops

The 1964 farm census reports the number of Lenawee County farmers working off the farm decreased from 1,731 in 1959 to 1,647 in 1964, a decrease of 84. Did industrial expansion in the county change this figure in 1965?

Gary Brittain Will Assist Dr. Freeman

Gary Brittain, Adrian, a student in the Nursery and Landscape Management short course at Michigan State University, will be working for Dr. Fred Freeman this spring and summer.

Six month's work and experience in a nursery and landscape firm is required for the short course according to the co-ordinator, Dr. Roy A. Mecklenburg.

Mr. Brittain has completed four terms at the University. On-the-job training at The Gardens will include all phases of nursery and landscape work.

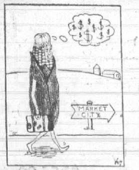
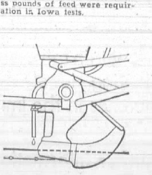
DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING®



SELL CORN IN EARLY MAY for best spring prices. Price gains won't be great but recovery may amount to 5c above mid-March levels. Reduced CCC sales, farmers moving to the fields and high use could all contribute to the situation. But there's plenty of corn. Beyond this spring period look for a general decline into summer. Summer market decline could be tempered by the current boxcar shortage, though.

SIMPLIFIED SWINE RATIONS, such as a corn-soy ration, have merit over more complex ones when ingredient costs, supply and convenience are considered. Corn and soybeans make up 97% of the ration while di-calcium phosphate, calcium carbonate, salt, vitamins and trace minerals make up the other three. Slightly less pounds of feed were required per pound of gain with the corn-soy ration in Iowa tests.

"POP UP" FERTILIZER method for some farmers is replacing the side band idea commonly used for starting corn. Liquid fertilizer hose drops NP and K behind planter shoe. A common application rate is 50 pounds of 6-18-6 or a similar analysis that limits pounds of N plus K applied to about 12. With the pop-up method less starter is needed, load on equipment is eased. To make this method work, the bulk fertilizer must be applied preplant and high fertility needs to be maintained.



DAIRY COW PRICES will likely climb this year because of rising milk prices and improved dairy outlook. If you're planning to add a few cows this spring, look at production records first. You need cows that will produce no less than 12,000 pounds of milk per year.

They, then returned to the home of Mrs. Raymond Bolz on Wisner Highway for a short meeting and refreshments. The refreshments were served by Mrs. Lee Griffin and Mrs. Jerry Emery.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Norman Ries, May 5. Each member is to bring materials to make a May basket.

Will Open House

TIPTON — The Township Board decided at their meeting last Tuesday, to hold open house May 15 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the new Town Hall, so the residents and friends can view the building.

Farms Total 2,730

A total of 2,730 farms was counted in Lenawee County during the 1964 Census of Agriculture, reports the Department of Commerce.

In the last previous Census of Agriculture, 1959, the total counted was 3,124

A preliminary report on the county shows that average farm size in the county was 152.6 acres and that the average value of the county's farm — land and buildings — in 1964 was $49,002.

OTHER IMPORTANT county statistics:

► Value of all farm products sold by farms in the county in 1964, $29,409,070; in 1959, $25,676,833.

► Value of all crops sold by county farms in 1964, $12,746,782; in 1959, $12,098,483.

► Value of all livestock and livestock products sold by county farms in 1964, $16,643,611; in 1959, $13,578,350.

Information obtained for the first time in an agricultural census included the amount of income received by the county's farmers, $18,677 from recreational services, as well as data on the use of pest control chemicals in the county in 1964.

A CENSUS of Agriculture is taken every five years ending in "4" and "9" to gather information on the nation's agricultural resources and production. The data are needed to make decisions affecting many segments of the U.S. economy. The 1964 farm census was the 18th in a series that began in 1840.

The preliminary report for the county contains more than 500 facts about agriculture in the county. Among additional facts it contains are the number of farms by size, type, and economic class; the number of farm operators by method of tenure, age, color, off-farm work, and number of school years completed; land in farms by use and by land use practices; data on equipment and facilities; farm expenditures; number of hired workers, and number of farms reporting poultry and livestock production and those reporting crop production by acres and quantities as well as sales.

Single copies of the report are available for 10c from the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233.

Extension Groups Host Manor Party

TIPTON — Five members of the Chit and Chat Tiptonaires along with other Extension groups, entertained at a party at the Maple Lane Manor Tuesday, April 5.

The club sent bingo prizes for the residents and each one received a decorated Easter egg.

They also visited each patient in the hospital and gave each one a gift and a decorated egg.

Co-op Will Drop Rates

More than 2,000 customers of Southeastern Michigan Rural Electric Cooperative will share a [illegible] annual decrease in rates ordered by the Michigan Public Service Commission.

The company's principal area of electric service is Lenawee County, although some service also is provided in Hillsdale, Washtenaw and Monroe Counties, as well as in Fulton and Williams Counties in Ohio.

Lenawee Shrine Club Studies Temple History

The Lenawee Shrine Club met Monday evening at the Elks Club, Adrian.

J. H. Mahaney of Detroit was the speaker. He told of the inauguration of the Shriners in 1872, stating that there were 168 temples with a membership of 844,500.

The Shriners support 19 Crippled Children's Hospitals and two hospitals for burned patients with another under construction.

Fifty dollars was donated to the Rainbow For Girls, Adrian.

Plans were completed for the Shrine Party to be held at the Devils Lake Yacht Club, June 11.

Hugh Walter is chairman of the event when the Moslem Temple will provide the entertainment.

Forty members are planning a bus trip to Detroit Aug. 2, to attend the baseball game at Tiger Stadium.

BEER—A big boost to the economy!

The brewing industry each year contributes over 1.4 billion dollars in federal, state and local excise taxes. Wages and salaries in the brewing industry account for almost 500 million dollars, and the purchase of packaging materials from other industries runs over 550 million. So next time you enjoy a cool, refreshing brew after hard work or play, remember—BEER is good in more ways than one!

DISTRIBUTOR OF DOW
ANHYDROUS AMMONIA

You may save $6 to $8 per acre with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia: lowest cost nitrogen in the field.

The reason is, anhydrous ammonia gives you far more nitrogen per pound than any other nitrogen fertilizer. Which means it takes far less Dow ANHYDROUS AMMONIA to do the job than it does with any other form of nitrogen fertilizer.

If you're planting corn on corn, it will take 150 to 200 pounds of nitrogen per acre to decay the old stalks and still have the nitrogen you need for high yields. Supply this nitrogen with Dow ANHYDROUS AMMONIA and you may save as much as $6 to $8 an acre. And boost crop yield quality and feed grain protein content while you do it. It's so long-lasting, one application is all you need. See us today for details. And save some money for a change.

Nurserymen Concerned

All but a tiny fraction of the people in the state who sell nursery products are reputable dealers, but that tiny fraction comes to public notice with the arrival of spring when people are in the planting and gardening mood.

Concerned about the sharp selling and advertising practices of a few are the Michigan Association of Nurserymen and the Michigan Department of Agriculture's Plant Industry Division.

This division is responsible for nursery stock inspection as well as protecting potential buyers against unscrupulous sellers.

In Michigan buyers of nursery stock spend millions of dollars each year. Most of it is with reputable local nurserymen who value satisfied customers for future business.

But there are some unscrupulous salesmen and some misleading advertisers who make extravagant claims which bring customer dissatisfaction.

B. Dale Ball, director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, points out that persons who solicit sales of nursery stock are required to carry an agent's permit.

This is requested from the department by the firm the agent represents. If a prospective buyer is in doubt, he should ask to see the agent's permit.

He also might check doubtful claims with the department's offices in Lansing or any regional office.

Beardsley Honored

Chief Warrant Officer W-2 John W. Beardsley, former Tecumseh resident and nephew of city attorney James Beardsley, has been awarded the distinguished Flying Cross and the 11th Oak Leaf Cluster to that air medal.

Mr. Beardsley has been with Troop B, 1st squadron, of the 9th Cavalry for seven months and has flown over 300 combat missions in the Republic of Vietnam.

He was given the cross for heroism while participating in aerial flight Nov. 1, 1965, and again Nov. 3 to 4. He distinguished himself by meritorious achievement and valorous action.

Beardsley's helicopter was one of four given the mission to deliver ammunition to ground forces and to evacuate casualties, Nov. 1. In accomplishing this mission it was necessary to land in a small clearing in the jungle which was under small arms fire.

Again on Nov. 3 and 4, Chief Warrant Officer Beardsley delivered ammunition and evacuated casualties under heavy enemy fire.

In both actions, realizing the dangers involved and without regard for his own personal safety, Beardsley calmly and professionally made his landings and waited under fire until all wounded were prepared for evacuation.

By his actions, he insured ammunition resupply which prevented the defensive perimeter from being overrun and also saved numerous American lives by his air evacution of casualties.

"His actions are in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service and reflect credit upon himself and the United States Army.

Statements concerning Mr. Beardsley's heroism as printed above were taken from the general orders of his commander, Colonel George S. Beatty Jr.

Mr. Beardsley is married and has three children.

Job Corps Speeds Up Start Time

Boys, 16 to 21 years old, can join the Job Corps in one week.

In the past, it has taken several months to screen and assign youths to Job Corps training centers, states Clifford Rice, manager of the local State Employment Service Office.

For the next three weeks, Mr. Rice said, a new method is being tried. Boys who have been out of school three months or more, who can qualify for the Job Corps, can be on their way in seven days.

FREE JOB training, education, room, board and clothing in addition to $30 a month spending money, besides $50 for each month of satisfactory service when they leave, anywhere from a few months up to two years.

The Corps is entirely voluntary and anyone can leave at any time.

Name Inspector

A former milk inspector with the Detroit Health Department, Alfred W. Weaver of Onsted has been assigned by the Michigan Department of Agriculture's Dairy Division to dairy inspection in Lenawee and Monroe Counties.

Junior High Fellowship Plans Sale

The Junior High Youth Fellowship of the Methodist Church will hold a rummage sale Friday, April 22, and Saturday, April 23, in the church social rooms.

Hours for the sale are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday.

Proceeds from the sale will be directed to the Methodist Youth Fund and a camping weekend.

Advisors for the fellowship are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meads.

Mr. Lamb Speaks to Exchange Club

An instructive talk on home medication, then and now, was given to Exchangites by Carl Lamb of Lamb's Rexall Drug Store, Monday evening.

He showed samples of home remedies used in the early 1900's and some of the highly advertised over-the-counter drugs of today.

He noted that manufacturers of prescription drugs must prove their products effective while over-the-counter drugs have to be proven ineffective by the government in order to get them off the market.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Driscoll were guests of the Club in recognition of their 50th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Driscoll is regular pianist for the Exchange Club.

It was announced that Ladies Night will be May 9 and Dawn Patrol will be held July 10.

THS 9 Opens Against Milan

With high hopes, Coach Carl Hale's Tecumseh High School baseball team opens Huron League Action against Milan on the local diamond Tuesday afternoon.

If all has gone well about the time The Herald goes to press, THS will have concluded a three-game exhibition stint unbeaten. The Indians are slated to face Addison Wednesday afternoon.

Coach Hale's charges stopped Addison, 10-2, last week with Scott Erwards hurling no-hit ball for five innings and Dean Hebb allowing a trio in the last two frames.

Jim Mobley paced the hitters with two blows.

The Indians stepped past Dundee, 17-0, in another non-league warmup as Hebb hurled a two-hitter, while he collected a triple and two singles, which drove in five runs.

First baseman Jerry Slick contributed a double and single.

Slick will be at first base. Bob Cunningham at second, Bill Davis at shortstop and Mobley at third base.

In the outfield, Hebb will go in center, flanked by Buddy Work in left and Al Vallad in right.

Gas Customers Are Given Refunds by Consumers

Consumers Power Company's natural gas customers began getting a share of refunds recently received by Consumers from its natural gas suppliers.

The Company is passing on the customer's share of the refunds in the form of a credit on their next bill. Gas space heating customers will receive credits averaging about $1.50.

Gas customers who do not use space heating service will receive credits averaging about 30c.

The refupnd is going to customers who took gas service from the company during October, November and December of 1965, and who still were customers of the company on March 25, 1966.

The refund credit is going to some 697,000 customers as a result of lower wholesale gas rates than those originally collected by the suppliers.

The total amount returnable to customers of the company was set at $1,326,122 by the Michigan Public Service Commission in March 1966.

THE COMPLETE REPORT ON SMOKING AND HEALTH by the Advisory Committee to the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service. The evidence of this report should be in the hands of every smoker. Parents of children in their formative years, and school authorities responsible for their students' health and well being will find the data here of great concern.

THE UNITED STATES IN THE KOREAN WAR by Don Lawson. One of the most bitterly-fought conflicts in American military history, the Korean War ended in stalemate, yet it proved a principle: the advance of communism was halted at the now-famous 38th parallel. It was also the first war in which the free nations of the West banded together under the United Nations' lag to fight against Red aggression.

VOICE of THE HERALD

We Got 'Em Thinking

Naturally, we were pleased to see an editorial from The Herald being prominently quoted in a political story on the front page of Tuesday's Friendly Free Press.

In talking about the primary battle between Jerry Cavanaugh and Soapy Williams, we spoke out in favor of the Detroit mayor, even suggesting that Republicans switch over for the primary and help bring Jerry through.

The idea, from this point, would be to then get back on the GOP track and support Bob Griffin in the fall against Mr. Cavanaugh.

Free Press writer Saul Friedman referred to our section of Michigan as "hard core Republican" and this certainly is true — up until now. As we noted last week, Lenawee is gradually beginning to change, even being referred to as the "swing county" in the Second Congressional District.

In past years, the few Democrats around these parts hardly bothered to get fired up at election time because it almost always was a lost cause.

There have been many occasions when Republicans didn't bother to work either, being so certain their slate would roll in without any trouble — and they were usually right.

Now, this "hard core" business is under attack from Democrats.

More and more efforts are being made in these parts by the Dems. Witness the coming Monday night gathering in the Community Center, when Congressman Wes Vivian and Senator Philip A. Hart will be star performers. Mr. Vivian probably is going to announce his desire for re-election.

As well as these two gen[illegible] from Washington, there are rumors that both Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Cavanaugh will be here, but no official confirmation has been made on this.

To our memory, this is the first major meeting of Democrats in Tecumseh for many years — if not the first.

Does this tell relaxing Republicans anything?

Windy Days and Grass Fires

When the fire siren blasts these windy days, odds are in favor of a run-away grass blaze.

The Tecumseh Department went three-for-three on Tuesday. These calls are expensive to the city — and you as a taxpayer.

City Manager Cal Zorn pegged last year's average fire call at $450. Included are equipment costs, personnel, gasoline, maintenance, etc. That means Tuesday was a $1,350 day.

Most grass fires are the result of careless trash burning.

As serious as the cost is the possibility that during the battling of one grass fire, a call might come for another such blaze, taking out more equipment and men. Conceivably, a third alarm might develop, this time a plant or home, with inadequate facilities left to fight it.

Fire officials warn that with dry conditions the slightest breeze, as low as five miles per hour, can fan a spark into a blaze.

City regulations dictate that to burn anything outside a covered container one must secure a burning permit. On a day such as Tuesday, officials stated, that type of permit would not be issued.

If you must burn, pick naturally wet conditions early in the morning or dampen the area around your proposed fire. Use a "regulation" burner. Convenient and inexpensive burners may be constructed from a barrel with proper ventilation and a wire mesh cover.

Probably the geratest preventative in fire control is using common sense when burning.

TO THE EDITORS:

An open letter to the Tecumseh Police Department.

What Is To Be Done?

Policemen of Tecumseh arise! As underpaid and ignored citizens of Tecumseh you are passing by a golden opportunity. I, as an underpaid and ignored government worker, can understand and help you.

For years a joke in Tecumseh has been "If you need a policeman call Harvey's Grill" and what has happened? Nothing. For years men have left the force because of the peasant wages paid them by the bourgeois elements and what has happened? Nothing.

Recently that controversial organ of the State The Tecumseh Herald has cynically publicized your economic plight and what has happened? Nothing.

You ask, Yes, but what is to be done? The capitalists are still too powerful. And I answer you: Take heart. History is on your side. You needed an issue and it has arrived. What is that What is the most burning issue of our times? What puts rage in men's hearts and ulcers in their stomachs? Vietnam? No. Inflation? No. Long Hair? Yes.

It is long hair. Your way is clear, your opportunity is here. You have but to let your hair grow long and the world is yours. Can you imagine the indignation, the wrath! The reactionary Herald will be inundated by letters from horrified baseball coaches. The City Council will make charges of a Communist plot.

At this point of great hysteria I will lead you in a march down Chicago Blvd. carrying signs reading: "Give us money for a haircut!"

We will then agree to meet with those tools of Wall Street, the City Council and demand more money.

Of course, they may just fire you all and appoint Marjorie Chase as Chief of Police, but then, what do you have to lose?

ABOUT BLUEBIRDS

Several weeks ago — no, the way time flies, I suppose it was more like four or five weeks ago — that we had a regular rash of interesting phone calls.

There seemed to be a great deal of bird activity. We love to receive calls bringing us up to date on what is happening where.

Unfortunately there are often questions about bird identification or behavior which are difficult to answer. A search through the bird books is always fun though — my only regret is that I do not always come up with the answers.

One of the calls, and yes, it was one which prompted a flying trip to the bookshelves, concerned bluebirds.

While searching for a few facts, I suddenly realized that these pretty little birds have never received much attention in this series. In fact, I believe we never have devoted a column to them.

Well, perhaps we can remedy that situation today.

Of course, one of the reasons we have not discussed bluebirds oftener is that we seldom see them around here. Last spring, or perhaps it was two springs ago, Marge called with the exciting news that friends of theirs were experiencing a veritable bluebird invasion.

They live in what has always been good bluebird country but this was apparently something special. We hoped to get out and see this unusually large gathering of the blues but time for such a visit never seemed to appear.

Just one more of those things which we intended to do but somehow never got around to doing. It has been years and years since we saw a bluebird in our yard.

Although traditionally referred to as harbingers of spring, in this area the bluebirds' return gives a promise of warm weather, green grass and flowers which is a bit premature. After a few months of galivanting around in the sunny south they come home to us about the first of March.

Spring may be headed our way by then but we all know that March and even some of April contain much winter type weather, just witness our Palm Sunday snowstorm.

After being reminded of how readily these blue beauties are attracted to bird houses, I believe a good project for us next year would be to put out a few and see if we could invite bluebirds back into the neighborhood.

We must be careful, of course, to have the proper type of house. According to a book by Thomas P. McElroy Jr., "The New Handbook of Attracting Birds," specifications for a bluebird house are: floor of box — 4½ by 4½ inches, depth of the box — 8½ inches, diameter of entrance — 1½ inches, entrance above floor — six inches.

Fence rows, gardens or other semi-open areas are good spots to locate a bluebird house and placing it rather low, five to seven feet, will help discourage sparrows.

These intruders and the starlings are villains in the bluebird picture — they tend to take over the nesting sites and thus the much more attractive bluebirds have no place to raise their families.

In addition to proper placing of the nesting box, a small entrance hole is another way of helping the birds keep their home. Also, if you see unwanted intruders hanging around — chase them away! Bluebirds tend to nest early so their houses should be out early.

They raise two, sometimes even three, families a year and it is important that the box be thoroughly cleaned out after each brood leaves. It is a manner of sanitation and is necessary to keep the nestlings healthy.

So it is that we thank Mrs. H. for her telephone call which prompted much reading and this little chit-chat about bluebirds.

DOWPON
ESTERON 99 CONCENTRATE FORMULA 40 WEED KILLER

What will it cost to control foxtail and weeds in your corn?
$1 an acre for chemicals.

That's right. Just $1 an acre for the chemicals that will kill or stunt the growth of the weeds and grasses competing with your corn. They're part of the Dow Leaf-Lifter Program that can increase your yield up to 10%. Begin the program when your corn is between 8" and 12" high, but not over 20". Simply mount a Dow Leaf-Lifter unit on your tractor or cultivator before spraying. It flicks up the corn leaves as it's pulled along, directing the spray on the weeds and grasses. Within two weeks after spraying, the weeds and grasses are stunted or dying—while your corn thrives on. Without competition.

Ask your Dow Farm Chemicals supplier for the details on the Leaf-Lifter Program. And the chemicals that go with it — DOWPON® herbicide for controlling giant and common foxtails or pigeon grass, and either ESTERON® 99, ESTERON 99® Concentrate or FORMULA 40® weed killers for controlling broad-leaved weeds such as pigweed and cocklebur. Remember, all the help and information you want is free, and all the chemicals you need cost just $1 an acre. Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Can music be the answer to the problems besetting the world?

A wonderful fellow named Joe Maddy thought so.

He devoted almost all of his 74 years on this earth to music — and millions of people are happier for it.

As most readers probably know, Dr. Maddy died Monday.

His famed National Music Camp and Arts Academy at Interlochen stands today as a living, vibrant memorial to this man.

"Music's real value in education is as a great socializing force," he once said.

"That's why I'm more interested in orchestras, bands and choirs. Music must teach teamwork.

"It's like football, like a team sport.

"And that's what we try to impress on our young musicians from the start," he concluded.

Translate these thoughts to world conditions — and maybe you'll have an insight into peace.

LAST SUMMER, while the Riordans were vacationing on Crystal Lake at Luella and Chuck Bigelow's Hill & Dale Ranch, we drove to Interlochen.

It was a return visit after our first stop in 1963.

This time there was an added thrill — a chance to meet and chat briefly with Dr. Maddy and Van Cliburn. To the camp founder, Van was a young man of greatness. In turn, Mr. Cliburn regarded Dr. Maddy as a musical genius.

There was a rehearsal for the annual Cliburn concert, with Dr. Maddy directing the huge Interlochen orchestra.

I hovered nearby, snapping pictures.

The respect and admiration between Dr. Maddy and Cliburn was something one could almost feel. In turn, both were deeply devoted to the work of the young musicians in the orchestra.

There were stops and starts in the fabulously beautiful music, interspersed with comments by both conductor and soloist regarding interpretation of the scores.

As the afternoon sun flooded through the giant windows behind the stage of vast Kellogg Auditorium, the notes wafted in beautiful accord from the stage.

No wonder Joe Maddy thought of music as the best way to bring accord in the world.

Boy Scout Good Turn Day Coming

The Boy Scout good turn day for Goodwill is Saturday, April 23. During the past two weeks Goodwill bags have been distributed throughout the city by the local packs and troops.

These bags, when filled, will provide work for many handicapped people at the Goodwill Industries. Fill your bags with old repairable articles such as toys and clothing and place them on your front porch by 10 a.m. Saturday morning.

If the bags are not picked up please call the Goodwill Industries in Adrian.

Kuhlman Concrete Names J. Hopson Assistant Manager

John Hopson has been named to a new post as assistant general manager and quality control manager at Kuhlman Concrete, Inc.

Mr. Hopson has served with the State Highway Department, for the past two years and was employed by the Monroe County Road Commission.

Mr. Hopson, his wife, Joyce, and two children, John, Jr., 11, and Natalie, 13, live in Monroe, but plan to move to Tecumseh this summer.

Filter Installed

The new $5,900 swimming pool filter has been installed and will be ready for service by mid-May, Don Moffatt told the Parks and Recreation Board last week.

Six Bands To March

Six bands have agreed to participate in the annual Tecumseh Rotary Safety-Check parade on May 18.

Providing the music will be Tecumseh's varsity and cadet bands, Boysville, Clinton, Onsted and Britton-Macon.

The line of march will also include a queen and her court, Jaycee Auxiliary baby contest winners and antique cars.

Bob Cameron's 1925 Studebaker is another standout.

Chief Clark says all business places in the area are invited to put vehicles in the parade.

State Safety dignitaries who'll attend will include Robert T. Biggs, Tom Reid, William Walters and F. Granger Weil, members of the governor's state safety committee.

This year, the annual Rotary promotion will be expanded to include check lanes at area industries, including Tecumseh Products Co., H. W. Tuttle Co., Gray-Faraday, Stauffer Chemical Co. and Fisher Body.

This will allow vehicles to be inspected during noon breaks.

Checking of cars and trucks will be held for three days, May 18, 19 and 20.

Crews Pick Up Debris at Curbs Along City Streets

City crews will pick up trash along Tecumseh streets during the last week of April and the first week of May.

Residents are asked to haul debris they'd like collected to the edge of their property at the curb. It should not be put into the street, cautions City Manager Cal Zorn.

Leaves and grass should be placed in containers for easy handling.

Seal-Coat Job Slated for N. Union

Bumpy N. Union St. — from the Kirby Heights Subdivision to Paul's Trailer Court — will get a much needed seal-coat job this summer.

City Manager Cal Zorn got the go-ahead from Council Monday when he asked to smooth out the street after installing 14 water taps to the recently-installed line, between Pontiac Trail and the trailer park.

Future property owners will be charged for the main and taps as they become users, explained Mr. Zorn.

3 School Board Seats Going Up for Vote in June

Nominating petitions for three seats on the Tecumseh School Board are now available at the Board of Education office, 304 W. Chicago Blvd.

A pair of two-year terms and one one-year term will be on the June 13 ballot. Terms expiring are Robert H. Moore, Orville Bishop and Dr. Donald Phelan.

Dr. Phelan is now completing the seat vacated by the resignation of Herbert Simpson.

Petitions, with at least 50 signatures of qualified voters, must be filed by 4 p.m., Saturday, May 14.

Occidental Sewer To Go Chicago Blvd

A last-minute change in plans will extend the Occidental Hwy. storm sewer from Shady Lane to Chicago Blvd.

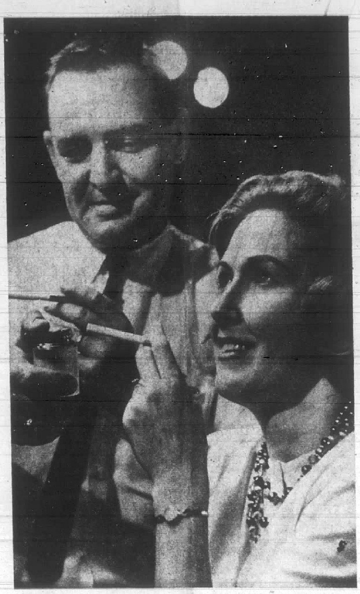
As first proposed, it was going to run from Shady to Willow St. Another line would go along Shady Lane, from Occidental to Murray Dr.

However, City Manager Cal Zorn asked Council Monday if it would be OK to eliminate the Shady Lane project and instead run the line on Occidental to Chicago.

The total Occidental project will cost $24,885 and be divided between Selders Excavating of Tecumseh and Douglas Higgins of Manchester.

The line will vary in size from 15" to 24".

When the job is completed, Occidental will then be seal coated.



HERALD PHOTO BY TOM RIORDAN

GIRL IN MIDDLE — Lori Egli accepts a light from Don Geiger, but her thoughts are a mile away. She's the lead in "Mary, Mary," Tecumseh Players' production which opens Thursday at the Community Center, and is caught between the affection of Don and her ex-husband, played by Dr. Bob Murray. Others in the cast include Ingrid VonKaler and Dick Boyd. A story about the show appears in Section B, page 2.

City Valuation Is $26,351,475

It's official now, Tecumseh's valuation is $26,351,475.

Broken down, there's $8,755,575 in personal and $17,351,900 in real property.

The figures were submitted to Council Monday by Larry Goddard, new city assessor.

Mr. Goodard reported that the three-member Board of Appeals spent 10 days in session, hearing complaints from 150 property owners over recent increases in valuation.

The Lenawee County Equalization Committee, in session this week, is expected to recognize Tecumseh's new local valuation as on a par with state equalized.

Last year, Tecumseh was 85% of the equalized figure.

The committee will report out Monday.

Schools Will Seek 4 Mills in June Vote

Voters in the Tecumseh Scsool District will be asked to approve four mills for two-years at the June 13 election.

This decision was reached Monday night by the School Board, after studying requests for school-wide salary increases, coupled with a capital outlay expenditure of $36,250.

For approximately one and one-half months, a negotiating committee, representing the Board, has met with teachers, bus drivers, custodians, maintenance employees and secretaries.

Negotiations with the teachers occurred during March with the two negotiating teams meeting once sometimes twice a week.

★

TOTAL INCREASE estimated in costs, all for salaries and fringe benefits is:

► Teachers — $78,860.

► Custodians and maintenance employees — $8,300.

► Sercetaries — $3,460.

► Bus drivers — $4,975.

► Bus supervision and mechanic — $1,422.

The $36,250 capital outlay is based on:

Full-time elementary principals, adjustments in their secretary's time and salary schedule — $5,600.

► Hoods for welding and heat treat program and a recovery air system at the high school — $7,000, required by State Department of Health.

► High school library clerk — $2,000, required by the North Central Association of Schools and Colleges.

► High school incinerator — $5,000.

► Additional secretarial help at high school — $2,000.

► Additional vocal and instrumental music teacher — $5,500.

► Additional parttime guidance counselor — $2,750.

► West Branch school maintenance's work — $3000.

► Crushed stone for drives and parking lots — $2,500.

► Increase mileage allowance from 8c to 10c — $900.

TOTAL ESTIMATED cost picture is $133,267 for the 1966-67 term. If four mills are approved, the schools would receive $164,000, about $31,000 in excess of what is now being asked.

However, reports throughout the county indicate the County Tax Allocation board will take one mill from the schools. This is the one mill that school authorities fought for last spring and were successful in obtaining.

Some supervisors are insisting that the mill be given back, although the county has surplus of funds. If the mill is taken, the schools will lose $41,000.

TWO YEARS AGO, the school electorate aproved four mills, which will expire in 1968. Four mills, if approved on June 13, also would expire in 1968.

This would make a total of eight mills for operating expenses expiring in 1968, along with 6.32 mills now taken for paying off construction bonds.

If the June millage is passed, it would give the local schools 14.3 mills from the city for general operation, and 13.3 mills from the townships for operation.

This is approximately four mills less than what Adrian is operating on.

See Editorial Section C, Page 6

Power Failure Throws Area Into Darkness

A half-hour of silence struck a large portion of Lenawee County Monday evening as a porcelain bushing at a Beecher St., Adrian, substation of Consumers Power Co. blew up.

Earl Parker of the Adrian office, Consumers Power, indicated that damage may have been much earlier and finally caused the Monday evening failure.

Tecumseh, Palmyra, Blissfield, Riga, Cadmus and Adrian were affected.

The power failure was not immediately evident due to daylight hours, however, machine production at industries throughout the area slammed to a halt.

Officials report the clocks stopped at 5:50 p.m. and rolled again at 6:20.

Letters Thank City Officials

Council received a letter from Fr. Thomas J. Collins, pastor of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, praising the clean-up job by Selders Excavating after completion of the Evans Creek Intercepter line.

Another note, from Art George, a Boy Scout leader, thanked the city for waving the usual building permit fee in conjunction with the coming $3,000 expansion to the Scout Cabin.

Seeking Curbs

A petition was filed with Council for curb and gutter along a section of Occidental Hwy., in the Shady Lane area. The project will probably be undertaken in the summer of 1967.

Hospital Auxiliary Marks Anniversary, Celebrates $74,000

By MRS. ROBERT KING, JR.

"For their years of generous contributions to the hospital and the community," the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will honor Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herrick, April 28, when the ladies officially recognize their 25th anniversary with a banquet at the Union Hall.

Since its 1941 organization this industrious group of women have devoted long hours for the betterment of the hospital. Their ambition has earned them the staggering figure of $74,663.50.

This money has gone for equipment to make the hospital more efficient, items that may not have been available quite so soon had it not been for the efforts of the auxiliary and their money raising projects.

Some of those contributions include delivery room air conditioning, incubator, resuscitators, electrocardiography, defibrilator, hot food carts, dishwasher, ice-machine furnishings for the recovery room and numerous others.

THE LANDSCAPING of the hospital grounds and the nursing home was a monumental program and one that the whole community can appreciate. At the present time their energies are directed toward the coronary unit and are soon to be realized.

Material contributions are not the sole purpose of the auxiliary for they also perform many services, among them sewing for the hospital.

During the war years the auxiliary sponsored the nurses aid training. They also sponsor the Future Nurses, and the "candy-stripers" and nursing scholarships are given each year to a deserving student.

The visitors check at the hospital, the cart with candies, cigarettes and other supplies as well as the televisions available for patients, and puppets for pediatric patients are additional anxiliary-sponsored services.

At the banquet, next Thursday evening, two life memberships will be presented, also the "Four Dads" will sing.

The speaker will be D. Eugene Sibery, executive director of the greater Detroit area Hospital Council Inc.

Wonder what Robin the Boy Wonder, Charles Finkbeiner, is plotting? Find the answer in Section C.

Putting Bend in Brown St.

Long a traffic trouble spot, the intersection of N. Evans and Brown Sts. will get a complete face-lifting.

Brown is going to be reshaped as it enters Evans, curving to the south, so that it will be in line with Herrick Park Dr.

This will mean cutting a slice off of the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church property, starting about 100 feet from the intersection.

A triangle of land, approximately the same size, will be added onto the north side of Brown (see drawing.)

This will keep Brown 38 feet wide. Herrick Park Dr. will be left at its present 34 feet.

Evans St. is being resurfaced and widened to 44 feet, which will allow four lanes of traffic, explains City Manager Cal Zorn.

A signal light is not presently in the plans, states Mr. Zorn, who feels that with turning lanes on Evans that the new pattern should offer an answer to the long-time jammed situation at the intersection.

IF THIS doesn't correct the problem, then a light will be considered.

Curb and gutter is being installed at the intersection and south along Evans St. to the Evans Creek bridge, then the roadway will be hard-topped.

Michigan Curb and Gutter was authorized by Council to handle the job and will begin work either the end of this week.

The firm's bid of $1.95 per foot was low among the five companies competing for the job. Besides N. Evans St., Michigan Curb and Gutter will also do spots along W. Kilbuck St. and Democrat St. for a total of $15,795, covering 8,100 feet.

SELDERS Excavating entered the low bid on the Evans St. sanitary sewer, which will run from Clark's Market to the VFW, along the west side of the roadway, at a total cost of $4,424.65.

Ayling - Cunningham was awarded the job of furnishing the bituminous concrete surface for Evans with a bid of $23,685.83.

Enthusiastic Dems Greet Vivian

An enthusiastic gathering of 140 Democrats at Tecumseh Community Center cheered Rep. Weston Vivian's announcement Monday that he'll run for re-election.

The Tecumseh stop was the last on a 10-hour grind that took Mr. Vivian to communities in Livingston, Washtenaw, Monroe and Lenawee Counties.

Accompanying him were Senator Philip Hart and Democratic national committeeman Neil Staebler.

SENATOR HART, in introducing Mr. Vivian, lauded him for his representation of the 2nd District.

In turn, Mr. Vivian said he was anxious to continue in the role and among other items specifically mentioned the hope that residents would come up with a solid plan to reclaim the River Raisin. "I'm anxious to work with them," he added.

"In the past two years, I have learned much about the people of this District — their problems, their hopes, their fears, their needs, their thoughts on many subjects.

"During my campaign, I said that I would support health care for the elderly, increased aid to education, action toward the abatement of pollution, conservation of our natural resources, reform of our immigration laws, and a cold war G. I. bill.

"The 89th Congress has enacted legislation in these fields — legislation designed to enhance and extend prosperity, to more fully realize justice, to assure our security and the security of our children in a tempestuous world," he said.

Speaking of the present session of Congress, Mr. Vivian commented that "our greater concern this year is with the consolidation of progress at home, the encouragement of progress abroad, and the pursuit of peace — in Southeast Asia, in Africa, in every troubled area of our globe."

He was optimistic over the Vietnam situation, noting that the present civil upheavel should eventually prove a help to the problem of who will govern the country.

A TEEN-AGE band greeted Mr. Vivian and placard-bearing youngsters paraded through the room when he arrived.

The Congressman said the Tecumseh meeting was the best attended and peppiest of the live-community circuit.

Coffee, donuts and sweet rolls were served.

Making arrangements for the session were Mrs. Gerald Henricks, Bob MacLean and Frank Lasky.

Eisenmann To Again Seek GOP Nomination

PALMYRA — Virgil E. Eisenmann will again be a Republican candidate for State Representative from the 40th District.

Presently in his 11th year as math teacher at Blissfield High School, he also is a life insurance agent, with past experience as a factory worker and in the farm implement field.

Mr. Eisenmann, age 48, and his wife, Helen, have two sons, Timothy, 20, and Thomas, 19, students at Michigan State University and two daughters, Mary, 16, and Jane, 14, students at Blissfield High School.

Mr. Eisenmann says, "Two years ago, on my first try in a three-man race, I received two-thirds as many votes as the incumbent, who will have served 22 years."

With a master's degree in administration from Michigan State University and a bachelor's degree in science from Eastern Michigan University, as well as work from five other colleges and Universities, Mr. Eisenmann will serve as a delegate to county and state Republican Conventions.

Should UN Seat China?

By TOM RIORDAN

"Red China should be offered a seat in the United Nations, with certain proper conditions," Detroit Mayor Jerry Cavanagh told 330 attending last week's Adrian Area Chamber of Commerce dinner.

"We must deal with the world as it is, not the world as we would like it to be," he added.

The mayor said there must be a way for the United States to have dialog directly with Red China, to iron out differences. His proposal: a UN seat, instead of angling through some "fourth string Polish diplomat."

Currently in the midst of a campaign against G. Mennen Williams to win the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senator, the guest touched heavily on the international picture.

HE NOTED that our foreign policy is still "limited to the basic lines laid down in 1946 and 1949 in the Truman Doctrine, the Marshall Plan, NATO and the containment policy."

It "is being subject to new scrutiny by a wide range of men, Democrats and Republicans alike.

"I believe it is time we took another look at that (Vietnam) war, at its consquences for Americans and its impact on the world scene," he said.

The mayor was lavish in his praise of Lenawee County, noting, "You are doubly blessed by the presence of the distinguished Michigan citizen Ray Herrick. His generosity in advancing education, spiritual and physical well being is a great force in this area.

"Your potential for the future is obviously great even greater than your present accomplishments. Industry has obviously agreed," the speaker said.

Outgoing Chamber president Ted Durst outlined achievements of the group during his tenure.

Jim Hazen was toastmaster.

Jean Gould, Tim Johnston Are Married

Barbara Jean Gould and Timothy Eugene Johnston were united in marriage Saturday evening at the Raisin Valley Friends Church by the Rev. Lawrence [illegible]

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould, Morenci, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harlen Johnston, Tipton.

The bride wore a floor length gown of organza over taffeta fea- [illegible] tapered sleeves and a chapel train.

She carried a cascade arrangement of white roses and daisies.

Judy Gould was her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Bonnie Gould and [illegible] Johnston, niece of the bride, was the flower girl.

All the attendants wore matching floor length gowns of pastel blue and carried blue and yellow bouquets.

Tom Richardson served as best man and the guests were seated by Ray Griffin and David Woods.

Also seating the guests were Alan Gould and Steven Johnston. Mark Johnston, brother of the groom, served as ring bearer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Garrow were the hosts for a reception at the Morenci Elementary School for 250 guests attending.

Mrs. Johnston was previously employed at Bancroft Cleaners in Morenci. Her husband is employed at the Rawsonville plant of the Ford Motor Co.

The couple will reside in Tipton. Mr. and Mrs. Harlen Johnston entertained for the rehearsal party at their home, Friday evening.

MRS. TIMOTHY EUGENE JOHNSTON

MRS. WILBUR C. STEIH

Carol Marks, Wilbur Steih Repeat Vows

Carol Marks and Wilbur C. Steih were united in marriage, April 15, by the Rev. Daniel Mathes at the Immanuel Lutheran Church, North Blissfield.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marks, Britton and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steih, Riga.

The double-ring ceremony was performed in candle light before the altar decorated with yellow carnations and white gladioli. Pews were marked with yellow satin bows.

The bride entered the church escorted by her father. She wore a floor length gown of white organdy and Chantilly lace, a Queen's Fit creation, fashioned in full bouffant style with lace bodice and a removable chapel train.

Her veil of elbow length illusion was caught to a crown of organza and net trimmed with pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with yellow roses, ivy and white orchid.

Maid of honor was Judy Marks, sister of the bride, in a gown of yellow with a high rise waistline, lace bodice and sheath skirt.

Her head apparel was yellow net with a cluster of yellow flowers and she carried white carnations and yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Marilyn Emmons of Riga and Mrs. Dianna Brenke of Blissfield, friends of the bride.

The bridesmaids were attired as the maid of monor. Melvin Kerentoff of Lambertville, friend of groom, served as best man and the ushers were Jerry Marks, brother of bride, and Fred Wegner of Blissfield, cousin of bride.

The reception was held at Products Union Hall with 500 guests attending.

The bride's table was flounced with white net over yellow taffeta with yellow bows.

Mrs. Stanley Wegner, aunt of the bride, poured coffee and Nadine Pieh, aunt of groom, poured punch.

Mrs. Arthur Golembiewski, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake.

Nancy Marks, cousin of the bride, had charge of guest book and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Whiton, aunt and uncle of the bride, served as host and hostess for the reception.

The bride was graduated from Blissfield High School, 1963, and from Ann Arbor Practical Nursing Center, 1964. She is employed at Bixby Hospital.

The groom was graduated from Blissfield High School in 1963. He is a cabinet-maker for Weinlander Wood Products and Home Supplies of Blissfield.

Rehearsal dinner was Thursday night at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steih of Riga.

The newlyweds will reside at 7386 Riga Hwy.

Report from Italy

By HAL WEAKLY

MILAN, Italy — Well I've added another year of maturity — not age — to my life. The gang at the youth hostel even bought me an Italian cake when they found out.

When I last wrote, I was on my way to Venice and believe me, it is really something. The gondolas were relaxing and in order to get from place to place, one has to take a motor launch, Venice's form of bus transportation.

While I was on the Lido, the famous beach, I met John Chaney of Portland, Ore., who had followed practically the identical itinerary as I had throughout Europe.

We had a good time discussing what we had seen and done. After I left impressive St. Mark's Square, with its magnificent basilica and Ducal Palace, I was on my way south to warmer weather.

BRINDISI, near the heel of the boot of Italy, was where I caught a boat across the Adriatic to Athens, Greece.

The trip took two days and was somewhat rough. Luckily, I had my seasick pills and all went well. They say it's all in the head, anyway. Yeh, it is!

There was much to see in Athens, but just observing the people and eating the food was enjoyable. The most noteworthy sight, of course, is the Parthenon which stands on the high rocky hill of the Acropolis.

The ruins are well-preserved and impressive. The view of the city from the Acropolis is breathtaking. After a couple of wonderful days in Athens, we left the port city of Peiraivs for a couple of the southern Greek islands.

THE FIRST one, Mykonis, with all of its windmills and all white adobe-type houses. The beach was white sand and the water was aquamarine and as clear as a bell.

It was truly an island paradise. From Mykonis I went to Delosv, believed to be the birthplace of Apollo, from there to Tinos and Siros, each having their own unique beauty.

The boat trip to Italy was pleasant. Once on the main land, I was on my way across the foot of Italy to Sicily. My journey was down the east coast, past magnificent Mt. Etna to Catania, where the weather was wonderful, but I didn't stay long because snow was on its way from Palarmo.'

Snow in Sicily at this time of year is virtually unheard of so I considered it a bad omen and turned back to the boot of Italy.

THE BOAT ride from Messina, Sicily, to Villa Inn Giovanni, the little town at the toe of the boot, was short and I was soon back on the tracks, headed north to Scilla.

It was dusk when the train roared out of the tunnel and there was Scilla cut into the mountain side overlooking the beautiful bay. I knew it was Scilla because jutting out into the bay was a huge cliff with Scilla castle and the lighthouse perched atop.

Believe it or not, this castle was my quarters for the next two nights. It has been converted into one of the most beautiful hostels in Europe.

THERE IS so much history behind it and Homer mentions it in his Odyssey. When my washing, which was hanging on the fig tree in the courtyard, was dry, I packed up and started out once more.

My first stop was Salerno, where I took a bus along the Afalfi Drive to Sorrento. This drive just has to be the most beautiful in the world.

I was tempted to stay at one of the small resort towns along the coast, but I continued on my way and by evening I was in Naples. The next morning it was out to the marvelous ruins of Pompeii with old Mt. Vesuvius in the distance.

It gave me a funny feeling to look at the huge volcano and think of the power it must have had to take the city by surprise. In the museum there are even lava-covered bodies.

Well my time and paper are running out, so I'd better catch my train for the Eternal City, Rome.

Mrs. Thompson Describes German Gardens

Mrs. John Thompson gave a description of springtime gardens in Germany, to the members of the Tecumseh Garden Club, at her home, Frid[illegible]

Mrs. Thompson accompanied her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Thompson of Adrian, on a visit to the latter's family home in Bavaria, Germany, last May.

Mrs. Thompson told of the beautiful gardens of tulips, primroses, pansies and forget-me-nots which were at the height of their spring brilliance at that time.

The Bavarians do not waste an inch of ground. Every one has a vegetable garden with potatoes, lettuce and unusual white asparagus. Colorful window boxes of flowers and plants enhance every house.

Mrs. E. . Mcain conducted the business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Archie Dunsmore.

Fifteen members and one guest, Mrs. LeRoy Titley, were present.

Mrs. Maul Maves and Mary McWilliams served salads, crackers and tea.

"Don't know who's the sweller, the little gal or her feller"

"Pineapples and sugar cane," a delightful tan and a flashing smile tell Tecumseh friends that Hazel Bonner and her husband, Bob, had an exciting trip to the Hawaiian Island in celebration of their 35th wedding anniversary.

A leisurley four and one-half day trip by ship from Los Angeles to Honolulu set the pace for the 18-day "honeymoon" for the couple, quite the reverse from the four and one-half hours it took them to return by plane.

Can't think of a more wonderful way to celebrate. Many more years of marital bliss, you happy people.

Russell McKenzie, son of Mrs. Naomi Martin, 5 Occidental Hwy., is home on leave after serving in Vietnam. He will return there May 5 continuing 14½ years in the Seabees.

A welcoming party was held recently for him and his wife, Betsy, and the two sons, Russell and Brent, at the VFW Hall.

About 30 attended the family gathering including his sister, Mrs. Charles Coffey from Brunswick, Ga., another two sisters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Steele, Manchester and Mr. and Mrs. Jameson Ford of Saline and Mr. and Mrs. Don Ford, also of Saline.

The McKenzies are presently house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Des Ermia and will be at the Martin home next week.

McKenzie has high praise for the Green Berets, has been made an honorary member, having served with them.

He says that their work is outstanding, they are the select, top men in the service.

His mother said Wednesday that he is disturbed by racial prejudice, having seen the colored race in service and sacrifice over there.

Mrs. McKenzie and the boys came from the Marine base at Port Hueneme, Calif. and will stay with Mrs. Martin for the duration of McKenzie's service.

Conducts Last Meeting

Mary McWilliams, out-going president, conducted her final meeting of the current year for the Tecumseh Monday Club, April 18, following a luncheon at the Youth House of the First Baptist Church.

Sixty-nine members and guests were seated for the dinner served by the church ladies.

Mrs. Edward Aebersold introduced the six past presidents attending and Mrs. Walter Prill, first vice-president, introduced the officers for the coming year in the absence of the new president, Mrs. Joe Rice.

Mrs. Sydney Wilson and Edith Ingersoll, two deceased members, were honored with a musical tribute by Mrs. Wilfred Waldron at the piano.

Mrs. W. J. Morse was recognized as the oldest member of the club attending, having recently observed her 97th birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Truman Rentschler Lenawee County Federation president, talked about the meeting in Adrian this week when the local club will be hostesses.

Mrs. James Danforth, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Oberlin, sang "In the Garden of Tomorrow" and then joined her in a duet, "A Brown Bird Singing."

Mrs. Lillian Hoagland, program leader, presented Mrs. E. H. McConnell who spoke and displayed her collection of unusual shells from the Florida beaches.

Mrs. McConnell said that the Smithsonian Institute lists five million different shells, each with a Latin name.

Shell collectors buy shells not available in this country and trade among themselves just as stamp or coin collectors do.

Minute and fragile shells were shown under glass to protect them. Others were arranged in a centerpiece.

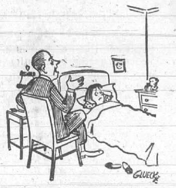
From the smallest, about one-quarter of an inch, to the largest, about 18 inches, the colors, shapes and marine life that once inhabited these shells made a delightfully interesting and educational program given by Mrs. McConnell.

Tables were decorated with centerpieces of mirrors representing water with sandy beach edges containing shells and dried sea wood.

Grasses, coral, starfish, clams, snail and assorted shells bordered the tables. Nut cups were half-shells filled with candy and nuts.

Miss McWilliams was given a past president's pin by her officers and she gave a gift to each of her officers.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Aebersold presented a long stemmed red rose to the retiring president and welcomed her to the past presidents group.



"And the third little pig built according to all the local building codes, using only approved materials and methods, thus avoiding all the pitfalls."

Ministers Will Change Pulpits Once

The Rev. Paul Tiedmann of Mason and the Rev. Dr. Laszlo Gero will exchange pulpits Sunday.

The Southern District of the Michigan Synod of the LCA made a recommendation to pastors to participate in a pulpit exchange on the second Sunday after Easter, April 24.

The purpose of this exchange is threefold: to give the congregations an opportunity to hear another pastor, to give congregations an opportunity to gain a better appreciation of the total work of the church, and visiting pastors may reinforce and undergird the local pastor's ministry.

The assignment suggested that pastors of mission congregations should visit "established" congregations and vice-versa, then pastors of larger congregations should preach before smaller congregations and vice-versa.

The guest pastors will perform functions normally required of a guest pastor in the congregation.

Rev. Paul Tiedmann, who will take Pastor Gero's pulpit next Sunday, is the pastor of the All-Saint's Congregation in Mason.

Pastor Gero was assigned to preach in the Mt. Hope Lutheran Church in Marshall.

Baptist Church Choir Honors Truman Forest

The choir of the First Baptist Church honored their director, Truman Forest, on the occasion of his birthday anniversary following regular rehearsal, April 13.

Cakes and coffee were furnished by Mrs. Stanley Cook, Mrs. Vern Manwaring and Mrs. John Westgate.

A gift from the group was presented by Mrs. Westgate.

Retirement Plan for City Workers Is Raised 66%

An increase in the city employee retirement program was approved Monday by Council.

Thirty-six workers will jump their contributions into the fund, from 3% to 5%. The city will up its share from 6% to 8.4%, beginning July 1.

The pension factor will now be 1.66%. It has been 1%. The figure is multiplied by the number of years of service times the average salary earned during the highest five years worked in the last 10 to determine annual retirement payments.

Dr. Gottesman Will Address Service Council

Dr. Leonard Gottesman of the Department of Geroniology at the University of Michigan will be the speaker at the recognition day program of the Ypsilanti State Hospital Volunteer Service Council.

The message will be presented at 10:20 a.m., May 31.

Pro-Home Rule

A resolution favoring home rule government is being framed by city attorney Jim Beardsley at the request of Council.

The action came at the urging of Grosse Pointe Woods officials, who want small communities to battle state take-over of local governing rights.

Council To Name

City Council will probably name another member of the City Planning Commission in May, replacing Dr. Carlton Cook, who resigned when he was elected to Council.

Hurler Pease Allows 1 Hit in 6 Innings

Tecumseh High's baseball team hosts Airport Friday in a Huron League game, on Recreation Field diamond at 4 p.m.

Rain washed out this week's opener with Milan, first set for Tuesday and then Wednesday.

Coach Carl Hale's club had a perfect exhibition record in three contests, taking Addison, 7-1, last week in the finale.

Sheldon Pease allowed one hit in the six innings he worked, with Dean Hebb finishing on the mound. Pease struck out four.

Shortstop Bill Davis was the big man with the bat, collecting two of the Indians' four hits.

Next Tuesday, Tecumseh is scheduled for Flat Rock.

Girl Athletes Hold Tourneys

The girls physical education classes recently conducted a shuffleboard and table tennis tournament.

The following girls were champions in shuffleboard.

Linda Young and Cris Schmitz,

Linda Brazee and Emily Manwaring,

Connie Cox and Karen Miller.

Winners in table tennis are:

Cathy Beevers and Debbie Blanchard,

Cris Schmitz and Linda Young,

Pat Morris and Marilyn Curtiss,

Emily Manwaring and Linda Brazee,

Kathy Refner and Susie Smock.

Two Earn All-A Cards at State

EAST LANSING — Michigan State University has honored 462 students — including two from Tecumseh — who achieved all-A records during the winter term.

Names of the students will be placed on the all-A honor roll, which offers "recognition of the highest attainment in scholarship."

Dr. John A. Hannah, MSU president, feted the students at a dinner.

The local students are:

Mary Boynton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin R. Boynton, 4171 Allen Rd., no major declared.

Timothy Sisson, son of Mrs. Helen Sisson, 200 Chippewa St., social science.

Young Tallies 15 in Track Victory

Roger Young totaled 15 points to lead Tecumseh track men to a 57-54 victory over Hillsdale.

Roger won 100 and 220-yard dash competition and pulled a third place in the long jump in addition to his winning ways in the relay races.

Wins in the mile, Boldon at 5:04 and in 120 high hurdles, Hannibal 15.8 seconds, gave the Indians the margin.

Hillsdale traveler Thane Campbell split the two hurdle races with Lee Hannibal taking the 180-yard lows.

Competition, winners and winning times follow:

He's hoping to buy baseball equipment for summer play with profits from sale of the tickets.

Detroit Caller To Send Dancers 'On Their Way'

The Shawnee Squares will dance to the calling of Chuck Dillenbeck of Detroit Saturday evening at 8 in the Community Center.

All western style square dancers are invited by the committee to attend.

A special square dance will be held April 30, a fifth Saturday, featuring Norm Eiseman of Findlay, Ohio. John E. Sudio will also be present.

Single Eights Square Dance Planned Friday

"Shenanigans Night" sponsored by the [illegible] Square Dance Club will be held Friday, April 29, at Pattengill School, 2100 Crestland St., Ann Arbor.

Pat Matthews will be the caller and everyone is invited, single or double.

This dance is in addition to regular dances held the first and third Fridays of each month.

Chicken Basket Opens Thursday

The Chicken Basket, formerly called Dairy Delight, will open Thursday under new ownership.

Mrs. Vera Makowsky has purchased the property and the business at 306 N. Evans St. from Mrs. Nancy Hamilton.

Mrs. Makowsky has been employed with the Faraday Division, Gray Manufacturing Corp., for 10 years, living in Adrian until she moved to Tecumseh two years ago.

She has two daughters, JoAnn and Joyce.

The new owner said Tuesday, that she simply wanted to try running a business of her own and decided to try the restaurant.

Equipment for the special broasted chicken she plans to feature on her menu has not arrived as yet and a gas line is to be installed in the building.

After completion of the work, she will be ready to serve a complete menu of carry-out foods.

Will Nominate

A nomination of officers will be held following the regular meeting April 26, of the Chiefs Aerie No. 1563, Eagles.

Duaine Creger said Wednesday that the meeting will begin promptly at 8 p.m.

5 Motorists Are Cited by Police

Although only four accidents were checked by Tecumseh police during the past week, five operators were ticketed for violations.

A resume is:

Aril 15 — William Hamilton, 60, of 505 N. Union St., was cited twice by police after running into a parked car owned by Fay Whelan, 111 W. Logan St. Hamilton was charged with failure to have his car under control and for leaving the scene of an accident.

April 16 — Both Frances F. Gamboe, 26, Clinton and Raymond O. Clark, 43, Clinton, were cited after Clark ran into the rear of Mrs. Gamboe's car on W. Chicago Blvd. Clark was charged with failure to stop within an assured clear distance, and Mrs. Gamboe, failure to exercise due care.

April 19 — Joyce M. Johnson, 45, Saline, failed to make the turn off Macon Rd. onto N. Evans St. and hit a guard post. She was charged with failure to have her car under control.

April 19 — Emery E. Mallony, 37, Blissfield, driving a truck and attempting to make a right turn off N. Evans into an alley, was struck by Edgar J. Pistole Jr., 30, of 412 E. Shawnee St. Pistole was cited for failure to stop within an assured clear distance.

School Plans Classroom For Crippled

Plans were announced at the School Board meeting Monday night for a one-room extension at the north end of the high school building.

The 40' - 28' addition is for a crippled children's classroom and will include an elevator to the second floor.

Cost will be paid by government funds.

Obituaries

● MRS. WALLACE B. MacGEORGE

Services will be held Friday at 1:30 p.m. at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church for Mrs. Wallace MacGeorge, 41, of 216 Park St., who died Tuesday about 5 p.m., at Herrick Memorial Hospital where she had been a patient for four days.

She had been ill for three years.

Born June 13, 1924, in Deerfield, Marguerite MacGeorge was the daughter of August and Marie Riebe Ehlert.

She married Wallace MacGeorge Feb. 2, 1946, in Adrian and had been a resident of Tecumseh for 18 years.

Mrs. MacGeorge was baptized and confirmed in North Blissfield Lutheran Church. She was a member of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, the Underwood-Orr Post, American Legion Auxiliary and the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two daughters, Sharon,8, and Sandra, 3, at home; one brother, Robert Ehlert, of Britton, and one sister, Mrs. Hilda Dermyer of Adrian.

Mrs. MacGeorge was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers and a sister.

The Rev. Laszlo Gero will officiate and burial will be in Brookside Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home after 7:30 Wednesday evening and until noon Friday.

● ROSE E. MARTINY

Services will be held Friday at 1:30 p.m. at the Proctor Funeral Home, Clinton, for Rose E. Martiny, 85, who died Tuesday evening at Herrick Nursing Home where she had been a patient 16 months.

Her address was 223 Church St., Clinton. Miss Martiny never married.

Born June 28, 1880, in Clinton, she was the daughter of Jacob and Christine Martiny.

Miss Martiny was a life member of the Order of the Eastern Star and the United Church of Christ.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Clara Conner and Anna Martiny, both of Clinton.

Two brothers, Ned and Ed, and one sister, Christine, preceded her in death.

The Rev. Paul McKenna will officiate and burial will be in the Riverside Cemetery.

● MRS. LAWRENCE W. MARTINDALE

Services were held Wednesday in Bay City for Mrs. Lawrence Martindale, 80, who died of a heart attack at her home there Monday.

A former Tecumseh resident and frequent visitor here, she was the former Ethel Ames.

Most of her childhood was spent here and some years after her marriage before she and her husband, G. W. Ames, moved to Bay City about 30 years ago.

Survivors include her husband and two children, David, and Mrs. R. J. Downer, and three grandchildren, all of Bay City.

● AIRMAN RICHARD A. KELLER

Services were held Monday in Adrian for Airman Second Class Richard Keller, 24, 406 E. Pottawatamie St. who died as the result of an auto accident April 13.

The navy electrician was stationed at Grosse Ile Naval Air Station.

Born in Morenci Sept. 30, 1941, he was graduated from Adrian High School in 1958 and enlisted in the naval reserve. He had been on active duty since 1960.

He is survived by his wife, Loah Nichols Keller, two sons, Robert Lauren and Clark Adam, 3, his parents, Adam Keller and Mrs. Audrey Lawson, both of Adrian.

Other survivors are his grandmothers, Mrs. Anna Keller of Adrian and Mrs. Rachel Willett of Morenci, three sisters, Mrs. Henry Shepherd of Adrian, Mrs. Thomas Amos of Morenci and Terri Keller of Adrian.

A twin brother preceded him in death.

Airman Keller was a member of Grace Lutheran Church.

The Rev. K. E. Koeplin officiated and burial was in the Lenawee Hills Memorial Park.

Pythian Sisters Invited to Attend District Confab

An invitation to attend the convention of Michigan Pythian Sisters of District No. 6 was read at the meeting, April 13, in the Pythian Hall.

The event will be held in Tipton, May 3. The Josephine H. Hall Temple No. 49 was asked to conduct the memorial service.

Mrs. Robert Wood read a report from the building committee stating that the date for the mortgage burning ceremony will be May 1.

The charter was draped in memory of the late Mrs. Sidney Wilson. The ceremony was performed by the excellent senior, Mrs. Walter Hizer, excellent junior Mrs. Russell Keith and the manager, Mrs. Harry Schuch.

Mrs. Verdi Skinner read the eulogy. Mrs. Lynn Hubbard led in prayer and Mrs. Cecil Smith closed the ceremony with a poem and prayer.

A Past chiefs benefit party was announced to be held April 21 at the hall with an invitation extended to the public.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harry Schuch, Mrs. Duncan Oliphant, Mrs. Neva Jacobs and Mrs. Fred Marsh.

Mike's Donut Shop Opens in Remodeled Building

Newest business in Tecumseh officially opened here Monday when Mike Osburn opened Mike's Donut Shop, next to A&P and Fabricare.

Specializing in doughnuts and rolls, the new owner will be open six and a half days a week, closing at noon on Sundays.

The retail outlet is located in what was formerly Osburn's Car Wash. Extensive remodeling over the past several weeks has been completed.

AAA Traffic Survey Pinpoints County's Road Trouble Spots

Single car accidents involving drivers between 16 and 25 years of age were cited as a major traffic problem in Lenawee County in the Automobile Club of Michigan's traffic survey.

Resort area roads around Devil's Lake and Round Lake, plus access roads near Adrian and Tecumseh, were also mentioned as major traffic problems since they are high accident locations badly in need of physical improvements.

The $8,860 survey was conducted at no cost to Lenawee County last August at the Board of Supervisors' request. A three-man team of Auto Club traffic research specialists spent four weeks on this public service project.

Accident records on the entire road system, from 1961 to 1964, were studied.

"The accident total for 1964 on the County Road System alone was 439, or 65% of the 675 recorded for the state trunklines and county roads combined," reads the report.

Further analysis of accident records revealed that 233 accidents, or 53% of the County road total, were single car mishaps.

"The single car accident problem is also a young-driver problem in this county," states the survey. "Teenagers were involved in 79 — or 34% — of these accidents. The age group from 16 through 25 accounted for 140 accidents or 60% of the 1964 total."

Auto Club safety officials point out that traffic violations were indicated in over 80% of the accidents reported for all age groups, and violations of the speed law were noted in over one-third of all accidents.

AS AN immediate method of reducing the young-driver accidents, however, the survey recommends that a traffic school co-sponsored by the Auto Club and local police officials be established as soon as possible.

Auto Club points out that both the behind-the-wheel skill and attitudes of young motorists in the area must be improved if accidents are to be reduced significantly.

Sheriff Department records on county accidents showed that resort-area roads and those around Adrian and Tecumseh were badly in need of improvements since they are high accident locations.

"At Devil's Lake and in the Round Lake area, the road system is not physically designed or adequately controlled in relation to the traffic demands generated by the abutting land use," points out Auto Club's survey.

"Wider roadways, wider shoulders or curbs and gutters, parking controls, street lighting and enforceable speed controls are required on the road system in this area," states the survey.

Auto Club points out that while these recommendations are considered too costly by some persons, the recurring cost of traffic accidents must be measured against this opinion.

THE ROADS that provide access to Adrian and Tecumseh are carrying more traffic as industry and commercial facilities expand and generate more vehicle trips each day.

The survey states that physical improvements better traffic control devices and accelerated road patrol by the Sheriff's Department are all required to adequately handle the traffic problems on these roads.

"The County Road Commission has made a great deal of progress in up-grading the traffic control devices on the county road system in the past few years," says the survey. "Major roads and paved roads are nearly all protected at all intersections by stop or yield signs."

But, states Auto Club, many of these signs are placed too far back from the edge of the intersection. Also, additional signing is needed on major roads where changes in alignment call for a reduction in speed.

The use of advisory speed pan-

TOPS AT KNOX — John C. Wotring, husband of the former Barbara Rozelle, of Tecumseh, as awarded a trophy for a physical proficiency test in which he placed highest in his battalion at Fort Knox, Ky., this past weekend. John earned 482 points out of a possible 500 for skills in track, grenade-throwing, etc. A graduate of Sand Creek High School, John will return to Fort Knox after a leave for advanced individual training.

Dairy Specialists of 4-H Touring MMPA Layout

Nearly 70 of the state's top 4-H Club dairy project members, including two representatives from Lenawee County, will participate in the upcoming annual 4-H Milk Marketing Tour in Detroit.

The annual tour, sponsored by the Michigan Milk Producers Association in conjunction with the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service, will be held on Friday and Saturday.

Purpose of the annual tour is to provide 4-H Club dairy members with information on the complex milk marketing business, says J. Ray Gillespie, Extension 4-H Youth Agent.

Delegates from Lenawee County include Don Palpant and Gordon Ringkvist with George Lennon, 4-H leader, from Clayton Farmers & Belles.

Onsted Pays Off Building Bond 7 Years Early

Onsted Community Schools retired a high school debt of $475,000 this month with a payment of $50,000, seven years ahead of schedule.

The four mill tax will no longer be remitted by district members.

Although $45,000 remains to be paid, reserve funds are sufficient to cover the amount, stated school superintendent Elwood Little who made the announcement.

The millage was voted to pay for the middle section of the building complex housing classrooms for high school students. The section was constructed in 1955.

Due date for the debt was 1973.

els on curve signs and target arrows will reduce the potential hazard at such locations.

IMPROVED signing is also needed at "T" intersections, which are prevalent throughout the county. Signs indicating upcoming stops are needed on approaches to dead-end roads to augment stop signs. Target arrows should be placed at the end of the dead-end roadway in such a position that they are visible for at least 500 feet.

"Another traffic control device that is effective is pavement marking. The cost is relatively low in relation to its value in insuring the orderly movement of traffic," states the survey.

The Road Commission is painting centerlines and barrier lines on over 100 miles of roadway, or 10% of the total road system.

Auto Club recommends that this program be accelerated so that centerlines, barrier lines and edge markings be painted on the major road system each year, and on secondary roads every two years.

DURING THE appraisal of the major roads in the Adrian-Tecumseh area, one problem was brought to the attention of the survey crew. This involved the proper design of Occidental Rd. at the new Fisher Body plant.

Traffic counts were made on Occidental at driveways serving this plant during the summer of 1965. No apparent difficulty was indicated at that time.

However, it now has become necessary to control turning movements during shift changes and to provide extra road capacity in this area.

An additional lane of pavement is suggested on the east side of Occidental at the plant to permit northbound traffic to by-pass vehicles waiting to enter the south driveway and to provide merging space for cars turning left out of the north driveway.

AUTO CLUB suggests that the County Board of Supervisors carefully review the manpower of the Sheriff's Department in relation to the pressing need for more road patrol and law enforcement.

"It is the Automobile Club of Michigan's considered opinion that additional manpower and equipment is needed," states the survey.

The survey also mentions that "the engineering phase of a safety program is the responsibility of the County Road Commission. The physical improvement of the road system and the provision of adequate traffic control signs, pavement markings and street lighting all lie within their province.

In addition, the survey shows that out of the 439 accidents recorded on the county road system in 1964, three were fatal accidents, 170 injury accidents and 266 property damage accidents.

"EDUCATION can be augmented through the Police-Auto Club Safety School recommended in this report," states the survey. "This type of school has met with good public acceptance in other parts of the state.

"It provides unique opportunity for drivers who have never attended driver training programs to learn about safe driving practices, and for other drivers who need to improve their knowledge to do so."

Auto Club points out that time of day, and day of the week were also significant factors connected with most Lenawee County car collisions.

In 1964, the peak accident hour was between [illegible] p.m. and 5 p.m. with the peak accident day on Saturday.

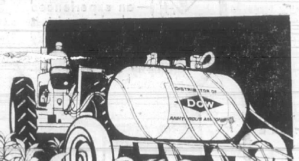
C S Church Will Study 'Probation'

The necessity for continuing spiritual growth to realize eternal life is a central theme of this Sunday's service at all Christian Science churches. Subject of the Bible Lesson is "Probation After Death."

The Golden Text is from James: "Let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing."



You may save $6 to $8 per acre with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia: lowest cost nitrogen in the field.

The reason is, anhydrous ammonia gives you far more nitrogen per pound than any other nitrogen fertilizer. Which means it takes far less Dow Anhydrous Ammonia to do the job than it does with any other form of nitrogen fertilizer.

If you're planting corn on corn, it will take 150 to 200 pounds of nitrogen per acre to decay the old stalks and still have the nitrogen you need for high yields. Supply this nitrogen with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia and you may save as much as $6 to $8 an acre. And boost crop yield quality and feed grain protein content while you do it. It's so long-lasting, one application is all you need. See us today for details. And save some money for a change.

MRS. WALTER ELWARTOWSKI WITH AWARD SHE WON

Mrs. Elwartowski Wins 'Outstanding Jaycette' Trophy

Mrs. Walter Elwartowski was chosen to represent District 3 as "Outstanding Jaycette" and was awarded a trophy and certificate as well as the title at the spring meeting in Chelsea.

She was selected by secret ballot by the local Auxiliary and then when presidents of the district could not reach a decision she was chosen by Mrs. Jeanne Beauvia, state president.

Mrs. Elwartowski will compete with winners from 16 other districts for the state title to be announced May 7, in Lansing

A member of the local Jaycee Auxiliary since May, 1963, Mrs. Elwartowski has been active and well organized in all projects. She started the statistics book which gives detailed information of each member.

She has been outstanding in attendance at both local and state meetings and has a record of nine visitations to other clubs in the district this year.

She is the district co-ordinator of a project called HELP MRS. — Help Emotionally Disturbed Little People and Mentally Retarded Succeed.

The outstanding Jaycette has chaired many projects for the local group including a membership tea, hobby show, chuck wagon, social and baby contest.

She was co-chairman of the Ypsilanti Patient program. She is standing photographic chairman for the local club.

Mrs. Elwartowski is the wife of Dr. W. Elwartowski, local chiropractor and active Jaycee. The couple live at 202 W. Chicago Blvd. and have two little daughters, Darlene and Nancy.

Egli Directs 'Mary, Mary'

By JUDY VANZO

Dick Egli, sales manager at WABJ Radio, Adrian, is leading the local thespians to their goal of comedy and fun in "Mary, Mary," the Tecumseh Players' final show of the season.

Dick's first association with the Players was in the role of Sky Masterson in the recent productino of "Guys and Dolls."

It is a coincidence that Dick, who graduated from Westminster College in Pennsylvania, with a major in radio and theatre, was engaged in theatrical activities with William McAnellan, former director at the Clark Lake Players and also of Tecumseh Players musicals.

Dick was director of the Red Barn Theatre at Fort Sill, Okla., and has appeared in "Dear Ruth", "Antigone", "Light up the Sky", and "Years Ago".

Studying at Michigan State University, Dick received a masters degree in the area of communications. He also was an emcee of a teenage variety show on channel 10 television.

Dick, his talented wife, Lori, and three daughters reside in Tecumseh.

The assistant director of "Mary, Mary", is Mrs. Frank Dalton. Joy has worked as technical director, lights, house, tickets, on various plays and she was assistant director of "Solid Gold Cadillac".

If you save your old play programs it would be hard to find one that didn't have Joy's name in it.

April 21 you will be able to find out for yourself whether Mary is really contrary!

Bob, played by Dr. Bob Murray, and his wife, Mary, Lori Egli, are nearing a divorce. During the time they have been apart several situations develop.

Bob becomes interested in another girl, Tiffany, played by Ingrid Von Kalor. Bob is a publisher and an old friend of his, Dirk, played by Don Geiger, is trying to get him to publish his book.

In the meantime, Bob's lawyer, Oscar, played by Dick Boyd, has arranged for Mary to come back to town to take care of old income tax forms. Dirk becomes interested in Mary and revives Bob's original interest in Mary.

You'll be interested in Tiffany's reactions to the new development. Oscar is on hand to offer his advice, too. All is fun in Jean Kerr's "Mary, Mary."

Tickets are available at Flanders, Wrights, and Colonial House of Beauty. Reservations can be made by calling 423-7375.

Years Ago

1866

Hopkins and Paine have opened a photograph gallery in the third story of the Anderson Block over Wright's Drug Store.

Professor Leland's singing class now has 175 members.

Dr. Patterson and Elwood Comfort bought a machine to manufacture brick in their yard situated south of the village near the Raisin Mills.

1876

G. P. Waring has purchased the house and lot of the late John Britton in Ridgeway for $780.

Poor relief in Tecumseh township for the year ended April 1, amounted to $1,527.83.

Dr. E. Hause has opened dental parlors here.

1886

Shaves are five cents and hair cuts a dime in Clinton.

Wheeler's Brass Band was out serenading last evening.

The Dicken's Club had a pleasant session at the William Hayden home Wednesday evening.

1896

H. H. Temple moved to Britton and will engage in the lumber business.

Will Gaston is now sailing on the W. D. Rees, the largest freighter on the lakes.

The council voted the street commissioner a salary of $500 per year; the marshal, $150; the village teamster, $30 per month and $200 towards the salary of the night watchman.

A store building in Holloway occupied by Rothfus Bros., Misses Palmer and Thompson, milliners, and Dr. Nixon was destroyed by fire, April 14.

1906

E. A. Daisher has purchased the Mather House on W. Chicago for $2,500.

Fred Kolkloesch has sold his saloon business to Robert McClelland.

A petition to place street names and numbers on residences and business places were presented at the council meeting Monday.

Ida Chase has rented the H. L. Jones building and will open a novelty store.

1916

The Spayde Shoe stock has been sold to a merchandise company of Detroit. James Jones and Son, tailors, will occupy the building when the stock has been disposed of.

In the past month, 35 cases of chicken pox, two of scarlet fever and one of pneumonia have been reported here.

The question of bonding School District No. 7 for $7,500 for a new school building will be up to the voters at the special election April 30.

Hepaticas, violets and adder tongues are now in bloom.

1926

Frank Payne bought the Brazee property in Brownville.

Thirty cases of measles were reported here last week.

The village council ordered new cemetery maps made.

The street commissioner's salary has been raised to $100 per month.

1936

W. L. Berkhof will continue to be Tecumseh Superintendent of Schools for another year. C. R. Dustin will be the principal.

Residents of this area who would like a garden spot may have one by applying for it. Henry Ford has made available several acres near the water works. The land is free and is plowed and fitted.

The class of 1886 of Clinton High School will celebrate its 50th anniversary April 2. The affair is sponsored by George Lancaster, a member of the class.

1946

Alvin Brazee, who has been an instructor in the Tecumseh Public Schools for the past 21 years, has resigned his position and retired.

Patsy Wilson placed first in oratorical declamation and Bonnie Buttolph, Britton, first in dramatic declamation in the district contest.

Tecumseh Pythian Sisters and K. of P. entertained 250 members of D.O.K.K. this week. The order staged a very colorful parade.

1956

Tecumseh taxpayers received a ten per cent reduction in school taxes as a result of the annexation of 14 rural schools to the district. The school budget was set at $600,199 for the 1956-57 school year.

Since the assessed valuations in Tecumseh were raised from about $10 million to $15 million or an approximate 50 per cent increase over the entire city, as a result of the recent re-appraisal, taxpayers are doing considerable pencil-pushing to figure their new taxes.

HMMMMM, VERY INTERESTING — When folks walked by Garno's Barber Shop last Thursday, they stopped for a second look. In short order, the laughter was ringing up and down the street as people tried to figure out the "left-over" customer. It turned out that Mrs. Marilyn Betz of Holloway has a pair of inflatable limbs, which found their way to Garno's via Mrs. Otto Beaubien of the neighboring Quick Lunch.

Holloway Notes

Mr. and Mrs. John Escott and family were dinner guests of her mother, Mrs. Maurine McOscar, Hudson, Easter Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tilton and family had their Easter dinner with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mitchell, Jackson.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Jr., and son Gary, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Faust of Oregon, Wis. Sunday they all went to Lockbourne Air Force Base, Columbus, Ohio, to visit their son, Jerry.

Airman First Class Kenneth Faust, his wife Judy and son will leave for Rhine Maine, Germany, for four weeks of training. They will travel through Switzerland, including the Alps, Austria and back to Germany.

√

Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Sr. had their Easter dinner with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vallie and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Henry and family, Britton.

Raisin Sewing Circle met with Mrs. Florence Gafner Friday afternoon. The next meeting will be May 13, with a luncheon and a tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fields had company Sunday. Afternoon guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Woodby of Morenci, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Meek, Onsted, and Mr. and Mrs. Chess Morton, Adrian.

Saturday night Mrs. Joe Glenn, Wayne, held a pantry shower at the home of Mrs. Elwyn Green for Virginia Linberg. There were 16 guests present. They were from Lansing, Wayne and Kalamazoo and the Tecumseh area.

Games were played and prizes won by Mrs. Roger Gillespie, Kay Rice, Alice and Susan German.

Frank Harris Drives Blind, Strikes Wire

Frank C. Harris, 19, 603 N. Evans, told Clinton State Police he was driving his car with the hood up because the motor was overheating.

He had his head out the window to see to drive when the car struck a telephone pole guy wire.

The mishap occurred on Munger Rd. south of Pleasant Dr., at 9:20 a.m. Saturday.

Harris and three passengers were uninjured, and he received a summons for reckless driving.

Mrs. Dike Helms and Mike and Michele returned home Thursday after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Pulver, of Mason. Dike went to Mason to spend Sunday with the family.

NOTICE OF REFUND
TO GAS CUSTOMERS

With the approval of the Michigan Public Service Commission, Consumers Power Company will refund to its gas customers during the next few weeks a pro rata share of refunds recently received by Consumers Power from its suppliers of natural gas. Refunds are to be made in the form of credits on customer bills mailed after April 4, 1966.

To be eligible for a refund, the customer must have received gas service from Consumers Power Company during October, November and December, 1965 and must have been a customer of the Company on March 25, 1966. The amount of individual refunds will be based on each customer's gas usage during the last three months of 1965. Customers using gas to heat their homes during that period will receive refunds averaging $1.50; non space heating customers will receive refunds averaging 30 cents.

Customers who moved since December may not receive the refund automatically in the form of a credit on their next bill, because of their change of address. To obtain their refund, these customers should apply to their nearest Consumers Power Company office no later than July 1, 1966. The Company urges these customers to contact Consumers Power Company as soon as possible.

Demonstrates Baroque Organ

Dexter Bailey demonstrated the baroque organ for members of the Tecumseh Music Club at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, April 12.

Mrs. Norman Bailey, program chairman, presented her son, Dexter, who explained the range of the organ and said that it is exactly like that J. S. Bach used for his later compositions with the exception that some tin pipes have replaced the all wooden ones.

The range of the organ is one 16-foot pipe to a small quarter-inch one.

Dexter chose compositions he felt best-suited for the unique instrument and played for the small, but appreciative audience, closing with "Prelude and Fugue in E Minor" by Bach.

He was assisted by Robert Smith, turning pages and pulling stops.

Dexter accompanied the group singing the hymn for April, "Christ the Lord is Risen Today."

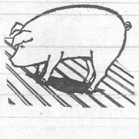
Plans were made for the observance of National Music Week, May 1-8.

Plans were discussed for attending the State Federation of Music Clubs Convention May 12, 13 and 14 at the Jack Tar Hotel in Lansing.

In memory of Edith Ingersoll, the club has purchased books for the Public Library, "The Trapp Family Singers" and "Bands of America."

The May meeting will be the last one until autumn and the installation of officers will be held. Club members will attend a concert in Ann Arbor after the annual dinner meeting.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING®



LIME CONTROLS PIT ODORS under slotted floors in swine confinement buildings. Swine specialists recommend .16 pound of lime per 100-pound hog per day to control odors. Costs add up to about 62c per hog at the above rate. Manure should be circulated in the pit as the lime is added for best results. Chlorine may also be used, but its cost is too high to justify compared to lime.

MILKING MACHINE SPEED and pulsation rate are important for fast, clean milking. Illinois milking tests show a pulsation ration of 60:40 at a rate per minute of 66 pulsations is best. A 60:40 ratio means a longer period for the milking (expanded) phase compared to the rest (squeeze) phase. Cows vary in response to the pulsation rate and ratios used, but all must be properly stimulated for rapid milking.

CHECK CORN PLANTING RATE by measuring plant spacing in the row. For instance, as shown in the table, if you wish to plant 19,600 seeds per acre in 40-inch rows, the seeds should be spaced 8 inches apart. Early planting may increase seed and seedling mortality more than the normal 10% to 15%. Consider spacing seeds one inch closer to get the desired population in view of this. A planting speed of 3 to 3½ mph is best. Higher speeds reduce accuracy.

Row Width Inches	Seed Spacing In Row
	8 inches	10 inches	12 inches
	Seeds Per Acre
30	26,250	21,000	17,500
40	19,600	15,700	13,100
42	18,700	14,900	12,400

A HAY CONDITIONER, costing about $800, is fairly easy to justify where there's risk of rain, especially for first cutting hay that's harvested early. With an annual cost of around $150, the higher quality hay or haylage crop will quickly pay for it.

MACON MAXIMS

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE

The General Woman's Society of Christian Service will be held Tuesday, April 26, with an Executive Meeting at 7:30 p.m., followed by the regular meeting at 8.

Officers are reminded to bring their Evaluation Report blanks, if they haven't been handed in before. Mrs. Wade Scudder and Mrs. Walter Sally are planning a program, with Mrs. Edmund Mueller having the worship. Mrs. Harold Kuder, Mrs. Clarence Hall, Mrs. Olga Graff, Mrs. Edward Zick and Mrs. Lynn Reece are the refreshment committee.

All Church School teachers, helpers and prospective teachers are urged to attend the Skill Workship to be held in Wayne Methodist Church, Tuesday, April 26, and in the Clinton Methodist Church Wednesday, April 27, from 9:15 a.m. [illegible] m. Everyone is asked to bring a sack lunch. The cost will be $1 per person or a maximum of $5 per church.

The annual Mother and Daughter Banquet will be held Saturday, April 30, with Swiss Steak supper at 7 p.m. Tickets should be purchased before April 28, from Mrs. Harold Ruhl, Mrs. John Hewlett, Mrs. Robert Osborne, Mrs. Harold Kuder, or Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore.

Marion Crittenden is a patient in Herrick Memorial Hospital and Myrna Bugbee is in Jackson Osteopathic Hospital, Jackson.

During the opening service of the Primary Department last Sunday, a gold cross and matching candlesticks were given to the church for use by the children.

They were given in memory of Mrs. Nina Collins, by her friends and relatives. Mrs. Collins worked in the children's department several years ago.

Mrs. Edward Clark and Mrs. Gerald Miller were hosts for the Joy Circle last Wednesday evening. Mrs. James Thomas presented a program on 'Literature Available to Methodist Women". A Rummage Sale was discussed, but nothing definite was settled.

The slate of officers for the coming year was presented and accepted. The new chairman is Mrs. Edward Clark; vice-chairman, Mrs. Richard Santure; secretary, Mrs. James Thomas; treasurer, Mrs. Paul Hover; sunshine committee, Mrs. Carl Thomas; nominating committee, Mrs. William Rhoades, Mrs. James Thomas and Mrs. Gerald Miller; local church activities, Mrs. Andrew Goodin and Hallie Jane Mehler; ways and means, Mrs. Edgar Clark and Mrs. Edward Clark.

Apple dessert, crackers, mints and a beverage were served.

Mrs. Ray Gilmore is improving, but remains a patient at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

The Building Committee will meet Friday, April 22, at 7:30 p.m. This is a change in the regular date.

Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg accompanied Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore to Saline, Wednesday evening. They attended the Silver Anniversary of the Saline Woman's Society of Christian Service.

It was held in the Saline Parsonage. Mrs. Raymond Schairer of Dexter, Ann Arbor District President, was the guest speaker. She spoke on "What It Means To Be A Member of the Woman's Society".

Rebekah Rowe attended the birthday anniversary party of Lorraine Monigan, in Britton Saturday afternoon. Lorraine was observing her seventh birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Harriet Gleason, of Tipton, and formerly of Macon, is a patient at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

The Official Church Board met Monday evening. It was announced that the Macon Woman's Society of Christian Service will be assisted by other members of the church in serving the Clinton Alumni Banquet Saturday, June 11, at 6:30 p.m.

The Usher's Club will have a public chicken barbeque supper Saturday, June 18. The Ushers' Club have made 15 grills and other equipment. The Committee on use of the church submitted the rules that have been set up.

They were voted on and passed. A copy may be obtained from the minister.

The Annual Quarterly Conference will be held in Macon Friday, May 6, at 7:30 p.m. The group voted to give $5 towards those wishing to attend Church Camp this summer.

Tammira Rhoades, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rhoades, of Manchester; Jill Greenfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Greenfield; Roxie Hover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hover; Sherry Fredrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fredrick, all recently had their tonsils removed and were able to return to school after the Easter vacation.

College Leaders, Governor Huddle

More than 200 college political leaders will meet with Governor George Romney and other Republican officials at Michigan State University April 23 to discuss student activity in the Republican Party this year.

Women Hear Book Review

CLINTON — Mrs. Charles Dengler of Jackson reviewed the book "Those We Love" by Irving Stone for the members and guests of the Clinton Woman's Club at their spring luncheon Wednesday.

The luncheon was served by the women of St. John's Episcopal Church in Lyster Hall. Baskets of pink carnations, roses and painted daisies centered the luncheon tables.

Guests present for the occasion were Mrs. Edward Aebersold, Mrs. Howard Truesdale, Mrs. Margaret Stone and Mrs. Clara Steele.

Selecting passages pertaining to Abigail Adams, wife of John Adams, second president, and mother of John Quincy Adams, sixth president of the United States, Mrs. Dengler demonstrated a rare and uncanny ability to identify in a humorous manner the experiences in the domestic life of Mrs. Adams with similar experiences common in the lives of her listeners.

ABIGAIL ADAMS lived from 1761 to 1801, years of American history, in an era when men thought if girls were taught to read it would addle their brains.

Fortunately for Abigail, whose health prevented her from attending school, was taught by her father, the Rev. William Smith. Her education proved equal or superior to that of most of the boys of the time.

The following officers were elected:

President — Mrs. Dan Reilly

First vice-president — Mrs. Frank Ward

Second vice-president — Mrs. Dwight Service

Recording secretary — Mrs. Maxwell Stamats

Corresponding secretary—Mrs. Hans Schmidt

Treasurer — Mrs. Clarence Feldkamp

Parliamentarian — Mrs. Lawrence Van Gieson

Board of directors — Mrs. Frank Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Viva Riker, Mrs. John Gilman and Mrs. Ralph Reed.

The club will meet for a cooperative luncheon May 11, at the Community Center. Annual reports will be given by the officers and committee chairmen.

Mrs. John Hoelzer will talk of her trip to Mexico with a group of Indiana Girl Scouts.

EDITOR — MAXINE CALHOUN

Named 'April Camp of Month'

CLINTON — The Clara Camp Royal Neighbors were recently named "April Camp of the Month" by the National Royal Neighbors publication.

The local camp was honored for its outstanding program of fraternal and civic activities in which the members participate as a group.

The camp has provided flags and grave markers for all deceased members, sends gifts and flowers in case of illness or death of members, sends Christmas gifts to shut-ins and expends an average of $150 annually for contributions to homes for the aged, nursing homes, children's homes and welfare organizations of the community.

The camp has purchased a wheel chair, walkers and other pieces of equipment needed by families of the community. The Clinton camp has given aid to disaster victims and provided cheer for the needy, contributing time and money for the aged, ill, disabled and the handicapped.

"Thus do members of Clinton Camp demonstrate to their fellow townsmen the things for which the Royal Neighbors of America stand," the publication concluded.

Dorcas Circle 'Takes Time' to Study Theme

CLINTON — "Take Time to be Holy" was the program theme developed by Mrs. Loren Scott for the meeting of the Methodist Dorcas Circle Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. James Smith was hostess for the meeting attended by 12 members.

Mrs. Marin Popa presented devotions.

Plans were made to visit the Methodist Nursing Home at Chelsea, May 19.

Mrs. Frank Allen will host a Good Luck breakfast at her home May 13.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Mrs. Ryder Olsen was surprised with a shower of baby gifts by the members.

Church Women Plan to Adopt Foster Child

CLINTON — St. John's Episcopal Church Women discussed plans at their meeting last Wednesday, to adopt a foreign orphan child as a group project.

Mrs. Donald Houghton and Mrs. Robert Winder were named to a committee to make the arrangements.

A Hawaiian theme will be used for the mother and daughter banquet which will be held May 7 at 6:30 p.m. in Lyster hall. Reservations should be made by May 2 with Mrs. Donald Houghton.

Mrs. Louis Roumell, Mrs. Dwight Service and Mrs. Mary Jane Merritt were named to the nominating committee.

Mrs. W. P. VanTuyle was hostess for the meeting.

Mrs. George Lancaster will be hostess for the May meeting which will feature a swap shop.

Original comedy acts have become traditional at the annual shows, which give many talented youth their first taste of "show business." The costumed variety performance is directed by Karl Wirt, school band director.

River Raisin Corporation Making Plans

CLINTON — Plans for development of a new subdivision were announced by the newly organized River Raisin Corporation.

The corporation purchased 70 acres from Mrs. Chalmers Campbell at the east village limits. Mrs. Campbell will retain the home and 1½ acres of land.

Officers of the corporation are: president, Edward J. Thomas; vice president, John Thomas, and directors, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Service and Kathy Thomas.

Members of the School of Architecture of the University of Michigan are assisting in the planning for a modern subdivision which will eventually contain 150 landscaped lots for homes of various price ranges.

Engineering plans will be submitted to the Village Council for approval in the near future.

Methodist Church Host Trainees

CLINTON — The Clinton Methodist Church will host the Ann Arbor Subdistrict Methodist Church training session for all Church School workers and teachers from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Clinton Educators Issue Tenure to Three Teachers

CLINTON — The Board of Education issued tenure contracts to three teachers who are presently completing their second year of teaching in the Clinton system.

Eleven teachers were approved for a second year of probationary status.

The board discussed policies and policy developing procedures and authorized Superintendent Richard Wegner to proceed to incorporate the Davies-Brickell System of administration and policy making into the Clinton organization.

The Davies-Brickell System is a nationally recognized service to schools.

The course of study and graduation requirements for the years, 1967, 1968 and 1969 were discussed in detail. Approval was given for various curriculum developments which will be implemented in the 1966-67 school year.

A special meeting was scheduled for Monday, April 25, to make a final determination on the anticipated budget for the next school year and to discuss needed revenue to finance school operation, debt retirement and provision for future growth.

Girls — the mothers of tomorrow — make poorer food choices than boys. "Fad" diets are partly to blame. Yet, one-fourth of first-born babies belong to mothers under 20 years of age.

ATTEND SEMINAR — Two well-known area teachers were among 45 educators from 40 southeastern Michigan school districts attending a driver education seminar at Ypsilanti under the sponsorship of Eastern Michigan University, the Michigan Department of Education and Automobile Club of Michigan. Examining phycho-physical testing devices displayed at the meeting are Sam Hamilton of Britton-Macon School and Charles Gross of Tecumseh High School. The seminar updated driver education instructors on the latest developments in their field.

Addresses Cattle Feeders

By MAXINE CALHOUN

Tom T. Berry, of the Ford Motor Company Tractor Division, addressed 400 members and guests of the Lenawee County Cattle Feeders Association at their 37th annual Beef Banquet, Thursday, in Blissfield High School, climaxing the Cattle Tour in the county.

Speaking on the "Future of Young People" Mr. Berry deplored the tremendous loss of potential and unhappiness which results from the wrong youthful choice of a vocation.

Some youth are not suited for college, he said, but all should be able to develop their talents to the utmost of their ambition.

He urged his audience to see that their children obtained the facts about their own abilities. Aptitude tests are available at Michigan State University. For a fee of $50, persons who are high school sophomores or older can have the benefit of three hours of testing and three one-hour interviews with a professional counselor. Information about the testing program can be obtained from John Comstock, Lenawee Extension Agent.

MR. BERRY suggested parents speak and act with their children as one adult to another and take time to get their youngster's opinion.

He spoke of the value of sincere praise for our youth, mentioning a recent poll in which workers were more interested in receiving praise for their work than more wages.

Express faith in your young people by giving them responsibility, he said. Suggest to them that they do their own thinking to avoid being swayed by the group.

Mr. Perry concluded by suggesting that young people should be exposed to a great many occupations during the important years when a choice is to be made.

William K. Brown of Tecumseh, President of the Cattle Feeders Association, was toastmaster for the event. The Rev. Frank Hawthorne of St. Peter's Episcopal Church gave the invocation.

Given Summons in Accident

Ricardo Flores, 25, of 10715 Smith Rd., Britton, was given a summons by Clinton State Police for driving on the wrong side of Britton Hwy., north of Welch Rd. early Sunday morning.

Flores fell asleep and his car went off the shoulder and skidded 345 feet down the road before overturning in a ditch. He was uninjured.

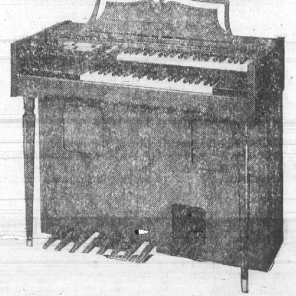
THE ORGAN Anyone CAN PLAY
THE NEW LOWREY
HOLIDAY



Sit down at the console of one of the new magnificent Lowrey Spinet Organs — and play. Yes, you can. Even if you don't read a note, you'll be amazed at the music you can make. Just touch the tabs marked violin, flute, cello and soon —Lowrey does the rest.

Famous for its matchless, exquisite tone, the Lowrey is a fine professional organ. Yet, because of many patented features, it's the world's easiest-to-play musical instrument.

Even Gemini Control doesn't have A.O.C., Automatic Orchestra Control—but Lowrey does. If you play one note with A.O.C. you get a bonus of three additional notes, all in harmony. For veteran musicians, A.O.C. will help achieve harmonic effects never dreamed possible.

DAVID DAY SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS — Darrell Beal, Sherree Harper, Jill Holden and Wendy Vollmer were awarded the David Day Scholarships for 1966 after try-outs March 30. Darrell and Sherree are senior high school students and Wendy is in junior high. Jill was awarded a scholarship as an alternate because Miss Harper has also won a scholarship from the Lenawee County Band Association and will not be eligible to accept both. Bandmaster Don Johnson said that the winners may go to any recognized music camp of their choice this summer. Most of them hope for Interlochen. Judges were Douglas Soyers of the University of Michigan Graduate School of Music, Mrs. Betty Flanders and Karl Wirt of Clinton. Scholarships are given under guidance of Tecumseh Band Boosters.

Mrs. Rentschler Named

Mrs. Truman Rentschler, 311 W. Shawnee St., will represent the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation at the budget conference of the Michigan United Fund.

Mrs. Rentschler will serve as a member of the admissions and budget committee, comprised of more than 300 volunteers from throughout Michigan, who will attend the annual budget conference May 3 and at Kellogg Center in East Lansing.

In 1965, the combined request of the 37 agencies was $4,728,159, but was reduced by the budget committee to $4,044,579.

After the financial needs of the agencies are determined, each community in Michigan is asked to accept their fair share of these needs and include this amount in their united campaign in the fall.

THE 37 AGENCIES comprising the Michigan United Fund are state-wide or national agencies, such as the Michigan Heart Association, an affiliate of the Arthritis Foundation; the Mental Health Society; the Michigan Kidney Disease Foundation; and other agencies, which in other states campaign independently for financial support.

In Michigan, because of the Michigan United Fund, the opportunity to support these well-known and necessary health and welfare agencies in the fall united campaign is available to each Michigan community.

United Fund leaders throughout the United States point to the annual Michigan admissions and budget session as one of the outstanding examples of United Funds meeting agencies needs on a state-wide basis.

The Michigan United Fund is the only state fund where many of the large national health agencies, such as the Heart Association, annually submit a budget for review.

League Competes in Road Rally

By SHERRY SQUIRES

The Walther League of Emmanuel Lutheran Church, under supervision of Gerald Schultz, held a Religious Road Rally Sunday, April 17. Sixty Leaguers from Britton, Milan, Petersburg, Monroe, Ida, and Deerfield attended the rally and spaghetti supper from 3 to 8 p.m.

The Rally covered the area between Emmanuel and Irish Hills and back again. The participants had to answer questions pertaining to the Bible and Biblical topics to get their directions for the race.

After the supper, winners were announced and presented with trophies. First place went to Connie Held from Monroe. She drove 92.6 miles and was on the road for three hours and seven minutes.

Donald Stoltz won second place with three hours, seven minutes and 97.1 miles. Don was from Ida.

Also from Ida was third place winner, Kolis Drodt. Kolis was on the road three hours, 29 minutes, and covered 100.9 miles.

The booby prize, the honor of doing the supper dishes, went to Don Kohler of Monroe. He covered a fantastic distance of 134.8 miles!!

The official run-through time was two and one-half hours and the mileage was about 87 miles.

Following the presentation of trophies, a short Zone Board meeting was held. Vesper service followed in the main level of the church conducted by David Bush and Rev. Thomas Drobena.

TORY NOTES

By SUE EDDINGER and SHERRY SQUIRES

School just resumed from Easter vacation, and there is little news to report this week.

The home economics classes participated in a fashion show Monday, April 8, after the monthly PTA meeting. The girls who took part in the show modeled clothes they made in class and at home. The show was held in the high school gymnasium.

Friday marks the end of the fifth six weeks. This leaves only five weeks (plus extras) for the Seniors and six weeks (plus exams) for the rest of the school. Study hard for that remaining six weeks, kids!!

The FFA Banquet will be held April 26, in the high school cafeteria.

Be sure to buy an Annual soon. Time is running out! Buy yours now. None will be sold after April 29. Price is $4.

Kurt Jerome Croll Arrives on Dads Date

BRITTON—Ron Croll received a birthday present last week, when his wife Mary presented him with their first son, born April 14, which is also Ron's birthday.

Kurt Jerome weighed in at 5 lbs. and 6 oz. when he arrived at St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor. Mrs. Croll has returned to their Sutton Road home, and they expect to bring Kurt home later this week. He remained at the hospital because of a respiratory ailment, which has been overcome.

John Kerans Visit Franklin

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. John Keran and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cook attended the wedding Saturday, of their cousin, Edward Brockman, to Marilyn Stawick, both [illegible].

The couple repeated their vows at St. Owen Church in Franklin Village at 11 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Keran and Mr. and Mrs. Cook also attended the reception held that evening in the Crystal Room of the Whittier Hotel, Detroit.

Officers Voice Fund Concern

BRITTON — Concern was voiced that this year's quota for the Britton Community Fund may not be reached, when the Board met last Tuesday evening in the village council rooms.

The board ordered supplies for this fall's campaign. They also discussed monies available for the shelter in the village park.

Mrs. James Shiels was welcomed into the membership.

Hugh McElroy Breaks Leg

BRITTON — Hugh McElroy, son of William McElroy, and a sophomore at Britton-Macon High School, broke his leg during baseball practice, Wednesday afternoon. He reportedly broke a bone near the ankle, and will be in a cast for several weeks.

Brittonians Attend Service for Leah Moschi

BRITTON — The Rev. and Mrs. Gustav Hannevik and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland attended a commissioning service for Leah Moschi at Southfield Chapel, Southfield, Sunday evening.

Miss Moschi, who spoke at the Thanksgiving service at the Congregational Christian Church last fall, will be leaving for Costa Rica, April 25.

There she will undergo further training in preparation for serving as a youth missionary in Maracaibo, Venezuela.

Britton Youth Group Views Richards Movie

BRITTON — Bob Richards color movie, "Response to the Challenge", was shown at the Youth Fellowship meeting at the Congregational Christian Church, Sunday evening.

Mr. Richards, a former Olympic champion, gave an inspirational speech on the challenges of the world we live in, and what is more important, how we respond to these challenges.

He applied the principles of dedication and active participation, illustrated by many examples from the sports world, to our everyday life.

In one example, he said that when a quarterback receives the ball, and two tackles from the opposing team are coming at him, he can't stop and call a committee meeting; he has to make a decision and take action immediately. America has a crying need for men and women who will act, and not sidestep the important issues of our day.

Refreshments were prepared and served by Brenda Tubbs. The next meeting will be May 1, with Jack Brown in charge of the program.

Britton Band Plans Concert

BRITTON—The annual Spring Concert of the Britton-Macon bands will be held April 25, at 8 p.m. in the school gym, announced Director George Berryman.

All the bands will participate. They will present a program of four marches; two selections from the recent band festivals, "Flute Fresca," featuring a flute solo with band accompaniment, and "Folk Song Suite," a 3-movement suite based on American folk music. There will be no admission charge.

A new band uniform will be on display. Seventy new uniforms have been ordered, to be delivered this summer.

Junior 'Arsenic' Nearly Complete

By SHERRY SQUIRES

"Arsenic and Old Lace," the offering of this year's Junior Class, will be presented May 5 and 6.

The time for production is drawing near and the class is putting finishing touches on their lines and working hard to finish scenery.

Special crews for make-up, lighting, and stage equipment are being trained and rehearsals are carried on diligently.

With less than three weeks to go until production, the cast and crews are beginning to get the fever of theatre work.

Arsenic will be presented in part in a matinee parformance for grades kindergarten through 6th, 2 p.m., May 4, 1966.

The fast-moving story involves the activities of two elderly ladies and the boarding house they run for homeless bachelors.

The bachelors, somehow, end up in the Panama Canal, window seats, and other places around the house.

A demented nephew, who thinks he is Theodore Roosevelt, adds to the confusion.

WSCS Re-elects

BRITTON — The incumbent officers of the WSCS were reelected at the meeting last week. Serving another term will be: president, Mrs. Robert Malloch; vice-president, Mrs. Tom Smith; secretary, Mrs. George Forsythe; treasurer, Mrs. Edward Kanous.

Other selections include: Campus Missionary Secretary, Mrs. Ellsworth Robinson; Christian Social Relations, Mrs. Paul Frazier; Membership Cultural Secretary, Mrs. Bernard Bishop; Missionary, Education and Service Secretary, Mrs. Raymond Bird; Program Material Secretary, Mrs. William Judkins; Spiritual Life Secretary, Mrs. Edward Bailey; Supply Work Secretary, Mrs. Tom Judkins; Local Church Activities Chairman, Mrs. Lloyd Wagner; and the WSCS reporter is Mrs. Thomas Birdsall.

DISTRIBUTION
DOW

You may save $6 to $8 per acre with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia: lowest cost nitrogen in the field.

The reason is, anhydrous ammonia gives you far more nitrogen per pound than any other nitrogen fertilizer. Which means it takes far less Dow ANHYDROUS AMMONIA to do the job than it does with any other form of nitrogen fertilizer.
If you're planting corn on corn, it will take 150 to 200 pounds of nitrogen per acre to decay the old stalks and still have the nitrogen you need for high yields. Supply this nitrogen with Dow ANHYDROUS AMMONIA and you may save as much as $6 to $8 an acre. And boost crop yield quality and feed grain protein content while you do it. It's so long-lasting, one application is all you need. See us today for details. And save some money for a change.

Grace Methodists Visit Art Museum

BRITTON — A group of young people from the Grace Methodist Church visited the Toledo Art Museum Sunday afternoon. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jeffers.

The Lenawee Sub-District MYF officers and represenatives met at the church, Sunday, to finalize plans for the Sub-District Rally which will be held May 1.

County MYF members are collecting small articles to send to Vietnam. They will be taken to the rally in May.

PTA Elects Officers

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

BRITTON—New officers were elected and installed at the Britton PTA meeting, Monday evening. Those selected to serve are: president, Wayne Dunbar; vice-president, Mrs. Loren Gall; secretary, Mrs. James Arft; treasurer, Mrs. Kenneth Bortel; teacher vice-president, Mrs. Gene Thornton; mother vice-president, Mrs. Ronald Frayer; father vice-president, Duane McNeil. Mrs. Robert McCrate is the retiring president.

Vocational agriculture instructor Paul Marks explained the details of a trip to Europe, sponsored by the Michigan FFA, which is being planned for this August.

Two boys from the Britton chapter would like to go. Three advisors will accompany the group of boys, all Michigan FFA members, on the jet trip that will take 22 days, and they will visit several countries in Europe, including France, Germany, Hungary, Switzerland, Czechoslovagia and Belgium.

THE COST is $1,097, plus travel expenses to and from New York City. The FFA will pay one-third of the cost for each boy, and Mr. Marks asked if the PTA would like to assist. It was voted to pay $100 toward each boy's expenses.

Supt. William Saxton announced the annual election of Britton-Macon Area School District will take place this year, Monday, June 13. There are two members of the Board of Education whose terms expire this year, Douglas Palmer and Martin Ivan.

Nominating petitions are available in the high school office for those desiring to run for positions on the board. They require 50 signatures of registered school electors in the district.

The deadline for filing the petitions with the secretary of the board, William Bearinger, is May 14.

MR. SAXTON announced a Remedial Reading program for a 5-week term this summer, beginning June 27, and running thru July 29.

This program will benefit approximately 43 educationally-deprived children who need additional help in reading improvement, and needed health and psychological services will be provided.

The tentative budget for the program, which is financed by a Federal grant of $7,865, is:

Administration	$ 745
Instruction	4,850
Health Services	500
Pupil Transportation	500
Plant Operation	125
Equipment	1,140

Kathleen Wood, Home Economics instructor, presented a "Space Age" style show. She arrived on the stage in Martian attire, and introduced the "earthlings," who were in reality 39 of her Home Economics students.

They modeled clothes they made in class, and each departed via the "space ship." Other sewing projects were on display.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria following conclusion of the program.

do pennies make a difference in your food bill?

You bet they do.
And we should know.
We built our business by saving pennies for generations of folks like you.

For instance, take our policy on multiple-priced items.

If an item is priced 3 for 25¢, the price for one is obviously 9¢.
But what happens if you want two?
Do you pay 2 times 9¢ or 18¢?
Not at A&P.
We sell it at 2 for 17¢.
That's the fair way—the A&P way.

Yes, in the food business... in food budgeting, pennies make a difference.
We watch them for you and for us.
Is this a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Schools Caught in Middle

In view of what transpired recently, a pathetic situation has developed for the Tecumseh schools.

They've found it necessary to ask the local folks for four mills for two years, and passage on June 13 is far from a certainty.

A recent increase in city assessments has not provided a rosy reception for new millage. This reception won't be enhanced after May 1 when the Federal government begins to take a bigger bite.

Folks are simply sick and tired of increasing taxes. We've had little voice in new Federal and state taxes, and how much say did we have when the city upped assessments?

The schools are different. They must go to the polls, ask the voters for more money, ask them to raise their taxes. This is the voters' lone chance to vote no.

We hope that the voters realize what the money is for, understand the schools' necessity for additional funds and take a positive view towards our local education system.

Eight weeks remain for the voter to study the schools' request. There's no doubt that the four mills being sought is minimal, as more millage on the ballot would have reflected the needs more accurately.

Brown St. Change Is Welcome

Changing the eastern end of Brown St., as it flows into N. Evans St., is definitely a step in the right direction.

We hope, along with City Manager Cal Zorn, that a traffic signal light will not be necessary. However, this may be a too-optimistic view.

Certainly a light can easily be added if conditions, after the change is made, still haven't solved the present traffic hazard.

Right now, the intersection of Brown, Evans and Herrick Park Dr. is one of the most treacherous in the city with cars coming from every direction.

Traffic along Evans has been building up over recent years, until now there seems to be a jam at nearly every hour of the day. Guess what it will be when the United Savings Bank opens its new Herrick Park branch, next door to the A & P store?

Watch Out, Soapy

Look out, Soapy, this guy Jerry Cavanagh is going to be tough. Or did you already realize this?

The smiling Detroit mayor jumped into a den of Republicans last Thursday, as speaker at the annual Adrian Area Chamber of Commerce, and did an impressive job.

His talk was arranged months ago, long before he announced intentions of bumping heads with the one-time Michigan governor over the nomination for U. S. Senate. His Lenawee County appearance was billed, tongue-in-cheek, as non-political.

However, the mayor did touch upon such things as Red China and Vietnam, giving the impression he wanted folks to know he wasn't provincial in his background.

Let's face it. He made a solid impression on his audience and might have even had a few die-hard Republicans considering the possibility of voting for him in the primary.

The Herald is advocating this very thing — supporting Jerry against Soapy — hoping to eliminate the one-time governor from contention, then swinging back to the GOP side in November.

Incidentally, the mayor good-naturedly chided The Herald editor for this stand, having read of it in a Free Press article. Mr. Cavanagh grinned, "Thanks for your support — until next fall."

Folks in Adrian who staged the banquet are to be complimented for an excellent affair.

OUR READERS WRITE

TO THE EDITORS:

The Herald came today and I would like to add a bit more information about Harry T. Rosacrans.

Harry T. Rosacrans was born in Tecumseh, Jan. 15, 1882, the son of Fred and Adele Tremaine Rosacrans. Fred Rosacrans was one of the earliest and oldest active merchants in years of service in the Dry Goods business, not only in Tecumseh but in Michigan.

Harry died in Sun City Calif., and is survived by his wife, Laila; a son, Clifford, of Atlanta, Ga., and a daughter, Ruth, of Temperance.

Also there are three sisters, Mrs. Carol Wood of Santa Barbara, Calif., Mrs. George Adamson, 401 W. Kilbuck St., and Mrs. Linton Dimond, of Santa Monica, Calif.; a brother, Leon, passed away in 1959.

This may be repeating news, but we think the sisters and brothers, all born in Tecumseh, should be mentioned.

You may re-write this as you see fit — but please mention the family — so much a part of early Tecumseh.

Thanking you in advance for consideration of the changes, if they can be made.

Yours truly,
Mrs. (Ruth) Eugene Rosacrans
Santa Monica, Calif.

MORE OF THE SAME

Last week's article concerned bluebirds These are such interesting little characters that truly, they deserve more than 'one outing'; therefore, with your permission, shall we continue our discussion of the blues?

Practically everything about these birds is good. They are friendly and gratefully accept bird houses. They arrive early in the springtime, what a boon for winter-weary people who eagerly watch for every indication that Dame Spring is on her way.

Their voice is lilting and they seem to sing just for the sheer joy of living.

ONE OF THE most likable things about bluebirds, of course, is their appearance. Both the bright male and his more subdued-colored mate are extremely attractive.

He sports a suit of brilliant blue on head, back, wings and tail — the latter two are highlighted with black markings. His throat and breast are a rich cinnamon red or brown. His lower tummy pure white.

Mrs. Bluebird takes her clothing cue from Lady Oriole and Mama Cardinal, but with the exception that she goes not quite so far as they do into the dull pastels.

She wears flashes of blue on her wings and tail — however, her head is a dusty gray, her breast not quite so reddish brown and although her tummy shows more white than her mate's, it tends to be a bit on the grayish shade.

UNTIL MAN started lending a helping hand, these highly-desirable birds were losing their battle for survival.

As mentioned last week, the noxious starlings and English sparrows nest in the same places that the bluebirds prefer and this, coupled with the fact that the supply of natural nesting sites was dwindling, made the bluebird situation almost critical.

Tree cavities, woodpecker holes and hollowed-out spots in wooden fence posts are just not as plentiful as they once were.

Nesting boxes are readily used by the birds though, and if enough are put out, we shall have many springs and summers full of bluebirds.

Apparently the male and female blues are very devoted to each other. From the accounts of their family-raising techniques, it sounds charming. The work load is not shared quite evenly, but what Mr. Bluebird does not contribute muscle-wise, he tries to make up for by long and sweet serenading.

WHILE SHE lugs material and builds the nest, he sits by singing to her. Oh, well, if she is happy with this situation, why should we question it.

Once the full clutch of four or five bluish eggs is laid and the incubating starts, the male bluebird takes a more active part. He shares with his wife the tedious job of keeping the eggs warm and once the little birds have hatched, he becomes a very busy food gatherer.

Insects are the mainstay of their diets and both parents work overtime trying to find enough wiggly and crawly things to satisfy their kids' appetites.

BY THE TIME the first family is grown up enough to leave the nest, Mrs. Bluebird is already thinking about her next brood. Here is where family cooperation works again — while she devotes herself to the new family, her husband takes care of the youngsters who have just left home.

So it is that we seem to be on a bluebird kick these days — last week we discussed them and this week it was more of the same.

Friends Discuss Family Dining Table in Class

"The Family Dining Table" was the devotional subject presented by Mrs. Naomi Sallows at a meeting of the Friendly Class of Friends Church, Thursday evening.

The family unity signified by dining together is almost a thing of the past, but she suggested, modern families might benefit by reinstating the custom.

Mrs. Jennie Slater was hostess for the meeting attended by 18 members.

Mrs. Minnie Meade, the program chairman, gave an interesting review the life of Elizabeth Fry, a Quaker lady of the past who was noted for her leadership in prison reform.

Mrs. Olive Tomlinson assisted the hostess with the serving of cookies, colorful Jello and coffee.

Miniature ball bearings used in space vehicles are worth 150 times their weight in gold.

Why buy a low-priced car when you can get a high-priced car for the same money?

Especially when you can get a big Catalina. With a wheelbase a good two inches longer, interiors a lot roomier and a 389 cu. in. V-8 out front that gives you at least 50 more standard horsepower. Along with typically Pontiac virtues like the bold, split-grille styling, Wide-Track ride and handling, and a resale value the record books show is consistently up there with the leaders. And, of course, a package of seven standard safety items like padded visors and dash. Come in and look over our Catalina. Drive it. Price it. You'll know what we mean when we say if you're spending about $3000 for a new car and not getting a Pontiac, something's wrong.

Wide-Track Pontiac Catalina
(A big, powerful Pontiac for less than $3000*.)

*Manufacturer's suggested retail prices for Catalina 2- and 4-door hardtops and 2- and 4-door sedans are all less than $3000. These prices include excise tax and suggested dealer delivery and handling charges. Transportation charges, state and local taxes, accessories and optional equipment additional.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

It was almost 3 a.m. when the night operator in a hotel got the first call.

"What time will the bar open?" a voice, thick with rum, asked.

"At 10 a.m.," was the crisp response.

An hour passed and the phone rang again.

"What time did you say the bar was going to open?"

This time the young lady on duty responded with anger, "I told you, 10 a.m."

After another couple of hours, there was a third call, with the same plantive query. This time, the operator turned to the night manager, explaining the situation.

He grabbed the phone.

"Look, buster, you have already been told twice that the bar opens at 10 a.m. As a matter of fact, when it does open, I don't believe we'll permit you in."

"Hey, you got me wrong, I don't want to get in. I want out."

AND THAT'S apparently what Lyndon B. Johnson seeks in the Vietnam situation. He wants "out," according to an articulate Washington columnist, Clayton Fritchey, who spoke Saturday at a journalism fraternity program in Toledo.

But how can he do it and save face for the nation and his top advisors, like Dean Rusk and Robert McNamara?

Mr. Fritchey said we got into this mess 20 years ago "by mistake," because of the Chinese civil war. We ended up providing the French with two-thirds of the money they spent in trying to smother the Indochina situation — finally giving up, and going home.

We inherited the problem.

Mr. Fritchey was frank in his opinion that we might follow the French lead.

He said a national opinion survey showed that 60% of the people in the United States don't think we're getting the truth on Vietnam.

HIS MOST poignant dissection of the crisis was to debunk all the various reasons why we are in Vietnam, to wit:

1. The people there want us — they never asked us, there never was a vote.

2. To save democracy — this is a sliding U. S. principal. We're not in Cuba and Hungary to do so.

3. An aggressor nation is attacking — it's a civil war. In fact, now, it's a civil war within a civil war within a civil war.

4. North Vietnam has violated the Geneva agreement — the truth is that both the Cong and the United States have been in violation.

5. Our obligation under SEATO — this is the latest one, revealed by Mr. Rusk, who may have even surprised the White House with the pronouncement, according to Mr. Fritchey, who immediately re-read the pact and could find no such obligation on our part to enter Vietnam. In addition, no other SEATO nation feels such a responsibility. SEATO has never received a request for aid from South Vietnam.

6. Domino theory, if Vietnam goes, so does entire area — not buying, said the Washington writer.

7. Must contain Red China — in last 10 years it hasn't taken over one nation by military or intrigue, actually it's a sharply receding power, although expanding internally in industry and quest for nuclear power.

8. Munich analogy — no real comparison. Then Hitler was at zenith of power, while England and France had nothing. Ger-

Reed Skinner Awarded Eagle

Reed Skinner received his Eagle award at the April 18 meeting of the Explorer Post 87, in the post home of the Explorer's sponsors, the Hall Slater VFW.

Assisting with the presentation ceremony were: Leonard Gamber, the new Scout Executive of Lenape District; Garth Gottchalk, an active Scouter, and Richard Witt, Post 87's adviser.

Another feature of the evening was the presentation of the charter.

Frazier Tubbs of the Wolverine Council presented the charter to Warren Filter who accepted it on behalf of the Hall-Slater VFW Post.

Reed is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Skinner, 807 River Acres Dr.

Noble Gregg Sees UFO, Waves to 'Pilot'

An unidentified flying object was sited just west of the city at the Noble Gregg residence, on M-50, about 8 p.m. on April 19.

Mr. Gregg said that the glow from the "flying saucer" was so brilliant that he could hardly look at it for fear of harming his eyes.

WATCHING WITH Mr. Gregg was his son-in-law, Merle Hendricks, and others who had stopped along the highway. Two planes also seemed to circle the area at the time.

Mr. Gregg said that the object faded to a bright light about the length and breath of a yardstick and then would glow brilliantly, at a height of about 200 feet.

As the glow faded it was possible for toe watchers to see a framework, like a balloon with something dark at the bottom

Mr. Gregg said, "They turned the light right down on me and I waved my hand at 'em."

He said that the UFO made three quick trips about one-half mile back in his fields, then seemed to settle in a nearby woods. About 20 minutes later, it moved northeast of Tecumseh and out of sight.

Mr. Hendricks said, "I never saw anything like it in my life. It moved like an airplane, but had no running lights, only a huge spotlight like the one on the front of a locomotive and they moved it up and down. The motor purred or hummed as it moved. I think it was a hellicopter."

ANOTHER UFO was sighted Monday night after 8 p.m. over Birdsall by the Gaza Kish family of 6911 Green Rd.

Mr. Kish said that it was shaped like a cigar with three lights, green and red across it. Later they saw another or it could have been the same one, but it was much higher than the one spotted by Mr. Gregg.

Mrs. Kish, attending a teachers meeting at Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, alerted her husband and son that something was going on in the sky because of their avid interest in UFO's.

Mrs. Kurt Koeplin was the first at the church to see the strange moving "stars" as she put the car away, after delivering Hospital Auxiliary 25th anniversary tickets.

She and her husband, pastor of the church, and seven teachers watched the heavens with binoculars and report that they were certain what they viewed were not meteors because the objects did not streak through the sky, but just "sat there."

A steady white light seemed to twinkle with red and green through the binoculars, but Mrs. Koeplin said this probably could not be seen by the naked eye.

In all, Mrs. Koeplin saw four different UFO's moving from east to west.

Others watching with her were Mrs. Richard Whelan, Mrs. Leon Shaffer, Mrs. Edward Mengerink, Mrs. Merrill Gray, Mrs. Kish, Mrs. Harry Hunter and Mrs. Robert Ferguson.

The Rev. Koeplin said that he and Mrs. Hunter were not able to distinguish the objects

Rollo Conlin Goes for 12

Rollo G. Conlin, a member of the Michigan House of Representatives from Lenawee County for the past 11 terms, will try to make it an even dozen.

He is widely-recognized as one of Michigan's leading taxation authorities.

His 40th District embracing all of Lenawee County, except Franklin and Cambridge and parts of Woodstock and Rollin Townships.

"I believe," Mr. Conlin said, "that the people of our county recognize that my experience and knowledge of local and state problems will be even more valuable in the difficult months ahead."

HIS LEGISLATIVE accomplishments in the past, include:

► A long fight for a more realistic school aid formula benefiting local school districts and a more sound teacher retirement system.

► Sponsorship of diagnostic procedures before commitment to mental hospitals, which provide safeguards for patients and a reduction in the number of unnecessary commitments.

► Constitutional amendment on sales taxes, which brought stability to state finances and stronger support for local school financing.

► 1958-59 tax study, which nas formed the basis for all tax reform programs advocated in succeeding years.

"WITH THE inequities in our muddled tax system again falling on us," Rep. Conlin said, "and the realization that the next Legislature must face tax problems, I believe the people in our district want a representative in Lansing who understands that tax reform must include the elimination and reduction of some of our present taxes, not merely the addition of new taxes to those inequitable and overtaxed sources we now have, such as the property tax."

Representative Conlin is the ranking Republican member of the House Taxation Committee and also serves on the House Committees on Liquor Control, Economic Development and Implementation of the Constitution.

Viet Unrest Hits Ben Cat

By LT. GREGG MASON

BEN CAT, Vietnam — As you have probably read, there has been a great deal of political unrest in Vietnam for the past three to four weeks. It has not been centered in such towns as Saigon, Hue and DaNang, but even extended to district towns like Ben Cat.

THE SITUATION was so bad in Ben Cat last week that the only two civilian officials in the town were the school headmaster and the agriculture advisor.

With much coordination between myself, Capt. Charles C. Clarke, the senior American advisor to Ben Cat District, and the school headmaster, we were finally able to present the school supplies on Friday, April 15. There were 92 five-pound boxes and three large packages.

However, one bright spot did develop as a result of the arrival of the school supplies — a new school, which was opened in March in the village of Lai Khe, will be able to be re-opened next year, long doubtful because of lack of supplies. Lai Khe is within our perimeter and therefore the village and school are secure.

Pictures were taken at the primary school in Ben Cat and the two VN gentlemen included are Pham-Van Sua, headmaster of the Ben Cat School and Trinh-Van Dia, assistant to the headmaster.

The pictures illustrate both fear and joy on the part of the Vietnamese children. The fear is, of course, due to the fact that many of the children have had nothing to do with Americans and therefore mistrust anything foreign. However, after the headmaster and Capt. Clarke had talked to them and told them about the school supplies, they became relaxed.

I wish I could thank each and every person that helped in this project, but at present this is impossible.

I only hope that everyone realizes the vital contribution that they have made toward suppressing communism.

Granted Ben Cat and Lai Khe represent only two villages out of over 5,000 in Vietnam, but with Ben Cat being a District headquarters, the influence will be widely felt.

I HAVE JUST received the paper with Lt. Tom O'Hare's letter and can only ad an Amen to his comments. Incidently, the battle he mentions about at the Michelin Plantation in December included our unit and we were grateful for the fine air support that we received at that time.

Please express my sincere thank you to all concerned with this project and I shall endeavor to keep you informed of all future developments..

I hope to be in Tecumseh sometime in October or November of this year.

40 Are Key Men

Nearly 40 automobile mechanics from the area will be guests of Tecumseh Rotary for Tuesday's meeting at the Country Club.

They're the men who'll do the examination of brakes, lights, exhaust systems, steering and windshield wipers during the annual Vehicle Safety-Check, May 18, 19, 20 and 21.

Being discussed will be techniques and methods for the event, which carires as its slogan this year, "Be careful with a car full."

OTHER FACETS of the Safety-Check:

► High-school-age girls wishing to compete for the queen and court should submit their names at auto dealers in the city.

► Mr. Safety entries, containing up to 50 words, should be sent to The Herald. The winner and his sponsor will be honored with awards following the parade.

► Vehicles are welcome to be part of the parade, the evening of May 18 — antique cars, trucks, bikes, go-karts — and should check with police chief Murell Clark, parade marshall.

Officials of the local Safety-Check, one of the most successful in the nation, point out that each car and truck examination is worth nearly $15 — but it doesn't cost anything.

THEY POINT out that residents should take advantage of the check. It's possible that one day compulsory vehicle checks will be set up by the state and there could be a charge for them.

When defects are found here, drivers will be urged to have them orrected and then return for the seal of approval. No police tickets will be issued

Schools May Lose $41,000

Lenawee County supervisors have announced that they plan to operate during the next fiscal year on 5.5 mills — a decision that could cost the Tecumseh schools $41,000 if the County Tax Allocation Board approves it.

A meeting is scheduled next Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 at the courthouse. Supervisor John Keller of Jasper says the county's budget will be presented at that time.

Milton Porter, county superintendent, feels that school officials will have a good idea then if the county intends to take a full mill from the schools.

The Tax Allocation Board is composed of Dr. William Hewes of Adrian; Morris Rosenthall, Adrian businessman from Manitou Beach; John Herring, Adrian real estate businessman; Willis Moore of Adrian and county treasurer; Mr. Porter and Mr. Keller.

Mr. Moore and Mr. Keller already have indicated that the supervisors want the mill back from the schools. Dr. Hewes and Mr. Porter are expected to favor the schools.

The Allocation Board annually cuts up the 15-mill winter tax, first taking a slice for county government, then township, with what is left going to the schools.

Last year, after long discussion, the board gave the county 4.5 mills, the townships could assess up to one mill, leaving 9.5 for school purposes, plus up to one mill in differential millage — which means up to 10.5 in municipalities and townships not levying the one mill.

Subtle Humor

By PATRICIA M. KURETH

After listening to an exceptionally fine concert one time, we had the opportunity to ask a young friend, who seemed to be raptly attentive throughout the performance, what she thought of it.

We were expecting to hear a confession of high praise and admiration, and were, therefore, somewhat shocked and not a little disappointed when she simply said, "It was O.K.," the intonation implying that she neither liked nor disliked it.

This verbal response to our query startled us for its lack of definition, so we pursued the subject by saying, "But this was probably the greatest performance one will ever hear, and you seemed to be enjoying it very much, how can you simply say, 'It was O.K.'?"

"Well," she replied, "I liked it, but I don't really know how much because I've never heard a concert before and I have nothing to compare this one to."

THE TECUMSEH Players production of "Mary, Mary" serves as a source of comparison to good theatre for any young theatre-goer for whom the magic of the stage is not completely dispelled after watching one of these performances.

This light comedy, which concerns the anatomy of a breakdown in communications between a "stupid intellectual" and his wife, began at an uneven jog.

Students Nominated for Awards

Deborah Earling and Thomas Stormes, juniors at THS, were nominated for the annual Achievement Awards Program, sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE), recently.

For the ninth year, NCTE is conducting the national awards competition to grant recognition to outstanding high school seniors for excellence in English.

The writing abilities and literary awareness of each nominee will be judged by local and state committees, and NCTE will announce winners December, 1966.

The winners' names will be sent to every U.S. college and university director of admissions, English department chairman, governor, representative in Congress and state superintendent of schools with the recommendation that these students be considered for scholarship assistance.

ON THE other hand, Van Saulter of the Free Press, advocated we have a job to do in Vietnam and must not pull out.

He recently returned from a 10-month assignment as a "street reporter" there, telling what Michigan boys were doing in the war.

Van said there are "no absolute truths in Vietnam."

"We represent only some of these people — and often this section is very splintered," he added.

Mr. Saulter estimated that it will take three years and 600,000 American military men to win the war — assuming our enemy remains about the same as it is now.

Add another 10 years on to build up the country and you have the situation, states Mr. Saulter.

52 Awarded Medical Self Help Diplomas

Mrs. Robert Smith told members of the American Legion Auxiliary, April 14, that 52 persons reveived diplomas after completing the "Medical Self Help Training Course" recently. Mrs. Smith is the Civil Defense chairman for the auxiliary and the district.

Dorothy Martin, second district president, was a special guest at the meeting and spoke concerning the teachers scholarship to the seminar of the Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge, Pa.

Each American Legion department in the nation will send a teacher to the seminar July 11-29. The purpose of the conference is to train teachers in Americanism so that they may in turn teach it to students of the United States.

Mrs. Ralph Helzerman and Mrs. Ned Baldwin served refreshments.

The next meeting is to be held at the Post Home May 12.

'Mary, Mary'

This continued until the middle of the second act, at which point opening week jitters seemed to dissolve, and the play began to move at a more even pace.

Lori Egli, as Mary McKellaway, could not have been a more suitable choice for the role. The show was held together more because of her innate good sense of timing and delivery, than because of any other means.

Although she contributed to the unevenness of the first act by anticipating reactions, she vindicated herself by her subsequent performance.

TIFFANY RICHARDS, the rich, spoiled fiancee of publisher McKellaway, was charmingly portrayed by Ingrid Von Kaler. Her slight accent added color to an already engaging role.

Unfortunately the audience's ear either was not tuned to the accent or was not tuned to the sophisticated witticism of the character she played, for some of her best lines, which were also some of the best lines in the play, met with only an uncertain reaction.

Richard Boyd as Oscar Nelson, the McKellaway's lawyer, confidant and friend, gave his usual studied performance.

Tecumseh's answer to the Hollywood Idol image was Don Geiger, who, although he looked the part, was unconvincing in the role of a man whose profession dictates an adherence to diaphragmatic breathing and voice projection.

DIRECTOR Richard Egli directed several successful productions while in the Armed Services. This may account for his being satisfied with a far from satisfactory set.

Anything outside the barracks walls looks good, one hears. Presumably this includes an apartment with all the latest condensed books and bargain basement accoutrements.

The blocking, particularly in the above mentioned, oft mentioned first act plus, was static and prosaic. It lent a feeling of tension and apprehension unsuitable to light, sophisticated comedy.

This feeling was dispelled only by the really hilarious script which ultimately triumphed over all.

Feeders in Spotlight

Cub Scout Pack 73 held their monthly pack meeting in the Presbyterian Youth Fellowship Center, Tuesday evening, with Cubmaster George Brady.

The theme for April was Mother Nature's Backyard and each den displayed tables of their monthly handicraft of bird feeders and bird houses, nature collections, and various plants they had grown.

Michael Eggleston and Lonnie Garrison presented the flags and led in the pledge of allegiance.

Mr. Brady presented a Wolf Badge, gold and silver arrow to Ricky Butler; a Bear Badge to Paul Wegner and a Den Chief Cord to Jerry Warner.

Birthday pocket pieces were given to Gaylord Long and Ricky Butler.

A nature skit was presented by Den Four who also won Cubby for best attendance of Cubs and parents.

Duncan Oliphant showed beautiful color pictures of northern Michigan. Pictures of elk, deer, ducks, wooded areas in spring and fall, a fish hatchery and a loon guarding her nest were included.

The Den Chiefs retired the flags and the meeting closed with the Cub Scout Promise.

Future dates for the Pack are:

April 23 — 9:30 a.m. pick up Goodwill bags.

April 30 — 3 p.m. meet at Presbyterian Church for mystery trip — to Adrian.

May 5 — Roundtable at Goodwill Industries, Adrian.

May 10 — Pack Committee meeting.

May 17 — May Pack meeting.

Episcopal Youths Attend Weekend Retreat at Camp

High School students from six Episcopal Churches of Lenawee and Hillsdale Counties will participate in a weekend retreat and conference conducted by two monks of the Order of the Holy Cross, a religious community for men in the Episcopal Church.

The conference will be held at Fox Run camp near Onsted, from Friday evening through dinner on Sunday.

The Rev. Fr. Walsted, O.H.C. will be the leader, assisted by Brother Cyprian, O.H.C.

The program will be centered around the teachings of the Church and the place of young people in the Church and in the world today.

There will be discussions, worship and recreation as part of the program.

Tecumseh young people from St. Peter's Church will be Margaret Barritt, Rachelle Barber, Donald Andrews, Trudy Curtiss, Philip Browne, Linda Getz, Marie Geisenhaver, Steve Maples, Caty Maples, Martha Hawthorne and Jackee Jennings.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Wheeler of St. Peter's will be on the adult staff.

Stork Calls On Wolfs

Mr. and Mrs. James Wolf, 11605 Tecumseh Rd., Clinton, experienced a duel with father time and the stork Sunday evening while flying to Jackson from Teccumseh.

Piloting his single engine Piper Colt, Jim was suitably warned by the stork and radioed ahead for landing instructions and an ambulance at Jackson's Reynolds Municipal Airport.

Mrs. Wolf, nee Shirley Hunt, was admitted to Mercy Hospital about 8 p.m. and a 7 pound, 7 ounce girl was delivered about 10:55.

Melanie E Wolf, her parents, the stork and the plane are all doing as well as could be expected.

Co-incidentally, Mrs. Wolf picked her brother, Howard Hunt's birthday for her first daughter.

Surprises are always fun and they were many at the mock wedding Monday evening conducted for the pleasure of those attending the Business and Professional Women's Club.

The shot gun affair uniting Jerry Pobuda as the bride towering over petite Majel Holden as the groom was highlighted by strenuous objections from Helen McCann playing the part of the wronged woman.

The "nuptials" were climaxed by Majel climbing on a chair to kiss the bride as the naughty flower girl, Virginia Dixon, sat on the floor banging her heels.

Another surprise this week was planned by Mrs. Walt Wonderly for the birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Dow Bilby. Mr. and Mrs. Wonderly and Gary, Gregg and Glenn entertained Sunday for dinner in Mrs. Bilby's honor.

Others attending the meal topped off by a three-tiered cake made and decorated by the hostess, were Mr. Bilby and Richard, Mr and Mrs. Earl Bilby, Harold Underwood and Mike, Mrs. William Grigg, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilt and Carla of Lansing, and Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Kerr. Janet Underwood was not present because she was in the hospital with a new baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beck of Sydney, Ohio, were weekend guests of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kampmueller, and sons.

Mrs. Sally Pope and sons and Mrs. Ed Heilman returned last week from Gatlinburg, Tenn. where they spent 10 days in the sun. While there they saw Dick Hammels also vacationing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Gorr and children of Temperance were Sunday guests of her mother, Mrs. E. C. Brandt.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Scott and children of Barberton, Ohio, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Danforth and children. Both families were stationed at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base at Gwinn before the men were discharged.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hatt, Marion, spent the weekend with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Allen. The Hatts were returning from a visit with relatives in Toledo.

Mrs. A. R. Shigley of Fremont, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Jens Touborg on a trip to South Carolina, returning Friday.

Mrs. Joe Layton has returned from a trip to the Far East.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Barrett entertained April 17 in honor of their daughter, Mary Jo, celebrating her eighth birthday anniversary and her first communion at St. Elizabeth Church.

Guests were present from Plymouth, South Lyons, Detroit, Saginaw, Britton, Tipton and Tecumseh. A buffet luncheon was served featuring a tiered cake topped with a miniature prayer book and first communion doll made by Mrs. Donald Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nash attended the Kiwanis Forney Clement Foundation meeting, tour and luncheon at the University Medical Center, Ann Arbor, Sunday.

Mrs. Nash has just returned from caring for a new grandson, Theodore Alan, born April 1, to Gordon and Janet Bernstein, of Clark Lake.

The Bernsteins have two older sons, Gordon, 4, and Frank, 2. Mr. and Mrs. James Nash of Kalamazoo visited their parents, Friday and Saturday.

The couple were en route home from Niagara Falls during Easter vacation. Mr. Nash, who graduated from Western Michigan University in December, has been doing substitute teaching and will teach social studies in the Junior High School at Eastern for the remainder of the year.

Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. Glen Fisher were in Jackson to attend the all-day hair styling show recently.

The Ridgeway Methodist Church will ask a special offering this Sunday for the Bishop's Appeal for Relief of Starvation in India. A serious situation exists in India and estimates indicate between two and six million will lose their lives due to starvation in that southeast Asian land.

The Indian people will be forced to live on a drought-caused 35% of the normal scanty food supply.

Cub Scouts Presented Awards

Cub Scout Pack 72 met Monday, April 18, at Herrick Park School. The opening flag ceremony was conducted by Den 4, and songs were led by Den 3.

Cub Master Robert Hyde made the following announcements: May 14 the three Pinewood Derby winners will compete at Madison Elementary School for the Wolverine Council Championship.

Saturday, April 23, the Cub Scouts will pick up Goodwill Bags. As a project for this month the boys and their fathers are to make kites to be flown in competition during the next three weeks.

Awards were presented to:

John Warner — Wolf, Gold and Silver Arrows

David Tirb — Bobcat pin

Mike Kronberg and Ricky Vealey — Two-year pins

Those who received gold and silver arrows were: Colby Welch, Rory Skinner, John Sisson, Doug Eggleston, Mike Kronberg, Mark Booze, Scott Lask, and Rickey Vealey.

Games were led by Den 2, and Mike Kronberg won the turtle race. Den 1 conducted the closing exercises. The next Pack Committee meeting will be May 10. The May Pack meeting will be at 7 p.m., May 16, at Herrick Park School.

Clinton C of C Plans Member Drive Kick-off

CLINTON — The Chamber of Commerce board of directors planned a membership drive kick-off dinner, Monday, May 9.

James Meeks was named chairman of the Pancake Supper event to be held at the Community Center, 6:30 p.m., for all members and prospective members. The dinner will be served without charge.

Waldo Ehnis and Thomas Young were named chairmen of the Hospitality Day during Michigan Week.

Don Wolfe Will Address Exchange Club

Don Wolfe, assistant managing editor of the Toledo Blade, will be the speaker at the Ladies Night meeting of the Exchange Club, May 9, at the Tivoli Restaurant, Toledo.

Tom Riordan was the speaker at the meeting April 25, telling of his trip up the Nile River in Egypt. Mr. Riordan used colored slides to emphasize his talk.

One member said, "He is the best speaker we have had this year."

Hilary Browne Weds Arlen Coffman

Hilary Elizabeth Browne and Arlen Bruce Coffman spoke their wedding vows April 16, at the First Congregational Church of Wayne in ceremonies performed by the pastor of the church, the Rev. Dr. Samuel Cassel.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Dean Delker, 332 N. Union St., and the late William H. Browne and Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Coffman of Wayne.

Constance Browne played nuptial music before the ceremony as the 125 guests were seated by Philip Browne, brother of the bride, and James Carmon, friend of the groom.

The radiant bride escorted to the altar by her brother, John Thomas Browne, wore a mandarin-styled gown of ivory rose patterned brocade fahioned in an A-line with raised waistline and bateau neckline.

The dress was enhanced with frogs of self material and it had a detachable train.

Her bouffant veil was secured to a high pillbox of brocade. She carried a white prayer book topped with a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and centered with a white orchid.

Caroline Jean Dreyer of Toledo, O., cousin of the bride, was maid of honor in an Empire line gown with olive green lace bodice and maize pencil slim skirt.

An olive green Dior bow held her bouffant nose veil in place and she carried a cascade bouquet of salmon-colored carnations.

Lowell Coffman served as his brother's best man.

A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church, where a centerpiece of green carnations and white snapdragons was used on the table.

Mrs. Helene Van DeWege, Mrs. Sandra Bitoff, Sandra Houtz and Beverly Scroggins served.

The bride attended Patricia Steven's Finishing School, attended Michigan State University and was a stewardess for American Air Lines. She is presently employed as passenger service representative for American at Metropolitan Airport.

The groom attended Michigan State University and is presently affiliated with the Coffman Construction Co. in Dearborn.

Following a two-week trip to California, Texas and Hawaii, the couple will reside at 2565 South Wayne Rd., Barsudor Apartments, Apt. 4.

Franklin Hobby Club Donates

TIPTON — Mrs. Sylvan Echelbarger entertained the Franklin Hobby Club Thursday evening. The group voted to give $2 to the Red Cross.

Mrs. Echelbarger discussed the hobby she and her husband have, which is rock collecting and making pieces of jewelry. Each member chose a polished stone and made a necklace under Mrs. Echelbarger's instructions.

At the close of the evening, refreshments were served by the hostess and the birthday of Mrs. Richard Eisenminger was observed with a cake.

The May meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Barbara Carson.

Obituaries

● MISS GERTRUDE VAN VLEET

Services were held Tuesday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Miss Gertrude Van Vleet, 8, of 108 N. Maumee St., who died Saturday evening at her residence.

Born July 25, 1883, at Ridgeway, Miss Van Vleet was a resident of the Tecumseh area all of her life.

Her only survivors are nieces, nephews and cousins.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Roy, in 1950.

Miss Van Vleet was a member of the Eastern Star. Chapter No. 51 conducted a service at the funeral home Monday evening.

The Rev. Donald Porteous officiated and burial was in the Ridgeway Cemetery.

● MRS. RELLA E. KEITH

Services were held Monday at St. Peter's Episcopal Church for Mrs. Rella Edith Keith, 63, who died in her sleep early Friday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Beland.

Mrs. Keith had made her home with her daughter since the death of her husband, Russell, Oct. 12, 1964.

Mrs. Keith was born Aug. 22, 1902, at Wauseon, Ohio.

July 1, 1921 she married Silas Kring, who died July 9, 1951. Aug. 1, 1953, she married Mr. Keith.

Mrs. Keith was a member of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, the Guild, the Monday Club, the Pythian Sisters and the Past Chiefs Club and the Order of Eastern Star.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Louis Paige, 908 W. Chicago Blvd. and Mrs. Harry Beland, 111 Wildwood, and one son, Silas Kring, 4954 Milwaukee Rd.; a step-son, Paul Keith, of Clinton; one stepdaughter, Mrs. Homer Walter, of Manchester; six grandchildren; five step-grandchildren; a step-great-grandson; and one brother, Jay Chamberlin of Wauseon.

The Rev. Frank Hawthorne officiated and burial was in Brookside Cemetery. Arrangements were made by the Green-Dunn Funeral Home.

● PAUL O. MARTEN

Services were held Tuesday at the Niblack Home for Funerals for Paul O. Marten, 85, of rural Britton who died at 11:30 p.m. Friday at an Ypsilanti nursing home where he had been a patient for 15 months.

Mr. Marten was born Nov. 16, 1880, in Germany and came to this country with his parents when two year sold.

They moved to the Britton area from Payne, O., in 1915.

Paul Marten and Helen Gottschalk were married Sept 8, 1904. She survives.

Also surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Daniel Baughey of Ypsilanti, Mrs. Clarence Herford of Britton and Mrs. Paul Anders of Montpelier, O.; a son, Laurence Marten of Fort Wayne, Ind.; two brothers, Charles and Emil, both of Hicksville, O.; seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mr. Marten was preceded in death by a daughter, Esther, two sisters and seven brothers.

The Rev. Bond P. Bowman of Detroit officiated and burial was in the Ridgeway Cemetery.

READERS WRITE

TO THE EDITORS:

On Monday, May 2, we are having "Open House" with an antique sale, buffet dinner, and showing of styles from Goodwill stores.

Along with National Goodwill Week this is an Anniversary week for Goodwill Industries of Southeastern Michigan. It was a year ago the Grand Opening of our present building was held.

During the year the Rehabilitation Program has grown tremendously. Goodwill is most grateful for the support of officials, private foundations and agencies, and the public.

Without their support our work could not be carried out in rehabilitating the handicapped and providing sheltered workshop facilities.

Goodwill Industries wishes to extend to you an invitation to come and visit and tour our facilities. Hope to see you then.

Sincerely,
H. Dale Gardner,
President Board of Directors

Kindergarten Pre-Registration Is May 12

Kindergarten Pre-Registration for the 1966-67 school year will take place Thursday, May 12, 1966, in the Kindergarten room. Parents may register their children from 8:30 a.m. till 3:30 p.m.

Kindergarten children entering school in the fall must have reached five years of age before December 1, 1966. Parents of children whose birthdays are later than September 1, should give serious consideration as to whether their child is ready for school, officials indicated. It takes more time for some of the younger children to adjust to school.

Parents are invited to bring their child in with them when they register. It is important that the child's birth certificate be included.

Please register the child at this time as it will enable the school to organize the Kindergarten program for the coming year.

Progress Extension Group Meets

Mrs. Kennard Wise presented the lesson on "Change Over Year" for members of the Progress Extension Study Club, April 25.

Mrs. Robert Wood was the hostess assisted by Mrs. Wise.

Group activity reports were completed.

Mrs. Arthur Baaske won the door prize. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Wise.

Among Blaska Recitalists

The piano and accordion recital, of Mrs. Esther Blaska's pupils, was attended by 200 guests, Sunday, in the Baptist Youth House.

Participating in the recital were: Mike Kurwicki, Mildred Posky, Linda Solarski, Linda Henri, Susan Schafer, Chuck Holmes, and Cindy Ivan of Tecumseh.

The Tipton area participants were: Sally Mason, Paul Turlukowski, Roger and Vicki Cook, Carol and Cindy Freeman, Karen and Effie Buell, Debbie Gooding, Denise Horak, Teressa Trettin, and Mark Jones, and Diana Devonshire and Wendy Ousterhout of Sand Lake.

Also appearing on the program were 24 pupils from Wamplers Lake, Madison Center, Sand Creek, Blissfield and Weston.

TEEN TALK

By DEBBIE EARLING

The results of the elections for the 1966-67 Spanish Club officers will be announced this week. The fourth hour Spanish class gave a command performance of their version of "Cenicienta" (Cinderella) at the monthly meeting, April 27.

Arrangements are being completed concerning the Patricia Reed Scholarship. The fund will be increased annually and awarded to the Spanish Club applicant with the best qualifications in terms of scholastic standing, interest in the language, and general attitude.

The scholarship has been established to help finance a trip to a Spanish-speaking country or a summer study program in memory of Mrs. Patricia Reed, a former student. The scholarship is also avaailable to Mrs. Reed's surviving children.

The Junior Class will sponsor the annual Junior-Senior prom, May 14. The "Moderntones" will entertain from 9-12:30 p.m. at the Tecumseh Country Club. The theme is "Sayonara" and depicts a Japanese garden in full bloom.

Tickets are on sale in the study halls for $3 a couple. Charms for the girls and tie-racks for the fellows are also available for $.75 apiece.

The Teen Club will sponsor a dance featuring the music of the "Contemps" Saturday, April 30, from 8:30 to 11:30 at the Community Center.

Perhaps the most successful dance held at the High School this year was the "Battle of the Bands" last Saturday, April 23. The dance floor was filled all evening and few sat down except to rest, and then only briefly.

Three bands were featured; "The Serfs", "The Haunts", and "The Exiles". Each played for one hour. The activities were emceed by Ed Fortin from WLEN radio station.

Card of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS — Words cannot adequately express our deep appreciation for the many kind and sympathetic acts that came to us during the illness and death of our wife and mother Special thanks is extended to Paster Gero and Dr. Cook, other doctors, nurses, aides and administration of the Herrick Memorial Hospital. We cannot say enough for the many kindnesses shown us. We also wish to thank Green-Dunn Funeral Home, the LCW of Gloria Dei Church, neighbors, relatives, friends and American Cancer Society who helped to make our bereavement a little easier.

Dean Hebb Stars at Bat for THS

Baseball action for Tecumseh High School this week includes games with Adrian and Blissfield.

The Maples were slated to come here Wednesday, but the game had to be postponed one day due to wintery weather.

THS goes to Blissfield Friday.

In three Huron League contests during the past 10 days, Coach Carl Hale saw his squad win one and lose two.

The Indians scored twice in the sixth inning to take Airport, 7-5, with Dean Hebb getting the mound win.

Dave Kennel had two singles and drove in a pair of markers.

Tecumseh	020 212	7	4	3

Flat Rock won a squeeker, 3-2, pushing over the final run in the last half of the final frame on a disputed call at home plate.

Sheldon Pease started for the Indians, with Hebb taking over in the fourth.

Dean Hebb smashed a 325-foot home run over the right-center-field fence and added a pair of singles, but Tecumseh still lost its opener to Milan, 11-5.

Sharing the pitching chores were Scott Edwards, Hebb and Pease, neither of whom could stifle the Big Reds.

Mike Sharpe is Alternate Candidate

Michael Sharpe, a Tecumseh High School senior, has been named an alternate candidate for the Merchant Marine Academy.

Congressman Wes Vivian made the announcement, picking Paul J. Dixon of Brighton as the principal candidate.

Alternate candidates are ranked in competition with all other nominees from Michigan and will be given principal appointments if one of the named principal appointees fails to pass the medical requirements of the Academy.

Jaycee Baby Contest Nears Completion

Mrs. Charles Kapnick and Mrs. Roger Butler urge Tecumseh area residents to get their vote pennies in the cannisters this week for the Jaycee Auxiliary baby contest.

Pictures of the little candidates have been placed in the stores along with pertinent information about the youngsters.

Proud parents and friends are avidly watching the votes build up in the transparent containers.

A dollar bill appeared in the one for little Mike Walter.

Women Host Golf, Bridge Breakfast

The Women's bridge and golf committees of the Tecumseh Country Club will host a breakfast May 4, to open the ladies' golf season.

Bridge enthusiasts are invited to attend as both golf and bridge are on the agenda.

Breakfast will be served at 8:30. The committee urges members to come and enjoy a day of fun.

Baseball Try-Outs Saturday

All boys who will be 11 and 12 years old before August 1, and have played on a minor league team or registered for the first time, should report to Nelson Field on S. Union St. Saturday morning.

The 12 year old boys at 9 a.m. followed by the 11 year olds at 10:30 a.m. No boy will be allowed to register the day of the try-outs.

Pony League try-outs will also be held Saturday morning at the baseball diamond, Recreation Field. Try-outs will begin at 10 a.m., however, boys will be able to register at the try-outs due to the smaller amount of boys participating.

Boys who will be 13 and 14 years old before August 1, will be eligible to participate in this program.

WILSON MOTORS HONORED — Bud Vura and A. S. Borawski of Chrysler-Plymouth Division presented Harvey Wilson with a certificate last week, honoring his auto agency for "establishing a continuing Customer Care Program that encompasses the corporation's nationwide effort dedicated to customer satisfaction in every phase of sales and service." Mr. Wilson has been the local Plymouth dealer since 1953.

Local Auxiliary at Spring Meet

The Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary was represented at the Southwest District spring meeting of the Michigan Association of Hospital Auxiliaries by Mrs. Joseph Rohweder and Mrs. Neville Hart.

The event was held at the Hayes Motor Hotel in Jackson with the W. A. Foote Memorial Hospital Auxiliary as hostess.

Various workshops were held, a business meeting and election of officers and a luncheon with Horace B. Powell, director of publications for the W. K. Kellogg Foundation as guest speaker

The auxiliary is proud of the fact that Mrs. Joseph Rohweder was elected third vice-president and Mrs. Neville Hart, chairman of Hospital Week, thus two Tecumseh members are serving on the District Board for the coming year.

The Bixby Hospital Auxiliary and the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary have invited members of the Southwest District of MAHA to be their guests at the fall meeting this year.

The meeting will be held in Adrian in October, with the two auxiliaries acting as hostesses. More information will be announced when plans are completed on this later.

At present the 25th Anniversary Banquet to be held Thursday, April 28, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Herrick, is the event of the day for the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.

4-H Clubs Participate in Round-up

Members of the Tipton Jets, Ridgeway Sunny Rays, North Franklin Maidens and Britton-Macon Community 4-H Clubs participated in a Spring RoundUp Style Revue, April 15, in the Presbyterian Church.

Named to the Honor Group were Peggy Aebersold, Susan Platt, Darlene Daniels and Martha Osburn.

Receiving honorable mention were Jan Moeller, Lorrie Beevers, Lynn Winzeler and Diane Bebarowski.

Sewing and knitting projects were shown by 56 girls. The honor group modeled their garments at the Senior Style show in Walsh Hall, Siena Heights College, Saturday.

Council Accepts City Budget

Council accepted the 1966-67 city budget from City Manager Cal Zorn at a special session of Council Monday night.

The budget, which will have a public hearing May 9 at 7:30, lists expenditures at approximately $707,000 and income at $700,000.

Firemen Honor Mrs. MacGeorge

Tecumseh Firemen paid tribute to the wife of Fire Chief Wallace MacGeorge by attending her funeral service as a group Monday afternoon at the Gloria Dei Church.

The city was not left unprotected, however, since two firemen from each department in Palmyra, Britton, Holloway and Madison were stationed at the fire barn in case a blaze broke out during the service.

Arrangements were previously made by the Lenawee County Firemen's Association.

Jaycee Track Meet Here Saturday

The eighth annual Tecumseh Jaycee Relays will be held Saturday, April 30, with a field of 23 schools entered.

The class "B" schools are: Airport, Blissfield, Dundee, Flat Rock, Grosse Ile, Hillsdale, Mason, Milan, Saline, South Lyon, Willow Run (defending "B" champs) and host, Tecumseh.

The class "C" entries include Addison, Ann Arbor St. Thomas, Ann Arbor University High (class "D" but competing in "C"), Boysville, Clinton, Ida, Morenci (defending "C" champ), Napoleon, Onsted, Pinckney and Ypsilanti Roosevelt.

Field events will be staged in the morning beginning at 10 a.m.

Preliminaries in the 120-yard high hurdles and 100-yard dash will begin at 11 a.m.

The finals in all running events will start at 1:30 p.m. and will include the following relays:

Tecumseh medley relay (110-110-220-440).

Two mile relay.

480-yard shuttle hurdle relay.

880-yard relay.

Mile relay.

The Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce is again sponsoring the meet with Ken Killman, general chairman, Don Brazee, meet director, Ron Oestrike, starter and referee and Wayne Smith serving as Clerk of Course.

Merelin Young Gets Scholarship for MSU Program

Four Lenawee Young Farmers, now high school seniors, have been awarded the Lenawee County Banker's Association Scholarships for the Michigan State University Short Course for 1966-67.

They are:

Keith Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Russell of Morenci

John Knipp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Knipp of Hudson

William Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bailey of Jasper

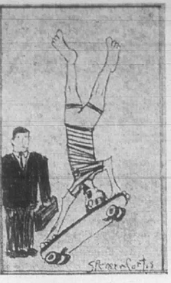
Merelin Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merelin A. Young of Tecumseh

The scholarships will assist the young men with the first year of a two-year course designed for boys interested in farming or related and supporting industries.

Paul Burns Awarded Land Contract Bid

Paul Burns, high school ag instructor and new councilman, was awarded a land maintenance contract for Herrick Hospital by Council, Monday night.

Mr. Burns entered his bid last October to the hospital board, which approved it on election day, April 4.



What, cancel my hospitalization! Why?

Two File Petitions

One incumbent and one newcomer have filed petitions for seats on the Tecumseh School Board.

Dr. Donald Phelan, incumbent serving out the term vacated by resignation of Herbert Simpson, has filed for one of the two four-year terms to be on the ballot.

Graham Fleming, executive at Stauffer Chemical Co. and who lives at 5999 E. Monroe Rd., has filed for a one-year term. His wife is principal at the Ridgeway Elementary School.

Petitions for the board may be obtained at the Board of Education office on W. Chicago Blvd. They must have at least 50 signatures of qualified voters and be filed by 4 p.m., Saturday, May 14.

Discuss Recent 4-H Style Show

Debbie Rader, Carol Rader and Pamela Winzler, first year sewing project members reported on the recent style show to the Lucky Clover 4-H Club which met last Tuesday with Mrs. William Rader.

Three girls displayed their aprons at the style show.

Members agreed to assist with the meal project at the spring horse sale in Adrian, April 29 and 30, at the fairgrounds, by furnishing pies.

Leathercraft sessions will start in two weeks for those interested in participating.

Mrs. Russell Starkey and Deborah Rader served refreshments.

Held in Kansas After Car Theft

A local youth and juvenile are being held now in Kansas, after a car theft here early last Thursday morning.

Caught in Iola, Kan., were Marvin Fox, 19, of 5265 Macon Rd., and a 16-year-old boy. Police Chief Murell Clark says no details have been given the local department.

Bill Fielder, conservation officer at Hayes State Park, had parked his car, a 1960 model behind the Strand Theatre.

School Supplies from Tecumseh Arrive in Ben Cat, Vietnam

Lt. Greg Mason (above center) hands a tiny Vietnamese student of Ben Cat School a writing tablet that came with more than 410 pounds of supplies furnished by Tecumseh on a volunteer basis. The program was started in January when Lt. Mason asked, via a letter to The Herald, if folks in his home town would like to help the 1,000 children of Ben Cat District attend classes in the town protected by his outfit, Battery B, 33rd Artillery of the First Infantry Division. Response was amazing, as Lt. Mason reported when the first items arrived. Below, are some of the students who'll be using the materials

D GRADE HERALD

Prepare Herald

Third grade students of Mrs. Carl Tower at St. Elizabeth School have prepared their own edition of The Herald, complete with original stories. Some of the articles and their authors appear below.

SPRING IS HERE
By KAY KITSON

"Spring is here! Yes, spring is here. You hear the birds singing and the bees are ringing. The children are playing. And the people are saying: "Spring is here!" Yes, spring is here!!

WEATHER REPORT
By JAMES HALASZ

Rain! Rain! Rain! That's all we'll be having for the month of April. But remember, "April showers bring May flowers."

TV CLASSES AT SCHOOL
By KATHY FUHRMAN

At school we watch TV to help us learn. We watch classes in art, science and literature. In an art class a lady told us how to make puppets. The lady on the Science program showed us films of the moon. Watching TV in school is fun.

MISSIONS
By KATHY DROUILLARD

Congratulations St. Elizabeth students for a job well done! The money that you gave to the Missions will really help them. I'm sure you will get a reward. God bless you.

WAR IN VIETNAM
By DONNA DI CARLO

There is a war going on in Vietnam. Our boys in the Armed Services are doing their part for freedom. What can we do? We can use our great weapon "Prayer" and help our soldiers. Let us pray for them daily. God bless them.

SUMMER AND THE SACRAMENTS
By DEBORAH TYER

In the summer you should remember Jesus. You should go to Mass every Sunday and receive Holy Communion. Let us go to confession more often in the summer. Summertime is fun time, but it's more fun when you're close to Jesus.

BATMAN???
By WAYNE OLIVER

Danny Devlin, 5 years old, of Carmichael, California, broke both arms when he jumped from a playhouse roof, pretending he was Batman. He learned the hard way.

BOOKS ARE INTERESTING FRIENDS
By PAUL LEMANSKI

Books are interesting friends. Friends that take you to see many places. The Tecumseh Library is full of the wonderful friends just waiting for you and me. Let's read more this summer. Let's read for fun. I'll see you at the Library!

It's A Fact

Did you know that in December, 1897, the Coast Guard Cutter BEAR volunteered to go to the aid of whaling ships frozen in near Point Barrow, Alaska.

After sailing as far as she could, the BEAR sent a rescue party mushing nearly 2,000 miles across the ice, driving a herd of 400 reindeer before them for food.

The rescue party reached its destination in March, 1898, and for four months staved off starvation among 500 natives and 300 marooned sailors until the Cutter BEAR got through in July, 1898.

This same Coast Guard Cutter carried Admiral BYRD to the Antarctic and fought as a man-of-war in World War II.

For further information concerning the past, present, and projected future of the Coast Guard, contact your Coast Guard Recruiter in the Federal Buildings, 234 Summit St., Toledo.

Strive to Be Best

By TOM RIORDAN

"You must strive to be the best in everything — the best student, the best player, the best cheerleader," Tony Mason, an assistant football coach at th University of Michigan, told Boysville students Sunday at the 17th annual athletic awards banquet.

He was pointing out the four secrets of becoming an "All-American in Life."

Excelling in everything that a youth attempts was one.

The first, according to Mr. Mason is spiritual soundness, noting "Be proud of your religion —speak not against any man's,"

"Have courage—to live up to your convictions, to say 'no' when others want you to do the wrong thing, courage to be a man. Be proud of yourself,"

"Have respect for your body, train, make sure it's the strongest and the best, mentally and physically. Respect your elders, those people who have done something for you, respect the girl you date," the speaker told the youths in his audience of 250.

"Work and work hard in what you're doing," Mr. Mason went on.

COMING TO Michigan two seasons ago, Mr. Mason previously had compiled a fantastic grid coaching record in Ohio high school circles, 87 wins, nine losses and seven ties. His final seven seasons were undefeated.

Over the years, he said, all the great men he came to know in sports had these four basic qualities — spiritual soundness, courage, desire to excel, respect.

Mr. Mason scoffed at the ancient bromide, "It's not whether you win or lose, but how you play the game."

"Play to win, always following the rules. There's no disgrace in defeat. When you lose, don't be ashamed, keep your head high—if you gave 100% of yourself!"

THE SPEAKER emphasized that excellence in studies was vital.

He said if a youth is a C student, but trying his best, that's fine. But if he earns C's when he is capable of A's, then "You're a bum."

Pointing out that America now badly needs men, he abhorred the trend among some boys to become feminine in dress and habits.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By MARTIN WHITAKER

Seventeenth Annual Athletic Awards Presentation took place at the Boysville Dining Hall on Sunday.

School Director, Brother Philip Armstrong, CSC, was the evening's master of ceremonies, with additional comments being added by head coach, Pat Conners, and Mr. William Crotty, State Warden of the Knights of Columbus.

Senior Moe Jacobs made a night of it, taking three trophies — the Thomas Robert Winnie Most Valuable Football Player Award, the Michigan State Council Knights of Columbus Most Valuable Back Award and the George Davis Memorial Most Valuable Basketball Player Award.

Seniors Joe Pawlus and Ed Johnson also figured in on football Awards. Johnson's efforts merited him the O'Neil-Nowicki Outstanding Lineman Award, while Pawlus received the Sinkule Sportsmanship Award.

Freshman Dave Rockwell promises unlimited potential to come. Rockwell received the Brother John Lavelle, CSC, Most Improved Freshman Football Player Award and the Spike Lawrence Most Improved Junior-Varsity Basketball Player Award.

Cheerleader Benny Thomas was presented the School Spirit Award by Brother Thomas Friel, CSC, moderator of the yell leader squad.

Brother Romain Healy, CSC, athletic director and Coach Connors gave out monograms.

Guest speaker was Tony Mason of the University of Michigan coaching staff.

Much credit for the evening's success must, of course, be given to the chef, Arthur Gaul, and his assistants for their preparation of a splendid buffet dinner.

Boysville's track team got off to a running start in River Raisin league competition against Ida last Wednesday. Boysville triumphed 54½-50½ in the season's opening meet, with key performances coming in by Moe Jacobs, Sam Kirkland and the 880 relay team, consisting of Armand Boisvenue, Max Phelps, Bill Pichette and Moe Jacobs.

Boysville scoring was based on eight first places, three seconds, and two thirds.

On the other hand, Boysville's baseball squad fared not quite so well in a pre-season, non-league game with Madison. Madison pitching doomed Boysville to an 8-5 defeat.

Science Church Will Observe Centennial

Christian Science Churches of Michigan, in observance of the Centennial of Christian Science, will present Erwin D. Canham, editor-in-chief of the Christian Science Monitor, in an address on the subject, "The Spiritual Revolution," Tuesday, May 3, in Cobo Arena, at 8 p.m.

Governor George Romney will introduce Mr. Canham, who will explore these questions:

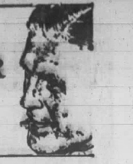
What's behind the explosive breakthroughs taking place in mankind's material knowledge? What is their effect on the life and purpose of the individual?

Can religious or spiritual discoveries help us to understand and control the physical changes taking place? Are science and religion really in conflict?

Can the scientific approach help to affirm the existence and deeper meaning of God?

Mrs. Gary Abner, Mrs. Robert Stone' and Mrs. Albert Neuman are planning to attend. Admission is free and is open to the public.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS



The people of Michigan must not be misled by current legislative action relating to drinking drivers.

This legislation now under consideration does not deal with our real problem. It deals only with stiffer penalties, and this is not our greatest current need. The problem is convictions, not penalties.

We now have stiff penalties which can subject offenders to a 90-day jail sentence and a fine of up to $100 for a first offense, conviction of a misdemeanor including a one-year jail sentence and a fine of up to $1,000 for a second offense, and conviction of a felony including imprisonment of one-to-five years and a fine of up to $5,000 for a third offense — if these penalties can be and are applied.

In addition, the Department of State, on conviction, automatically suspends this license for 90 days and can suspend for 2 years.

Our greatest problem in dealing with the drinking driver, who today is involved in more than half of the fatal accidents in our state, is to have an effective means of enforcement and conviction under present laws.

We badly need legislation which will overcome major current obstacles to securing meaningful convictions — obstacles such as the lack of convincing evidence in our courts, the hamstringing of firm enforcement, general public empathy toward this problem.

This is why I have recommended action which would strengthen the ability of our law enforcement officials to secure convictions and get off our streets and highways those who have more respect for a bottle than a human life.

What we need is either an implied consent law such as has been recommended by all states as part of a uniform traffic safety program for our nation, or an expressed consent law which would do essentially the same thing and possibly overcome certain technical objections raised to the implied consent concept.

By no means should this legislation dealing with the question of penalties be considered an excuse for not getting to the heart of the problem.

I again urge the Legislature to consider action on the broad traffic safety program which I and others have proposed. It is the time to avert, not avoid, the human misery and economic loss on Michigan's streets and highways.

97 YEARS YOUNG — Mrs. Lena Poucher observed the 97th anniversary of her birth, April 22, 1869, in Raisin township, Friday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marie Listman, of Tipton. Pictured with Mrs. Poucher are her daughter, Mrs. Listman; grandson, Clayton Greenwald; great-grandson, Jack Greenwald and great-great-grandchildren, Clay and Lori Greenwald. Mrs. Poucher also has a son, Bernard, of Clinton. There are a total of six grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren. Until three years ago, Mrs. Poucher was active and when 80 years young played the wedding march for her grandson's wedding. Although feeble in body, her spirit and mentality have not diminished and cards and visits of her friends are a great source of pleasure to her.

Macon Notes

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE, JR.

Children's Day will be observed, with several of the children taking part in the Church Service Sunday. This will be the beginning of Family Week, and all parents are urged to attend Sunday School and Church Service, Sunday.

The Faith Circle will meet Thursday, May 5, at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Eugene Hill will have the program and Mrs. Lora Hasted the devotions.

The Annual Spring Detroit Conference meeting will be held in Pontiac Methodist Church, Tuesday, May 3.

The Joy Circle will hold its meeting Wednesday evening, May 4, at 8 p.m., with Mrs. Andrew Goodin and Mrs. Edmond Mueller assisting. Mrs. William Rhoades will have the program.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference will be held in the Macon Church Friday, May 6, at 7:30 p.m. A special vote will be taken on the purchase of additional land. All members are urged to be present.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rowe and family spent Sunday in Kalamazoo, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kovach and family. The Kovachs formerly lived in Tecumseh and Mr. Kovach was teaching in the Britton-Macon Schools.

Mrs. Harold Kuder, Church School Superintendent, was the Scripture reader, during this service.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Noble and daughter, Judy, and Mrs. Edith Hampshire, of Chicago, came Saturday to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore. Sunday all were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carey, Sr., of Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bigelow entertained Friday evening for dinner Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hendershot, of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bigelow, Harvey Powers and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow, Mary Beth and Robert. The occasion honored the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Hendershot and the Clayton Bigelows.

Mrs. Ronald Corl, Mrs. Harold Ruhl, Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg, Mrs. Dean Moore, Mrs. Eugene Hill and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore were in Monroe last Thursday, attending the Annual Spring Meeting of the Ann Arbor District Woman's Society of Christian Service. Mrs. Moore was installed as vice-president.

You may save $6 to $8 per acre with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia: lowest cost nitrogen in the field.

The reason is, anhydrous ammonia gives you far more nitrogen per pound than any other nitrogen fertilizer. Which means it takes far less Dow Anhydrous Ammonia to do the job than it does with any other form of nitrogen fertilizer.

If you're planting corn on corn, it will take 150 to 200 pounds of nitrogen per acre to decay the old stalks and still have the nitrogen you need for high yields. Supply this nitrogen with Dow Anhydrous Ammonia and you may save as much as $6 to $8 an acre. And boost crop yield quality and feed grain protein content while you do it. It's so long-lasting, one application is all you need. See us today for details. And save some money for a change.

What will it cost to control foxtail and weeds in your corn?

$1 an acre for chemicals.

That's right. Just $1 an acre for the chemicals that will kill or stunt the growth of the weeds and grasses competing with your corn. They're part of the Dow Leaf-Lifter Program that can increase your yield up to 10%. Begin the program when your corn is between 8" and 12" high, but not over 20". Simply mount a Dow Leaf-Lifter unit on your tractor or cultivator before spraying. It flicks up the corn leaves as it's pulled along, directing the spray on the weeds and grasses. Within two weeks after spraying, the weeds and grasses are stunted or dying—while your corn thrives on. Without competition.

Ask your Dow Farm Chemicals supplier for the details on the Leaf-Lifter Program. And the chemicals that go with it—Dowpon® herbicide for controlling giant and common foxtails or pigeon grass, and either Esteron® 99, Esteron 99® Concentrate or Formula 40® weed killers for controlling broad-leaved weeds such as pigweed and cocklebur. Remember, all the help and information you want is free, and all the chemicals you need cost just $1 an acre. Robert Hammond Speaks Locally

Robert Hammond, the executive director of the Michigan Temperance Foundation, will speak to the congregation of the First Methodist Church, Sunday morning on the work currently being done to keep a state lottery out of Michigan.

In his message he will tell how concerned Christians can work together to help meet one of the greatest challenges facing the church today.

Since joining the Temperance Foundation's staff in 1953, Mr. Hammond has spoken across the state in many high schools and churches. His present responsibilities include serving as the Foundation's legislative agent in Lansing.

According to a staff reporter of The State Journal, Mr. Hammond has an unusual facility for lining up unlikly coalitions to help this particular cause when the chips are down.

Senator Stanley F. Rozkycki, D-Detroit, described Hammond's organization as "the most effective group in Lansing."

Although he patiently waits to contact specific members of the legislature and describes them as friendly and willing to listen, Mr. Hammond said, "But I really get my greatest support from the legislator's constituents back home."

The 10 a.m. service was arranged through the church Christian Social Concerns Commission.

Book Mark

News from the Tecumseh Library

New books ready for you to borrow at your Public Library:

SOUND OF INSECTS, a who-dun-it by Mildred Davis.

THE GROVE OF EAGLES, a dramatic novel of Elizabeth's England, and the Second Spanish Armada.

WALL STREET MADE EASY, an unconventional guide to profitable investing, by Ellen Williamson. Includes a wealth of hard-headed advice on stocks, bonds, and brokers, garnished with the quietly entertaining and witty observations of a serious, successful investor.

MY LIFE IN AND OUT OF BASEBALL by the famous Willie Mays.

FODOR'S GUIDE TO EUROPE. Complete coverage of all Europe, including the new and independent tourist countries of Cyprus and Malta; tips and hints by experts, enabling even the first-time tourist to travel abroad with the ease of a veteran.

MENFREYA IN THE MORNING by Victoria Holt. There is a legend at Menfreya that one of the early Menfreys concealed his mistress in the house and that she was killed by his jealous wife. Ever after the clock on the tower has stopped when a Menfrey is about to die.

COLUMBELLA by Phyllis Whitney. A new novel of romantic suspense.

BOY GRAVELY, a novel of the fury of musical genius, by Iris Dornfeld.

IT CAN'T ALWAYS BE CAVIAR, the fabulously daring adventures of an involuntary secret agent by Johannes Simmel.

A DOCTOR COMES TO BAYARD by Elizabeth Seifert.

THE GUN GARDEN by Paul Stanton; an R.A.F. story of love and war, humor and sadness.

GREENSTONE by Sylvia Ashton-Warner. From its opening lines, GREENSTONE pulls the reader into the heart of a huge, eccentric family, into an exotic landscape, into an atmosphere pulsating with life. It is a novel about an "impossible" marriage out of which an impossibly wonderful world of love and closeness is born. All of this set in New Zealand.

THE NAKED RUNNER by Francis Clifford. Set mainly in Leipzig, this story tells how Sam Laker, civilian, but a veteran of World War II intelligence, reluctantly agrees to act as temporary unpaid agent for the West during a private business trip to East Germany. The appalling dilemma that Laker is drawn into produces an astonishing sequence of events in East Germany and Copenhagen.

THE EMBEZZLER by Louis Auchincloss. Guy Prime became a legend in his lifetime but the legend is one of betrayal and infamy. For the scandal of his embezzlement brought down the delicately balanced structure of the Stock Exchange.

SISTERS AND BROTHERS by Janet Stevenson. This is a powerful novel showing the example of the lessons learned today when northern whites venture into the South to "help" the Negro. It is also one of the most moving accounts to date of the true possibility not just of brotherhood, but of family love between black and white.

A GENEROUS MAN by Reynolds Price. This new novel is at once a comic story of great brilliance, a deceptively profound study of the passing into manhood of Milo Mustian and a pastoral of beauty and variety in which the sights and sound of rural North Carolina are evoked by a stylist of great insight.

MRS. STEE REEVES AND HER BROTHER, JOHN PAPP

Happy Reunion After 60 Years

Nuremberg, about 1906, Mrs. Steve Reeves, then Julia Papp, said auf Wiedersehen to her brother, John, and left for the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeves now own a 50-acre plot of beautiful farm land north of Ridgeway on Mills-Macon Rd.

Since that day in 1906 John Papp went through two world wars as a member of German heavy artillery batteries. Mrs. Reeves lost contact with him, and, in fact, was not sure he still lived.

Sixty years passed and last summer the first opportunity to find out what really happened to John came to Mr. and Mrs. Reeves.

A friend, Pete Kotona, of Milan, visited the Nuremberg area and at the request of Mr. and Mrs. Reeves, he searched for and found John.

Support arrangements and visa were completed and April 5, 1966, Mr. Papp flew to Metropolitan Airport, Detroit, for reunion with his sister.

He was 15 when she last saw him and is now 75. Needless to say, his appearance was somewhat changed. However, Mrs. Reeves claims she knew him on sight.

For John, this visit to the U. S. can only be a short one. He farms near Nuremberg and is the father of two sons and a daughter. With much to keep him busy in Germany, Mr. Papp will return during October.

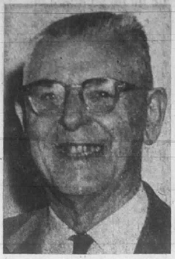
Help Dickinson Celebrate 77th Year

By DOROTHY GRIGG



Fathers, sons and guests at the Father-Son banquet, sponsored by the Men's Council of the Presbyterian Church, helped Fred C. Dickinson celebrate his 77th birthday anniversary, Monday evening.

Duncan Oliphant told about many events in Mr. Dickinson's life and of his service to the church. Fred has been a member of the church for 63 years and a member of the choir for 57 years.

Born in Waterloo, Ind., he came to Tecumseh with his parents, graduating from Tecumseh High School in 1907. He attended Alma College, where he met Hazel Fraser, whom he married in 1912.

Fred was employed by the United States Postal Service, first as a clerk and then as assistant postmaster from 1909 until his retirement in 1951.

Mention was made of the happy times the family spent and still do at Douglas Lake, near Lovells, where the Dickinsons have a cottage.

Much enjoyment has been given to family and friends by Fred C. Dickinson over the years with his music, both sacred and barbershop.

He sang with quartets from high school days and his solos have been numerous.

Monday evening he contributed two to the program, "Duna" by McGill and "Poor Man's Garden" by Kennedy Russell. He was accompanied by Mrs. Fred Oberlin.

Fred is a past master of the Tecumseh Masonic Lodge and has served as secretary since 1928.

He recently married a school friend of past years, Laura Leonard Bell, from Seattle, Wash.

Dr. William Adams served as toastmaster at the banquet, paying tribute to the mothers and daughters who prepared and served the Swiss steak dinner and also the sons who made table decorations and favors.

Fred F. Dickinson and his son, Tim, gave toasts to the fathers and sons. Group singing was led by Fred C. Dickinson.

The speaker, John Shaw, of the Lenawee County YMCA held the attention of both fathers and sons as he told of his experiences in youth work and the upcoming building under construction.

Two guests from India, Mohan Morab and Vilas Lele, were introduced. They arrived in this country for the first time April 16, from Bombay.

Black Light Dazzles

By MAXINE CALHOUN

CLINTON — Tricky lighting effects, made possible by luminous paint and 'black light was a novel feature of the band show, "Dazzlin Dixie," Thursday and Friday nights at the high school.

Glo-lighted hula hoops twirled on the darkened stage created rhythmic patterns of color, as did the Texas Drill Team marching to "Yellow Rose of Texas" in black-lighted hats and boots.

An enjoyable interlude of impromptu organ music by Kris Humble and Jerry Porter was a prelude to the performance both evenings. The organ was provided by Flanders Music of Tecumseh.

Versatile Jerry then hustled on stage where he was featured on the trumpet in the dance band and Dixieland Band numbers. Kris was a member of the dance chorus.

AMONG THE vocalists were LuAnn Rhoades, who sang "Blues in the Night;" Charles Brown, "Sweet Georgia Brown;" and Sylvia Williams, "Basin Street Blues."

Attired in pert green costumes, the 12-member dance chorus danced to "Swanee" and — wearing brief, black-skirted costumes, belted with red bow sashes, they danced and sang to "Way Down Yonder in New Orleans." Mrs. Karl Wirt directed with the choreography. Mrs. Ronald Morgan assisted with the chorus costumes.

The Necessities, Clinton's well-known guitar and drum combo played "Wipe Out" to deafening applause.

Comic Johnnie Steffens gave a hilarious performance as an obstreperous child in a take-off of an Art Linkletter show.

The spotlight was on talented trumpeter, Dave Hawkins in the spirited rendition by the dance band of "St. Louis Blues."

SKILLED PIANIST Melissa Mattis, accompanied the performers.

Directed by Karl Wirt, school band director, the fast-paced show provided a fine evening's entertainment to an appreciative audience.

In fact, the crowd was so large Friday night that curtain time was delayed until the folks lined up for tickets could be seated.

Truesdales Donate $400

CLINTON — Four new majorette costumes arrived this week for the Clinton marching band, it was announced by Band Booster president, Mrs. Richard Sharpe.

A recent gift of $400 from Mayor and Mrs. John Truesdale covered the entire cost of the uniforms.

This completes a year and a half of outstanding effort by Band Boosters and their president, Mrs. Sharpe, in which the group raised $7,400 to purchase new uniforms for the 72-member marching band, the drum major and four majorettes.

The majorette outfits have a red top, white shorts and white fur busby hat.

The Band Boosters now have on hand about $600 with which to start a fund to pay some portion of the cost of sending band members to a band camp Aug. 29 to Sept. 3. A sum of $180 was raised in a recent Tag Day event.

Band Director, Karl Wirt and his wife recently visited Camp Walden on Long Lake, located a few miles southeast of Cheboygan and reported on the excellent facilities available there for the week of band training sessions and recreation.

The camp, directed by Lawrence Stevens, has facilities for 250 youth during the regular summer camp season, and it is expected that at least 60 Clinton band members will be able to attend the camp this fall.

ALL ACCOMMODATIONS, food and service is provided by the camp at a total cost of $36 for the six-day stay, per person.

Although much time would be devoted to band sessions, sectionals and squad drills, Mr. Wirt emphasized that the camp would also provide an opportunity for all kinds of recreation. It is hoped that brief side trips might be taken to nearby Mackinac Island and other scenic spots in the area.

Band Booster members will plan fund raising events such as a chicken barbecue this summer to assist band members with the cost. There will be a need for several adults to accompany the group.

The completion of the uniform project will insure a sharp appearance by the Clinton marching band when they journey to Holland, May 14, to participate in the Holland Tulip Parade and band competition.

The band has also been invited to march in Tecumseh's Safety Check parade May 18.

The annual banquet for band members and families will be held in the high school May 9 at 6:30 p.m. The planned cooperative dinner is arranged by the Band Boosters.

Local Ministers Will Participate in Spiritual Day

CLINTON — Local ministers will participate in the community observance of Michigan Week, Sunday, May 15, which has been designated Spiritual Foundation Day.

Three local churches involved in the proposed national union of Protestant denominations, (Episcopal, Methodist, United Church of Christ and Presbyterian) will exchange pulpits May 15.

The Rev. Donald Heacock, St. Johns Episcopal Church, will speak at the United Church of Christ; Rev. George Miller of the Methodist Church will speak at St. John's and the Rev. Paul McKenna of the UCC will speak at the Methodist Church.

A joint meeting will be held May 16 at 8 p.m., for the three church boards and all others interested in consideration of the union and its involvements at the 'grass roots' level.

May Festival Music and Dance Will Be Held

CLINTON — The May Festival of Music and Dance will be presented by 400 students in grades three through six, Sunday, May 1, at 2:30 p.m., in the Clinton High School.

The public is invited to the program, which will be staged as a "theatre-in-the-round" in the auditorium, under the direction of Mrs. Donald Geiger, vocal music director.

Features will include the Winding of the May Pole and folk dancing by the fourth and fifth grades, square dancing by the sixth grade, chorus numbers from the musicals, "Oliver" and "The Fantastiks."

Guest performers at the Elementary School event will be a chorus composed of seventh and eighth graders. The chorus will sing several hit songs from recent musicals.

Featured instrumentalists will be sixth graders, Kim Rhoades, ukelele; and a brass trio, Bob Dowling, Charles Shreve and Dan Olsen.

More than 100 youngsters will take part in the dances.
